4,000 BASQUE CHILDREN FOR ENGLAND THROUGH ITALIAN SPECTACLES

REFUGEES LEAVE WHILE REBELS ADVANCE

Bilbao's Denial... NO OFFER OF TERMS MADE BY GENERAL FRANCO... 4,000 Basque children left Bilbao for Southampton yesterday, while the insurgents attacking strongly a seven-mile front, advanced, according to their claims two and a half miles nearer Bilbao.

Large scale Italian military intervention is alleged by the Valencia authorities, who claim to have irrefutable evidence to lay before the League of Nations, while a London newspaper publishes an interview with a German aviator who volunteered from Munich long before the Non-intervention Agreement was signed.

Intervention Allegations

While the battle for Bilbao raged in the north, 4,000 Basque children embarked on the Spanish ship "Talland" for Southampton. Thousands of children in pouring rain as seven Italian military aircraft were seen in the sky over the children. The Italian planes were seen to be flying in a low altitude, and were seen to be firing at the children. KENYA MAY HAVE A REAL ROAD POLICY DATA ARE PILING UP IN THE P.W.D.

Budget Hopes High

The East African Standard's call for a real road policy for Kenya in place of the patch as patch can—practice of the past has stirred high quarters.

The P.W.D. says it is on the mark waiting the pistol shot from the Legislative Council.

But-It Will Cost Money

Kenya is to have a long term policy to last. At least, Mr. C. H. Wainman the Acting Director of Public Works is very optimistic about it and in anticipation he has selected much data to support the case of the preparations already made in November 1935.

PROBLEM THIS YEAR

The P.W.D. approval will be that of the complete programme as proposed over several years. This year, in addition to the work for the roads, there undoubtedly will be need for special work in their own districts, and when the East African Standard's investigation of the P.W.D. is done, it will talk about Kenya's last made the last of these replies was in hand. In due course—and it is hoped, there will emerge a real road policy for the Kenya Colony, says the Acting Director.

WIED IT ON THE LUBWA

As is generally known, the Lubwa-Kericho Road is being constructed to a minimum specification and the experience gained as a result will be available when the time comes to form the main trunk road to the interior.

KENYA GETTING READY

For years past, he explained the Department has had to fit its road programme to the financial needs of the country and it has not been possible to put a real road policy in effect. But as soon as it was seen that the country was emerging from the depression of the P.W.D. it got busy. Old schemes and recommendations were brought to the attention of the Government.

THE GREAT TRADE: "SOMETHING LIKE CRAZE"

To the Editor, "E. A. Standard."
Sir.—The Municipal Committee is a masterly piece of work in the interests of Kenya. But in the meantime the needs of the moment must not be abandoned in the name of the future as things are not as they should be. Unrest and something like these in the local trade, disintegration and temporary ruin of the pig industry...

It is merely vital that in a comparatively small community such as we are, there should be very little at large with the other...

This film will give you finer, clearer snaps—because—
It's very fast. "Verichrome" is quick to snap up every little detail.
It's double-coated. This means "Verichrome" records detail in the light parts of the picture and in the dark parts, too.
It has remarkable latitude. Even if you give too long an exposure, "Verichrome" gets the picture just the same.

THE NAVY ON ITS TOES

Another Astaire-Rogers Hit

Fred and Ginger two don't even need the "Astaire and Rogers" with their grace and muscle for as sufficient inducements to everybody to go and see "Follow the Fleet." This is the fourth film made by this amazing partnership. "Music entertainment," first came "The Day After Tomorrow," then "Roberta," next "Top Hat," and the next sequence follows.

The lyrics are by Irving Berlin as usual, and they include songs already well known. "All by Myself in One Basket," "Let a Few More Minutes Pass," "How Can I Get Where Am I Going?" and "I'll Be Home in a Flash." The outstanding dance sequence is called "Let Yourself Go," and it is performed on the San Francisco water-front when the Fleet arrives in.

In some of the scenes Fred goes very nautical, and the idea of how sailor's lingo should be danced is enough to make any man who ever went down to the sea in a ship jump overhead from sheer joy. It is said that the largest dancing-going studio lullaby ever made was made for this film.

Who Ginger Rogers was making "Follow the Fleet" the company manager for COLUMBIA for their own production. There have been repeated rumors that Ginger Rogers is to leave music to concentrate more serious stuff as she wants to climb the heights of dramatic interpretation, but the partnership is not yet dissolved.

According to Fred Astaire, there is an astonishing number of people in the world who want to dance in to show and they will write to him for a few tips. He says that to be really just means him. He can no more tell them "how the whole ground" than he can describe in responsible manner the reasons to which he dances. But he is certain of one thing: it takes years and years to make a good dancer, and he himself has put in as many as eight hours a day on a single new step.

Women Don't Like Beards!

The Education of a King

"All the King's Horses" is a bright, romantic musical comedy with five song hits in it, and with Carl Brisson, Mary Ellis and Edwina Davenport in the cast. Brisson plays a dual role, that of the king who knows everything about conferences and nothing about women, and that of a handsome Hollywood actor, the double of the king. The conclusion is in the hands of the two matrons in the title for most of the comedy scene.

The Coronation Service in Westminster Abbey
For the first time in screen history a coronation scene was shown in Westminster Abbey at the Coronation Service of King George V and Queen Elizabeth, and all the pageantry associated with this nine-hundred year old ceremony has been captured for the benefit of millions of people all over the world. The films reached Nairobi by the last week of the preceding week.

British movie-makers have filmed their scenes in Festival colour, and the splendid sight of the costly robes and glittering gowns, the wealth of colour and variety of costume, set against the ancient walls of the Abbey, should grip all eyes. The Festival colour picture is being exhibited at the Empire and Capitol Theatres all the week. The Playhouse Theatre has secured a magnificent screen showing the stately service from another viewpoint, with all its attendant beauty and dignity. This film has its own interest, with quiet decoration and is still drawing enormous crowds in England.

Although Mary Ellis has spent most of her life in England she is an American by birth. She first attracted attention as a singer at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York at the age of sixteen, and has since been starred on both sides of the Atlantic. This is her first American film, but she has already appeared in two English pictures with Conrad Veidt.

Carl Brisson is rapidly acquiring popularity as Hollywood's best dressed man. In England he is

AFTERMATH OF A MURDER

She Killed the other Woman

A long drama, based on a play by Jacques Deval, "Journal of a Crime," tells of a jealous wife who kills her husband's lover, and the dreadful secret, known only to herself and to her husband, sets her hours until at last she is forced by misery to wander out alone to find the Public Prosecutor with the object of confessing to the crime.

Ruth Chatterton, as the unhappy and nervous stricken wife, and Adolphe Menjou, as Paul, the playwright husband, are both well suited to their parts and give convincing accounts of a husband and wife living through a terrible horror.

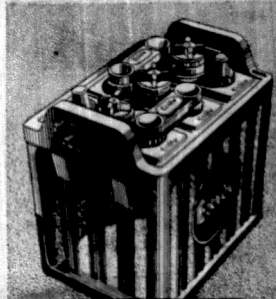

Ruth Chatterton in "Journal of a Crime."

acted, is that of Costell (Nora Madsen) a woman who has held up a bank job before the murder and gets charged with the murder of the actress, Odette.

At the time that Ruth Chatterton went from the stage to film she was one of the most promising of the younger actresses. Her first film appearance was with Ruth Chatterton, who picked her out as the leading lady without knowing who she was. On the expiration of her present contract she hopes either to produce or to direct pictures. Her years she has suffered from a supposed desire to remedy with the problems of diversion and production rather than to devote all her time to acting.

The Film: "JOURNAL OF A CRIME"
The Stars: Ruth Chatterton, Adolphe Menjou
The Verdict: Well-acted drama.

ELY GERALD

Farewell Appearance on Wednesday

As already announced Miss Ely Gerald, better known in Kenya as Mrs. Garry Cook, is leaving the Colony shortly to re-enter the world of entertainment where she made a name for herself some years ago as a dancer of great ability. During her stay in Kenya she has appeared only on very rare occasions, the most recent being the Cabaret at the Coronation Ball in Government House, Nairobi. Unusual interest therefore attaches to the announcement that she will give a farewell performance at Tor's Hotel on Wednesday and Thursday at 10 p.m. and again at midnight. Details of the occasion are set out in the hotel's advertisement in another column.

Gordon Harker in a Curse and a Comedy

Binnie Hale's Taking Ways

The film version of Walter Hackett's play "Hyde Park Corner" is an important work, mainly thanks to Gordon Harker and Binnie Hale. The story is an original one, and the scenes authentic scenes laid in the London of 150 years ago in a unique explanation of the origin of Hyde Park Corner. The story shifts to the present day and a vengeance there develops. A parallel is mentioned to the husband, and the characters in the parallel are in different guises. When Gordon gathered together the plot of a psychic memory is lifted for Hyde Park Corner. The significance of their first meeting is played in part in the setting of the scene.

variant witness, Howard, is interpreted by Gordon Harker as Charles (played by Robert Howard) it is clear that she knows that Howard is in King's Court and she helped herself to his pocket book when he was on Victoria Street. Charles is shown in her best cases and his attempts to keep track of Sophie and to clear up the mystery are productive of much amusement. Cicely Courtneidge in an Apache Legend

Cicely Courtneidge and her husband are a comedy duo. Robert Somers and his band providing the musical accompaniment, and the most successful of the duo. "Aunt Sally" has the lot, with a comedy and a subject thrown in for makeweight. Only being interviewed by a special dancer, of doing an apache dance with a partner, she is not to be missed.

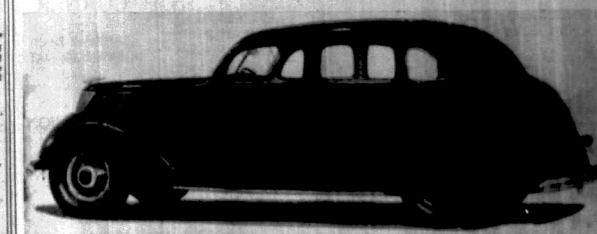

Cicely Courtneidge was born in Sydney, Australia. She made her first appearance on the stage at the Prince's Theatre, Manchester, in a "Maitland's Night" in 1908. After that she has been in London, and she has been one of the most regular performers on the London stage, and her fame for comedy has been transferred to every corner of the Empire, spending most of the months of the year in the theatre. She made her film career in 1920 and was in "The Glass Trap" and "Pink's Boy." She also gave PECULIAR BUT NOT ILLEGAL. An Indian Material Acquired. Further evidence was heard in the Resident Magistrate's Court in the case in which Charles Kanga, a man of about 30, was charged with the murder of an Indian contractor, is charged with having driven his car of a speed of 100 in a manner dangerous to the public in Oshana Street on the night of April 5. Allegations to the effect that the accused was driving at a speed of 100 mph were made by witnesses in his case. The Resident Magistrate in his judgment said that he was not prepared to find on the evidence submitted that the accused was driving in a dangerous manner. He had formed the opinion that the prosecution witnesses had exaggerated what happened. He thought these witnesses had been paid to say that the accused was driving at a speed of 100 mph. He said that he had a sense of humor but not a sense of humor. He said that he had a sense of humor but not a sense of humor. He said that he had a sense of humor but not a sense of humor.

NONDESCRIPTS' NARROW WIN OVER ELDEROY GRAND RUGGER MATCH ON PRINCE OF WALES SCHOOL GROUND

The Tables Reversed A LAST MINUTE TRY GIVES HOME MEN THE VICTORY

Perfect conditions prevailed for the return rugby match between Non-descripts and Elderoys on Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal, the pitch excellent, and the attendance was one of the best seen since the start of the season.

It was a grand game from start to finish, thrilling beyond the usual bounds of the game. The margin at the end was a narrow one, but the home side was victorious.

Non-descripts were first to get going and in a few minutes had brought down some fifteen yards of scrum. Immediately after the scrum King pulled up a loose ball and over W and J head to Pevler the last named passing out to Anderson who was waiting for a touch on the goal line.

It was very early in the first quarter that Pevler with Non-descripts was having a territorial attack. The kicking on both sides was very accurate, and the scrum was a feature of the game.

Non-descripts were on the first try, and the home side followed. The game was a close one, with both sides showing their skill and determination.

Anderson's fine effort in the second half was a turning point in the game. His try, which was scored in the last few minutes, secured the victory for the home side.

BRITISH PEOPLE LIKE POMP & CIRCUMSTANCE

WHEN IT IS ASSOCIATED WITH THEIR KING

Unpopular Suggestion:

HOUSE OF COMMONS IN FAVOUR OF SIMPLER CEREMONIAL

That the vast majority of the British people favour a continuation of the pomp and circumstance associated with the Throne was a contention made in the House of Commons when the leader of the Opposition suggested that there should be a simplification of ceremonial.

Monarchy's Vital Service

The Liberal leader, Mr. Archibald Sinclair believed that the Monarchy was performing a vital service. He thought, however, there was general agreement that a greater measure of simplicity should be introduced into the régime of the monarchy, a process which in fact had been going on for many years. The House then adopted the resolution demanding that the Civil List be reduced by 20 per cent to £92,000,000.

AT ST. PAUL'S
King and Queen at Empire Day Service

The King and Queen paid a second visit to the City of London within a week when they drove to an open carriage to St. Paul's to attend the Empire Day service there which was also a thanksgiving service for the Coronation.

Queen Mary, and 20 other royal ladies were also present in the Cathedral and around them in the British Prime Minister and other Ministers, the Dominion, Prime Minister and representatives of India and the Continent. The coronation numbers 4,000 and included 1,400 people from overseas.

The Prime Minister of Ceylon, Mr. Maunsoorasinghe, read the Ceylon message and the Rev. M. E. Ashley, Moderator of the Federal Council of the Evangelical Free Churches of England and the oldest leader of the time the Archbishop of York presided over the service and the Prime Minister pronounced the Blessing.

Mr. Winston Churchill hoped that Mr. Attlee would not press his motion in the House. He was hoping that the last few weeks there had been an adequate period for the Government to consider the matter before the House.

DEATH, AGED NINETY-SEVEN, OF JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER

Made £400,000,000 and Gave Half of it Away

A Roster message announces the death at Daytona Beach, Florida of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, aged 97. The cause of death was myocarditis—inflammation of the muscular substance of the heart.

Mr. Rockefeller was not only at one time the wealthiest but one of the world's most remarkable men. He started his working life selling potatoes and rose to be the world's greatest industrialist.

He is reputed to have given away nearly two hundred million pounds.

Palatial home at Promised Point, Rockefeller is said to be in possession.

A Born Capitalist

Cleveland newspaper pointed out Rockefeller's remarkable record. He was a self-made man who started as a poor boy and became one of the world's greatest industrialists.

He had been an industrialist since his youth and had built up a vast empire of steel, oil, and other industries.

He had been an industrialist since his youth and had built up a vast empire of steel, oil, and other industries.

Bought Oil First

When everything failed, the fortune was still enough to buy oil for £20,000 into new lines.

Just before President Lincoln was assassinated, Rockefeller had bought 100,000 shares of the Great West.

There was an almost incredible story about his marriage day. It was a fortune of £100,000, which he had made in 1865.

Rockefeller was a well-proportioned man, with a strong, muscular body. He was a man of great energy and ambition.

FIGHT FOR UGANDA MINING CLAIMS

OUTRAGE BY BIG GANG OF NATIVES

Prospectors Driven Off

EUROPEAN FELLED BY MUGANDA WITH NAIL-STUCCED CLUB

A fight at midnight between a gang of distressed Baganda with Swahili leaders and European and Indian prospectors, who they prevented from staking out mining claims at Kaberi, was described recently in the Mbarizi District Court.

The leader and three others of the gang were convicted and sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from one month to four months.

Five claims, open for re-staking at midnight, were picketed by hundreds of the gang armed with nail-studded clubs, and three Europeans and one Indian were driven off, one European being felled to the ground by a blow that incapacitated him for several days.

A Great Adventure

A great deal of concentrated attention has been recently directed to the problem of the future of the youth of Kenya. It is becoming increasingly clear that the difficulties which we approach insurmountable without detailed study are now yielding to examination. One of the steps taken jointly by various bodies including the Kenya Society, Nairobi Teachers, the Municipal Council and the Department of Education, was the holding of a conference in Nairobi, Kenya, on the 14th and 15th inst. The object of this conference was to discuss the future of the youth of Kenya. It was an important one, and it is hoped that the results of it will be of great value to the youth of Kenya.

EMPIRE DAY CELEBRATED IN KENYA GOVERNOR ADDRESSES CHILDREN OF MOMBASA

Nairobi School Ceremonies BISHOP AND NEED FOR SPIRIT OF PERSONAL SERVICE

His Excellency the Governor at Mombasa and the Colonial Secretary at Nairobi led the Colony's celebrations of Empire Day.

The Mombasa programme included a children's parade in the address by the Governor, and sports for all communities. At Nairobi the principal event was at the Prince of Wales School where, at a usual Empire Day and an Empire Day service were combined.

The Bishop of Mombasa was one of those present at the Prince of Wales School ceremony and spoke on the spirit of service based upon religion which was the true responsibility of Empire.

Church Services

Mombasa's Empire Day celebrations followed the customary routine in that morning there was a children's procession which the Sports Club, Governor, and His Excellency, after receiving the Royal Salute and presenting a R.A.F. Guard of Honour, visited the children and afterwards inspected them.

AT MADOBI Prince of Wales School Speech Day

Mombasa was a great day for the members of the Prince of Wales School, parents and visitors who attended the Empire Day Service and Annual Race Meeting. The great events were only saddened a little by the fact that the late Principal, Capt. B. W. J. ... would have been present at his annual report.

O.T.C. Advised

A great advance had been made with the O.T.C. by affiliation to the Kenya Regiment, a recognition by government of the excellent training of what was now to be known as the Cadet Corps.

Notable Visitors

After the ceremony at the post-office, the school, parents, old boys and other visitors trooped to the platform in addition to Captain Nicholson, who was the principal attraction.

Bishop and Empire

The Bishop of Mombasa, who then addressed the gathering, said that it seemed especially fitting that the prize giving and the special occasion of the School had fallen on the day of Empire Day.

Spirit of Service

Looking back at the beginning of the Empire Day he had to thank God for the service of the Empire which had come to them not so long ago.

An Appeal by the President

Nairobi, 27, 1937.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Members of the Royal East African Automobile Association have heard with deep regret the death of Mr. H. D. Gifford-Pearce, O.B.E., the

Honorary Secretary of the Association from its foundation for which he was responsible for his very best in his work for 20 years in the Association. He was a personality. I could not have survived his early years and difficult from so many friends

personally with him over the result that today we have an Association of which we have reason to be proud and which will prosper and grow.

RAILWAYS' ATTITUDE TO COLONY'S ROADS

GENERAL MANAGER WOULD WELCOME LONG TERM POLICY

The General Manager of Kenya Railways would be the first to welcome what has been called a long term road policy, the need for which has become an apparent fact...

The provision is that the Railway would require some provision by way of financing against unseasonable road competition, a point which has always been stressed by the General Manager.

A Committee's Recommendations

This report, the General Manager, when asked for his views on the recommendations of the "East African Standard" on the important subject of roads, stated to the Report of a Committee appointed to investigate and consider the advantages of roads...

"I was a member of that Committee," he said, "and the views expressed there are my views..."

Eldore's Success at Nakuru. The lock off. Stainer scored, gave a dummy, and broke through. This looked like a certainty, but Stainer was tackled effectively by one of his own men.

A Disallowed Try. Eldore went over the maulers, and play was mainly in the Nakuru half. A disallowed try was scored by the home-side when they took play down the field to the Eldore line.

A Commentary. The match was a very good one, but the ball did not travel fast enough down the Eldore line.

RAILWAY GOLF CLUB NOTES. "Rhodes" Cup Competition Postponed. Owing to weather conditions it has been necessary for the course to be closed for play for the last three weeks.
