ward will inquire into dispute

Monday bank strike officially ended last night after the chairman of the Kenya Bankers' Association (KBA) Mr. M. W. Mwangi, ordered a Board of Inquiry. An appeal for the strikers to return to work this morning was broadcast by the general secretary of the Kenya Federation of Labour, S. M. Mwangi.

Banks throughout the country should be open as normal if the workers returned the call, the chairman of the Kenya Bankers' Association (KBA) Mr. M. W. Mwangi said.

It is believed that Mr. Mwangi made his decision at the end of a lengthy meeting yesterday afternoon at which the employers and representatives of the Kenya Distributive and Commercial Workers Union had failed to agree on a return to work.

An Association spokesman said last night that he was very satisfied with the decision of the Board. During the evening S. M. Mwangi, who is also president of the union, addressed about 300 strikers at the Dean Hotel.

Workers' victory claimed

He claimed a victory for the workers who, by going on strike, had made the Government order the inquiry. It has been promised for the Government to the strikers the assurance which the industrial laws for the past two days," he said. "I don't know why they have been so afraid."

The president of the inquiry was so good as a chance to go to the industrial Court. The strikers had a strong impression and were bound to be satisfied, he said. Not only the matter of the Government's decision but all the unrest in banks would be referred to the industrial Court.

The meeting of Parliament was in sympathy with the strikers, he said.

He also stated that the contract, which was the subject of the dispute, was being reviewed by the Government in the light of the strike. A similar statement was made by the Minister of Finance, Mr. J. F. Iroko, said.

The strike had been a success, he said. The Government had been forced to give in to the strikers. The Government had been forced to give in to the strikers. The Government had been forced to give in to the strikers.

Super MOTOR OIL

IDEAL FOR EAST AFRICAN MOTORISTS
 Shell Super Motor Oil is a unique example of a new international product so perfectly suited to motoring in East Africa that it might well have been specifically formulated for conditions in this part of the world.

IN SIMPLE LANGUAGE

The new Shell Super Motor Oil is a thin lubricant when cold for easy starting - a medium grade for average driving conditions and a heavy, heat resistant protective oil under severe sustained high speed and tough safari operating conditions.

EXCEEDS MANUFACTURER'S REQUIREMENTS

Car manufacturers constantly seek to improve the performance of their models. Engines are asked to work harder and harder at increasing revolutions. Naturally, these manufacturers look to the oil companies for progress in the formulation of lubricants. They set certain standards before endorsing the use of any product in their engines. New Shell Super Motor Oil exceeds these requirements by a wide margin. It is in fact the oil for the cars of tomorrow—available for your car today!

However, the region has long suffered from political instability and economic hardship. In recent years, there has been a growing interest in the region's potential for development. This has led to a number of initiatives aimed at improving the region's infrastructure, education, and health care. These initiatives are expected to lead to a more prosperous and stable future for the region.

Youth Service gives sense of unity and combined effort

Forty-three miles from the sea in a difficult, hot and unprosperous country in Kenya, Kenya, the agricultural training centre of the National Youth Service.

It is the only centre of its kind in Kenya and is the only one in the East African region. It was established in 1952 and has since then become a centre of attraction for young men from all over Kenya and from other parts of the East African region.

The centre is situated in a beautiful area of high altitude and is surrounded by a forest of tall trees. The climate is cool and pleasant throughout the year.

The centre is run by the National Youth Service and is under the supervision of the Ministry of Agriculture. It provides a comprehensive training programme for young men who are interested in agriculture and rural development.

The programme includes instruction in various aspects of agriculture, including crop production, animal husbandry, and farm management. It also includes practical training in the use of modern agricultural machinery and equipment.

In addition to the technical training, the centre also provides a wide range of social and cultural activities. These include sports, music, and drama. The young men are encouraged to take an active part in these activities and to work together to improve the standards of living in their own communities.

Nordic experiment in co-operation

Twenty-four miles west of Dar es Salaam on the Indian Ocean coast, the small town of Mwanza is the scene of a unique experiment in co-operation between the Nordic countries and Kenya.

The experiment is a joint venture between the governments of Denmark, Norway, Sweden, and Finland, and the Government of Kenya. It is designed to improve the standards of living in the town and to provide a model for other areas of the country.

The project involves the construction of a new housing estate, the provision of modern water and sewerage services, and the establishment of a health centre. It also includes the provision of social and cultural facilities, such as a library and a sports ground.

The experiment is being financed by the Nordic countries and is being managed by a joint committee. The committee is responsible for the planning and execution of the project and for the distribution of the funds.

The project is expected to be completed by the end of 1955. It is hoped that the experiment will provide a model for other areas of the country and will help to improve the standards of living in the East African region.

MAKING THE RIVERS WORK FOR MAN

The general aim of the National Youth Service is to provide a comprehensive training programme for young men who are interested in agriculture and rural development. This programme includes instruction in various aspects of agriculture, including crop production, animal husbandry, and farm management.

In addition to the technical training, the centre also provides a wide range of social and cultural activities. These include sports, music, and drama. The young men are encouraged to take an active part in these activities and to work together to improve the standards of living in their own communities.

The National Youth Service is a government department which is responsible for the training and employment of young men in Kenya. It was established in 1952 and has since then become a major institution in the country.

President Kaunda of Zambia traveled to Kampala last week-end for a meeting with Presidents Nyerere and Kenyatta and the Uganda Prime Minister, Mr. Obote.

The meeting began on Friday and continued through the proposed rail link between Tanzania and...

The Kampala talks were interrupted by news from Kenya to receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from the Chancellor of the University of Makerere, Dr. William Lango.

As he left the hall President Obote said a reporter he still preferred to be known as "Mzee" rather than as Mr. Obote.

The Minister of Works and Communications, Mr. W. K. Lango, standing in for the Minister of Commerce and Industry, Mr. Lango Lango, told the Chamber of Commerce meeting that the country's imports rose last year to £1,200,000 to £1,320,000.

This was an increase of almost 10 per cent. Exports rose from £27,000,000 to £28,000,000 and there were useful increases in sugar, cotton, tea and coffee.

The 1965 export figures, however, were not yet available. The 1965 export figures, however, were not yet available.

plan proposed for S.E. Asia

WASHINGTON has pledged the United States was ready for continued talks on a Vietnam settlement and opened the door to South East Asia, in a major speech last night at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

The President said a peaceful settlement was the only path for resolution of the Vietnam conflict. He proposed a $1,000 million U.S. aid program for South-East Asia if peace is achieved.

He said that North Vietnam will take its place in the common effort just as soon as peaceful co-existence is possible.

He also urged the South Vietnamese city of Hanoi and the Phnom Penh should ready to begin talks with the North Vietnamese government in London.

Some 157,000 tons of the speech were also being prepared in Vietnam for distribution throughout South Vietnam, where leaders were reported uneasy about the President's statements.

Day-long bombardment

Last night U.S. Secretary General, U Thant, said a powerful barrage in Southeast Asia described by the U.S. as a "major military operation" in Laos, the British Prime Minister, Sir Wilson, welcomed the move as an "important step" towards the Vietnam cease-fire.

U Thant said that 60 American jet aircraft pounded North Vietnam targets in Khammouane Province, 70 miles northwest of Hanoi, in a day-long bombardment of Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia.

The action resulted in a deepening bombardment of Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia.

Some 200 military operations, in South East Asia, were carried out by the United States, including the use of heavy artillery, tanks and aircraft.

The Marines, who had five killed and 20 wounded, were part of a Government force advancing north in an operation to clear a section of highway.

Meanwhile in Saigon signs rage for the life of a captured American sergeant, James H. Doolittle, after a Communist helicopter evacuation failed.

The Vietnam Government said they will kill Mr. Harte, chief of the Public Administration Division of the U.S. Embassy in Saigon, if Communist sympathizer Nguyen Van Thieu is executed.

Some of these early plantings can still be seen in the grounds of the Kericho Municipal School.

HOSPITAL GIFT FOR CHILDREN

Mr. ABDEL RAHMAN B. A. B. U. Tawana's Minister of Commerce and Co-operatives, this week opened the Gray's Ward for Children in Arusha. The modern, 20-bed ward with facilities for 16 mothers to look after their children is in the hands of Lt.-Col. Charles Lionel Rankin, Govt. an Arusha farmer and philanthropist, who in 1921 built the ward.

When Col. Gray left the Army in 1921, he bought one of the old German farms near Arusha, in "to try my hand at farming as the climate and conditions were so good and fascinating". He chose to live on an old-fashioned property, "recommending" and "I've been in Arusha ever since".

An Arusha, of course, very different from today. It was called in those days as "wadi" by "black cats". He three children he had to look after. He had to look after a school. He had to look after a school. He had to look after a school.

Enjoyed life
He had not really expected to make money from his farming and was surprised when he found he was doing so. "I have had a very happy, enjoyable life," he said, "except on that awful occasion in 1923 when those three children came into my house and murdered my wife. The girls eventually left a note of the murders and they were hanged."

Having made money he bought it desirable to leave some of it behind.
"Col. Rankin suggested various things for the stadium, a complete set of the department built in 1924 and now the 215,000 Gray's Children's Ward."

Col. Gray is seen above visiting the new ward. On the right is the latest picture of Arusha's philanthropist.

End-to-end waterflow design solves all diesel gasket problems

High-speed motorway work and heavy duty operation impose extra stress on that gas seal of modern diesel End-to-end waterflow design solves this by eliminating all waterways between cylinder block and head. Instead, the cooling water passes from block to head through two special ports at the rear of the engine, outside the gasket area. The cylinder head gasket has only one function: to serve as a gas seal and the cylinder block and there are no gas seals are absolutely positive; gas-to-water blow-by is impossible.

Cotton—cash crop with a future

A future for him. A future for his nation. Cotton is one of East Africa's most vital export industries. It is also one of her most vulnerable, being dependent on timely planting, regular rainfall and strict control of pests and weeds. A cash crop, cotton is produced almost entirely by small farmers. Barclays are always ready to give advice and assistance to this important industry.

ACCOUNT QUIET BEFORE EASTER

THE new account opened very quietly. Nobody wanted to do much in front of the Easter holiday, and share prices lacked a decided trend. Calm-eyed speculation, however, found encouragement in the further improvement in share prices after Mr. Wilson's New Year speech. Most London shares higher within a range of 10 to 20 points.

 PLAIN FRUIT JUICE IS NOT ENOUGH

As every mother knows, there are certain food requirements that all babies must have to help them grow strong and healthy. Many do not realize, however, that the Vitamin C that appears in fruit juices—important as it is for their health and clear skin—is not enough by itself. Every baby must also have Vitamin A for growth and good eyesight.
 Vitamins D for strong bones and teeth. Doctors are alarmed about the number of babies who are getting only Vitamin C supplements, and there have even been reports in the medical press of cases of rickets—a disease caused by lack of Vitamin D.

You can't afford to risk the health of the little ones you love. Make sure they have Haliborange every day. Haliborange gives babies all three vital vitamins—A, D, and C—in a taste so sweet that ordinary orange juice, and babies and young children simply love it!

AND this yellow strip

Because in this strip, Shell Chemicals have perfected the most modern type of insect killer you can buy. Deadly to dudos, safe to humans and animals. You just hang one Vapona® strip in a room of about 10 ft. sq. ... and the dudos disappear.

Night and day for two to three months its vapours seek out and destroy insects continuously. Without smells, without harmful effects.

Invaluable in kitchens, cupboards, dustbins, farm buildings, industrial premises, restaurants wherever dudos threaten health and comfort.

So take your choice... Vapona or dudos. You can't have both!
