UNIVERSITY TEAM BACK AT STADIUM

Curtain-raisers for weekend matches

Today the London University football tourists are playing the final match of their tour in Kenya. To date they have won five of their matches and lost three.

Today is the University team's chance to prove their worth, and to set the standard of their performance in the C. G. Derby.

Tourists are confident

The team that has produced the best football in the country, although they are in a somewhat unenviable position in the C. G. Derby, are confident of their ability to win the trophy.

The tour which started in the University has not yet to the two previous years, but the team has been playing in the C. G. Derby since 1954. The University players are confident of their ability to win the trophy, and they are looking forward to the match on Saturday.

More for their money

The Kenyan Government has decided to pay the University team a fee of £100 for their services in the C. G. Derby. This is a significant increase on the £50 paid in previous years.

ALCO GODFREY

captains the University

The departure of the team, proving himself well capable of keeping up with the best in the C. G. Derby. The University footballers have earned a high already during the tour. They are confident of their ability to win the trophy, and they are looking forward to the match on Saturday.

TWO WINS FOR BRITAIN

The international cricket on the tour of Kenya has been a success. The British players were victorious in two of their three matches. The first match was a draw, but the second and third were won by the British team.

Springboks earn a draw

After a draw in the first match, the Springboks earned a draw in their second match. The match was a closely fought affair, with both teams showing their skills.

CARNIVAL DAY AT KILIM

On Saturday the Wakamba went to town to see the first effective Agricultural show held at Kilim for some years.
The Standard's Agricultural Correspondent writes of their goings, their excellent exhibits and the spirit of carnival.

It is now over a month since the talks for the settlement of the war in Korea began in Geneva. During that month the bustle of adjustment to the fact that at last something was being done to settle the war in Korea has almost drowned so many hopes that they have given way to despair.
There is a sense of urgency about the settlement of the war in Korea. It is not only a moral advantage, but it is also a practical one. The longer the war continues, the more it becomes a burden on the world. It is not only a moral advantage, but it is also a practical one. The longer the war continues, the more it becomes a burden on the world.

British share in new dollar aid programme
 Britain will attend the second dollar aid conference in London on August 15. The conference will be held at the invitation of the British Government and will be attended by representatives of the United States, Canada, and other countries. The conference will discuss the new dollar aid programme which is being introduced by the United States Government.

Supply less certain
 A general order has been issued by the Ministry of Defence regarding the supply of military equipment. The order states that the supply of military equipment is less certain than it has been in the past. This is due to the fact that the United States Government has reduced its supply of military equipment to the United Kingdom.

Kenya Meat Commission
 The Kenya Meat Commission has been established to regulate the meat trade in Kenya. The Commission will be responsible for the licensing of meat traders and for the inspection of meat. The Commission will also be responsible for the regulation of the prices of meat.

INDIA STILL UNDECIDED ON JAPANESE PEACE TREATY
 India is still undecided on the Japanese Peace Treaty. The Indian Government has not yet decided whether to sign the treaty. This is because the Indian Government is concerned about the terms of the treaty, particularly the clause which states that the Japanese will not be held responsible for the war.

Strong objections
 Strong objections have been raised in India regarding the Japanese Peace Treaty. The objections are based on the fact that the treaty does not hold the Japanese responsible for the war. This is seen as a betrayal of the Indian people who fought bravely against the Japanese during the war.

More emigrate to Canada
 More people are expected to emigrate to Canada. This is because the Canadian Government has increased its quota for immigrants. The Canadian Government has also made it easier for immigrants to obtain visas. This has led to an increase in the number of people who are applying to emigrate to Canada.

Westria Allies can cope with Russian move
 The Westria Allies believe they can cope with any Russian move. This is because the Allies have a strong military and economic position. The Allies have also formed a strong alliance with the United States and other countries. This alliance will enable the Allies to deal with any Russian move.

Intensify operations
 The Allies will intensify their operations against the Japanese. This is because the Japanese are still active in the Pacific. The Allies will use all the resources at their disposal to defeat the Japanese. This includes the use of air power, sea power, and land power.

Forming trouble
 There is some trouble forming in the Pacific. This is because the Japanese are still active in the Pacific. The Allies are concerned about the Japanese move and are taking steps to deal with it. This includes the use of air power, sea power, and land power.

Subterranean gallery found in Pireneas
 A subterranean gallery has been found in the Pireneas mountains. The gallery is believed to be the work of a bear. The bear is believed to have dug the gallery to escape the hunters. The gallery is located in a cave and is about 100 feet long.

THE CONGO DEVELOPS
FISHERIES

Chain of artificial breeding ponds

MANUFACTURING owing to the lack of protein in one of the staple products of Central Africa the Congo Free State Government has taken to artificially breed fish in artificial ponds. The fish are raised in a series of artificial ponds, a great effort will be made to develop the fisheries and consumption of fish, to give a plentiful source of protein to the population. The Government has spent a great sum of money on the project and it is hoped that the artificial ponds will provide a steady supply of fish for the population. The fish are raised in a series of artificial ponds, a great effort will be made to develop the fisheries and consumption of fish, to give a plentiful source of protein to the population.

Ten-Year Plan

However, the position of agriculture in the Congo Free State is not so bright. The Government has a ten-year plan for the development of agriculture in the Congo Free State. The plan is to increase the production of agricultural products and to improve the living standards of the population. The Government has a ten-year plan for the
development of agriculture
in the Congo Free State.

Present facilities

The present facilities for agriculture in the Congo Free State are not so good as they should be. The

HOW WELL CAN WE SEE? By Peter Northend

There are many people who are surprised to find that the human eye is not as perfect as they think it is. The eye is a very delicate instrument and is easily damaged. It is important to take care of the eye and to see a doctor if there is any trouble.

Aquatic birds

Many of the birds that live in the water are very interesting. They have special adaptations for life in the water. Some can fly, some can swim, and some can do both. They are very important to the ecosystem.

The Abbey Theatre—Its Past and Its Future

Garret Fitzgerald

THE Abbey Theatre has been a constant source of interest to the public since its inception in 1904. It has been a theatre of ideas, a theatre of the people, a theatre of the future. It has been a theatre of the past, a theatre of the present, a theatre of the future. It has been a theatre of the people, a theatre of the future. It has been a theatre of the past, a theatre of the present, a theatre of the future.

'Ticking over'
 SO far so good says the Abbey Theatre. The Dublin public is doing its best to support the theatre. The theatre is doing its best to support the public. The theatre is doing its best to support the public. The theatre is doing its best to support the public.

OF THE SHIRAZI THE SPECIAL

MAPPING A MOUNTAIN

By Bradford Washburn

MOUNT MOGENZI, the highest peak of Rhodesia, is not only the highest peak in North Rhodesia, but probably the highest mountain in the entire world on earth that rises out of a level plain, or, at least, a plateau. It is 10,000 feet high, and is the only mountain in the world that rises out of a level plain, or, at least, a plateau. It is 10,000 feet high, and is the only mountain in the world that rises out of a level plain, or, at least, a plateau.

The reason for this is that the mountain is a part of a plateau. The plateau is a part of a plateau. The plateau is a part of a plateau. The plateau is a part of a plateau. The plateau is a part of a plateau.

Human skin may 'grow eyes'

BRITISH scientists say they are able to make the production of making the skin see? They are in fact, well on the way to finding the answer, though actually speaking it is a mere question of drawing together the various bits of the puzzle.
