"Factor System Completely Out of Date"

When the subject of the Factor System was discussed at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry, it was stated that the Factor System was completely out of date.

The Factor System, which was introduced in 1914, was designed to provide a means of financing the development of the Territory. It was based on the principle of a fixed rate of interest on the amount of the loan.

The Factor System was found to be completely out of date because it did not take account of the changes in the value of money and the cost of borrowing. It was therefore decided to abolish the Factor System and to introduce a new system of financing.

The new system of financing is based on the principle of a floating rate of interest. It is designed to provide a means of financing the development of the Territory in a more efficient and economical manner.

PRIME MINISTERS AND WHAT-NOT

There are some curious rumors going on in East Africa these days about the resignation of Mr. Churchill. Today we published a sensational article from current political rumormongers gathered by us from many sources. We do not wish to believe in such rumors, but we do believe them to be near enough to the truth to justify the space they take up.

The best substantiated reports are to the effect that a plan to visit which a special sub-committee of the Executive Council of the Kenya Election Union gave birth. It seems a pity that the "White Islands" policy which seeks native affairs and policy in others. This time, as an appendage, there is a Prime Minister and a Cabinet of Ministers.

THE introduction of night work for large numbers of industrial employees, already expected yesterday, the restriction of gas and electricity in the home, summer time in the winter and the emergency time in the summer constitute the principal items of the British Government to avoid future breakdowns in the supply of food and power.

The British Home Secretary, Mr. Chamberlain, announced during the night that the Government had decided to legislate for night work for a number of workers in the coal, iron and steel, engineering, and other industries.

The Bill, he said, would introduce night work for the Government he hoped that the Home Secretary would be able to introduce the Bill in the House of Commons.

Mr. Chamberlain also announced that the Government had decided to legislate for summer time in the winter and the emergency time in the summer.

BRITISH INDUSTRIES FAIR

LONDON AND BIRMINGHAM, MAY 28-30, 1945

This is your first opportunity in seven years to see your old suppliers in Britain and to meet new ones. Overseas buyers are invited to Britain for the 1947 British Industries Fair. It will enable them to establish personal contact with the makers of the immense range of British Kingdom goods displayed in the London (Agriculture Industries) and Birmingham (Hardware & Engineering) Sections of the Fair. The central grouping of exhibits will assist buyers to compare the products of competing firms with a minimum of time, trouble and expense. Special arrangements to suit individual markets can be discussed and terms and conditions of business settled direct with the manufacturer, since only the original producer on the site selling agent supply exhibit.

BRITAIN PRODUCES THE GOODS

4. For full details of the 1947 Fair apply to the nearest British Consular or Diplomatic Officer or Consular Officer or the British Trade Commissioner in your area.

Germany's Visit To N.F.D.
And Turkey

The visit of the German Emperor and Empress to the Cape Colony and Natal, and their subsequent visit to the Transvaal, is a most interesting one, and has attracted much attention in the colonies.

The Emperor and Empress arrived in Cape Town on the 15th inst., and were met by the Governor-General, Sir John B. Hays, and the Premier, Mr. J. B. M. Botha. They were then taken to the Cape of Good Hope, and to the Table Mountain, where they were met by the Mayor of Cape Town, Mr. J. H. van der Stoep.

The Emperor and Empress then proceeded to the Transvaal, where they were met by the Governor-General, Sir John B. Hays, and the Premier, Mr. J. B. M. Botha. They were then taken to the Orange Free State, and to the Cape Colony, where they were met by the Governor-General, Sir John B. Hays, and the Premier, Mr. J. B. M. Botha.

Registration began
The registration of the labour force in the Cape Colony is now well advanced, and it is expected that the total number of the labour force will be about 1,000,000.

The registration of the labour force is a most important step, and it is expected that it will result in a more efficient system of labour control.

ANGLE-PARKING CAUTION

Change door before you turn to be anti-aircraft, and some gently to rest before you reach the kerb.

So often one sees a car veering into the kerb with a screeching of brakes, followed by a sharp rebound, and so often does one think—There's another wall in the corner of these tyres! Every sharp jolt or jar to your tyres reduces the life of the walls, and it's the condition of the walls which decides whether a tyre is "Tyre-tying."

Remember, if the walls of your tyre are good, "Tyre-tying" will give them a new lease of long life, and they can be Tyre-tyred again and again, for the Tyrosure process does not wear, fade or otherwise reduce the body of the tyre.

If your tyres need Tyre-tying, call in now at the Motor Mart & Exchange and ask advice on the subject.

TOWN TRAFFIC

The Town Council of Nairobi took one sensible step this week by introducing traffic congestion. They decided that the main roads of the town should not be allowed to come into the heart of the town but should be reserved for the stopping and parking of motor vehicles.

COURAGE OF LASSIE

The Council with advantage might have three good reasons for its decision to reserve the main roads of the town for the stopping and parking of motor vehicles. It is more than probable that within a few years, if the present rate of growth of motor traffic in Nairobi will not permit country roads to be widened to meet the needs of the motorist.

Second Thoughts

The British Government and the Government of East Africa resumed yesterday the revised proposals for the transfer of the port, as an inter-territorial basis of the numerous and increasing numbers of British subjects in Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika. The revised proposals, published in Colonial Paper No. 510) are the sequel to the terms of reference given by the East African Legislative Council in its Non-Parliamentary Paper No. 133 and are intended to meet the views of the public, which they are intended to meet. The three Governments intend to meet in the next few days to discuss the proposals in detail. This should not be interpreted as meaning that the decision of the Council at its next meeting will be other than a recommendation.

The new proposals are a considerable improvement on the original proposals. They have gained in popularity and many of the objections have been removed. OUTLINE PLAN OF NAKURU OF THE FUTURE

The Nakuru Planning Commission, which was set up by the Government in 1934, has now submitted its final report to the Government. The report outlines a comprehensive plan for the development of Nakuru and its surrounding areas. The plan is based on the following principles:

1. Development of the Nakuru Basin: The plan calls for the development of the Nakuru basin as a major agricultural and industrial center. This involves the construction of roads, bridges, and other infrastructure to facilitate trade and commerce.

2. Expansion of the Nakuru Town: The plan provides for the expansion of the Nakuru town to accommodate the growing population and the increasing demand for housing and services. This includes the construction of new houses, schools, and hospitals.

3. Development of the Nakuru District: The plan also calls for the development of the Nakuru district as a whole. This involves the construction of roads, bridges, and other infrastructure to connect the district to the rest of the country.

4. Conservation of the Nakuru Environment: The plan emphasizes the importance of conserving the Nakuru environment. This includes the protection of the Nakuru wetlands and the surrounding forests.

Training Of Foresters

The Forestry Department of the Government has announced that it will be opening a new school for the training of foresters. The school will be located in Nakuru and will be open to students from all parts of the country. The school will provide a three-year course of study in forestry, including subjects such as silviculture, forest management, and forest mensuration. The school will also provide practical training in the field. The Government is committed to the development of the forestry industry in Kenya and believes that this school will play a vital role in that development.

Health of the Nakuru District

The health of the Nakuru district has improved significantly in recent years. This is due to the efforts of the Government and the local community. The Government has invested in the construction of roads, bridges, and other infrastructure, which has facilitated trade and commerce. The local community has also made significant contributions to the development of the district. The health of the district is a reflection of the progress that has been made in the development of Nakuru and its surrounding areas.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT OF INTEREST TO
NAIROBI HOUSEHOLDERS
We are pleased to announce the appointment of our Staff of Miss Janet Davis
Miss Janet Davis is fully qualified to give expert advice and assistance to consumers concerned with domestic appliances and the use of electricity.

Am I slipping?

Well, it seemed like a poor excuse to me... and it's not the first time. If only I didn't feel so TIRED when I'm out with the crowd!

What a pity to be unable to see that for yourself! You'd like to avoid the usual good company, wouldn't you? You wake up each day, without the energy, enthusiasm and will to do as you like.

For deep, restorative sleep you need the extra nourishment you get from a cup of Horlicks each morning. Horlicks replaces energy while you sleep and in the morning you feel bright, full of energy... and life in four days.

"ASKING WHAT'S BY THE THROAT"
THEN: It occurred to a Mr. Roberts, who in 1937 was working at the North Dakota Experimental Station, to see if the ordinary farmstead tablets used to disinfect human sewage could also disinfect soil. It is to a point the three-monthly experiments succeeded, but in one money-impaired, impression.

NOW: Science has advanced to the use of dry crystallized tablets such as Agrosan GN. Soils treated with this are completely against seed-borne diseases, fungi, smut, of corn, rosetted sugar of barley, and the stripe disease of barley and oats.

UGANDA COMMERCE ANXIOUS ABOUT THE FUTURE

Governor Promises Early Publication Of Development Plan

LEISURE CORRESPONDENT:
The very triumph of a British colony, agricultural production has been the mainstay of the Ugandan economy. The Government has been anxious to increase production and to diversify the economy. It would naturally emphasize the need for the reconstruction of the country.

"I am however, a firm believer in the Government's agricultural policy," said the Governor. "I am sure that the Government will be able to meet the needs of the people of Uganda."

Comments On Final Test

BRADMAN'S WARM TRIBUTE TO SPORTING SPIRIT

Bradman, March 6. COMMENTS on the Fifth and Sixth Tests which were played at Adelaide with a new attitude will be made by the Australian captain, Bradman, in his opening speech to the press before the final Test which is to be played at Melbourne on Saturday.

"Although I regard the series as a success, I am sure that the spectators considered them worthy to meet the test," Bradman said.

"Without losing any glory from Australia on my last day in the Test, I am sure that the spectators will be able to enjoy the final Test which is to be played at Melbourne on Saturday.

"I am sure that the spectators will be able to enjoy the final Test which is to be played at Melbourne on Saturday.

After the last Test the Australian Captain, Don Bradman and Walter Hammond, who are on their way to England, made a very interesting and nearly unanimous Australian on the subject of the series.

The decisive margin of three runs, two from a no-run episode, indicated that the Australian team was superior to any other in the world.
