LONDON BUS STRIKE ENDS TO-DAY

COURT OF ENQUIRY REPORT ACCEPTED

New Agreement

DECISION REACHED AFTER CONFERENCE AT MINISTRY OF LABOUR OFFICES

[STANDARD'S CORRESPONDENT.] London, May 26.

London busmen will resume work on Friday. An announcement to this effect was made after a conference between the Transport and General Workers' Union and the Ministry of Labour. The announcement states that the men should report for work on Friday. They will be reinstated in their former employment and the period of the strike will not be deemed to have broken their service.

According to an official statement by the Minister of Labour, pending the conclusion of a new agreement, the men shall operate on the present basis, but the new agreement shall be made retrospective to the resumption of work. The Transport Board and the Union accept the interim report of the Court of Enquiry.

"Honourable Settlement"

Hughes, May 27. Joint machinery will be established to investigate the conditions of employment in addition to their effect on the health of the men and to take appropriate steps, either by reduction of hours, or by such other measures as may be agreed, to meet the position.

A statement made after the settlement was announced. Mr. Ernest Bevin, the Secretary of the Union, described it as an honourable settlement. He added an expression of thanks to the public for the patience

25 YEARS IN THE COLONY'S SERVICE

Retirement of Mr. R. R. Vidal

FAREWELL DINNER

A man who has played no small part in the development and advancement of Kenya, particularly from the native point of view, leaves Nairobi on his final holiday. He is Mr. R. R. Vidal who will perhaps best be remembered for his long term of office as acting manager of the Masai Reserve. His experience and knowledge of the Masai has been of great value to the Administration. Mr. Vidal, who is retiring to England.

Mr. Vidal first came to East Africa in 1912 as an Administrative Officer. For about four years he was stationed at the Masai Reserve and it was here that he has taken his part in the development of the Masai Reserve. He has been in charge of the Masai Reserve for the last three years and it is probable that he will be one of the Administrators who were the country better; he has spent many years in the Masai Reserve.

Mr. Vidal has always been a sportsman particularly fond of cricket, and wherever he has gone he has always done his utmost to encourage sports among the African. On Tuesday night Mr. Vidal gave a farewell dinner attended by a large number of his friends, official and unofficial.

Mr. Vidal was accompanied by his wife and daughter. They will be leaving for England on Saturday. Mr. Vidal was accompanied by his wife and daughter. They will be leaving for England on Saturday.

BACK TO WORK

London will see no more scenes like this for a long time if the new human agreement works out as expected. The men, some of whom are seen here preparing to pick a garage, go back to work to-day.

REMEMBER JUNE 1

Recruiting Begins for the Kenya Regiment

The real purpose of the Kenya Regiment is to train the Colony's youth to take their place as leaders of African battalions should there be an emergency which calls for expansion of the active forces on the lines followed between 1914 and 1918.

Recruiting for the Nairobi Company of approximately 125 men will begin in the Memorial Hall at ten o'clock on Tuesday next, June 1.

Already the up-country districts are asking how they can play their part.

There is no conception about the Kenya Regiment—every man will be a volunteer.

MR. BALDWIN TO RESIGN TO-DAY?

SPECULATION ABOUT NEW MINISTRY

It is now generally assumed that Mr. Baldwin will go to Buckingham Palace early to-morrow morning and tender to the King his resignation of office as Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury. It is known that His Majesty will be advised to send for Mr. Neville Chamberlain to form a new ministry, and when he goes to see the King, Mr. Chamberlain will have the resignation of all his colleagues in his possession.

There is considerable speculation in the Press regarding the composition of the new Government. Mr. Ramsey MacDonald is expected to be the Prime Minister, and Mr. Chamberlain is expected to be the First Lord of the Treasury.

MR. BALDWIN

Years Rich in Honour

It is expected that Mr. Stanley Baldwin, Prime Minister of Great Britain, will retire from office on his 80th birthday, May 28, 1967. He will take with him into his retirement the affection and the confidence of his constituents, and the respect of almost every citizen of the United Kingdom. It is not improbable that his period of office will continue for a period of years, and his knowledge, experience and profound sense of duty will therefore be available to the people and to the Government. Mr. Baldwin is a man of high character, and his office which Mr. Baldwin is vacating in retirement has been his full and devoted attention to the affairs of the State. He has not published until the end of his political career. Mr. Baldwin was the only man to have held the office of Prime Minister of Great Britain for so long a period. He has been Prime Minister from 1924 to 1929, 1931 to 1935, and 1951 to 1955. He has also served as Foreign Secretary, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Home Secretary. His long and distinguished career has been marked by his leadership of the Conservative Party and his commitment to the principles of democracy and the rule of law. His retirement will be a significant event in British history, and his legacy will continue to be felt for many years to come.

Kenya's Bad Roads

THE CALL FOR A POLICY: A BUREAU EXAMPLE. To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir—Your leader of the 19th inst. on the subject of Kenya's bad roads calls for a start in the application of a road policy in this country.

The preparation of a road policy, resulting in a sound programme of work, is a difficult and lengthy job, the extent of which may not be generally appreciated. As I was for a time assistant secretary of the Communications Board of Burma engaged on the preparation of a five-year road programme for that country, and had had the honor of presenting the final programme to His Excellency the Governor in person for his approval, I venture to offer the following notes on the subject, with the object of briefly indicating some of the problems the organization, time and work involved.

In Burma it was decided to prepare and carry out a five year arterial road programme, to include the reconstruction of existing roads, and new roads where necessary.

District Road Boards were set up to examine the road problem in each District very thoroughly, and prepared a schedule of existing roads to be improved or replaced, and of new roads to be constructed. The boards of adjoining districts co-ordinated their work as far as possible.

For each road or section of road, a brief account of the reasons for the proposed work was given, with a description of the work and an approximate estimate of the cost. The proposals of the District Road Boards were examined by the Communications Board, the central authority for the country. They were printed and circulated, and criticisms invited. When the programme was finally approved, each District Road Board was notified of the work to be done, and the necessary funds were allocated.

Kenya's Bad Roads

THE EDITOR, "E.A. STANDARD." Sir—His leader of the 15th inst. in which Captain Nykes criticizes my article on the new Squatter Bill, and also my way of carrying on farm work, is based on many false takes that I hope you will be patient with me in my desire to set him right.

He will not find in the Bill a proposal that District Councils should decide what crops you may or may not grow because it is not stated that I made any such proposal. What I made clear was that several crops depend upon irrigation; that the Government should be prepared to supply water in such cases, and that I had no objection to the Government doing so.

It is not correct to say that I have a special interest in the bill, and that I am not a farmer. I am a farmer, and I am interested in the bill because it affects the interests of farmers in general.

Yours etc., GILBERT WALKER, Nairobi, May 21, 1937.

to do with that subject. They related to humans not animals. If it interests him my views are as open as the air. In the case, squatter cattle are a menace to European cattle, the former should be abolished. As to goats, I am not aware, nor do I know, that they are dangerous to cattle, but they are a menace to the land and should be abolished.

Captain Nykes pretends that I am not allowing large quantities of goats on a farm in a District, whereas the fact is that when he and others started a movement to get rid of goats I said I was completely in favor of it, and that I would do it with or without their aid. Since then I have succeeded in removing goats except for a few which could not be moved. I was told, going to foot and mouth in the District, but he did not go. At that time Captain Nykes said that he would not go if I did not go. He has now developed an opinion about sheep. Surely the logical and sensible way to get rid of squatter stock and the danger from the goats is to get the Fencing and Dipping Ordinance passed, but he will not do it. I have devoted my energies to that, and I have succeeded in getting a District Council to interfere with the goats.

My criticism was confined to part of clause 21 which encourages other farmers, through a District Council, to interfere with the goats.

Labour Troubles in Tanganyika

THE TIN OUTLOOK

['STANDARD' CORRESPONDENT.] Details of tin-mining in Tanganyika and Mozambique in the past few years are reported, and the areas are, in an area, having very little difficulty in obtaining labour.

What the enforcement of through the Government has proved labour recruiting agents would involve further duties on the small local police force, and they would appear overworked.

Mr. C. R. Fair, a European mine owner, was quoted last Saturday before the Additional District Magistrate, in a charge of not paying wages of two boys without a reasonable and probable cause for believing that the wages were due.

Attention has been focused lately on the property of the Vanuatu Ltd. during the last months of 1966, when 800 bags were delivered at wages above those offered by wage balance contracts in the last

Gymkhana Race Meeting

On June 9

On the Sports Editor, P. B. A. Standard.

In order to clear up any misunderstanding which may exist in the minds of the sporting public we should be grateful for your courtesy in publishing the following statement.

It will be recalled that the Gymkhana Race Meeting which was to have been held on May 28th was postponed due to the sudden state of the race-course, until June 9th, the date of the Railway Athletic Meeting.

The Committee in charge of the organisation of the Gymkhana race meeting selected this date for the following reasons:

(a) It was the most suitable date for several 18 country owners who had entered horses for the Gymkhana race meeting as they would, in any case, be in Nairobi for the Agricultural Show on the following three days.

In June and July there are no racing meetings in the Colony and unless the Nairobi Gymkhana race meeting was held on June 9th it would have been necessary to postpone the meeting indefinitely with consequent serious financial loss.

On Saturday last a meeting took place between representatives of the Committee in charge of the organisation of the Railway Athletic Meeting and of the Committee in charge of the organisation of the Gymkhana race meeting. The representatives of the latter explained their position and offered to cancel the Gymkhana race meeting unless the Committee in charge of the Railway Athletic Meeting were entirely satisfied on the Railway Athletic meeting would not adversely affect on the Railway Athletic meeting. Later in the morning the Gymkhana Committee were informed that the Railway Athletic Committee were satisfied that the Gymkhana race meeting would not adversely affect the athletic meeting and that they did not wish the Gymkhana race meeting to be held on Saturday.

Wool Gathering in Uganda

You might think that a woman living in a polygamous condition would at least be able to knit. Both did knit and knit. When she has finished saying that the head boy is doing the house, and the cook is doing the cooking, and the second boy is waiting on the head boy, and the tea-boy is waiting on the cook, and the little boy is waiting on them all, that the slumber boy is doing the garden, and the ayah attending to the children; who she has dealt with some reading, some dress-making, some sewing, and had some exercise, when she has coped with the outstanding mail, not to mention mules, it might be to say to you in a few hours knitting.

But it isn't so in Africa.

The other day someone came morning to slatching a big of knitting, and I then know how those knitting you heard uttering what a wonderful companion it is to you, you only have to do a little now and then to knit. You only need a good needle and some wool.

National Heirlooms
Royal Household Linen

Queen Elizabeth loved linens. When she was Duchess of York, she took a keen interest in every article bought for use in her house, and now that she has taken the Buckingham Palace she will be charmed with the national heirlooms which she has inherited.

The linen at Buckingham Palace, of the finest quality, is valued at several thousands of pounds, and many articles are of great interest to collectors and historical associations.

There are special linen rooms in the Palace, and inside whose sole duty it is to look after the linen. There is a room used for sorting and packing it into baskets for the laundry, and when it is returned the inside check it with an official register attached to the process.

One of the most precious items is the "mother cloth" of the Palace. It is a large tablecloth of pure linen to cover a table at which 250 people can sit. It was originally woven for the wedding breakfast of Queen Victoria and is used only on very special occasions, one having been the State Banquet given at the Palace in 1911, the royal and their families after the funeral of King George VII. It is also appeared after the coronation of King Edward VII.

A Legend

There is a story attached to the cloth. For many years there had been a superstition held in the Palace that any person who happened to spill

A BOOK ABOUT KENYA

Everybody in Kenya will want to read "Matters of Government House" by Elizabeth Hayley (publishable by E. A. Parnell, Stationery Stores), which contains a very familiar story from the plan and description of a Government House. This is particularly easy to visualize to the senses of natives in reserve.

A Governor is troubled after an official banquet, and, as the chief detective stories, the most interesting circumstantial evidence surrounds the people who are not guilty of the crime. In the meantime we are taken from scenes of social life at Government House to the bits of mission treated native chiefs; we are introduced to hunched Government officials in their corrugated iron offices; we are given glimpses of distinguished African anthropologists and journalists; we meet the more prominent writers, and take part in their husband-and-wife parties; we see the Masai Club. We are reminded of our position in the Imperial Government by the question which enlightened Members of Parliament have asked: "What is the standard of the country, but in a hundred-story, but in a hundred-story."

...and your eyes cross, and you are glad at last when the day does get it and avenge it on your feet. I say, and feel an immortal able urge to knit too.

This friend was a particularly interesting case; she had some patterns.

"The quickest way to get wool," she said, "is to send to Kampala for it!"

"Quick!" I repeated involuntarily.

"Well, I got mine there all right," she said, "and it included a couple of needles."

When I had read up my mind between a green which went with a skirt but not a hat, and a blue which went with a hat but not a skirt by looking in favour of a red which went with neither. I took a Kanopy. It was the best at last came back it said that hadn't any, but was expecting it from Home.

So I sent to Nairobi.

And waited.

When the train came back it said they had a very best one, expecting it from Home.

Well, you can expect more things as well as you like, but a hat to the end of the world hat doesn't come any quicker for that. So an appeal was made to the East African Standard. It was a long time before it came back, but it came back with a hat and a skirt, and a pair of shoes, and a pair of shoes, and a pair of shoes.

THE MODERN BRIDE

The up to date bride wears white again. Recently the inclination has been to launch out into palest pastel pinks, blues, and the various off-white tones. New the traditional white satin has come back, and with it the delicate crepe, notably and "seraped" like the ceremonial laxness. Neckline may be high or a moderately low square, and sleeves are, without exception, long; some tight fitting, others puffed at the shoulders or at the wrist.

A white prayer book is the alternative to the more ordinary bouquet, and the enveloping veil, floating down over the face as well as over the back of the gown, is charming. A very simple wedding gown, of dull surfaced white crepe, has a heavy white silk cord passed twice round the waist and knotted in front, the two ends with heavy tassels, falling down to the hem of the skirt. When the white prayer book is preferred to the bride bouquet, the dress wreath is omitted in favour of a chaplet of pearls to hold the veil.

"Quick!" I repeated involuntarily.

"Well, I got mine there all right," she said, "and it included a couple of needles."

When I had read up my mind between a green which went with a skirt but not a hat, and a blue which went with a hat but not a skirt by looking in favour of a red which went with neither. I took a Kanopy. It was the best at last came back it said that hadn't any, but was expecting it from Home.

So I sent to Nairobi.

And waited.

When the train came back it said they had a very best one, expecting it from Home.

Well, you can expect more things as well as you like, but a hat to the end of the world hat doesn't come any quicker for that. So an appeal was made to the East African Standard. It was a long time before it came back, but it came back with a hat and a skirt, and a pair of shoes, and a pair of shoes, and a pair of shoes.

HEALTH and VIGOUR

It is your right to enjoy life vigorously. Natural vigour is the normal result of perfect health. Perfect health is ensured when your system is free from dangerous toxins, the accumulation of which is the cause of your lack of vitality.

Eliminate these toxins, therefore, by taking a glass of sparkling ENOS' Fruit Sat first thing every morning. ENOS is pleasant-tasting and invigorating and will ensure you natural health and vigour all your life.

This could have been prevented!

Strengthen your body against Feverish Diseases

The chance of catching malaria and other feverish diseases is far greater, if the power of resistance is lowered. Lack of minerals in the body usually causes this lowering. Tiredness, heart troubles, irritability and dizziness are signs that your power of resistance is below par.

The "East African Standard's" Correspondent Writes on EVENTS IN INDIA

Simla, May 10th.

There is a great deal of talk of the independence of the states and their special treaties and the like, but the thing which is going to count in future is the treaty that the people of India make with others. The Act will go, inevitably with all its hundreds of sections and its special powers and its Federation. And so I would ask the Princes to consider this matter from this point of view and not to rush in where wiser people fear to tread—Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru—

Anarchist Rising

4,000 BASQUE FRONT LEAVE FOR ENGLAND

A Ferraguan message states that it is learned that the Valencia Government has sent troops to Barbastro, about 50 miles north east of Saragossa, where Anarchists have claimed to have executed 100 Popular Front leaders and proclaimed an Anarchist dictatorship.

The troops have been instructed to impose martial law if necessary and to bring those responsible to trial as quickly as possible.

Preparatory work on May 20, by the Government on the possibility of non-Spanish combatants has been completed. The special technical advisory sub-committee at several meetings has expressed its opinion to the International Non-Intervention Committee on April 15. At their meeting of the 20th committee was held yesterday.

Members of the British Government, through His Majesty's Ambassador, are endeavouring to obtain the opinion of the Powers principally concerned regarding the possibility of withdrawal of temporary cessation of hostilities from the Spanish peninsula.

At a conference with M. de Noailles, French Premier, and the French Foreign Minister announced that France and Belgium have agreed to attempt to bring about a cessation of hostilities. The German reply to the British suggestion of a truce, made in London, is stated to be sympathetic.

GERMAN ARMYEN Basque Government May Commence Service

It is not yet announced whether the Basque Government have decided to nominate the death sentence of the two German armies recently captured. Urgent German advice has been given to the authorities to show the armies.

Replying to an appeal for clemency from Senor Torro Segura, the Chilean ambassador in Berlin, the British Ambassador stated: "It will bring your petition to the notice of the Government, which will study it. The subsequent course of foreign policy will have a prominent influence on this decision."

Beprials Threatened

Replying to M. Daloz, President Aguirre intimated that the Basques are favourable to the postponement of the execution of the death sentences petitioned the French and British Governments. The French effort to secure more suitable working of non-intervention, which is claimed means to be used to prevent the passage of German and Italian arms into the Basque zone.

Basque Franco has made a broadcast statement from Salamanca in which he announced that all prisoners in the "Nationalist" hands if the condemned German troops are executed.

Child Refugees

Preparations are almost complete for the reception at the camp established near Southampton of the Basque children who are now on their way to England from Bilbao. The Spanish Government has agreed to transfer the children to the Basque zone, after a further 100,000 children have been detached to the national zone.

RETIRING PRIME MINISTER BECOMES EARL BALDWIN

MR. NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN ACCEPTS OFFICE

Other Cabinet Changes

MR. MACDONALD DECLINES PEERAGE AND MR. RUNCIMAN BECOMES VISCOUNT

Mr. Stanley Baldwin submitted his resignation from the office of Prime Minister to His Majesty yesterday morning, and received from His Majesty the historic honour of Earldom.

Soon afterwards, Mr. Neville Chamberlain kissed hands on acceptance of office as Prime Minister.

Other important Cabinet changes have also taken place. Mr. Ramsey MacDonald declined, it is reported, to accept the peerage urged upon him by His Majesty.

Mr. Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Trade, has been created a Viscount.

Widespread Tributes

Mr. Baldwin left Downing Street at 12.12 this morning and went to the Admiralty to submit his resignation to the King.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain arrived at the Palace at 10.10 and was received by His Majesty, who formally asked him to form a Government.

Other Honours

Mr. Walter Humeaux has been created a Viscount, and Viscountess has also been conferred upon Sir J. C. Davidson, the former Chief Commissioner of the East African Protectorate.

MR. MACDONALD DECLINES

His Majesty the King, at his Majesty's audience to Mr. Ramsey MacDonald as Lord President of the Council, urged upon him to accept the peerage.

IMPERIAL TRIBUTES

At the eighth meeting of the Conference, presided over by Mr. Baldwin at 10 Downing Street, representatives of South Africa, Rhodesia and Basutoland were added to the committee on West

KEEP THIS IN MIND!

Questions and Answers About the Kenya Regiment

SOME questions are being asked about the Kenya Regiment. 1. Why cannot a first camp be held before a year after the Regiment is formed, and will not the initial training be longer?

The answer to this is that the object of the Kenya Regiment is to train men to command in time of war, and therefore a thorough knowledge of what may appear to be dull groundwork is essential. But a lot depends on the men. The programme selected is not a formula programme but that prepared for NCO's of the British Territorials. The main point to be remembered is that the soldier hopes to turn out in four years young men able to command.

2. What is the age limit? 3. How does this question in 18 to 35. Here is the procedure. The man going to the recruiting office, he is immediately examined, fill up a form giving particulars and takes the oath. The Commander will then select from the names the men who will be the first members of the Kenya Regiment. It is important to note that every man who offers himself as a recruit should bring with him a letter of recommendation.

CELEBRATION DELAYED

Fort Portal's Coronation
Festivities

Fort Portal, May 28.—The Coronation celebrations in all Majesty's offices were held on Wednesday May 28, to allow time for District Officers and District Commissioners to attend the Coronation ceremonies and celebrations in Kampala and Entebbe, and to return to their respective stations in time for the Coronation.

At Fort Portal, great joy was due to the Indian and the African communities for the decorations both in the Bazaar and on the roadways up to the House. The celebrations started at 8.30 a.m. with a band of honour of the Uganda Police under Superintendent Nwandi, the Provincial Commissioner taking the salute. An address was then read by Mr. Sandford followed by a march past of all the school children. This took place outside the District Commissioner's Office.

At 1.15 p.m. tea was held in the D.C.'s garden. Mr. and Mrs. Sandford receiving the many guests of all communities. The school children of the Corporation football competition in which Nyakusa School beat Ruhoga (Tribes Mission School) by 3-2. Mr. Sandford presented the prizes to the teams, the winners receiving blankets and the runners-up receiving alibates.

After the prize giving a number of guests were invited to the residence of the P.C. and Mrs. Sandford.

At 7.30 p.m. a large number of all communities, the Africans making a tremendous crowd, followed the first fairway of the golf course and watched a display of fireworks.

Giri Indians
At Gilgil the whole of the Indian Community gathered on the ground of Gilgil Indian School building.

The children of the School presented a small fair with the assistance of specially prepared by the Principal of the school. Spite for the boys followed, and each was given a present for which the Indians very generously subscribed.

CONFIDENCE

Doctors Took It
Before Examination

London, May 28.—(REUTERS.)—The confidence of the medical profession in the British Medical Journal is the result of a series of interviews by the British Medical Association's Health Committee, and Dr. William Stewart, of the Manchester Hospital.

The doctor, they state, produces a general psychological stimulus in the form of an increased income, initiative, and ease in making decisions, sometimes combined with a feeling of relief.

Medical colleagues and others who have themselves been in similar positions, have found it of definite value in such cases as lecturing or taking an examination. It also helps in more general matters brought on by anxiety, work or worry.

Important interviews of various kinds have been held more recently, especially those regarding the health and fitness of the armed forces.

No Prescription Needed
At the beginning of an epidemic (increasing internally) depression it might be of use in helping for a time the onset of the more severe stages of the illness.

LONDON FINANCE
Market Sentiment Better

We have received the following report, at the London Stock Exchange:

Market sentiment was distinctly better during the week ending May 21, although there has again been a little business, and except in the case of gilt-edged securities are fractionally higher.

There has been a very definite revival in the Kenya, Anderson and 18 marks.

A announcement is reported from the Chancellor of the Exchequer, giving more details as to how the new National Defence Contribution Tax will affect individual companies, and when this information has been removed, it is likely that there will be more interest shown by investors and speculative activity.

NINE ENGINEERS SENT TO PRISON

London, May 28.—(REUTERS.)—Nine British seamen of the British steamer "Landrover Castle" were sentenced to prison for refusing to obey the orders of the captain, Mr. Harold Wat, who had been ordered to proceed to the port of Mombasa.

There were three witnesses against each man of disobeying the orders of the chief engineer of Port Victoria, Francis, and the captain, Mr. Harold Wat, who had been ordered to proceed to the port of Mombasa.

27 Seismometers
There were 27 seismometers against each man of disobeying the orders of the chief engineer of Port Victoria, Francis, and the captain, Mr. Harold Wat, who had been ordered to proceed to the port of Mombasa.

Other Cases
Mr. Harold Wat, M.P., who was in command of the British steamer "Landrover Castle" was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour for refusing to obey the orders of the captain, Mr. Harold Wat, who had been ordered to proceed to the port of Mombasa.

Passengers Transferred
The captain, however, saw that the damage was not too great to continue the voyage under the ship's own steam by the means of Port Victoria.

Lloyd's Certificate
On April 21, a further declaration of insolvency was made by the British steamer "Landrover Castle" and the master did not take the ship to sea.

finer, clearer snaps—because—

- It's very fast. "Verichrome" is quick to snap up every little detail.
- It's double-coated. That means "Verichrome" records detail in the light parts of the picture and in the dark.
- It has remarkable latitude. Even if you give too long an exposure, "Verichrome" gets the picture just the same.

Many Offices Unchanged

(Restor and British Official Wireless)

The new Government was organized and in office within a few hours of the appointment of Mr. Neville Chamberlain as Prime Minister.

Mr. Chamberlain's Cabinet comprised of 21 Members, one fewer than Mr. Baldwin's. Mr. Chamberlain is succeeded by Sir John Simon, and Sir Samuel Hoare goes to the Home Office. Cabinet Ministers who continue in the same offices are, Lord Chancellor, Lord Halifax, the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden; the Dominions Secretary, Lord Stanhope; the Secretary for India, Malcolm MacDonald; the Secretary for Air, Lord Swinton; the Secretary for Scotland, Mr. Walter Elliot; Mr. W. S. Morrison; the Minister of Health, Sir Kingsley Wood and the Minister of Labour, Mr. Ernest Brown.

Junior Ministers

There are a considerable number of changes among junior ministers, including the following:— The Secretary for Air, Lord Swinton; the Secretary for Scotland, Mr. Walter Elliot; Mr. W. S. Morrison; the Minister of Health, Sir Kingsley Wood and the Minister of Labour, Mr. Ernest Brown.

New Posts

Several Cabinet Ministers assume new offices. Mr. Duff Cooper succeeds Sir Samuel Hoare as first lord of the Admiralty and Mr. Ormsby-Gore succeeds as Secretary for War by the former. Mr. Hore-Belisha succeeds as Secretary for War by the former. Mr. Hore-Belisha succeeds as Secretary for War by the former. Mr. Hore-Belisha succeeds as Secretary for War by the former.

MINISTERIAL CHANGES

Legislative Law officers and British law officers remain unchanged and also the Postmaster General, the Minister of Pensions, and the Financial Secretary to the Treasury. Captain Morrison continues as Chief Whip.

Lord Duffinn and Aps become Under-Secretary for the Colonies; Lord Stanley Under-Secretary for India; Colonel Mitchell Under-Secretary for Air; Colonel Lawford, Civil Lord of the Admiralty; Mr. Geoffrey Shillington Under-Secretary Financial Secretary to the Admiralty; Mr. Kenneth Ludlow Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Education; and Mr. H. A. Butler Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Labour.

Received by King

The Minister offered by changes in the Cabinet were received by the King and by the Privy Council meeting which followed their resignation and their new appointments.

PRIME MINISTER

"National Government" Principle Remains

That the principle of the National Government remains inviolable is one, and that the smoothness of transition is another, are the two main objects of the country's political leaders.

Sir T. Inskip

history is the order, of two periods which are connected by a meeting's press conference on the new Government. The latter point is expressed by the "Morning Post" in the phrase "The new Cabinet will be a treasury from one era to another, but that kind of order is not an occasion, while the "Daily Telegraph" makes the former by doing so. Mr. Chamberlain takes office with a true heart. In so doing, he makes assurance that the steady course hitherto pursued by the Government is not to be abandoned.

Frontier Fighting: Fakir of Ipi Retreats

(TRADEUR AGENTS'S AGENT.) May 30. During operations against the Fakir of Ipi on Thursday, three privates of the Argill and Sutherland Highlanders were killed and three are missing, believed killed, and one private of the Gurkha Rifles was killed.

Other casualties were seven Argill and Sutherlanders wounded, nine Gurkhas wounded and four Tocht scouts wounded.

The Fakir retreated from Waziristan into the Mahand territory. Three brigades are pursuing him.

RATES OF EXCHANGE

The following rates of exchange were notified by the Nairobi Bankers' Association on May 31, 1947: London on Paris 110 10/32; London on New York 148 10; Bombay T.T. on London 1/4 3/2.

Government cannot afford to be indifferent to a body of opinion which the right wing represents.

Another point of view in the newspaper circle places in a leading article in the "Hillingham Post," which takes as its theme the radical tradition of Joseph Chamberlain will be used freely in the National Government, whose chief economic reason has an ideal quality.

SULTAN FLYING HOME

His Majesty the Sultan of Zanzibar left for East Africa today in the flying boat "Centaurus."

Chamberlain enters on his career as Prime Minister with the full confidence of the party which is still the dominant party in politics, and with the entire goodwill of the electorate.

The "New Chronicle" finds the new cabinet a thought for the nation who have retired, and for the many Britons who are the sons of the "Manchester Guardian."

Mr. Baldwin carries with him his resignation the goodwill and the confidence of the nation, and every party and every man who are in the present country has a right to be satisfied and to have someone to whom to turn.

One of the few indications, however, of the absence of a dissenting voice in the new Government, is the fact that Mr. Chamberlain's resignation is not to be abandoned.

Mr. Chamberlain takes office with a true heart. In so doing, he makes assurance that the steady course hitherto pursued by the Government is not to be abandoned.

THE DUKE'S TITLE

Will Not Extend to Wife

(TRADEUR AGENTS'S AGENT.) May 30. His Majesty has expressed the wish that the Duke of Windsor will personally enjoy the title of "His Royal Highness" notwithstanding the fact that wedding letters patent issued in Queen Victoria's reign laid it down that the title is only enjoyable by near relations to the sovereign who are "in direct line of descent."

The announcement, which is made in the "London Gazette," will not extend to the Duke's wife or possible children, though they will be entitled to the form of address appropriate to the wife and children of a duke.

BROADCAST ADDRESS

(TRADEUR AGENTS'S AGENT.) May 30. An address by the Duke of Windsor will be broadcast on the Home Service on May 31, on the occasion of his eighteenth birthday.

No far of India have been taken to the Viceroy's office as a result of the last day and night.

The British Broadcasting Corporation has announced that it will broadcast the Duke of Windsor's address on the Home Service on May 31, on the occasion of his eighteenth birthday.

GERMAN WARSHIP FIRES ON SPANISH AIRCRAFT

RETALIATORY BOMBES CAUSE SEVERAL EXPLOSIONS

Amazing Report

FIGHT OFF IBIZA WHEN AEROPLANES WERE ABOUT TO RAID PALMA

Most striking of a variety of news from and about Spain at the weekend is the report, received yesterday, that a German warship lying off Ibiza, in the Balearic Islands, opened fire on two Spanish Government aeroplanes which retaliated with bombs, causing several explosions on board the warship.

General Franco is stated to have sent home, with a suit of clothes and 500 francs each, 42 members of the International Brigade of the Government Army, whom he captured near Madrid in February. Twenty-three of them were English.

League Deplores Spanish Methods

"LOOK UPON KENYA AS ONE" H.E.'S REPLY TO SUGGESTION OF LEUT.-GOVERNOR

Mombasa Speeches

INTER-DEPENDENCE OF COAST AND HIGHLANDS

"We must look upon Kenya as one" said His Excellency the Governor at Mombasa, replying to a speech in which Sir Ahi bin Salim humorously suggested a Lieutenant Governor for Mombasa.

It was no good, said Sir Robert Brooke-Popham, the people make unless there was a well-equipped port to export it from, and it was no good trying to export port unless the people up-country produced something to keep it busy.

Speaking at a luncheon given by the Mombasa Chamber of Commerce, His Excellency said that the problems of different races, languages and religions. The part that Kenya should play in the development of Empire was in giving a lead towards the solution of those problems.

Lead to Empire

["STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT.]

Mombasa. His Excellency the Governor, Sir Robert Brooke-Popham, was the guest of honor at a dinner given in his honor by the Mombasa Chamber of Commerce at the Mayor Hotel, Mombasa.

Replying, His Excellency explained the reasons for the suggestion that Mombasa be treated as a separate unit. "I have turned you and again to the north which I look on as the island. In that sense, I am content with all manner of people with whom I have had to deal in the past. That which adds to the problem is the fact that the Mombasa people have been worried about the fact that the Government has been trying to solve it. I do mean to have urged most ardently the necessity to take. I do mean to have urged most ardently the necessity to take. I do mean to have urged most ardently the necessity to take.

Governor "Jealous"

Amid laughter the Governor, in his reply remarked: "I am rather jealous of Sir Ahi bin Salim when I came to Mombasa. I find myself being treated as a guest of honor. I find myself being treated as a guest of honor. I find myself being treated as a guest of honor.

of Kenya. His Excellency said that the problems of different races, languages and religions. The part that Kenya should play in the development of Empire was in giving a lead towards the solution of those problems.

TO-MORROW!

Kenya's Youth will Answer the Critics

TOMORROW at ten o'clock in the morning a new chapter in the history of Kenya will be opened.

The Colony's youth, a group comprising over a million between 18 and 35, a force which will be ready to take the country which is its home and its own, will be the first to give their views on the proposed changes in the constitution. This will be done in the form of a petition to the Government and in the form of a petition to the Government and in the form of a petition to the Government.
