HILTON YOUNG COMMISSION'S REPORT.

HIGH COMMISSIONER TO PRECEDE A GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

Paramountcy of Native Interests an Essential Factor in E. Africa.

CHANGES IN KENYA LEGISLATURE.

Addition of Four Nominees to Represent Africans and Decrease of Four Official Members.

THE IMPERIAL ASPECT OF E.A. PROBLEMS.

The Report of the Hilton Young Commission issued yesterday recommends as a preliminary and immediate step to closer union of Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika, the appointment of a High Commissioner with executive powers to inaugurate discussions on native policy, promote initiatives in the control of certain services, common interests, and to discuss and work out arrangements for proposed modifications of Kenya Legislative Council.

As a result of this preliminary work it is further recommended that at the end of a period, not specified, the High Commissioner should be replaced by a Governor-General exercising to the far as possible the functions of the Secretary of State.

It is proposed that the Governor-General should be assisted by a small Advisory Council, an Intercolonial Advisory Railway Council and an Intercolonial Customs Council. Periodical conferences in London attended by East African delegates, an advisory Parliament and a small paid Advisory Council are proposed for the longer term.

No changes are needed at present in the Legislatures of Uganda and Tanganyika simultaneous with or subsequent to the appointment of a Governor-General. It is proposed that four of the official members of the Kenya Legislative Council should be replaced by four nominated unofficial members to represent native interests in addition to the missionary already appointed.

The Commission suggests that consideration be given to the replacement of adult franchise in Kenya by a franchise dependent on a civilisation test, and that the ideal to be aimed at is a common roll on an equal franchise with no racial discrimination.

It is further proposed that the whole field of native interests should be clearly defined. A co-ordinated native policy for all three territories is urged.

Alteration in the Kenya Legislature is accompanied by the proposal for special powers being given to the executive authority including power to suspend or dissolve the Kenya House of Representatives and to appoint or dismiss the Governor-General.

The Chairman, Sir Edward Hilton Young dissents from many of the more important recommendations of the Commission including the alteration in the Kenya constitution. The present status of Nyasaland and Northern Rhodesia is to be maintained pending further developments of the territories.

Famous Mansion Burned

London, Jan. 27.

One of the best known English mansions, the Grosvenor, was almost completely destroyed by fire on Wednesday night. The fire started in the kitchen, and spread to the main hall, the dining room, and the drawing room, and finally to the main staircase.

The Grosvenor was built in 1760, and was one of the finest mansions in London. It was owned by the Duke of Devonshire, and was the home of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire.

The fire broke out at about 11 o'clock, and was caused by a gas lamp in the kitchen. The fire spread rapidly, and within a few minutes the main hall and the drawing room were in flames.

The Grosvenor was almost completely destroyed, and the main staircase was completely ruined. The Duke and Duchess of Devonshire escaped with their lives, but the Grosvenor was almost completely destroyed.

Chairman's Proposals.
KENYA LEGISLATURE
As an alternative to the report recommendations regarding Kenya Legislative Council, the Chairman recommends in an advisory report for discussion between Kenya and the High Commissioner.

(4) That the number of the members of Council be reduced from 12 to 8 and the additional nominated unofficial members for African interests be reduced from four to seven.
(5) Of the eight nominated members three should be nominated to represent the interests of the whole community and one of these three should be a member of the Indian community. The remaining five should represent the interests of natives.

Nyasaland and Northern Rhodesia.
INDEPENDENT STATUS TO BE MAINTAINED
The majority reports on the Central African territories recommend that the independent status of Nyasaland and Northern Rhodesia be maintained pending further development of transportation and of mineral resources in the territories. This view, both of which may be important bearing on the withdrawal of administrative boundaries.

E. A. Boundaries.
SUGGESTED ALTERATION
The boundaries of the territories should be defined on the basis of the following principles:
(1) The boundaries should be defined on the basis of geographical features.
(2) The boundaries should be defined on the basis of administrative convenience.
(3) The boundaries should be defined on the basis of the interests of the communities concerned.

He recommended that the administration of the territories should be transferred to the Government of Kenya, and that the parts of the system recommended should be applied to the whole area of the territories. He also recommended that the Government of Kenya should be empowered to propose the boundaries of the territories and that the Government of Kenya should be empowered to propose the boundaries of the territories.

The Masi Mountains.
The report of the Masi Mountains Commission recommends that the Masi Mountains should be included in the territory of Kenya.

Chairman's Minority Report.

CLOSER UNION REPORT AROUSES A STORM OF CRITICISM.

Sir Edward Grigg Stated to Agree With Chairman's View.

STRONG GERMAN OPPOSITION.

Proposals Completely Incompatible with Britain's Mandatory Trusteeship.

The Closer Union Commission's Report is already the centre of an outburst of criticism which has passed beyond the boundaries of the Empire...

The "Manchester Guardian" and the Liberal school of thought are also critics of the Report. It is pointed out that the primary task of the British public should be to see that the African secures economic independence...

The "Morning Post" speaks of the "higher philosophical rights" of the Report which are, unlikely to be appreciated by the people who are actually building the Colonies.

The "Times" comments the exclusion of guiding principles and believes that East Africa must remain an integral part of the Commonwealth.

The "Daily Telegraph" thinks that the Chairman's minority views will appeal to an instructed public.

H. E. Sir Edward Grigg is reported to be in agreement with the Chairman of the Commission on the view that it is extreme to assert that the Kenya settlers must abandon the idea of responsible government.

THE SELF-GOVERNMENT ISSUE.

PARLIAMENTS CORRESPONDENT

LONDON, Jan. 18. Commenting on the Report of the British Youth Commission, the "Times" comments the absence of the guiding principles which set behind most vague generalizations...

The "Daily Telegraph" whose views were hardly regarded by the Commission as a serious consideration...

The Commission is seeking to establish the rights of different communities, and the recognition of a substantial central authority in the nearest possible form...

The Liberal school of thought are also critics of the Report.

THE "MORNING POST" SPEAKS OF THE "HIGHER PHILOSOPHICAL RIGHTS" OF THE REPORT WHICH ARE, UNLIKELY TO BE APPRECIATED BY THE PEOPLE WHO ARE ACTUALLY BUILDING THE COLONIES.

THE "TIMES" COMMENTS THE EXCLUSION OF GUIDING PRINCIPLES AND BELIEVES THAT EAST AFRICA MUST REMAIN AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

THE "DAILY TELEGRAPH" THINKS THAT THE CHAIRMAN'S MINORITY VIEWS WILL APPEAL TO AN INSTRUCTED PUBLIC.

H. E. SIR EDWARD GRIGG IS REPORTED TO BE IN AGREEMENT WITH THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMISSION ON THE VIEW THAT IT IS EXTREME TO ASSERT THAT THE KENYA SETTLERS MUST ABANDON THE IDEA OF RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT.

The Drying of Maize.

Simple and Economical Methods

The following simple and economical methods of drying maize have been developed by the Agricultural Department of the Government of Kenya and are being put into practice in the various districts of the Province.

The first method is the use of a simple wooden frame, which is built up of poles and is covered with a material which will allow the sun to dry the maize, but will prevent it from being blown away by the wind.

The second method is the use of a simple wooden frame, which is built up of poles and is covered with a material which will allow the sun to dry the maize, but will prevent it from being blown away by the wind.

Programme of Tour by the Senior Coffee Officer.

The Senior Coffee Officer, Mr. J. H. Stephano, will be touring the various coffee districts of the Province during the month of January, 1929. The tour will be for the purpose of inspecting the coffee plantations and of advising the growers on the best methods of cultivation and on the best methods of dealing with the various pests and diseases which attack the coffee plant.

The tour will start on Monday, January 14th, at Nairobi, and will visit the following districts: Meru, Thika, Kiambu, and Nyeri.

The tour will be held in the afternoon of each day, and will be held in the open air, so that the growers will be able to see the coffee plants and to hear the Senior Coffee Officer's advice.

Common Fallacies Concerning Brakes.

Factors Which Control Them.

It is very easy to get into the habit of pulling up on a bonnet's spring from the front of the car. This is a bad habit, and one which should be broken. The correct spring should be used, and the car should be adjusted so that the front wheels are not too tight. This will allow the car to stop more easily, and will also save wear on the tires.

A Right Exaggeration!

It is a common fallacy to believe that the more the car is adjusted, the better it will be. This is not true. The car should be adjusted so that it is comfortable to drive, and that it will stop easily. The car should not be adjusted so tight that it is difficult to drive, or so loose that it is difficult to stop.

How Speed Affects Stopping.

It is a common fallacy to believe that the faster the car is going, the more it will stop. This is not true. The car will stop more easily if it is going slower. The car should be adjusted so that it will stop easily at any speed.

Front Brakes, Rear Brakes and Skidding.

It is a common fallacy to believe that the front brakes are the most important. This is not true. The rear brakes are just as important. The car should be adjusted so that both the front and rear brakes are working properly.

Brakes on Heavy Cars.

It is a common fallacy to believe that the brakes on heavy cars are not as good as those on light cars. This is not true. The brakes on heavy cars are just as good as those on light cars. The car should be adjusted so that the brakes are working properly.

Skidding on Heavy Cars.

It is a common fallacy to believe that heavy cars are more likely to skid. This is not true. The car should be adjusted so that it will not skid. The car should be adjusted so that the brakes are working properly.

A NOVEL WIRE WHEEL.

Addressing Ridge-Whitworth Design.

Wire wheels are very fashionable at the present time, and their growth is popularly being largely due to the introduction of several successful designs adapted to the motor car. The wire wheel is a fashion which is being carried over to the motor car, and is being used in the centre of the wire wheel which is the centre of the wheel.

Most of these better wire wheels are built up upon false hubs, or shells, which the motor car is built upon. The wire wheel is a fashion which is being carried over to the motor car, and is being used in the centre of the wire wheel which is the centre of the wheel.

Buick Breaks Record

All Previous Buick sales records for East Africa broken

On January 15th, two and a half months after the introduction of the amazing 1929 model Buick sales totals in Kenya and Uganda have eclipsed all previous records.

Leading in sales in its price class for several years, the increasing demand for the new models is resulting in record deliveries.

Never before have motorists been so outspokenly enthusiastic over any car. REGARDLESS OF PRICE.

Everywhere one hears the unbounded praise of the truly startling road performance of the 1929 Buick.

In former years comparisons with other cars were made. But Buick this year has gone far beyond the point where comparisons can be made.

The new Buick is so definitely and conclusively superior that it is literally sweeping the field throughout the world. Actual sale figures show that Buick leads by over 100 per cent. all other cars in the same price class.

of afternoon frocks have the neck cut square from a shaped yoke outlined with hem-stitching. Skirts are usually draped or pleated.

For those desiring to be sporty, a frock with a wide collar and a skirt of simple, straight, plain, or mauve. These are sporting ensembles are perfectly quite satisfactory.

Each frock appearing in the present issue, being suitable for evening wear. The very fashion of these frocks has been adopted from the latest and most up-to-date designs. These frocks have been chosen for some of the most fashionable of the season.

Beaded bands of rose-colored ribbon form a novel means of decorating a simple jumper frock in rose-colored stock-ings. These bands, with an equally effective tulle for belt, exemplify the taste for soft-colored trimmings.

the last-mentioned, which are carried in and fastened to the front in a most becoming manner. You cannot but be sure that these are the latest in the fashion of the season. They are of a soft, delicate color, and are of a simple design.

Jeweled shoulder-wraps brighten evening-gowns. Quite often the stones are carried round to form the back of the decolletage.

FRUIT PRISERS
Food two bananas and split each one into three or four slices. Cut a small pat of butter into fairly thin rounds. Place a quarter of a pound of sugar with a pinch of salt into a mixing basin; stir in one tablespoonful of oil and add, gradually, about a gill of tepid water to form a smooth batter. Beat well, and beat off all air in very lightly the stiffly-beaten whites of two eggs. Have ready a pan of deep fat. Dip each slice in the batter and drop it quickly into the fat. Cook golden brown; drain well; dredge with caster sugar and serve at once.

This lovely model, in night blue crepe, micro-rip, shows the newest tunic-like bodice opening over the legs above the flared skirt. Exquisitely attractive on such a gown are cuffs and handkerchiefs of searlet serge and a searlet leather belt.

Jersey cloth, popular as ever, is wonderfully soft and gives up the newest interpretations of the latest art. When incorporated in black, it is also chosen to grace the most important occasions. A model that makes a dress opened to the hem, with the neckline cut in a pointed 'V' and the front of the skirt cut full in a circular shape, the back being plain. Two rows of soft-fabric were used as decoration for the jumper. Collars are not worn on these simple but infinitely smart little ensembles, and a very narrow scarf of the fabric, or of a contrasting material, is attached.

As a change from the rather prevalent 'V', quite in number

THE EFFECT OF CIVILISATION ON KENYA PEOPLES.

Widening Cleavage between Older and Younger Generations.

NATIVE COUNCILS

Africans Growing Realisation of their Unity.

The Native Affairs Department annual report does not fall into the category of most Government publications with their pages of flattery and attraction only for those who are particularly interested in the activities of respective Departments.

The report is one of general interest and is presented in an interesting manner. It provides the opportunity of hearing something about conditions in the reserves, political and general activities, trade and education among the natives, and such institutions as native councils and tribunals.

AN INTERESTING REPORT.

The year 1927 has been for them an extraordinary manifestation of their political or social views, even less conventional than others among a nation of the Kenya tribes a consistent understanding of non-sectarian activities with has commonly found

Such a demonstration was probably inevitable among half-civilized peoples of whom the younger generation has felt the alternative tendency to be overdone, as they seem to be, to overcome all the traditional customs on which the security and welfare of the tribe depend.

Responsible Realized. An attempt, attended by a very considerable measure of success, has been made to combine the military elements of the two young nations in the form of the Local Native Councils, on which all native matters are presented. I think, a few words on these councils, the bodies who have the advisory voice of the natives, the latter have an immense amount of work to do in carrying out these various, widely divergent measures.

However, the general progress of these communities, manifested by the proceedings of the Local Native Councils, may be said to have been satisfactory.

A Native Exports' Association.

Active political bodies in Kenya Province have been organized during the greater part of the year past and one of the latest bodies is that of the Kavirato District Exports' Association, which is a body of 25 members who are interested in the export of produce from the district.

The value of commodities in the district, and great progress has been made in the marketing of goods and services, resulting in the opening of a market for the district.

LUMBAVA OPPOSED TO A DISTRICT COUNCIL.

Minority Meeting on Local Government.

KIRIMU-LONDYANI AREA.

A meeting was held at Mabaruni last week to discuss Local Government. The Acting Commissioner for Local Government, Lewis and Settlement, Mr. W. M. Logan attended the meeting for the purpose of ascertaining the opinion of the district in regard to the institution of a District Council for the Kirimu-Londyani area. The meeting was large and representative and delegates attended from the various sub-districts. In addition there were present the Provincial Commissioner, Mr. J. H. Stewart, the District Commissioner for Kirimu-Londyani area, Mr. H. K. F. Lewis, the Executive Engineer, the Public Works Department and the District Commissioner for Kirimu-Londyani area.

There is a long and interesting debate which delegate from Kirimu in the district addressed himself to in the opposition to the establishment of a district council, in that he pointed out that the members of the district council would be appointed in favour of Local Government.

Mr. Logan explained that the opinion that opposition to a District Council was in fact a lack of confidence in the Government.

A LETTER FROM INDIA

Chronicle of Indian-day events in Bombay—The Indian National Congress—The country's face—Domestic status in brief

STANDARD OVERSEAS.—Bombay, Jan. 29.—The Christmas season is just over and with it has passed away the Peak. Despite the fact that there is a paper laid and that there are a number of magazines, the country and many millions of Christians are mourning the great feast of the birth of Christ which is observed throughout the East and Hindia, and throughout the world. The Indian National Congress, in its jubilee year, has been celebrating the birth of the nation in a grand manner which has not only the Indian people but also the British people and the people of the world. The Indian National Congress has been celebrating the birth of the nation in a grand manner which has not only the Indian people but also the British people and the people of the world.

DISTRIBUTION OF LAND BETWEEN NATIVES and SETTLERS

Railway Policy Should be Considered in Advance.

NO. 3. THE QUALITY OF SETTLERS

Government Should Select Immigrants Carefully in Interests of Natives.

In continuation of its examination of the principles relating to the distribution of land between Natives and others, the Commission Report declares that Government should intervene more actively in the policy of settlement and take into account their responsibility for controlling the quality of settlers.

The Report also supports the principle of territorial segregation so that native land and land for settlement consists of large well-contained blocks of a homogeneous character in a like position to build up homogeneous native and non-native units for local government.

It also contended that Government ought to consider the Railway policy in advance of its land policy and that land should not be alienated in the absence of railway provision resulting in profits to speculators.

It is also suggested that reliance should not be placed on a policy of consulting native opinion in regard to alienation of their land until a responsible African opinion has been developed.

A further proposal is that Government should hold some land in reserve for sale to those who are not content to live under tribal conditions.

WARNING OF LANDLORDISM IN UGANDA.

Further extracts are appended today from the third chapter of the Report, dealing with the reasons bearing on the future of the Uga...

In the reservation of some of the land for native settlement is accepted, the Government has to decide very early before that the whole of the land should be reserved for native settlement.

The Report, however, has pointed out that the Government is now faced with the decision as to whether it should reserve some of the land for native settlement.

It is also suggested that reliance should not be placed on a policy of consulting native opinion in regard to alienation of their land until a responsible African opinion has been developed.

RECUING THE JOY OF LIVING

Some East African Recipes that will Help.

No. 13: Cheese.

By a Kenya Housewife

REVENUES FOR OCTOBER 1928 AND 1928

By the figures showing the revenue for the month of October 1928 compared with the corresponding month of the previous year, it is seen that the revenue for the month of October 1928 was £1,000,000 compared with £950,000 for the corresponding month of the previous year. The increase of £50,000 is due to an increase in the revenue from the sale of tickets and a decrease in the revenue from the sale of goods.

The Proof is in the Driving - come take a ride in the New Chevrolet!
An automobile might look impressive in a showroom. It might give the appearance of being comfortable and handling easily—of being a joy to drive. But the proof is in the driving—so come take a ride in the Big and Better Chevrolet!
In design, this great new car represents the combined engineering genius of General Motors and Chevrolet engineers. It offers every feature of advanced design demanded in the finest of cars. And not until you get behind the wheel yourself can you realize what this means in terms of lasting satisfaction. That is why we urge you to go a demonstration of the new Chevrolet.

We want you to learn what engineering progress has made possible in a low-priced automobile. We want you to experience the new Chevrolet's power, speed, handling ease and comfort achieved by such features as constant clearance alloy "Invar steel" pistons, mainframe type valve tappets, ball bearing steering gear, long semi-elliptic springs set parallel to the frame and power rear bodies by Fisher.
We have a demonstrator ready for you at any time you say! Come in—call up—and drive before you buy!
