Cooper's Communique

TIXOL TAKES THE PLACE OF COOPER'S IMPROVED CATTLE DIP FOR THE TIME BEING.

Cooper's Improved Cattle Dip cannot be imported at present, although we are hopeful that it may be possible to do so in 1946. Old stocks are exhausted, so the Dip Controller will now issue a permit to buy Tixol when you ask for Cooper's Cattle Dip.

TIXOL is a concentrated cattle dip, and is used at a dilution of 1 to 400 for 5 to 7 days dipping. It can be added to your existing solution of Tixol. Simply follow the directions given on the Tixol label. And when testing your old dip solution, use the table given in the instructions for using the Cooper Dip Tester under "Tixol Cattle Dip." This will show you not only the same manner as hitherto, but if you have not got a "Tixol" Table please write to us for one.

If you wish us to test your sample, please do not forget to state that you are about to get Tixol.

"I say, this is excellent!"

"Of course it is. It's White Horse... That's just what it is... Well, the White Horse you get today will prove old when they're young... It's no secret. They've had down large stocks of White Horse in the days of plenty... They say the White Horse you get today... it's your horse's body... it's still a square."

Soil Conservation In Nyanza Province

THIS Soil Conservation Report for the Nyanza Province during the third quarter, 1966, shows that in continuation of terms of reference for the Kenya Agricultural Commission of September, and preliminary work has already started on some projects. The difficulty is to ensure that all the necessary hand work required in removing high spots and building up low spots is completed by the shamba owner. Government will provide the necessary equipment and the shamba owner will be responsible to the general farmer for the work to be done. It is the hope of the people that the major responsibility for soil conservation rests with the shamba owner, who is to be trained through a continuous supervision in the Nyanza Province.

The plant residue of the recent harvest, this however has been unproductive as the stock is eating up all the material. Pairs of dry cows are being carried out by the River Scouts and up to date no tree-planting has been done on the shamba farms.

KEROL

WILL STOP THE TROUBLE BEFORE IT STARTS

As a result of the recent short rains, the growth of new nutritious grass and general abundance of green stuff can be expected.

Nature's law of compensation however will bring attendant troubles and diseases and in particular digestive disorders and hives, which is caused by the animals grazing on lush fodder, which they will greedily crop, and feed on it in excess before their systems are adjusted to the change.

Kerol will prevent hives if used as follows— 40 lbs salt and bitumen and a winebottle of Kerol. If stock have not had the Kerol Lick regularly, then dose them with pure Kerol at intervals of three or four weeks.

If you will act in time, nature will do the rest, therefore

There are two varieties of trout here—the so-called "brown" or "rainbow" trout and the "brook" trout. There is no question as to the species of trout that would be most suitable for the one-point of agreement and agreement on the part of the trout fisherman. Think Hopes For Bumper Coffee Crop This Season

OBSERVATIONS ON ZANZIBAR'S BUDGET

The Zanzibar Government's observations on the budget for 1945-46, as presented to the Legislative Council, are a welcome sign of progress in the exploitation of the island's natural wealth. The budget shows a marked increase in the revenue derived from the coffee crop, which is expected to be bumper this season. This is a significant achievement, as it demonstrates the potential of the island's natural resources. The Government's efforts to improve the coffee industry are commendable, and it is hoped that these measures will lead to a more sustainable and prosperous economy for Zanzibar.

Tanganyika's New Plans For Development & Reconstruction

The Government of Tanganyika has announced a series of plans for development and reconstruction. These plans are aimed at improving the infrastructure of the island, including the construction of roads, bridges, and public buildings. The Government also plans to invest in education and healthcare, to ensure that the population has access to these essential services. These plans are a testament to the Government's commitment to the progress and well-being of the island.

The Government has also announced plans to improve the coffee industry. This includes providing technical assistance to coffee growers, as well as investing in the processing and marketing of coffee. These measures are designed to increase the productivity and profitability of the coffee sector, which is a major source of revenue for the island. The Government's support for the coffee industry is a key part of its strategy to diversify the economy and reduce dependence on a few commodities.

The Government's plans for development and reconstruction are a significant step towards a more modern and prosperous Tanganyika. By investing in infrastructure and social services, the Government is laying the foundation for long-term growth and stability. These plans are a reflection of the Government's vision for the future of the island, and it is hoped that they will be fully implemented.

African Ordination in Nairobi

The ceremony was attended by a large number of African students and leaders, and it was a significant event for the African community in Nairobi. The ordination was conducted by a senior African cleric, and it was a testament to the growing strength of the African church in the region. The students who were ordained will go on to serve their communities, and their presence in the church is a source of pride and inspiration for all.

The Government has also announced plans to improve the education system. This includes increasing the number of schools, as well as providing more resources for teachers and students. These measures are designed to ensure that all children have access to a quality education, which is essential for their future success. The Government's commitment to education is a key part of its strategy to build a more developed and prosperous nation.
