THE DISARMAMENT PROBLEM THE RUSSIAN INCIDENT.

British Proposals Submitted to League.

DRAFT CONVENTION BEFORE THE CONFERENCE.

A Comprehensive Document.

M. RAMSAY MACDONALD'S APPEAL TO REACH DEFINITE CONCLUSIONS.

Ramsay Macdonald, on behalf of the British Government, submitted to the Disarmament Conference at Geneva, a draft Convention setting out British suggestions for achieving disarmament.

This document deals in a comprehensive manner with all the phases of the problem, and contains definite figures of suggested personnel and material of sea, land and air forces of the various Powers.

The proposed Convention lays down the procedure to be adopted in the case of a breach of the Paris Pact, and provides for the calling of a conference by the signatory Powers.

Figures are given in the draft of the maximum strengths of the various European Contingents. The British proposal is for 200,000 men, 2,000 tanks, 2,000 armoured cars, 2,000 armoured cars, 2,000 armoured cars, 2,000 armoured cars.

Special consideration is given to those countries needing overseas forces, and the totals for the French, Italian, Belgian and Portuguese armies are consequently raised. A maximum is also fixed for the calibre of mobile guns and size of tanks.

In regard to air armament, the number of military machines of all the principal Powers is limited to 2,500. No further dirigibles will be allowed.

All chemical, bacterial and incendiary warfare will be prohibited under the Convention.

Far-Reaching Terms.

The steps which could be taken in respect of such a breach and, at the branch, has actually occurred to determine which party is to be held responsible.

Lead Parol.

Part two deals with effective and mutual provisions regarding offences following the principle of equal penalties in all Continental land forces. It also sets out the maximum number of days performed as punishment for offences.

Question of Security.

The first part of the Convention deals with security and is based on the existence of the Paris Pact to which the signatories of the proposed Convention are parties.

Strength of Armies.

Once agreement has been reached on the size of European land forces, it is clear that it will be necessary to set a limit on the number of troops which any one country is allowed to maintain.

The figures of the suggested limits to be stationed in home countries are: France, Italy, Germany, 200,000; Britain, 150,000; U.S.A., 300,000; U.S.S.R., 1,500,000.

NEW AMERICAN CROP PLAN.

Policy of Acreage Restriction.

Congress Session.

PROPOSALS INCLUDE HOLDING UP COTTON EXPORTS.

[WIRELESS BUREAU'S AGENCY] Washington, March 18.

Shutting emergency powers are demanded by President Eisenhower in the course of a special message addressed to Congress.

He is submitting a Bill to authorize the Secretary of Agriculture to secure a reduction in the acreage basis of the following commodities—

- Wheat, Corn, Soybeans, Pigs, Cattle, Sheep, Horses, Tobacco, Milk.

The Bill proposes to compensate the growers by benefits to be granted from the funds of the Reconstruction Corporation.

The Government would also be authorized if the Bill is passed to buy up surplus land owned by the Government and to sell it to the private sector.

President Roosevelt has requested that quick action be taken before the spring crops are planted in order to strengthen the hands of the United States when the Economic Conference dispenses world crop surplus.

"For four years in succession the price of cotton has fallen in respect of such a breach and, at the branch, has actually occurred to determine which party is to be held responsible.

SCENE IN THE COMMONS.

Pacifists Interrupt Naval Debate.

Galleries Chase.

SHOWER OF LEAFLETS ON FLOOR OF HOUSE.

[WIRELESS BUREAU'S AGENCY] London, March 18.

Three pacifist interruptors caused a noisy scene during the debate of the Navy Estimates today.

The first, a halton woman, showered leaflets from the Peers Gallery; then a man threw a large number of leaflets from the Strangers' Gallery; and finally a woman threw a small parcel into the Members' Gallery, causing but little notice by attendants.

The floor of the House was strewn with green leaflets, protesting against the estimates for the fighting services.

Sir Robert Gowers, Member of the Commons, Captain Lord Jellicoe, Member of the Commons, and Sir John Anderson, Member of the Commons, were among the first to be attacked.

The first Lord of the Admiralty in introducing the Navy Estimates introduced the Navy Estimates of £23,700 as compared with £182 million for the regular industrial programme sanctioned in 1951, but postponed last year.

The total Navy estimate amounted to £35,700 million.

Replying to the debate on the Navy Estimates in the House of Commons, Captain Lord Jellicoe, Civil Lord, substantially answered the five alternative questions as to whether Britain will have a fleetship as well as 40 submarines.

He said that advanced battle ships, nuclear powered, will be replaced by advanced nuclear powered submarines, which will be in constant use.

On the contrary Britain could do with a battleship of a mid-diminished displacement as £2,000 tons.

The Estimates were agreed to by the House of Commons.

Warning to Soviet Ambassador.

[WIRELESS BUREAU'S AGENCY] London, March 18.

The Soviet Ambassador in London has been warned that the British Government will take no responsibility for the actions of the Soviet Secret Police.

There is a disquieting silence in Russia regarding the charges brought against the son and the British Government has notified the Soviet Ambassador that the most serious view is being taken of the incident.

A Sinister Silence.

The only place of definite news is that the British Government has been informed that the most serious view is being taken of the incident.

ROAD AND WEATHER REPORT.

Mr. Galton-Fraser writes for us—

This hot weather still continues, in fact I think it is hotter this year than we have had in the same order of time. We have had fairly heavy showers in various parts of the country, and of course the drainage is still doing its work. The heavy traffic on the roads is not yet over, but the rain does not stop before it gets to Dodger's. It looks very much as if it will be a repetition this year of 1919, when the long runs started in Nairobi after the middle of April.

In Northern Tanganyika the weather is fair and the roads are in fairly good condition. The Tanganyika and Sultan and Tanganyika-Morogoro roads are still closed by heavy traffic as the repairs to the Morogoro bridge are not yet completed. The Tanganyika-Lilongwe-Bulawayo roads are also closed owing to the heavy rain in this area.

In Kenya a few showers have fallen during the week, but not being as energetic as those which fell in other parts of the country has been very slight.

With the exception of the Nairobi-Mohi and the Nairobi-Voi roads which are both in a fairly good condition the rest of the roads in the Colony are dry and good. In Uganda the weather is fine and roads are in good condition, but the heavy heavy traffic during the cotton season.

The following is the state of country roads as per telegraphic information fax received—

- Nairobi-Voi. — Very rough and bad.
- Mombasa—Pangani.
- Tanga-Dar es Salaam.

- Rongai-Morogoro.—Inaccessible.

Dear Sir,

During the last twelve months CASTROL XXI oil has been used exclusively in all School Aircraft at Brooklands and Lysons, and we wish to put on record our complete satisfaction.

The oil in the machines is changed every twenty-five hours and it is then used in the first Motor Transport. It is quite safe to say that all the addresses in the world could not persuade our ground engineers to use any oil other than CASTROL XXI.

This letter is entirely uncontracted, and you are at liberty to publish it if so desired.

Yours faithfully,
DUNCAN LEWIS,

FEAR THAT THIRD DEGREE METHODS ARE BEING EMPLOYED.

The increasing gravity of the Russian incident is indicated by a speech made by the Secretary of State for the Dominions during the week-end. Mr. Thomas said he would be making a public statement on the arrest of a number of fellow citizens in Russia.

It seems absurd," said Mr. Thomas, "to suggest that such men would lend themselves to any measures calculated to destroy their own livelihood."

British subjects, he declared, must not be made the subject of any shortcomings in official procedure. Hysteria hunting is not concerned here.

Mr. Thomas said that if the real object of Russia was to divert attention from home affairs, no-one in Britain would be deceived.

An indication of Britain's determination to take firm action was given in Mr. Thomas' warning that it would be a premature mistake to assume that commercial and diplomatic relations could be continued if British people were subjected to tyranny and punishment.

Public Stirred.

Victims of charges of sabotage in closely connected with the arrest of Mr. M. Litvinoff, Minister for the Colonies, has informed the British public of the arrest of British employees of Messrs. Metropolitan Vickers who shortly after by the Supreme Court on charges of counter-revolution, an offence for which the death penalty is inflicted.

Mr. Litvinoff related the story of the British subjects living in Russia should not be subject to arbitrary justice. He said that it does not mean that Anglo-Russian relations should not be improved.

He said "I know nothing that has stirred British public opinion more than the arrest of a number of our fellow citizens in Russia. It is the object of this speech to tell them that the men who have been arrested are not British subjects engaged in their normal commercial activities, but are men who are engaged in a campaign to destroy their own livelihood. It is understood here what motivates the Government's action, and it is hoped that the whole country will be reassured by this speech."

There are indications in London that the Government is not content to wait for the arrest of the British subjects, but is prepared to take firm action.

It is pointed out that Mr. Thomas' speech is the most serious since the outbreak of the war. It is a warning to the British Government that it is not prepared to tolerate any further delay in the investigation of the charges against the British subjects.

It is understood that the British Government is not prepared to tolerate any further delay in the investigation of the charges against the British subjects.

ADMIRALTY TESTS ON EAST AFRICAN SISAL.

TO BE USED FOR 50 PER CENT OF NAVY REQUIREMENTS.

Comparisons With Manila.

DETAILS OF DEFECTS PECULIAR TO SISAL CORDAGE.

Following a series of field trials by the British Admiralty on East African sisal for naval purposes, arrangements are being made for 50 per cent of service requirements for towing hawsers and heavy lashing and hauling lines to be made from sisal.

These tests were commenced in 1926 and various types of ropes and lines made from sisal were subjected through a series of trials before the report, extracts from which are given below, was issued.

Comparisons are made with Manila and while a number of defects, which are stated to be peculiar to marine cordage made from sisal are detailed, it is stated that sisal can be generally regarded as satisfactory so far as its capacity to resist the action of sea water is concerned.

A Thorough Trial.

London, March 17.—An Admiralty report, which was issued on the 15th inst., contains the results of naval rope tests of sisal ropes made from East African sisal. In order to encourage the use of Manila cord for the manufacture of marine rope, a committee was constituted in 1926 in consequence of the report of the Advisory Committee on Vegetable Fibres, which had recommended that the ropes made from East African sisal should be used in preference to those made from Manila.

Concomitantly with tests carried out by the Imperial Rope Works and described in a previous issue of this Standard, the Admiralty also conducted a series of tests on the use of East African sisal ropes. The ropes used were manufactured by the Imperial Rope Works and were of the same size and construction as those used in the Admiralty tests. The results of these tests were reported by the Admiralty as follows:—

Over a 6 months' exposure period, the results of these tests were reported by the Admiralty as follows:—

INCOME TAX

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir—While the petition against Income Tax is being signed, it may not be out of place to visualize the receipt which will get at Home.

May not the Secretary of State who afterwards are suggested. The answer, as Mr. Standish, is "another form of taxation."

The next question one might ask will be "Have the more hardy members of the community and the fathers of families who have signed the petition but then to consider the alternative taxation?" The answer will be "No."

The next question may easily be "Is it fair to obtain signatures when the signatories do not know what they are advocating?"

The answer to this last question may be perfectly satisfactory in Kenya, but it may give grounds for dispute in our friendly islands in England.

In any case, the point is worth considering.

Yours, etc.,

WORK WHICH CALLS FOR TACT AND ENTERPRISE

The Selling of Life Assurance Policies. By a Nairobi Town Council Committee.

A ROTARY ADDRESS: "MERELY SHIFTING THE BURDEN."

Mr. Henry Brock, manager and secretary of the South African Mutual Life Assurance Co. (one of the largest in the world), in London, British Dominion and the largest financial institution in Africa, was the speaker at Friday's important meeting of Nairobi Rotary Club held at an evening at the Standard Hotel. He was introduced by the President of the Club, Mr. Turner, who said that Mr. Brock had been with the company for 25 years, but that he was the first foreigner to visit East Africa. Although Mr. Brock was not a Rotarian, his lecture was most interesting. Mr. Brock was one of the first to visit East Africa during the last few months had succeeded in persuading his Chief in Capetown to make an opening in East Africa. He had formed a Branch for a Kenya but all members of the Club had joined the organization. The Board of Directors in Capetown had been taking in this connection and in expressing the hope that that experiment was given a trial for the whole of South Africa. Mr. Brock was stated by the Rotarians to be satisfied by Rotarians and women.

A Difficult Job. Mr. Brock also stated that he had seen all the phases of the life insurance as a salesman, organizer of salesman, and controller of his company in Johannesburg, naturally devoted to the success of his company. He was selling of life insurance, he held the most liberal views on life insurance in all the world, in that the salesman had nothing to do with it. Especially he was the dealer of thirty municipalities and services. He thought of the life insurance policy as a business. He thought of the life insurance policy as a business. He thought of the life insurance policy as a business.

Sixteen taxicabs, which have already disappeared in London, Mr. John Gilmore, the Home Secretary, asks now that the Government is entitled to have the making order from some of the many people who use now as a driver a short distance from the bus, and stilling and would give notices if the driver were anticipated. This the driver it is would be reduced in the case of falling of trials and the over-supply of drivers a the average driver's income is already meagre.

MARRIAGE.

That is a fault, they are caught in a trap, almost as helpless as a leopon. They may struggle in their own minds in the tortuous of crushing restrictions but unless they have their own rights against the weight of the superman. The Secretary has no place in the lower class of the superman. If they are free, they escape, while they have the strength to do so. The Representative Advisory Committee apparently fought manfully against the decision in this. They tried to see the necessity of reason through the gloom of fear. Now and again they caught glimpses of the light but in the end they decided that the best course left open to them was to attempt to improve upon the unwieldy structure to strip it of some of its top-heavy hampers rather than try to build a new one from that point of view that their proposals should be considered. It would have been a great achievement to do this. The Representative Advisory Committee has no place in the lower class of the superman. THE SECRETARY'S SYSTEM.

In a paper which is noteworthy for the restraint exercised in the use of language, the expression utilized to describe what three senior officers of Government and three members of the official committee thought of the Secretary's system in use in Kenya are the words "disastrous." The Representative Advisory Committee discovered in this a certain simplification of a very complicated and unworkable system. It is obvious that the Secretary's system is a disaster. The Improvement of the Human Race.

INTERESTING AND VALUABLE LECTURE.

"What's Eugenics?"

DR. H. L. GORDON ON THE "GREATEST SOCIAL TRUTH ABOUT OURSELVES."

There was a particularly large gathering of interested persons at the Theatre Royal on Saturday evening. He addressed "What's Eugenics?" a very valuable address on the improvement of the human race.

The title of the lecture was "What is Eugenics?" and Dr. Gordon himself furnished the answer in the statement that it was the greatest truth about ourselves. He addressed "What's Eugenics?" a very valuable address on the improvement of the human race.

The lecture was divided into numerous phases, particularly in regard to conditions in Kenya. He criticized the present day system of education, which he described as still being under the control of superstitions and blind conservatism.

In regard to the climate of Kenya, Dr. Gordon emphasized, in reply to statements that it caused "nerves," that there was nothing known to science to prevent Europeans adapting themselves to the climate if they desired to do so.

INCOME TAX

To the Editor, "E.I. Standard,"—The Income Tax controversy has been most interesting; it shows to a great extent the large number of people in Kenya who are ignorant of the law, and the fact that those who are ignorant of the law are not necessarily those who are ignorant of the law.

The principle of the graduated Poll Tax is only a partial method of taxation that is not self-sufficient, and it is not a method of taxation that is not self-sufficient, and it is not a method of taxation that is not self-sufficient.

To the Editor, "E.I. Standard,"—The proposals for a graduated Poll Tax are not a method of taxation that is not self-sufficient, and it is not a method of taxation that is not self-sufficient.

WIRELESS NOTES

The "East African Standard" has arranged for the publication weekly on Wednesday of a page devoted to the interests of Wireless. The paper will be contributed as an expert who will be glad to answer queries and, where possible, to give the problems of the wireless enthusiast. It is, however, a licensed representative who is also a regular broadcaster and has had wide experience of East African conditions.

Queries should be addressed to "Aerial," East African Standard, P.O. Box 280, Nairobi, Kenya. Answers will be given through the Wireless Post.

THE ROMANCE OF RADIO.

[Special to the "East African Standard" by "Aerial"]

In introducing a series of notes dealing with wireless history, by which a brief history of broadcast radio, the section may be of use to those who are interested in the subject.

Was about 1912, J. A. Fleming invented the thermionic valve, the first of a series of valves, the thermionic tube, vacuum or radio tube, in other words the present day wireless valve, capable among other things of producing a continuous electric current of high frequency (100,000 cycles per second) by the aid of the thermionic valve. This was the first invention which made the invention of the radio possible. The thermionic valve, familiar to us all, having already been invented, the next step was set for wireless telephony. Theoretically it was a matter of the application of known principles, but it was not until after Hertz and others had further improved the apparatus that broadcasting as we know it was possible and research was carried out which perfected the art that broadcasting as we know it was started.

The first experimental transmitting of music and speech took place in the United States, namely by Dr. Lee de Forest.

It is a mistake to think that the detailed knowledge of electricity and the "wires" in general is required for the average listener to get the fullest enjoyment from his receiving set. May it be to listen in the "home" an elementary knowledge of first principles is sufficient to follow every endeavour will be made to make them as clear as possible. There are thousands of people who complain that their short wave receivers are difficult to tune—much more so than the long waves. This is usually the result of attempting to use a receiver designed for long wave reception of from 200 to 2,000 metres. For the reception of wavelengths under 100 metres. Although the principles remain the same there are certain differences which tend to make tuning difficult. The modern short wave receiver is a design of a well constructed set using, if not more complex, say a simple circuit, than the long wave receiver. Not only that but the short wave receiver of today can be adapted with the greatest ease for reception of the longer waves.

Let most manufacturers provide a broadcast band coil with their short wave sets.

Since the inauguration of the Empire Broadcasting Station, manufacturers have shown a very much greater interest in producing short wave sets, and consequently a number of excellent sets. From a few years ago, the number of high quality sets for long wave reception to the comparatively cheap, well-made super-heterodyne capable of world-wide reception to the loudspeaker at high volume level.

The Grand National.

An item of particular interest this week from the Empire Station is the broadcast of the Grand National, a running contest of 2 1/2 miles, will be broadcast to the Indian Zone from 2.50 G.M.T. to 3.30 Kenya Time, on Friday, 24th inst. If conditions are favourable the transmission should be received fairly well in Kenya. The commentary will be recorded by the distinguished Miss. Preece. The high will feature in the African Zone programme at 7 p.m. G.M.T. of 24.30 Kenya Time, the same as adapted with the greatest ease for reception of the longer waves.

Britain Begins.

Early in 1922 the Radio Society of Great Britain, obtained permission to broadcast entertainment for a brief period every week and later in the year the British Broadcasting Company, as it was then known, came into being with 150 stations of broadcasting compatible with the inauguration of printing in its cultural and civilizing functions. Development thereafter proceeded apace and 2,100 licensed stations of the B.B.C. was recorded in 1934. It is all other parts of the world.

These stations are based on a power of from 2 to 250 watts, in a broadcast band of wavelengths of from 200 to 2,000 metres. They have a "medium wave" or "long wave" band, which is the familiar "Unit" of the light spectrum, and a "short wave" band, which is the familiar "Unit" of the light spectrum.

Service Area is meant to mean within which reception is good or less guaranteed, generally the uncertainty of the atmosphere, the fluctuation of the area is due to the gradual alteration of the radio waves from transmission. This atmosphere or being more pronounced than can usually be.

Birth of Daventry.

As has previously been pointed out the B.B.C. stations in 1922 were comparatively numerous and the serving a small area but which appeared to indicate that long wavelengths and higher power were a larger area, reducing the number of stations would avoid possible mutual interference of stations. This was what the S.W. (Daventry), wavelength of 1,500 metres, then into being and it was found that even this station, which was working on some very high power did not reach the very far, towards the 100 miles range, but several experiments were found that although short waves faded out at a short distance, the transmitter they received at greater distances with increased efficiency. More exact measurements were carried out between antennas of various lengths, and it was found that lengths under 200 metres and a semi-circular wire was around to a extent that in the British Broadcasting Company's construction of short wave stations. Since then short wave has been used, and wavelengths of 15 metres and upwards are quite common today for broadcast, matter with astonishingly good results throughout the world from the transmitter.

The Empire Station.

A great forward stride in short wave broadcast development was made in the last year with the inauguration of the Empire Broadcasting Station which in the last few years has made important contributions to the extent of being able to send signals to the Antipodes rather than being the great circle of the Earth according to prevailing atmospheric conditions. Very good reception indeed has been obtained from time to time from this Station, which may be expected to improve further.

Listeners will have noticed an exceptional station in this Station's 31.55 metre transmission (L.S.D.) during the last week. It is pleasing to report that this has now disappeared, and the transmission in this wave band have been coming through at very good strength during the past few days.

Colonel Kirkwood's Creed.

FAVOURS SEPARATION OF NATIVE AND NON-NATIVE FINANCES.

Colonel the Hon J. G. Kirkwood, Elected Member for Plateau North in the Kenya Legislative Council, indulged in some straight speaking at a public meeting held at Nairobi on Friday.

He declared his political position, which, briefly, is that which without proper public control over finance, no new taxation is acceptable.

Colonel Kirkwood also considers that the challenge to constitutional privileges made by the creation of a Native Betterment Fund, should be taken up by the Elected Members who will be in their duty if they do not do so.

He suggests, however, that in order to simplify the question of constitutional progress, the Elected Members should make it known that they do not demand control of the finances of the Natives. He is in favour of division of native and non-native finance.

Given financial control, Colonel Kirkwood would not propose income tax.

A piece of news comes from the districts, in Germany, that may prove to be of great importance to humanity. It is reported that Dr. Fritz Maitland has made a great discovery in the preparation of Vitamin C, the vitamin present in orange juice and in green vegetables and which prevents scurvy.

Professor Scott-Duggan recently produced a whole pound of it, extracted from paraffin and used it from Flunguey to Eastland. A leading chemist said to an "Evening News" correspondent: "Many chemists are working on Vitamin C, mainly a crop of knowledge. It is evident when people get very easily and cheaply fed the production of it in a pure form is for some time a matter of a few days."

Reservoir Figures in the Standard's report are as follows: Ntikwajani Capacity, 3,500,000 gallons; daily overflow, 1,000,000 gallons; Hill Service—Capacity, 1,500,000 gallons; average daily storage from 1st to 18th, 12,000,000 gallons; average daily overflow from 1st to 18th, 1,200,000 gallons; average daily storage from 19th to 28th, 69,000 gallons; average daily overflow from 19th to 28th, 45,000 gallons.

Amazing scenes marked the inauguration of the new German Reichstag in the Garrison Church of Potsdam on Tuesday.

President Hindenburg and Herr Hitler, ex-national hero and war criminal, were accorded the enthusiastic plaudits of the crowd.

In the Church itself other solemn speeches dealing with the re-birth of Germany, there was a remarkable incident when the old President raised his socialist banner to the ex-Crown Prince in a public salute.

Far-reaching decrees strengthening the power of the Nazi Government in dealing with political opponents are being introduced immediately.

Tribute To Great Prussian.

On Tuesday afternoon a procession of thousands of Germans marched through the streets of Berlin, the capital of the German Reich, to inaugurate the new Reichstag building. The procession was led by the President and the Chancellor, Herr Hitler, who was wearing a new uniform of salmon color in which were the chief features of the new uniform. The President made their entry into the Reichstag by the elaborate and state ceremonial which inaugurates the new Reichstag building.

The building was opened in the Garrison Church of Potsdam, a town which was the headquarters of the recent first Reichstag. The ceremony was attended by the President and the Chancellor, and the Church because of its historic associations, including those in the afflictions of the German nation.

The building was packed to capacity and the gathering included the President and the Chancellor, and the Reichstag members of the German Reichstag. The ceremony was a remarkable one, and the President and the Chancellor were the center of attention. The President and the Chancellor were the center of attention. THE USUAL 'CLUB' CALL 'FOUR-CRAWFORD'S' DOUBLED!

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

[The memories are extremely rare... from the "Free Press" (London) (November 1918) for you was named (March 28, 1918).]

The British Water has been presented...

Following light on the railway staff of a few months ago the news has looked out another big batch of letters during transit on the Uganda Railway.

We hear with regret of the illness of Mr. J. A. Watson, Town Clerk, Nairobi. We wish him a rapid recovery and hope that he may soon be able to resume his public duties.

His Excellency the Governor paid a flying visit to Mombasa on Monday, en route to Nairobi next day. We understand that the trip to the coast was undertaken in connection with the Kilimanjaro deep water pier.

A number of passengers who have been sprung out last in the motor passenger steamer, with the object of embarking extensively on their evening, passed through Nairobi by late Friday's train to the coast.

Mr. Bellfield and his two daughters, in company with Capt. Wind, have left Nairobi on their way home. There was a small gathering of officials to see the party off on Monday. As the train steamed out the crowd took their leave.

Hearty congratulations to Mr. Jack Irvine on the occasion of his marriage this week at Mombasa. Catherine, the bride, is the daughter of Mr. Irvine's late partner in the "Dunrobin Club" and we understand that Mr. Irvine was the groom.

The St. John's French Mission near Nairobi are now in the midst of a great celebration in the honor of their one Church. The foundation of this building has been built with a considerable amount of labor on the rock which is a tremendous sight.

The words of the motto and the strength of those parts of the foundation that have been already laid go to show that the figures found their work in it.

NATIVE "HOT DOG" STALLS.

Complaint by Indian Councilor.

Councilor Shamao of Dera... To-day's meeting of Nairobi Municipal Council, presided over by the Mayor, was largely devoted to the consideration of a complaint by the Indian Councilor, Mr. Shamao, regarding the native "hot dog" stalls in the city.

At a meeting of the Parliament... The Minister for the Interior, Mr. Shamao, was asked to advise on the matter of the native "hot dog" stalls.

THE EAST

Between 10 and 11 o'clock on THURSDAY, MARCH 25, 1932.

Convention of Associations.

fullest measure of responsibility by all those who are concerned about the good reputation of Kenya and the white settlement. He believes that the Convention of Associations will meet in Nairobi on Thursday, March 25, at 10 o'clock, to discuss that responsibility wisely and with a view to the future. It is believed that the session will result in an explorative resolution, however provoking the circumstances, but in no opinion which, while firmly stated, will unhesitatingly be followed with a proper regard for their influence upon situations both herein and prospective. The Convention should take responsibility at the moment on the part of the Legislative Council and it is well that all agencies, without sacrificing their own interests, should be constantly aware of it. On almost all subjects their own views should be expressed. The GIBB Report are not responsible to the Government and people of Kenya and Uganda have to remain responsible for the finance and loss burdens of the transport system; the question of the "London by Land" is a board which claims "independence" of thought and action, details of its composition, its principles that if the Secretary of State wishes to know African opinion he should seek it directly from the African people. The Government does not accept the views of London bodies in present circumstances except on the views only of the London interests concerned; the Director of Native Education, from every point of view, must be based on undistorted and unpropagandized examination of facts or disadvantages of the system and not as a desirable relic of the Government's policy as to the employer of labour. Consideration of the Native Department must be the clear establishment of certain important principles. The first is that if the Government is to be the first and foremost benefactor of the Legislative Council and the people of Kenya, it must not have seriously endangered the financial position of the Government and threatened an unfair distribution of the burden of taxation by refusing to contribute to the maintenance of such affairs upon (1) the Government, (2) the Native Department, (3) the Native Services and (2) methods of increasing (if necessary) the African contribution to the revenue. It is also imperative that the Government should be prepared to accept the full share of the burden of maintaining its share of the general task of balancing the Budget. The Convention will probably find it to be wiser to keep as far as possible in separate compartments the two issues of the Government's financial position and the maintenance of the Colony has no for or against the Budget. The Budget must be balanced and that assertion must stand. The Convention will be advised to follow this line of policy which will lead them to the conclusion that the most urgent question at present is taxation. Lord Fraser of Sauchie has written a paper on the subject of the Secretary of State, and nothing should be done at this end which will embarrass him or make his position more difficult than it is. It is suggested that the Convention should be invited to consider if the questions of constitutional propriety and of the prospects of settlement and capital investment. The Secretary of State will be unlikely to consider for simultaneous discussion such a wide issue as that of changes in the constitution. It is, however, very unfortunate that the Hon. the Confidant-Generals has chosen this moment to issue new instructions to the Governor of Kenya in the terms published to-day. The Secretary of State has been deeply impressed by the urgency of the financial situation as set out in the report of the Joint Finance Advisory Committee. The people of Kenya have recently expressed their opinion that they will continue strenuously to oppose the adoption of the Bill in the immediate alteration of the taxation system by the introduction of the Income Tax. It was quite apparent that the Governor of Kenya had no power to refuse to refrain from introducing the Income Tax Bill, or to hold it up at any stage. But that never did he with the Secretary of State and he will very regretfully refused to exercise in a manner which would meet with the approval of the public. What he proposes is that the Bill should not only be introduced but should be passed through all its stages. Only then, if the Government is satisfied with the Bill, should it be introduced. It is necessary, does he propose to introduce the Bill without the approval, in order that he (the Secretary of State) may consider the alternatives open to him, if he is unable to secure the necessary majority in the House of Commons. It is suggested that the Bill should be introduced in the House of Commons on the 25th inst. and that the Government should be prepared to accept the full share of the burden of maintaining its share of

INCOME TAX.

To the Editor.—"E.A. Standard," Sir.—In a few fresh weeks Major Grogan has revealed that the Government's intention regarding the income tax was slow driven to think for years. With it he gave the definite and clear hope for the future, adding upon the certificate of merit that certain of good will as would be well to reorganize those factors affecting the whole of East and Central Africa in order that the same might be rectified. Those adverse notes in its existence before 1929 had intensified themselves from then on, so that after that date the Government had to issue a paper, whether from Northern Rhodesia, Nyasaland, Tanganyika, Uganda, or Kenya, unless it was struck with the same Government's (strongly and pungently expressed) against the interests of the individual Government. The protests, strangely enough, all seemed to complain in similar vein of an unempathetic and unimpartial attitude on the part of the present Government, together with a disregard for all advice tendered by the critics.

Coincident with this, attempt to say a situation of great trust appears to have developed in other Dependencies and Colonies. The colonial situation in the whole world but it is not likely to be blamed in this case; the trouble seems on examination to arise from a protectionist policy rigidly laid down for all, and which the various Governments had to try to adjust to their various peoples and conditions, regardless of different circumstances. The consequence has been seen in the numerous strikes of protest and delegations to the Colonial Secretary, an unsmooth event previously. The following facts seem significant.

SIERRA LEONE, January, 1932. Income Tax imposed by the Government. It is a heavy tax on all incomes of £40 or over at the rate of 24 per cent. Strong opposition to European and native alike.

BRITISH HONDURAS, 1932. New Income Tax imposed. Scale still being considered in September. Strong opposition of all inhabitants.

CYPRUS, 1932. Income Tax imposed in April. Large measure of self-government. Only Colony with surplus.

PALESTINE, 1932. Only Colony with surplus. Taxation £25 to £500. Income Tax proposed by 1932. Question still unsettled. Strong opposition. Jews and Arabs refuse to discuss the matter with Government.

TANGANYIKA, January, 1932. Income Tax in the name of the Government. It is not against the wishes, and it is one of the present Government's tax that the Order of the Day is taken by Lord Passfield. It is a heavy tax on all incomes of £40 or over at the rate of 24 per cent. Strong opposition to European and native alike.

DOMEKIA, 1932. Elected members retired, Government members resigned, or a protest against the action of the Government in refusing to re-appoint to their seats the members of the Legislative Council, who were elected members. Elected members retired by the inhabitants have petitioned the Secretary of State for Tanganyika for the Colonies.

SIERRA LEONE, January, 1932. Income Tax proposed by the Government. It is a heavy tax on all incomes of £40 or over at the rate of 24 per cent. Strong opposition to European and native alike.

MALAYA, January, 1932. Much protest against the fish taxation imposed. No real success until by Government. Government's intention was to increase the total value of the exports by the 20 per cent. It was a heavy tax on all incomes of £40 or over at the rate of 24 per cent. Strong opposition to European and native alike.

onks on the subject, it being his belief that goods are being disposed of and that only a portion of them is sent from the Railway is that I can buy from them. If I do so, I must pay the tax on which might perhaps find out as to whether trading firms are involved.

Yours etc.,
GEO. BLOWERS.
Nairobi, March 20, 1932.
Mr. Bowers subsequently explained to the "East African Standard" that he was disappointed to find that the Railway had had reference to the sale, privately, of narrow gauge railway lines by the K.U.R.H. His firm gave a quotation in answer to an inquiry from the Government that the sale of similar material had been affected by the Railway. Mr. Bowers did not complain of material being sold by the K.U.R.H. as he was not a party to the transaction but he admitted that at times the Railway management had obliged his firm and others, by selling material at good prices. However, it was obvious, he thought, that although his quotation was at an even price, the Railway had been much more than its share in the competitive trading, therefore, came in to the detriment of local firms. When his quotation had obliged his firm and others, by selling material at good prices. However, it was obvious, he thought, that although his quotation was at an even price, the Railway had been much more than its share in the competitive trading, therefore, came in to the detriment of local firms.

As regards the matter of the Railway, it was the intention of the K.U.R.H. to sell material at a price which would not be a disadvantage to the Railway. However, it was obvious, he thought, that although his quotation was at an even price, the Railway had been much more than its share in the competitive trading, therefore, came in to the detriment of local firms.

NEW CATHEDRAL.
A "STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT writes from London, March 7: "A crew of 200 men are engaged to remove the timber of the cathedral at Stag Hill, overlooking Guildford, as a reminder that this is the first of the new cathedral."

RAILWAY - TRADING.
The Editor "E.A. Standard," Sir.—May I, through your columns, draw the attention of the Government to the fact that the Kenya and Uganda Railway are retaining goods against the Nairobi stores.
