Lions sharpen their claws on lone tree

By TED WARDEN

LONE TREE has been known to the British population for a week and has been the cause of that same by many visitors. All their eyes were turned to the perfect break of the open plain, every day, and one tree stands tall and falls over the three-mile-long...

Many people who have seen the tree have been struck by the fact that it is a lone tree in a plain of open country. It is a tree of a species which is common in the open country of the East African highlands. It is a tree of a species which is common in the open country of the East African highlands. What is it all about, this Makueni Settlement area, where should you spend? What are you going to see for your money? The Standard is sent down to get an up-to-date report. Here it is:

LESSONS OF MAKUENI MAY CHANGE FACE OF KENYA IN 100 YEARS

Most areas being reclaimed for native farmers

SIXTY-SEVEN thousand pounds is a lot of money. It is what has so far been spent on the Makueni Settlement Area in the valley of the Ruvu River, where 4,200 acres have been ready for settlement, because almost all clearing has been done. But all of the 13,000 acres do not yet have a house on them. The settlement scheme is being carried out in stages. The first stage is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River. The second stage is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River. The third stage is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River.

What has happened here? The area is being reclaimed for native farmers. The settlement scheme is being carried out in stages. The first stage is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River. The second stage is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River. The third stage is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River.

Cheap at price

THAT is what you are getting for your money. The settlement scheme is being carried out in stages. The first stage is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River. The second stage is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River. The third stage is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River.

The two plans

There are two plans for the settlement area. The first plan is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River. The second plan is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River.

A main decision

The main decision is to build a road from the settlement area to the Ruvu River, and to build a dam at the mouth of the Ruvu River. This decision will determine the future of the settlement area.

BOOKS: Three writers who get on with the story

MR. BINGHAM'S TONIC

THE three authors who have been listed in this column have written books which are not only interesting but also of considerable value. We are all familiar with the universal tendency to report in a superficial and uninteresting way on the lives of the great men of the world. The three authors mentioned in this column have written books which are not only interesting but also of considerable value. We are all familiar with the universal tendency to report in a superficial and uninteresting way on the lives of the great men of the world.

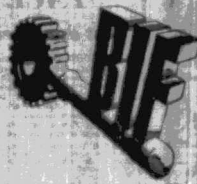

It is fortunate to find the first of these authors, Mr. Bingham, who has written a book which is not only interesting but also of considerable value. We are all familiar with the universal tendency to report in a superficial and uninteresting way on the lives of the great men of the world. The three authors mentioned in this column have written books which are not only interesting but also of considerable value.

Uganda boosts 'good start' promises

E.A. TOURIST SCHEME TAKES SHAPE

Uganda will support the East Africa Tourist Travel Association from the start of an initial capital contribution of £2,000. This was revealed at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Association, held in Nairobi on the 19th. The Chairman, Sir John M. Macdonald, said that the Government of Uganda had agreed to contribute £2,000 to the Association's fund. He also said that the Government had agreed to take a part in the Association's activities.

Success chances
Sir Macdonald pointed out that the success of the Association would depend on the co-operation of the Governments of the other two countries. He said that the Government of Kenya had agreed to contribute £2,000 to the fund, and that the Government of Tanganyika had agreed to contribute £2,000. ### THE GENET CAT IS THIEVING

It even drank the bath water

In Nairobi National Park... by the Warden

IF you think that a Genet cat is a small, sleek, and graceful animal, you are wrong. A Genet cat is a large, powerful, and cunning animal. It is a member of the Felidae family, and it is known for its ability to climb trees and its agility. In Nairobi National Park, a Genet cat was caught stealing a bath of water from a lion's den. The cat was seen drinking from the bath and was later found with a large amount of water on its fur.

HOUSING: WHOSE JOB IS IT?

From a Correspondent

SCOTT African Housing is a subject that has been discussed in the past. It is a subject that is becoming more and more important. The Government has a responsibility to provide housing for its citizens. However, it is not always clear whose job it is to provide housing. Is it the Government's job, or is it the private sector's job? This is a question that needs to be answered.

The reply

In reply to the article on housing, it is clear that the Government has a responsibility to provide housing for its citizens. However, it is not always clear whose job it is to provide housing. Is it the Government's job, or is it the private sector's job? This is a question that needs to be answered.
