Renovation

If you have an old wardrobe or bureau that has gone too shabby for you, there is a way. Instead of buying a new one, you can renovate it. It is not so difficult as you think. You can give it a new look by staining or painting it. You can also change the hardware. The result is a new wardrobe or bureau at a fraction of the cost of a new one.

Our Paris Letter

There are so many beautiful clothes in Paris that it would be difficult to choose. A little black, adding to the variety. A white with a subtle pattern. A black with a white petal design. A white with a black and gold pattern. A black with a white and gold pattern. A black with a white and gold pattern. A black with a white and gold pattern.

APPLIQUE CIRCLES AND BANDS
 A nigger brown crepe marocain chemise frock is adorned with circles and bands of pale green and beige silk applique. The dress is a straight, long-sleeved, knee-length frock with a high collar. It is made of a fine, light-colored fabric with a subtle pattern. The circles and bands are made of a different fabric, possibly silk or satin, and are applied to the main fabric. The colors are pale green and beige.

STRAIGHT FROCKS AGAIN
 Here we have a rust-colored crepe de chine frock—again straight and waisted, with long, tight-fitting sleeves, a front panel edged with rows of rust-colored, looking gold and black applique, and a large shield-like affair of the same in a line with the waist.

PARIS MODES AND HOLIDAY MOODS
 The all-white sports outfit has been replaced by one of brilliant colors. A group of sports frocks are just as good favorites and as suitable for wear as white. They are in various colors and patterns. Some are simple, some are elaborate. Some are made of silk, some of cotton. Some are long-sleeved, some are short-sleeved. Some are knee-length, some are ankle-length. Some are straight, some are flared. Some are belted, some are unbelted. Some are plain, some are patterned. Some are simple, some are elaborate. Some are made of silk, some of cotton. Some are long-sleeved, some are short-sleeved. Some are knee-length, some are ankle-length. Some are straight, some are flared. Some are belted, some are unbelted. Some are plain, some are patterned.

PACKING OF FROCKS
 Simple, but easily-colored tulle or georgette gowns are more popular than ever. They are packed for a holiday. They are in various colors and patterns. Some are simple, some are elaborate. Some are made of silk, some of cotton. Some are long-sleeved, some are short-sleeved. Some are knee-length, some are ankle-length. Some are straight, some are flared. Some are belted, some are unbelted. Some are plain, some are patterned.

WEDDING BOUQUETS
 For wedding gowns, Madonna lilies are a favorite decoration. A very lovely white crepe tulle has the whole of the front embro-

Hints for Blonde Girls

According to one authority, the most difficult to dye is a blonde. It is not so difficult as you think. You can give it a new look by staining or painting it. You can also change the hardware. The result is a new blonde at a fraction of the cost of a new one.

THE NERVE.
Kenya has every reason to be satisfied with the amount of attention it is attracting at the moment both in the House of Commons and the House of Lords.
If we cannot remain content with the actual done, we can at least be gratified from the early experience which has been given to Labour to define the policy.
The problems arising in this country are among the more difficult that any Government will be called upon to attempt to solve and Labour's success or failure as an administrative body is likely to depend upon and to be judged very largely by its Imperial and Foreign policy.
The knowledge of the Labour Cabinet in Kenya is increasing rapidly. We are glad that Mr. Thomas is so definite in his assurance that the first obligation of the Government is towards the native because that underlying principle influences all his policy and his actions. For instance he can have little difficulty in assisting the Government of the Secretary of State for India while he speaks of education and fair treatment. He has had some 125,000 natives in Africa and the possibilities of an Eastern Africa Union open a possibly serious

S.A. Cotton.

FIRST CLOTH MADE AND SOLD.

For the first time South African cotton has been reserved for manufacture into cloth for sale in the Union. This arrangement was made by Messrs. Butterfield and Co. in conjunction with Messrs. Harwood, Miller and Co. who have received the cotton, manufactured the cloth and prepared the finished goods for sale.

The cloth is of high quality, produced favourably with the made in Egyptian cotton. It is better than American cotton, and appears to be on a par with the best made in the world.

If you lived next door to us.

If you lived next door to us we couldn't get you fresher tea than you get in the Brooke Bond vacuum tin. The tea in this tin remains as crisp and flavourful as it was when packed. Think what this means in a country where most tropical air plays havoc with ordinary tea. Try a tin of Brooke Bond today. When you taste it, you'll know at once that here is really good tea at the pitch of perfection.

You'll prefer
Brooke Bond
the good tea in the tin that keeps it good.

THE EAST AFRICAN STANDARD

 FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1926

THE JOHN E.A. BARD.
 The whole subject of the representation of Kenya in London is being discussed from by Lord Cromwell's Minister at the East African Office in London. The position is somewhat of a delicate one. We are sure that Lord Cromwell would have been pleased to see his position as a representative of Kenya in London, at the moment quite untenable. It is not easy to be sure that his position is to be made his personal reputation quite clear that he was not going to hide his personal opinion - a statement does not mean to the fact that his unwillingness has not been explained, but to his own doubts as to the ability of the present machinery, and indeed as to the wisdom of Kenya in attempting to participate. It will be of interest to recall the very eloquent history of the representation of Kenya in London. In the first place the work was undertaken, giving without exception, by the East African Office in the London Chamber of Commerce, and being only in the interests of Kenya or two individuals with interests in Kenya of the character of the East African Office, and others interested, it was found to be essential to the interests of the Colony in any way affecting the Colony.

We have always expressed the intention of the Executive of the affairs of this country and it is more essential to-day than ever before that no one be given to any individuals in London who are in any way kind the people of the Colony. The Executive Office, which we have published resolutions from our London correspondent indicate very clearly that the advent of a new Government has received many kind-hearted congratulations and given a fresh impetus to the affairs of the Colony. In the circumstances, the activities of any self-appointed body, especially to speak on behalf of Kenya in London, are of a delicate nature and should be handled with the greatest care and consideration. It is not only the interests of the Colony, but also the interests of the Executive Office, which should be the subject of the Executive Office's attention. It is the duty of the Executive Office to see that the interests of the Colony are protected and that the Executive Office is not given any undue influence in the affairs of the Colony. We presume that the use of an adequate use of the services of Lord Delamare and his subordinates who, on occasion, gave the Board interim representative as expressed by Lord Cromwell. The Board has also been asked to secure the goodwill of the Colonial Office. This was obtained through preparing the ground carefully in advance. It having been "suggested" (1) before the formation of the Board that the Colonial Office should nominate such a body with which it could have personal communication on the subject of the representation of East Africa. The Board was accordingly set up and the undersigned Colonial Office was set up at Downing Street replied to the numerous proposals that a permanent Independent Board which when they expressed willing to hold personal communication with the Colonial Office was set up. Improved Advertising.
 There has been a marked change in the tone of the advertising world. Business men have begun to realize that with a more adequate public to appeal to their goods, they should be able to sell more. This is a sign of the times: there are many advertisements have ceased to be displayed in public places in order to clean the streets of the Colonies.
