PLEDGE TO THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

TO BE CONSULTED IF MANDATES QUESTION IS RAISED

Premier More Definite

A MATTER WHICH CANNOT BE DEALT WITH HASTILY.

London, April 27. In reply to a question by Mr. Herbert Williams (C. Croxson) in the House of Commons to-day Mr. Baldwin made a very full statement on the position of the Mandates.

After explaining that the Mandates had been allocated by the principal Allied and Associated Powers at the end of the war and that the Mandates Commission had been set up to administer them, Mr. Baldwin said that the Government had already been considering such a possibility, notwithstanding the demerits of the Mandates. He said that the Government had already been considering such a possibility, notwithstanding the demerits of the Mandates.

ASSURANCE REPEATED

As regards the Government's policy, he repeated categorically that they had not considered and were not considering the transfer of any mandated territory. He said that a great deal of misapprehension existed among the Members of the House of Commons must be due to the fact that Government had already been considering such a possibility, notwithstanding the demerits of the Mandates.

That apprehension, he declared, was quite unfounded. Members could rest assured against the question themselves, and in the event of any question arising regarding the future status of the Mandates they would not commit themselves to any settlement without giving the fullest opportunity for discussion in the House.

RAVINE MURDER

Dr. Buck Ruxton's Appeal Dismissed

London, April 27. Without calling on the counsel for the Crown the House of Appeal today dismissed the appeal of Dr. Buck Ruxton, who was sentenced to hang for the murder of Miss Mary Kelly in 1931.

NEW AIR SERVICES

Nine to be inaugurated in Britain

London, April 28. Owing to the comparatively short distances involved, and the assistance of rail and road transport, the establishment of air services within Britain has had a more positive effect than elsewhere. Nine new air services will be inaugurated in Britain.

Death of King Fuad of Egypt

RULER WHO WAS RALLING POINT FOR FRIENDS OF BRITAIN

After making a remarkable rally yesterday during which he appealed to the British Minister and Palace officials, King Fuad died late in the day.

King Fuad died late in the day, after making a remarkable rally yesterday during which he appealed to the British Minister and Palace officials.

A STORMY REIGN

King Fuad's reign was a stormy one, marked by a very difficult period and a moderating influence in the latter part of his reign. He was a strong supporter of British policy against the forces of reaction which during his brief reign on several occasions threatened the disruption of the country.

EQUIPMENT
Telescopic adjustable steering column; Stevenson type locking system; self-cancelling illuminated trafficator; safety glass in all windows and adjustable screen with centralised air adjuster; twin electric screen wiper with concealed silent motor; transmittal-illuminated instrument panel with large dials (incorporating ammeter, electric petrol gauge, oil pressure gauge, speedometer and clock); ash trays, roof lights; dash ventilators; stop light, chromium lamp with dip and switch anti-dazzle system; chromium-plated bumper bars, front and rear; locks in all doors; inside driving mirror; rear window blind; twin harmonically tuned horns; pneu carpets, etc., etc.

LUGGAGE
Accommodation for suitcases in the two-compartment locker in tail (which also holds and conceals spare wheel and tyre, wheel-changing tools, etc.). Parcel accommodation consists of a special tray above rear square, a tray below the instrument panel and pockets in the doors.

New combined construction of CHASSIS and BODY
Increases strength, lessens weight. In these new models, the body "fills" (especially strengthened) forms the outer part of the chassis frame when bolted in position; enclosing the central part of the chassis which is X-shaped with welded joints and box sections at vital points. A feature of this frame is its inherent strength. As will be readily appreciated, it provides a much stronger and yet lighter assembly than does the normal design.

A FAMOUS TYRE WRITES ITS OWN STORY

How Inspector Joseph A. Farrot, world famous fingerprint expert and former Chief of New York detectives, made footprints of "G-3" tires. These reproduced in this advertisement are approximately one-third actual size.

P. J. Clewett, Manager, Trucking Company, Portland, Me., has driven his "G-3" for 13,021 MILES. He's a fast driver, yet the tread is only about 30% worn down, as shown by the sharp non-skid grip it still registers.

Auto Rental Service, Iowa, Des Moines, has had this "G-3" on one of its feet of rental cars. If all kinds of drivers at the wheel, the tyre has rolled up 26,275 MILES at over 100,000 miles.

Wm. M. Willis, R. F. D. Carrier, Columbus, O., has carried the U. S. Mail on this "G-3" for 20,000 MILES—much of it over gravel roads. He needs non-skid traction to get through on time—and this tyre, has plenty left.

Henry Clark, Taxi Driver, Albany, N. Y., has had this "G-3" in city and night service for 20,471 MILES. Treads the heaviest road conditions. Still has non-skid safety there!

H. H. Van Natta, Coal & Lumber Merchant, Morrisville, N. J., has traveled 14,500 MILES on this "G-3". Many tyres would be worn smooth at this mileage—but this sharp footprint proves there's many miles of safety left in this tread.

Albert J. Newman, Judge Probate Court, Evansville, Ind., has traveled 10,450 MILES on this "G-3" and its tread now makes this sharp, clean print. A typical example of the millions non-skid wear "G-3" tires make.

Wm. H. Brown, Chief of Police, Kingston, Mass., and other officers have patrolled 22,000 MILES on this "G-3". Police officers tread fast—take chances that necessitate the long-wear, big non-skid grip this tyre records.

Footprint evidence of "G-3's" 43% longer non-skid mileage on the cars of typical motorists.

NOTE: The footprints reproduced here are selected to represent typical rather than exceptional experience. Goodyear dealer files contain many records of vastly greater mileage. We seek to show performance under a wide range of driving conditions—and naturally all these tyres are good for thousands of added miles of service.

If you want to know how much stamina a tyre has—how well it withstands the cutting, grinding wear of grit and gravel roads—how it stands quick starts and brake-burning stops on rock-hard pavements —look at the tread and you'll get the unvarnished evidence!

That's what that famous sleuth and fingerprint expert Joseph A. Farrot did on his nationwide check-up on "G-3" All-Weathers—he "footprinted" them.

He gathered records, such as you see here—direct testimony, written by the tyres themselves—that prove "G-3's" broader, flatter, heavier tread is giving the public 43% longer non-skid mileage—ac better!

In these "footprints" you see proof of grip in the center of the tread—and 8,400 impartial tests show that Goodyears will stop your car quicker than any tyre tested against them.

Have your tyres footprinted by Goodyear dealer

How safe are your tyres? Ask your Goodyear dealer to take "footprints" and show you—and while you're there, have him show you footprints of "G-3" All-Weathers taken right in your neighborhood—local evidence of greater non-skid safety, long wear and low cost per mile that you can easily verify.

Have him show you also how Goodyear's exclusive Super-twist Cord in every ply insures maximum blowout protection—

—then ask yourself: "Why buy any tyre that offers less safety, less mileage, when Goodyears cost no more?"

BRIGHTER OUTLOOK FOR TANGANYIKA

IMPROVED TRADE FIGURES FOR LAST YEAR

Returning Confidence

GENERAL INCREASE IN TOTALS OF ABOUT THIRTY PER CENT.

EVIDENCE of the pausing of the depression in Tanganyika is provided in every section of the Mandated Territory's trade reports for 1933 which has just been issued. In 1931 the total volume of Tanganyika's trade was valued at 14,396,313 whereas last year it was 67,715,292.

Reference is made to the striking uniformity in the trade returns for last year compared with those for the previous year, every total having increased by approximately the same ratio of about 30 per cent.

The value of imported machinery rose by 65 per cent, which is regarded as the best index of returning confidence and of accelerated development of the Territory's natural resources. The improvement of the Territory's natural non-native population is shown by the higher values for spiritous, wines and beers, and by the fact that imports of motor cars were almost doubled.

Greater Spending Power

The value of imports for the year 1933-34, which in the previous five years has been from the following table of the total value of imports in pounds sterling:

Table with 2 columns: Year, Total Value. Data for 1931, 1932, 1933, 1934, 1935.

In 1933 the total imports, including the transportation charges, amounted to 67,715,292, an increase of 371 per cent on the total value of imports for 1932.

The report indicates that the value of imports in 1933-34 was 67,715,292, an increase of 371 per cent on the total value of imports for 1932.

Favourable Balance

It is noted that the favourable trade balance of 1933, of 2,363,610, is the largest since the outbreak of the war, and is estimated at half a million pounds.

The normal receipts of bullion in 1933-34 were 2,363,610, an increase of 100 per cent on the total value of bullion for 1932.

Nurse Executed

THE YIELDING of trade in London starting (Government imports being included with trade imports) was a favourable one for 1933, amounting to 67,715,292.

Man's Finger Wrapped in Love Letter, in a Box

London (By Mail). A human finger which has been wrapped round it has been found in a box in Brighton, Sussex.

The Chief Constable of Brighton, Mr. J. Hitchman, was immediately informed of the discovery, and the finding was reported to the Sussex County Hospital for examination by Dr. L. E. Hitchman.

Around the finger was a letter addressed to "Darling Rose," and a note which said: "Knowing now that you don't love me, I am sending you this box."

The box was found in a room at the Brighton Hotel, and the letter was found in a drawer of the room.

SAFARI NEARLY ENDS IN A TRAGEDY

ITALY'S ADVENTURES ON SERENGETI PLAINS

Game Ranger's Timely Aid

RAIR SEARCH AND RELIEF SAFARI ORGANISED BY CONSULATE

TWO Italians set out from Nairobi a month ago to spend a four days' holiday on the Serengeti Plains. It was 25 days later they returned in civilised surroundings.

In the meantime they had been more than enough of the African wilds and there are several stories which tell about the experience of a lion as close quarters.

And what they would like to say about some of the road conditions in Northern Tanganyika is quite unprintable.

There is, however, one bright spot in the story. The lives of these two men were probably saved by the opportune appearance of a British Game Ranger who was able to retort their expedition with food and fuel.

Kenya Finance

THE BOND ISSUE SCHEME

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard,"—
Sir,—Your readers will be surprised to read your article in support of Kenya's latest example of hysterical finance, the Bond Issue Scheme. You say that Government want a House without content—a fine compliment to the originators of the scheme, who think what might have been said.

The Bond Issue Scheme cannot be likened to a limited company trying to raise funds which will be loaned upon the security of its own shares, and will not do much more than to increase the Government's debt to the public. The Government is to govern, not to be governed by those of its subjects who are unable to borrow through the usual channels.

Have we not borrowed enough already? This is a further attempt to saddle the public with a greater load of nearly bankrupt forms, and it will only further increase our indebtedness, also our national debt. It is a waste of money to increase the Government's debt to the public, and it is a waste of money to increase the Government's debt to the public.

Let us rather turn our minds to the reduction of our public debt. A number of bills are being introduced in the House, and it is a business proposition to consider them. The Government should consider the possibility of reducing the public debt, and it is a business proposition to consider them. The Government should consider the possibility of reducing the public debt, and it is a business proposition to consider them.

Let us if we can reduce the amount required to service our loans, without reducing the amount due to those who hold our bonds. The Government should consider the possibility of reducing the public debt, and it is a business proposition to consider them. The Government should consider the possibility of reducing the public debt, and it is a business proposition to consider them.

There are those who say we must not give such a weapon as Income Tax to the hands of Government. But of course we ought not to give such a weapon as an epithet over public opinion. Let us then make weight behind the Government's shoulders, and let us make weight behind the Government's shoulders.

SOUTH AFRICA'S ATTITUDE TO TANGANYIKA

STRONGLY BACKING KENYA'S OPPOSITION TO TRANSFER

London Protest Meeting
CHANGE WOULD MEAN DANGEROUS THREAT TO SEA ROUTES TO AFRICA AND THE EAST

ALTHOUGH no official pronouncement has been made it is learned authoritatively that the Union Government is strongly opposed to any proposal to transfer Mandates to Germany.

With regard to Tanganyika it is felt that there must be no change which would break the British link from the Sudan to the Cape.

An important meeting in London passed a resolution calling on the Government for a clear declaration that transfer of Mandates held by Britain was not a matter which could be discussed.

Would Not Solve Population Problem

ALTHOUGH the transfer of the Mandates to Germany would not solve the population problem of Tanganyika, it is felt that the transfer would be a step towards the solution of the problem. The transfer would mean a change in the racial composition of the territory, and it is felt that this would be a step towards the solution of the problem.

KING'S CIVIL LIST

Saving of £156,000 a Year

Provision for Her

AND FOR POSSIBLE FUTURE DUES OF OGNWALL

THE Select Committee appointed to consider the King's Civil List, announced that the amount of £200,000 allowed in 1935 is reduced to £410,000 for the present year.

IF THE KING MARRIES

It is proposed that there should be no change in the King's Civil List, but unless the revenue from the King's Civil List is increased to £1,000,000, the King's Civil List will fall upon the Civil List and the whole £1,000,000 will remain undrawn.

PAUSE IN ADVANCE ON ADDIS ABABA

UNFORESEEN RESISTANCE BY ABYSSINIANS

Exhausted Troops

HEAVY RAIN ALSO INTERFERING WITH ITALIAN OPERATIONS

General Graziani has ordered a pause in the offensive in the south owing to the heavy rains and the exhaustion of the troops after a heavy three-day battle.

The situation was saved for the Italians by the magnificent behaviour of a battalion of Somalis, and the Abyssinians were finally repulsed by a heavy and hand-grenade charge.

It is claimed from Rome that an Italian motorized column of three thousand armoured cars and lorries has covered 140 kilometres on the motor road from Dessis to Addis Ababa.

Tragedy of 31 Deserters

Last Phase of the War?

SIX DROWNED AND THREE SHOT DEAD

FAILED TO OBEY ORDER TO SURRENDER

Incident Near Isiolo

SIX STILL MISSING: 16 MEN TAKEN BACK TO CAMP

WHEN they attempted to escape, tragedy overtook 31 Tigré deserters from the Italian Army who with 400 others had been interned at Isiolo. Only 16 have been recaptured.

Six were drowned. Three were shot. Six are missing.

An Official Statement

On the afternoon of the 29th April, 1936, 31 Tigré deserters from the Italian Army were captured in the area of Isiolo and escorted by a Company of British Frontier Force to Isiolo camp and held in a military barracks.

Burgundy Instructions

The instructions given to the despatch in charge of patrol was that this rifle should only be used if the deserters refused to surrender when called upon to do so and if they then continued to resist.

NOT UNDEFENDED

Italian Note on Prague Bombing

On the 29th April, 1936, the Italian Government has issued a note in which it states that the bombing of Prague on March 29, 1936, was an act of aggression and that Italy was not responsible for it.

GERMAN MEMORANDUM

Elimination of Certain Points

London, April 28. Mr. Baldwin told the House of Commons today that the Government hoped to get into touch with the German Government at an early date in order to eliminate certain points in the German memorandum.

AMMUNITION AND STORES

The supplementary estimate also makes provision for important improvements in the stock of ammunition, fuel and many other essential stores, and in the equipment of the Fleet.

Without Opposition

TEN THOUSAND ITALIANS MARCHING ON ABYSSINIAN CAPITAL

MEMBERS OF THE BRITISH AMBASSADE LIST REPORT THAT ITALIAN GUARDS HAVE CAPTURED THE STRATEGICAL MOUNTAIN, TARNADAR, PRACTICALLY WITHOUT OPPOSITION.

The Italians are now advancing on Bole, 70 miles from Addis Ababa with 10,000 men.

Italian aeroplanes dived over the aerodrome at Addis Ababa today, machine gunning the empty hangars.

As will be seen from the following graphic article the capture of Tarnadar removes practically the last remaining obstacle to the Italian advance on Addis Ababa.

Difficult Journey Described

The Italian advance on Addis Ababa has been described as a "difficult journey" by the British Ambassador.

DELAMERE AVENUE

As from today South Avenue, Road, will be known as Delamere Avenue, as a public road, and the name of the present owner, the late Lord Delamere, the old name has been removed, but the new name will not be used until the road is completed.

RELAY BROADCASTS

Commons Criticism of Private Exchanges

During a general debate on the future of broadcasting in the House of Commons, criticism was made of the Government's policy on relay broadcasts.

ROAD ACCIDENTS

On the 29th April, 1936, there were 122 road accidents in Great Britain, resulting in 1,000 deaths and 10,000 injuries.

NAKURU WEDDING

McLachlan—Watson Usher

STANDARD COMMUNION. The Church of St. Christopher, Nairobi, was beautifully decorated with large quantities of golden chrysanthemums, carnations and large daisies for the marriage of Mr. Colin Watson, father and Mrs. Mavis McLachlan, which took place on Saturday, The Rev. J. Collier officiated, and a full choir led the hymns. The bride wore a long white gown with flowing lines, the high front across the throat being finished off with a slight bow and the shoulder points being drawn in with a slight bow. The train was full, long in length, and the bride wore a long white gown with flowing lines, the high front across the throat being finished off with a slight bow and the shoulder points being drawn in with a slight bow.

Looking Ahead. The flow next week includes a meeting of the Capital Theatre on Monday, "Haley Plan" on Tuesday, "The Great Dictator" on Wednesday, "The Great Dictator" on Thursday, "The Great Dictator" on Friday, "The Great Dictator" on Saturday, "The Great Dictator" on Sunday.

FOR THE 'COUNTRY COURSE' BRITISH ISRAEL NOTES.

Entertainments This Week and Next

"Appointments for Henry" a most amusing comedy recently by Hume Long at the Empire Theatre, the chief word-wielder. "The Captive Heart" a play by Mrs. M. J. Wetherill, who also plays Henry, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McElroy and Miss Gladys Francis completed the week's entertainment.

At the Capital Theatre "Haley Plan" the second season of "The Great Dictator" is being shown. This is a very strong one. The film is a very strong one. The film is a very strong one.

Here Hitler, March 8, 1936. Entertainments and reviews of them is being asked not just as on the other hand party-motivated domination and being given up by the nations in order to look for the new political arrangements. This is a very strong one. The film is a very strong one.

Can it have anything more than entertainment that on the day following Sunday, March 15th which was the second national day for Great Britain since August 1914, the B.C.C. should broadcast a selection from the complete message of the following day. "He shall lead His flock the shepherd." "For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but My kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of My peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee." "He that watcheth over Israel neither slumbereth nor sleeps." "Rest in the Lord; wait patiently for Him; and He shall give thee cause of evil-doers." "Who shall faith unto death, and will give thee a crown of life." "I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter-day upon the earth." "Thou shalt not say, I will perish: for ever and ever shall I sing of thy mercy, O Lord of Hosts, King of Israel and Lord of Hosts." "Rather an amusing sequel which proved a great inspiration to all who heard it." "Directed by a group of artists—"

HIGH WORDS AT KITALE

selection in a general Bund scheme.

Visit to England

Major B. Hill moved a resolution approving the proposal that Lord Francis Birt should go home to put up Kenya's case to the authorities.

'Bribe Exchange'

Colonel Kirkwood then addressed the meeting and complained that he had been the subject of subterranean criticism, which he resented.

This brought Major B. Hill, chairman of the Association, to his feet with an indignant denunciation of the criticism.

Dairy Bill

Captain Lang had a very sharp speech. He said that if the Government were thinking of switching over to mixed farming they would be assured that the agriculturists were ready to speak on the Dairy Control Bill.

Important Factors

Councillor Oehler said that he was in sympathy with Councillor Allen's proposal to amend the Milk Ordinance, which he considered to have overlooked some important factors that had been considered at the time the bill was passed.

Sliding Scale

On the other hand, he said that the Government had not taken into consideration the fact that the price of milk would not remain constant at £80 per ton.

Director Not Resident

It was pointed out that others than the members would be concerned in the management of the Milk Board, and that it was a danger of the Bill being interpreted as meaning that the Director would be appointed with the power of appointing and dismissing the members.

Wishes Expressed

It was pointed out that others than the members would be concerned in the management of the Milk Board, and that it was a danger of the Bill being interpreted as meaning that the Director would be appointed with the power of appointing and dismissing the members.

MUNICIPAL LEVY

that all members of the staff should contribute. The levy originally varied from £5 to £20 per year, there being five rates, according to salary.

Councillor Allen, to ask any members to pay £100 because they were some members of the staff who were not included, and who could be got rid of when their contracts came up for renewal.

Councillor Newark supported the motion and Councillor Stott, while expressing sympathy with the proposal, said that he thought that the question of renewal of contracts should be dealt with separately.

ARMS USELESS ON A WET DAY

Rheumatism Made Work a Torture BUT KRUSCHEN PUT HIM RIGHT

There is a remarkable statement of the manner in which rheumatism can affect the bodies of one who is subject to rheumatism.

One of the secrets of the effectiveness of Kruschen is the exact proportion of the six different salts of Kruschen. This is a tested and scientific fact. It is not by chance that Kruschen has a world-wide reputation for curing rheumatism.

Correspondence

The Editor has had some correspondence on the subject of the proposed railway from Nairobi to Mombasa. It is interesting to note that the public opinion is generally in favour of the project, and that the Government are taking steps to carry it out.

We have received the sum of £1,641 12 9d. for the purchase of the Zambesi's contribution. This total shows an increase on last year's figures, which is a sign of the generosity of the public and the devotion and loyalty to the service to which they give their services to raise it. Of this amount £424.24 has already been handed to the British Legation and United Services Benevolent Fund for Kenya, with the consent of the London Headquarters, leaving a balance of £1,117 9 5d. to forward to London.

E.A.W.L. Poppy Doves were established in Nairobi, Nakuru, Elders, Kakamega, Kisumu, Mombasa, Elders, and other places, and the amount raised by the making of floral tributes of Flowers, Poppies, was phenomenal. Each District Vice-President the League organized her Branch from top to end, and poppies were sold in the streets, and by house to house visits. Entertainments were held in many places, and the proceeds added to the district collections.

We should like to thank Lady Rankine and her committee for Zambesi for so kindly contributing to our cause with all several District Officers and friends, as well as all our District Vice-presidents and their Committees, who helped with the organization in all of the Field.

Warmest thanks are also due to General Committee who give financial assistance to our Headquarters Secretary in the work of packing and despatching the Poppy Day material to all districts throughout the Colony. In this general statement it is impossible to mention by name the various districts which have done so well, but we should like to mention the names of the Managers of Railways, for seeing the Poppy Day train transport to Nairobi, Messrs. Bond and Clarke in Mombasa and the Eastern Transport Company in Nairobi who deal with the parcels, etc. to both Mombasa, Elders, and Nairobi, the Standard Bank, Nairobi, and other banks, the Citizens' Committee, and their chapters; the Press and Motion Picture and Wireless for

Racing

Foala, a three-year-old filly owned by the King and trained by Lord Derby, won the Epsom Oaks at Ascot Park on Monday, starting at odds of 10 to 1 against. This is the first time that a mare of her age has won the Oaks since 1870, when Miss Lady's mare, Yvonne, won the race. The mare was owned by the King and trained by Lord Derby's mare, Yvonne, who won the race in 1870.

In the last month of their Eastern tour, the Barbarians drew a goal, missing a goal, a penalty and a try. This was the last and best performance of the Barbarians since they left the Barbarians Newport for the last time on Saturday, April 12.

Cricket

Surrey County Cricket Club, who have scored a deficit of 44,300, but the annual report is far ahead of the annual figures of the club. In the 1935-36 season, the club scored 22,000 runs, 100 wickets and 100 runs. The club's total score for the season was 22,000 runs, 100 wickets and 100 runs.

Boxing

Whether he wins or loses his fight with Jack Peterson for the British and Empire weight championship will be decided on Monday, May 11, at the Royal Albert Hall, London. The fight will take place at 8.15 p.m.

Squash Rackets

R. D. McKelvie has his first championship when he beat the English Squash Rackets Champion, Mr. I. H. MacKenzie, in the final of the 1935-36 season. The match was played on Saturday, April 12, at the Royal Albert Hall.

Snooker

Howard Lindell defeated Joe Davis on Saturday for a purse of £100. The match was played at the Royal Albert Hall, London. Lindell won the match with a score of 10-9.

Yacht Racing

The preliminary regatta for the 1936 British Empire Cup was held at the Royal Albert Hall, London, on Saturday, April 12. The regatta was a success and the British Empire Cup was won by the British team.

Ice Hockey

Miss L. H. MacKenzie beat Miss M. C. Lockhart in the final of the 1935-36 season. The match was played on Saturday, April 12, at the Royal Albert Hall.

FEATURES OF THE "FLYING STANDARD"

NEW FORM OF CHASSIS AND BODY CONSTRUCTION

EXCEPTIONAL SEATING ACCOMMODATION

The newly introduced "Flying Standard" (The only light four-wheeler available) should find a ready market among discerning motorists.

Both from the rear ends of the chassis are strengthened by cross bracing and the complete chassis is welded.

mechanism by making the sides of the body including the centre pillar, one and the same.

Driving comfort has received special study for the comfort of the driver and the passenger.

Mechanical Details

Whichever the new "Flying Standard" is available, it is a work of art.

Both from the rear ends of the chassis are strengthened by cross bracing and the complete chassis is welded.

As has already been stated, the new "Flying Standard" is also a masterpiece of engineering.

Breaks

The new "Flying Standard" is equipped with the Bendix type brakes.

The Italo-Abyssinian War PAUSE IN ADVANCE ON ADDIS ABABA

UNFORESEEN RESISTANCE BY ABYSSINIANS

Exhausted Troops HEAVY RAIN ALSO INTERFERING WITH ITALIAN OPERATIONS

ADDIS ABABA, April 29. The Government have decided not to leave Addis Ababa.

The Emperor's armies are making a desperate stand at Mekele. Some 120 miles to the north of Mekele the British Ambulance authorities are preparing to send an advance column there.

ITALIAN CASUALTIES

Rome, April 29. According to official figures Italians who were killed or died of wounds or disease in East Africa from January 1935 to the middle of April 1936, numbered 1,591.

ITALIAN ADVANCE

Rome, April 24. It is stated officially that the Italian advance continues in all sectors of the Southern front and that an Eritrean column from Dessalegn crossed Eritrean without resistance.

April 25. Reporting a further advance on the Suddra front the Italians admit that progress was hindered by the desperate resistance put up by the Abyssinian troops who fought with unprecedented bravery.

April 26. Italian aeroplanes circling over Addis Ababa have dropped leaflets threatening the population that unless they submit they will be massacred and their houses razed to the ground. The leaflets point out that if the Abyssinians do not submit they will be massacred and their houses razed to the ground.

April 27. There has been fierce fighting on the southern front. It is felt that if the Italians are successful at Mekele the way to Harar and the Djibouti railway will be open, and that there may therefore be a race between the southern and western Italian armies to reach Addis Ababa first.

April 28. WAR correspondents in the Blackshirts' camp and headquarters at Gershal had an alarming taste of war when the Blackshirts launched a fierce counter-charge.

The situation was saved for the Italians by the magnificent behaviour of a battalion of Somali, and the Abyssinians were finally repulsed by a bayonet and hand grenade charge.

It is claimed from Rome that an Italian motorized column of three thousand armored cars and lorries has covered 160 kilometers on the motor road from Dessalegn to Addis Ababa.

General Graziani has ordered a pause in the offensive in the south owing to the heavy rains and the exhaustion of the troops after a heavy three-day battle. So far the attempts to capture Sannabeh have failed.

Fierce Attack on Gorahai

Rome, April 29. It is reported that the Italian army has captured Gorahai on the night of the 28th. The Italian advance on the night of the 28th was a surprise attack on the Abyssinian positions at Gorahai. The Italian army captured Gorahai on the night of the 28th.

April 29. The Italian advance on the night of the 28th was a surprise attack on the Abyssinian positions at Gorahai. The Italian army captured Gorahai on the night of the 28th.

Abyssinian force has been surrounded on three sides. An Italian column of this point will open the way to Harar and the Djibouti railway, and may therefore be considered as the main road to Addis Ababa between the Italian southern and eastern fronts.

Troops to Fogpale. Troops to Fogpale. Troops to Fogpale. Troops to Fogpale.

The leaflets are issued in Italian and are signed by General Graziani. They threaten that if the Abyssinians do not submit they will be massacred and their houses razed to the ground.

They also state that the Italian army has covered 160 kilometers on the motor road from Dessalegn to Addis Ababa.

According to an official estimate of 3,000 men, the Italian army has covered 160 kilometers on the motor road from Dessalegn to Addis Ababa.

Despite the terrible conditions the Italian army has covered 160 kilometers on the motor road from Dessalegn to Addis Ababa.

An appeal has been made to the Italian people to support the Italian army in its fight against the Abyssinians.

SIGNS OF TENSION ON AUSTRO-GERMAN BORDER

Significant movement of Austrian troops. (Through Austria's Agency.)

Austria is preparing to move contingents of troops from Vienna and the eastern parts of Austria into Salzburg and Innsbruck.

Retentive is maintained in military circles but it is officially stated that the troop movements are due to training purposes, troops being transferred from the plains into the mountains regions and vice versa.

On the other hand, however, rumors are prevalent that Germany is making large-scale military preparations along the Bavarian-Austrian frontiers.

Plans are being made to receive infantry from Vienna in the frontier districts of Austria and East Prussia.

Train loads of troops have left Scyria for the important railway junction of Innsbruck and Kufstein. Air Force is being made to receive several squadrons of the Austrian Air Force at Innsbruck air port.

PRINCESS THAHA'S APPEAL

"FOR GOD'S SAKE DO SOMETHING BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE"

Princess Thaha's appeal. (Through Austria's Agency.)

"FOR God's sake do something before it is too late," says the Emperor's daughter, Princess Thaha, in a telegram to the writers of the world to give their governments no peace until they take effective action.

The Princess suggests the holding of meetings at which petitions should be drawn up and presented to the Presidents and Premiers, and says the governments should demand that Italy should immediately destroy all stocks of poison gas.

POSITION OF INDIANS IN ADDIS ABABA. Fully Safeguarded by Embassy.

No Request for Repatriation to India. (Through Austria's Agency.)

The Abyssinians are not asking for the repatriation of the Indian community in Addis Ababa.

Saving of £156,000 A Year TO BE CONSULTED IF MANDATES QUESTION IS PRESENT

Premier More Definite A MATTER WHICH COULD NOT BE DEALT WITH HASTILY.

London, April 27. In reply to a question by Mr. Herbert Williams (C. Croft) in the House of Commons to-day Mr. Baldwin made a very full statement on the position of the Mandates.

After explaining that the Mandates had been allocated by the principal Allied and Associated Powers at the end of the war and that the Mandates had accepted the Mandates from the League of Nations and had undertaken specific obligations, he added that he was advised that before any transfer could be effected it would be necessary to secure the consent at any rate of the present Mandatary Power and of the Power to whom it was proposed to transfer the Mandate as well as the unanimous consent of the League Council.

The question of the transfer of Mandates was one which, were it contemplated, would require the most careful consideration and would be subjected to a procedure of the most elaborate nature. It could not under any circumstances be a subject for any sudden and hasty decision.

ASSURANCE REPEATED. As regards the Government's policy, he repeated categorically that they had not considered and were not considering the transfer of any mandated territory. He thought that a great deal of misapprehension existed among the Members of the House of Commons not due to the belief that Government had already been considering the possibility, notwithstanding the details, and that the House might later be faced with a decision on the subject.

That apprehension, he declared, was quite unfounded. Members could rest assured that the Government had no intention whatever of raising the question of transfer in the event of any question arising regarding the present status of the Mandates they would not commit themselves to any settlement without giving the fullest opportunity for discussion in the House.

UNION'S BIG DEFENCE PROGRAMME

THOUSAND NEW PILOTS IN FIVE YEARS

Common Action in British Africa

MEASURES which in the course of the Abyssinian campaign would within five years give South Africa a thousand pilots and an anti-tank battalion capable of being transported 300 miles in 48 hours were discussed by Mr. Oswald Prew, Minister for Defence, in the House of Assembly to-day.

He said it was proposed to form from civil aircraft 12 squadrons of high-speed multi-engine bombers, but declared that it was not certain that these resources would prove adequate and South Africa might find it worth a year or two that she required three times the present number of first-line aircraft.

COMMON POLICIES

Continuing, he said it seemed inevitable that there would ultimately be a common native and common defence policy for the Union and the whole of British Africa south of the Sudan. Any help that South Africa could give in connection with the building up of the British air force, or by any means of defence, would be given on the same generous basis as Britain had applied to them.

He emphasized that South Africa was not preparing for an early war but was merely taking elementary precautions, and declared that he was exploring the possibility of manufacturing in South Africa the various military necessities hitherto imported. He added that it was also studying industrial possibilities for war purposes.

Death of King Fuad of Egypt

RULER WHO WAS RALLYING POINT FOR FRIENDS OF BRITAIN

Late King Fuad The New King

After making a remarkable rally, during which he consulted with the Prime Minister and Palace officials, King Fuad died on Tuesday.

According to a Reuters message from Cairo the King shortly before his death insisted on giving instructions for replies to be made to the numerous telegrams of sympathy received from all over the world.

Prince Farouk the 16 year old heir who is at present in England succeeds his father. He is expected to leave immediately for Egypt.

King Fuad occupied the throne of Egypt during a very difficult period and was a moderating influence in the country. He was a strong supporter of British policy against the forces of reaction which during his brief reign on several occasions threatened the disruption of the country.

A STORMY REIGN

King Ahmad Fuad, I.O.B., Egypt's first constitutional monarch, was born in the Palace on Ghiza on March 20, 1869, the youngest son of the Khedive, Ismail Pasha. He spent much of his youth in Italy where he was mainly educated, also studying in Switzerland. Returning to Egypt in 1890, he was appointed mainly nominal a vassal of the British. In 1914, when the country was again occupied by the British, he was appointed nominal a vassal of the British. In 1914, when the country was again occupied by the British, he was appointed nominal a vassal of the British.

After the termination of the British Protectorate over Egypt, on February 28, 1922, he became King Fuad I of Egypt. He was crowned on the 15th of March, 1922, in the presence of the British High Commissioner, Lord Cromer, and the British High Commissioner, Lord Cromer, and the British High Commissioner, Lord Cromer.

Miller Commission

Following the riots and disturbances in 1925 and Lord Alton's pacific attitude the Miller Commission was appointed. It was required to report on the situation in Egypt and had to be reported to the British High Commissioner, Lord Cromer, and the British High Commissioner, Lord Cromer.

Question of Title Exception was taken to the British High Commissioner, Lord Cromer, and the British High Commissioner, Lord Cromer. The British High Commissioner, Lord Cromer, and the British High Commissioner, Lord Cromer.

COST OF LIVING (STANDARD) CONSERVATION After more than a year of the cost-of-living index, which shows a steady increase, it is now more than a million per cent. For this reason the Government is endeavoring to collect data on the main items of expenditure to working-class families. The latest figures of the cost of maintaining a working-class family on February 28, 1936, was reported as follows:

INDECISIVE VOTING IN CONSTITUENCIES

HEAVY POLLING LIMITED AGRICULTURAL POSSIBILITIES

Land Value Uncertain

NO EVIDENCE THAT MINERALS ARE PRESENT IN PAYABLE QUANTITIES

That there is no evidence of mineral wealth, that land values are uncertain and the limited agricultural possibilities of the country are the three principal points made by the 'Manchester Guardian's' special correspondent at Direwala in an analysis of what Italy may hope to gain from her campaign in Abyssinia.

The superficial area of Ethiopia is certainly large enough, but huge tracts could be covered off at once as wastelands, he observes. With one exception the plains are stony, water-laden but with no possibility of irrigation. The Blue Nile and its tributaries, he opines, could only be used to irrigate land in the Sudan.

ORDERLY POLLING

Of the 400 polling stations known 100 require the second ballot next Sunday. The election opened very quietly and in the first phase of each day has characterized by the whole a determined campaign.

The polling stations opened at 8 a.m. and it was almost an hour before the first voters began to trickle into the stations. The President was among the earliest. He walked to the polling station.

The voting was broken by the election arriving at the rate of 100 per cent. The stream continued at this rate until 6 p.m. The results were transmitted from the Ministry for the Interior until the early hours of the morning.

Settlement Prospects

One of the major uncertainties in the Italian Abyssinian situation has been the study of maps which showed that Italy has since to encourage his soldiers, states the special correspondent of the 'Manchester Guardian' at Direwala.

Probably these maps were drawn up on some sort of evidence, and one can only imagine that this was supplied by the Italian military intelligence.

SOUTH AFRICA'S ATTITUDE TO TANGANYIKA

STRONGLY BACKING KENYA'S OPPOSITION TO TRANSFER

London Protest Meeting

CHANGE WOULD MEAN DANGEROUS THREAT TO SEA ROUTES TO AFRICA AND THE EAST

ALTHOUGH no official pronouncement has been made it is learned authoritatively that the Union Government is strongly opposed to any proposal to transfer Mandates to Germany.

With regard to Tanganyika it is felt that there must be no change which would break the British link from Suidan to the Cape.

An important meeting in London passed a resolution calling on the Government for a clear declaration that transfer of Mandates held by Britain was not a matter which could be discussed.

Would Not Solve Population Problem

It is pointed out in a memorandum submitted to the Union Government that the transfer of the Mandates to Germany would not solve the population problem of the East African territories.

U. & W. Africa

The Union is even more opposed to the transfer of the Mandates to Germany than it is to the transfer of the Mandates to France.

FINAL OF THE F.A. CUP AT WEMBLEY

GAME NOTEWORTHY FOR ITS LOST OPPORTUNITIES

Arsenal's Well-merited Victory

SHEFFIELD UNITED LOSE IN ONE OF POOREST OF RECENT FINALS

Before a crowd of at least 85,000, the Football Association Cup Final was won on Saturday by Arsenal.

The game was one of the poorest finals of recent years and was notable for the number of missed opportunities.

Villa and Blackburn go Down

THIRTEEN DRAWN MATCHES

London, April 25.—A desperate air fight took place at the Cup Final to-day between the Wembley Stadium authorities and the cinema news reel companies, acting collectively to secure a fair share of the interest in the match.

The companies offered £500 for the picture rights, which was refused by the Stadium authorities, who took their own picture.

The news reel companies thereupon hired four autogiros and four other aircraft for taking pictures, while the Stadium authorities pressed 20 searchlights to turn on to the autogiros in order to confuse them, but they were not used.

The Autogiros circled round at about a thousand feet above the stadium, but never directly overhead, and secured pictures.

The Air Ministry refused to interfere.

THE FUTURE OF KENYA RIFLE CLUBS

REMOVING DOUBTS IN THE MINDS OF MEMBERS

Temporary Scheme Explained

EXPERTS' HELP AND ADVICE TO BE AVAILABLE TO MARKSMEN

Members of Kenya Rifle Clubs have apparently understood the purpose of the in-house security introduced when only six Defence Force rifles are being called in and Club shots.

The Regimental Sergeant Major will tour the Clubs regularly and will conduct selected rifles in first-class enclosure that the same rifles used by the same marksmen.

Government is anxious to make it clear that the proposal is a temporary one pending consideration of defence

Letters published in the columns of the East African have recently, criticising the arrangements for the Kenya Defence Force Rifle Clubs to be taken over by the Government to be based on the principle that there is a national rifle club in every district in Kenya. It is also pointed out that the Government has been in the process of purchasing the rifles of the Kenya Rifle Clubs.

The East African has also been informed that the Government is in the process of purchasing the rifles of the Kenya Rifle Clubs. It is also pointed out that the Government has been in the process of purchasing the rifles of the Kenya Rifle Clubs.

EAST AFRICAN FINANCE BASICALLY SOUND AREA EQUAL TO EUROPE: DEBT OF PROVINCIAL TOWN

Reply to the Critics

IN MEMORANDUM ON STATE BOND ISSUE SCHEME

A vigorous reply to the charge that the financial condition of Kenya is basically unsound is provided by the memorandum for the Colonial Office setting out the details of the Bond Issue Scheme.

The memorandum states that on the contrary the financial position is "probably sounder than that of any comparable area."

It is pointed out that East Africa, equivalent in area to Europe, excluding Russia, has the debt of a provincial town.

One of the interesting and important features of the memorandum is that the financial condition of Kenya is compared with that of the Province of Ontario, Canada, which has been one of the most advanced of the provinces in the Dominion of Canada.

SAFARI NEARLY ENDS IN A TRAGEDY

ITALIANS' ADVENTURES ON SERENGETI PLAINS

Game Ranger's Timely Aid

AIR SEARCH AND RELIEF SAFARIGANISED BY CONSULATE

TWO Italians set out from Nairobi a month ago to spend a four day holiday on the Serengeti Plains. It was 25 days before they returned to civilised surroundings.

In the meantime they had had more than enough of the African wilds and there is very little they do not know about the appearance of a lion at close quarters.

And what they would like to say about most of the road conditions in Northern Tanganyika is quite unprintable.

This is, however, the bright spot in the story. The lives of these two men were probably saved by the opportune appearance of a British Game Ranger who was able to refit their expedition with food and fuel.

Lion Infected Camp

The two men started from Arusha travelling in two big body vans. They were accompanied by four natives and a white hunter. Their destination was the Serengeti Plains. They were to be followed by photographers and other game people. They left Nairobi on the first stage of their journey, on the weather was quite dry but they were to have a very bad time.

Hours of Lion

They were, however, unfortunally hit by a lion which was spotted by them on the Serengeti Plains. The lion was very close to them and they were unable to escape. The lion was very close to them and they were unable to escape. The lion was very close to them and they were unable to escape.
