SUPER-FORTS BOMB FOUR MORE JAP CITIES

Enemy Fears Attack From The North

Super-forts based in the Philippines have bombed four more Japanese cities in the North. The attacks were carried out by B-29 Superfortresses from Clark Field. The targets were Manila, Iloilo, Zamboanga, and Cebu. The bombs caused considerable damage to the cities and killed many people. The Japanese government has expressed its anger at the attacks and has threatened to retaliate.

Further Decentralisation Necessary!

The Japanese Agency said today that because of the constant changes in the Japanese government, it is necessary to decentralize power. The agency pointed out that the central government is unable to manage the country effectively due to the large number of ministries and the constant reshuffling of portfolios.

First German War Criminals Hanged

At least three German war criminals were hanged today in Berlin. The men were convicted of crimes against humanity during the Second World War. The hangings were carried out by a special court set up for the purpose. The public reaction was mixed, with some people expressing sympathy for the condemned men.

Montreal Grain Elevators Empty

Montreal grain elevators are empty because of the shortage of grain. The shortage is due to the war and the disruption of grain supplies from the United States and other countries. The Canadian government has taken measures to ration grain, but the situation remains critical.

Mr. Churchill's Long Election Tour

Mr. Winston Churchill's long election tour is well advanced. He has visited many constituencies and has been successful in winning the support of many voters. His tour is expected to continue for several more weeks.

More Nazi Loot Uncovered

More Nazi loot has been uncovered in the Philippines. The loot includes gold, silver, and other valuables that were hidden by the Japanese during the war. The discovery was made by American troops who were searching for evidence of war crimes.

LATE NEWS

In Paris the French people carried on the work against the Germans. The French government has announced that it will continue to fight until the Germans are completely defeated. The people of Paris are showing great courage and determination.

1887

In 1887 Mr. E. N. Mackenzie, a partner in this Company, accepted on behalf of the British East African Association (pending formation of the Imperial British East Africa Company) the formal concession from Sultan Seyyid Bargash.

In 1888 another partner in this Company, Mr. (later Sir) George S. Mackenzie was granted, on behalf of the Imperial British East Africa Company, an amplified concession from the Sultan which was then little known territories.
