SYSTEM OF JUSTICE CRITICISED BY DISTRICT OFFICERS.

The Wakamba Witch Case.

Interesting views of the ethics of justice in native cases were contributed to the Commission enquiring into the criminal and procedure in East Africa.

The Machakos witch murder case was taken as an example and it was contended that the law should provide some loophole of escape from a rigid application of principles when native law and custom were influencing factors.

Anomalies and Hardships.

The Wakamba who were murdered were referred to frequently during the evidence given by Mr. J. La Fontaine, Provincial Commissioner, Ukamba Province on Tuesday before the Commission of Enquiry into the administration of justice in Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika in criminal matters affecting natives.

Mr. La Fontaine was examined on a memorandum he had submitted to the Commission in the name of which he suggested that it was desirable that provision should be made for an officer to deal with the cases of accused natives on an appeal from a Supreme Court sentence by the District Officer.

He explained that the anomalies and hardships which had arisen from the absence of any such provision were a grave reflection on the present system. In his view, the officer or officers charged with the duties of native sessions and District Officer should be given the duty of representing them on appeal cases the present procedure. As for the Attorney General to present the case for the accused as well as the case for the Crown. In the bulk of cases I believe no further course is required as it is clear from the Wakamba murder and the Wakamba witch murder that it is not desirable that it should be done.

In the latter case it is contended that it is not desirable that it should be done. (Continued on page 4.)

WHITE SETTLEMENT - A CONVERSION INCIDENT.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard," Sir—In your leading article on the "disclosure" to Convention of the Colony, you have written: "Executive must have been aware of the intentions when the session opened." Such a fact was not the case, unless one or two members of the Executive had private notice of the matter, and if so, in fact, upon the Executive no less than on most of the delegates to Convention, the persuasion of the Executive had been the subject being sought only some few minutes before the Convention actually opened.

I think that this should be given prominence in minutes, and the Executive Committee, as I find that in an independent, either created or supported by the statement in your article, that the Executive had considered the matter and allowed it to be brought up.

C. KENNETH ABBOT, Chairman, Convention of Associations, Nairobi, March 27, 1933.

INCOME TAX.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard," Sir—The Secretary of State in answer to Mr. A. S. Todd (Capt. K. K. Todd, C. B. D. Wick-on-Tweed, it since appears—Ed.) in the House of Commons on March 22 is reported to have said that the object of Income Tax is to obtain Kenya for the benefit of the Colony.

The fact seems to be ignored that a budget can be balanced from either side—Revenue or Expenditure. Now you, Sir, evaded slogan some time ago which might well be reworked even to remind everyone that "Economy is the first essential" is that time you pointed a list of higher Government officials and their salaries to which you might well have added the Rail way staff.

Since that time retrenchments have been made and others suggested, but, lest there be some who think that the limit of economy has been reached, it would be well to reprint that list and show clearly what economies have since been effected and what further possibilities remain.

It ought to be borne in mind that the retrenchment of lower paid servants (say £200-£400 a year) to be increased a net saving to the Colony as their spending power (probably the whole of their salary) is then lost to us as well as their services, whilst the same saving in cash will be made by holding the services of only a few highly paid officials who in many cases help to restrict the circulation of money because only part of the salary is spent. It does not follow, of course, that liberal spending either on local products or otherwise is to be a justification for retaining a high salary but only that salary of public money having been paid or received, it is helpful if that money is re-circulated. This applies also to that alienating in Kenya which is a most profitable sport.

That part of Lord Milner's report to which the Secretary of State referred shows just how qualified a man, even an expert, is for a good deal of the continent of life in a Colony in which the light side of civilization is being built but being left to those who are not making of the best in Kenya, which, as it does the investment of your car and the other things thus involved, the Government for the Colony have some sort of responsibility which is more important than at home. Do not let all have permission to do as they please, but let the best of seedling homes in necessary no less for the their best in unopposed abundance. Correspondence, my dear Sir, asked to confine their statements to facts as far as possible, to prove each point. The question is really one for some serious scientific research to decide.

MYER CATHOLIC MISSION.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard," Sir—A quotation from the Chief Native Commissioner's Report which appeared in your paper some weeks ago on the subject: "The Native Education and Grants to Missions in the District of Nyver, caused some misunderstanding regarding the Catholic Mission, and some people, who apparently were not likely to overestimate the grant to the Mission enquired from me: 'Should I be grateful, because you will make things clear as they stand.'"

The Catholic Mission of the Conventual Sisters runs in the District of Nyver (K. Hall, Bashi) and Mrs. 22 Missions stations with central schools for boys and girls respectively, with religious accommodation in most places and village schools attached to each station.

Out of these stations only six at Nyver receive some £125 a Government grant amounting to £275 being four-fifths of the salary of one Senior Instructor and two-thirds of the salary of three Assistant Instructors. Out of total of teachers and four-fifths of the salary of one Assistant Mistress in the Primary School.

A ROMAN CATHOLIC PAPER'S OUTBURST

Indignities of Kenya "Exploiters." The following extraordinary outburst recently appeared in the weekly Roman Catholic paper, "The Catholic Herald" under the heading "Kenya Scandal."

Now a new field of activity is opened to the white settlers. Gold has been discovered on native lands and the natives are being cleared off a large area, the refugees that went on to South Africa is being reported.

When did Parliament ever give those Catholics who go on and expelling immigrants from Catholic authorities in Kenya, against the will of the Government, the right to appeal for justice for the owners of the land?

The Spanish missionaries, especially the famous Las Casas, stood out against the brutalities of the Conquistadores, took a different line. And the Spanish theologians regarded the Indian as a human being, not a brute.

Another aspect of the situation, in so far as the town of Eldoret is concerned, is the added danger of the epidemic breeding owing to the exceptionally low level of the Nile River and the consequent spreading of stagnant pools that attract idle mophala feeding places. Fortunately the M. O. H. Department is fully alive to the dangers of the situation and are taking active measures.

At the close of the meeting a list of those who were named to Mr. Newark for taking the chair, and to the Municipal Council for lending their chamber for the meeting.

ROAD AND WEATHER REPORT.

Mr. Galton-Fraser writes as follows:—
I have a little better news this week which is as yet approaching Ankole and Moshi. The reports from both these towns state that the heavy rains are coming to an end. Only this week out in practice the weather should see in Nairobi shortly after the Easter Holidays are over. With the exception of southern Tanganyika where it is raining sporadically and heavy storms in the Kilimanjaro, Kooeye, Simba and Bahoba areas the rest of East Africa seems to be parched and hot.

In Tanganyika excepting for the southern highlands where the rains are still intermittent, the rest of the country is dry and roads passable. Very heavy storms however, (possibly) accompanied more westwards, Kilimanjaro and Tanganyika in the Arusha district. In this district several inches of rain fell during twenty four hours which flooded all the streams and roads. However this has now all subsided and the roads are again all passable. The rains should be hot and dry. In the Bahoba district. I have been asked especially to point out some bad pitfalls on the Nairobi-Moshi road. The rain has now have fallen in and some of them can be seen before one has actually reached them, a broken spring being more than likely the result.

I have taken the matter up with the Executive Engineer, Moshi, and feel quite sure that this energetic officer will be able to remedy the state of affairs in the near future.

In Kenya the weather has been exceptionally hot and the Tharaka districts and Kyambaa Cotts area is suffering considerably from drought, especially the former, where almost no rain has fallen now for several months.

In East Africa there has been heavy storms in various places. Minimum registering 2 inches in two days. Maximum 10 1/2 inches in one day. Simba 1 1/2 inch in one day. Corbho nearly 10 inches and Nyari 1 1/2 inch.

ships were arrested or ill-treated in Germany. The British Government will have a right to tribunals and bring the facts to the notice of the German Government as proof for justice to be done.

From inquiries made they had been unable to learn that there had been any such case in Germany. British Official Wireless Service.

Lord's Debate.

Begin, March 31.
This very great interest is being taken by the British public in the proposed boycott of Jews in Germany is shown not only by the numerous resolutions passed and by the public opinion given to the subject by the press, but by the House of Commons and the House of Lords yesterday.

In the House of Lords several speakers spoke on the subject in the course of a discussion raised by Lord Aveling, who made a point that any effort at a foreign boycott which caused unrest and anxiety amongst the British population, which included the many peaceful and entirely law-abiding citizens, must cause them concern. There was general recognition that any action by the British Government was severely restricted, and might defeat its own object.

The most that could be expected was, in the words of Lord Reading, that if the views he believed to be held by the majority of the British people were conveyed, by any formal representation, it might have effect.

Government's Position.

The Government's position was explained by Lord Haldane, who said there had been no case reported of any ill-treatment of Jewish citizens in Germany. It would not be in the interests of Jews themselves that any suggestion should be made that the British Government concerned themselves to help any authority to interfere on behalf of Jews who were German citizens.

There could be no more effective way of representing views widely held by the people of this country than by the speeches which had been made on that debate. He only deprecated to any representative being made by the Government. Satisfactory assurances had been given in regard to the question which had been put on behalf of His Majesty's Government and he hoped and believed that the British Government, which after all had a wide and had not been established until under very remarkable circumstances, would do nothing to resettle in Germany which would in any way conflict with the feelings expressed by their fellow-citizens in the British Official Wireless Service.

"Opposition Will Not Falter or Cease."

UNTIL BILL EXPUNGED FROM KENYA STATUTE BOOK.

Declaration by Leader of Elected Members.

GOVERNMENT'S CASE: FINANCIAL NEEDS AND FAILURE OF FISCAL SYSTEM.

"I make an appeal to Your Excellency and to Sir Philip Casselle later. It is not better to raise the taxation which will give the goodwill of the people and with amity rather than in the teeth of the most violent opposition it is possible to imagine, an opposition which, if this Bill becomes law, will fall and will not cease until this Bill is repealed and expunged from the Statute Book of the Colony."

Thus the Acting Leader of the Elected Members concluded yesterday the presentation of the case against Income Tax in the Kenya Legislative Council.

All the public seating accommodation was occupied and men and women had to find seats, sat on the bare floor of the Chamber.

The Attorney General handled the Bill for the Government. He based his support of the measure on two main arguments (1) the financial needs of a balanced budget and (2) the adequacy of present means for the financing of the financial fabric, requiring the introduction of a more scientific form of direct taxation, and emphasized the fact that Income Tax was operating in conditions with more racial complications than Kenya.

He suggested that the argument that capital would be driven away was a complete fallacy in view of the higher yields from investments Kenya offered compared with British and other foreign lands secured by a changed financial policy.

Government anticipated, he said, that if the people paid promptly, the sum of £8,000 would cover collection costs; if the public did not respond, it was anticipated that the penalty of a ten per cent. addition would more than meet the extra charges.

Captain Schwartz indicated that in the opinion of Elected Members no alteration or amendment of the Bill which could be devised or proposed, would make the measure workable or equitable and he reminded Government of the feeling of intense bitterness in every part of the Colony.

It will be a long time before this Colony forgets the way (he remarked) so far as its finances are concerned that they have been treated during the last two years.

He also welcomed the assurance that in presenting the whole case to the Secretary of State, Government would not in any way attempt to influence the Secretary of State's decision.

An Official Assurance.

The full case details on the subject of the Finance Bill as presented to the Executive Council of Kenya at the Legislative Council's committee meeting with His Excellency the Governor, the Hon. J. M. Johnston, President of the Council, Monday. My one object, when I appear here for the first time, four months has been heard—only from the Hon. J. M. Johnston, President of the Council, the Hon. J. M. Johnston, President of the Council, the Hon. J. M. Johnston, President of the Council.

Government's presentation of the case on behalf of Income Tax was attended by the Attorney General, Hon. J. M. Johnston, Hon. J. M. Johnston, Hon. J. M. Johnston, Hon. J. M. Johnston.

Alternatives.

The speaker reminded his hearers of the fact that alternative proposals for the raising of money by the Government had been made and that those, with the consent of the Government, had been submitted to the public by representative bodies and had been approved by a Committee appointed by the Government.

take. The money had to be found, it was generally realized by the public, that it was for the good of the Colony as a whole that the public had made a most gratifying response to the Bill. The resolution of the House of the Council was brought home to them.

THE FISCAL FABRIC.

An Inevitable Breakdown. "The way in which Government suggests that money should be found by means of a tax upon income is the inevitable and the only way of doing so. It is in this respect that the Government was acting. The Government was acting. The Government was acting. The Government was acting.

THE FLOW OF CAPITAL.

Argument Based on "Complete Fallacy." The second argument against the tax was—"It is nothing more than a complete fallacy to suppose that the flow of capital into the Colony can be arrested by the introduction of a tax upon income. It is a complete fallacy. It is a complete fallacy.

Security and Yield.

"Surely, it is axiomatic," he went on, "that the flow of capital into the Colony will be increased by the introduction of a tax upon income. It is a complete fallacy to suppose that the flow of capital into the Colony will be arrested by the introduction of a tax upon income. It is a complete fallacy.

DIRECT TAXATION.

An "Unscientific" Present Basis. Another and stronger one was, coupled with the indirect form of taxation which had hitherto prevailed in the Colony, there was a measure of direct taxation. So far as direct taxation was concerned, that was the only tax which had been introduced into the Colony.

And there was no doubt that the measure of direct taxation was a measure of direct taxation. So far as direct taxation was concerned, that was the only tax which had been introduced into the Colony. It was a measure of direct taxation. It was a measure of direct taxation.

Inadequate System.

"That, I suggest, is the main reason for the failure of the present system of direct taxation. It is a measure of direct taxation. It is a measure of direct taxation. It is a measure of direct taxation.

THE TAX ELSEWHERE Kenya's Conditions Not a Unique.

Turning next to the arguments against income tax, the Attorney General said that the Government had taken into consideration the conditions of the Colony and the conditions of the Colony.

Firstly, that an income tax was not necessary for a colony of this size. Secondly, that the introduction of a tax upon income would be a measure of direct taxation. It was a measure of direct taxation. It was a measure of direct taxation.

Thirdly, that the introduction of a tax upon income would be a measure of direct taxation. It was a measure of direct taxation. It was a measure of direct taxation. It was a measure of direct taxation.

It would not begin to pay until he was earning £254 a year; married man without children at all, he was a married man with three children at £400 a year. Until they came to an income of £750 a year, they were not eligible for a grant. It was a measure of direct taxation.

Case of Collection.

His final comment on the Bill was that the estimate given Government of the income tax payable in 1928, would not be far out. If the cost were greater, the extra 10 per cent. penalty he hoped would be sufficient to meet it.

THE FARMER.

Another explanation of the Attorney General was of the assessment on farmers, when he took his seat on the floor of the Chamber. He said that the assessment on farmers was a measure of direct taxation.

THE INCOME TAX REVISION.

The petition to the Secretary of State against the Income Tax in Kenya was signed by a large number of Elected Members of the Legislative Council.

THE EXPENDITURE.

The Attorney General said that the Government had taken into consideration the conditions of the Colony and the conditions of the Colony.

COMPANY TAX.

Regarding the flat rate of 2s. 6d. upon companies, the Attorney General stated that it was an incidence that would be spread over a very wide field of activity and would be a measure of direct taxation.

NET SPEAR AS WIDELY AS POSSIBLE.

Regarding the flat rate of 2s. 6d. upon companies, the Attorney General stated that it was an incidence that would be spread over a very wide field of activity and would be a measure of direct taxation.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUE.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
 Sir—As one who has publicly advocated a really balanced Legislative Council for this Colony when it needs the self-governing stage, I shall be obliged if you permit me to make known through your paper that I have come to the definite conclusion that the only way to ensure the continuance of British rule in Kenya, a principle which has always stood in the very forefront of my political views, is in the form of a substantial European majority in our local Legislature.

In the scheme of self-government outlined by me at a meeting of the Nairobi Association in June 1921, I advocated a Legislative Council comprised of 16 Europeans nine Indians, two Arabs and seven members nominated by the Government to represent Native interests until such time as a system of Native electoral representation is evolved and is considered desirable.
 I would like to take this opportunity of announcing that proposal either by increasing the number of European members to 24 or by doubling the number of members of our present 12.

I would also like to append my suggestion regarding the Council of Ministers referred to in the scheme so as to provide that not fewer than six of the 10 members of that Council must be elected European Members of the Legislative Council instead of five as previously suggested.

Yours etc.

INCOME TAX.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
 Sir—I read that your readers will read readily the reasons for the Explanatory the Governor on the subject of the introduction of Inis contained in the speech of the

 which I think a very good heading before long the farmers—so well as the ordinary man in the street—will have been the opposite of those with little income.

The third of Mr. Beaton's presents that the African have no voice to file in his will in the terms of our present constitution. Permitting of any harmful legislation of course depend on the will of the townfolk concerned.

His fourth point is that the natives have lived by the land that has been in them for many years, but with Government's advice, they should not be troubled to do so and prosper. To try that they have lived by the land but only with the help of tribal fighting and pestilence and famine which have kept their numbers down, and given them vast empty spaces to take in relation to its mining and farming. If Government will release them from the restrictions and from the equality-of-the-expense-of-operation policy of modern colonial protection—all obstacles will be removed. However, P. Beaton and the "revival of all" is only bring-about the end of the day of their rule.

COFFEY & CHERIALS
 To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
 Sir—Your correspondent "Promoter High-Tone," has evidently misunderstood the remarks I made in your issue of the 11th inst. about the world's famous of the last year, naming:
 The fifth and last point is that nothing of the sort can be maintained without recourse to artificial means. This may be so, but not under ordinary forms of land for them everybody's land is no longer land. The Native is that he is not going to measure
 what is in his mind.

That Mr. Beaton's letter is a serious desire to see the Native power to compete with the European power which will be of great use to the Government. I maintain that the most important problem facing industry today is to find fuel—and that is the problem of the future. I do not think that we can put an expert based on our own land. The Native is that he is not going to measure what is in his mind, but to get a trained force—their own, and to have a good

ENGLAND EXPERIENCE
BAD LUCK.

(By Mr. Staff.)

Scotland, by beating England on Saturday at Murrayfield, is by a good way the International Rugby champion in the world. A glorious morning and an early afternoon sport had preceded a night and which, shortly after the lighting of the kick-off, settled over Murrayfield. The English half and the crowd were treated to an early thrill, for T. W. Brown manifested a kick by Jenkins, and scores only just begun South of the ball after the latter had kicked in and followed up over the line. A break through by Lord Ingham drove close to the English line. This was followed by a long kick from the nose and Elliot's attempt, to bring the ball was followed by a splendid catch and touch-down by David Brown, who immediately afterwards marked a long kick chased by (Tarnock). An English attempt was pulled up by Scotland's half by the usual method of turning down into touch, and the ball, travelling along the Scottish line, was kicked about by Fife and half stopped by T. W. Brown. The Scottish half of the ball side by Logan, was being into touch three or four out, and after fifteen minutes' play a Scotch score seemed imminent, but in a clean head Fife touched on.

the last of a series of other games and England managed to get out of that net.

A clever run and cross kick by Elliot was washed through offside by a Scottish forward and a chip at goal by Kemp, who was taking great care of crossing in, made it very difficult for the latter. THE ANTI-JEWISH BOYCOTT.

Opening of First Day of Campaign.

THOROUGH ORGANISATION THROUGHOUT GERMANY.

Nazi Pickets on Shops.

RAID ON BERLIN LAW COURTS AND BANK.

Preparations are complete throughout Germany for the boycott of Jews. The organisation of the campaign has been particularly thorough, and it includes the demand for the dismissal of all Jewish employees of German businesses, and also efforts to ensure that no German employees are dismissed by Jewish firms.

Although the boycott was fixed to commence at 10 a.m. on Saturday, it was subsequently decided that it should be called off later in the day in order to give an opportunity for the anti-German campaign ahead to cease. If the anti-German campaign does not stop, the full boycott campaign will be put into operation on April 5. It is stated, however, that a resumption is unlikely.

Meanwhile the Nazis have already commenced anti-Semitic demonstrations and members of the "Storm Troops" raided the Berlin Law Courts and expelled the Chief Justice, who is a Jew, and also all Jewish judges and attorneys. Nazis also raided a bank in Berlin and confiscated the entire deposit of Professor

At Kiel, the seat of a Jewish school proprietor, who signed a Nazi picket, was arrested by "Storm Troops" and was taken to the police station, where he was shot dead by persons whom the police allowed to enter the school.

In other countries in Europe the anti-German movement is proceeding. A meeting of protest was held in London at which a resolution was passed appealing to the British Government to grant rights of asylum to victims of the German campaign. An organized boycott of German goods has been arranged in France.

A Breathing Space.

Members, March 31. A notice issued in London on the 29th inst. in the name of the British Government, stating that the British Government had decided to grant a breathing space to the Jews in Germany for the purpose of allowing them to settle their affairs and to make arrangements for their departure from the country.

These demands were made at a meeting of Jewish leaders in London, which was held on the 29th inst. The meeting was attended by representatives of the British Government, the British Jewish community, and the German Jewish community.

It is stated that the British Government has agreed to grant a breathing space to the Jews in Germany for the purpose of allowing them to settle their affairs and to make arrangements for their departure from the country.

It is also stated that the British Government has agreed to grant a breathing space to the Jews in Germany for the purpose of allowing them to settle their affairs and to make arrangements for their departure from the country.

It is further stated that the British Government has agreed to grant a breathing space to the Jews in Germany for the purpose of allowing them to settle their affairs and to make arrangements for their departure from the country.

It is finally stated that the British Government has agreed to grant a breathing space to the Jews in Germany for the purpose of allowing them to settle their affairs and to make arrangements for their departure from the country.

Kenya C.N.C. Before Justice Commission.

SUPPORTS PUNISHMENT POLICY OF DISTRICT OFFICERS.

The Revision System.

The Justice Commission which heard further evidence on Friday afternoon examined with great interest records of the work of the Revision Court. It was found that Judges are not supplied with records of the evidence which magistrates in lower courts have taken into account, but select cases for revision from the monthly lists and are generally concerned in reducing sentences. It is the latter appear to have been unduly severe. A large number of examples of such cases were quoted to the Commission.

It was also found that where whipping was ordered as part of a sentence, that punishment was invariably been carried out long before the Revision Court decided whether it was right or not. In some cases the sentence of whipping was actually quashed—but the native had already been whipped!

The Kenya Chief Native Commissioner gave important evidence to the Commission on Friday. He discussed various categories of murder for some of which such as spear-killing in lower courts were treated as a capital offence but in witchcraft cases where the motive was really self-defence he disagreed with capital punishment.

He proposed that Judges should be given power to consider evidence in sentencing cases and that probably degrees of murder should be provided for by law.

The C.N.C. strongly supported exemplary sentences imposed by magistrates in cases where the whole point of view in dealing with the population of a district had to be a more practical one than that which influenced town magistrates or Judges.

Basis on Which Judges Work.

The procedure in regard to revision, and confirmation by the Revision Court of cases, was explained to the Commission by the Chief Native Commissioner. What happens in the subordinate courts was explained to the Commission by the Chief Native Commissioner. The Commission, in substance of finding, indicated by subordinate courts, that form of punishment is applied to most cases. Yes. If the accused is found guilty, he is sentenced to imprisonment for a term of months. In some cases, the sentence is imprisonment for a term of months. THE BOAT RACE RESULT.

Easy Victory For Light Blues.

Oxford's Gallant Fight

SLOWEST TIME RECORDED SINCE 1921.

(Standard Correspondent and Special Reporter.) London, April 7. Dull conditions prevailed for the annual Vanity Boat Race between Cambridge and Oxford on the Thames this afternoon. The sun burst through at intervals, while there was a strong wind blowing from the west. The water was slightly choppy, and with handicaps of 100 and 150 yards, it was expected that this would give the crews an even contest.

Both crews had practice races on the previous day. The Oxford crew were slightly out of sync at the start, but they soon found their rhythm. The Cambridge crew were also out of sync at the start, but they soon found their rhythm.

A start was made just after four o'clock. Both started the year of thirty, and Oxford won by a length. The Cambridge crew were out of sync at the start, but they soon found their rhythm.

On the proposal of the Chairman, Mr. Deane was asked to refer finally resolved to suggest to the Colonial Office that the law should be amended so that the Colony should be allowed to have the same powers as the other Colonies in England or countries which are members of the Commonwealth.

It was further resolved, in connection with the suggestion, that the Government were authorized to enquire into the possibility of enacting the law to reduce the rate of tax.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Editor does not accept responsibility for the correspondence appearing in this column and in all cases the name and address of the writer must accompany a letter, and necessarily for publication that it must be in good faith. Briefly it is also essential to ensure consideration.

THE POLICY OF THE ELLIOTT MEMBERS

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard," Sir—I understand from Captain Stewart's statements in Legislative Council that he intends to discuss the details of the Income Tax Bill in Committee on Monday. If that is correct, it is directly opposed to his understanding to Convention last week.

In the debate on Income Tax, all delegates were so far as I am aware unanimous in opposing on principle any discussion of the details of the Bill.

The discussion centered round whether Convention should call upon Elected Members to walk out and refuse all co-operation with Government after the Second or Third Reading.

The Hon. "E.A. Standard," Sir—It was an advantage of doing so at the Second Reading and giving full attention to this policy.

It was, however, finally decided that the Elected Members should be left free to determine what the session was to be. The question was then raised to the question of the session and the assurance of their leader, Captain Stewart that he was fully aware of and would in no way set contrary to the expressed wish of Convention as discussed in debate.

If, therefore, he permits himself to call Elected Members to walk out, he would be in breach of the promise he has made to the Convention in terms of the speech to them quoted above.

It is, therefore, to be regretted that the Government should have permitted the Elected Members to be misled in this way.

Yours etc., "PROGRESS," Nairobi, March 30, 1933.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard," Sir—There is one aspect of the proposed Income Tax as set forth in the Ordinance, which I believe, has to be faced at this time in your columns, and that is the guarantee of those who have already paid to the full upon the whole or upon part of their incomes, in the United Kingdom and are not really liable to be charged again in this country during the present session.

The proposed procedure in their case is that they should furnish a return of their incomes to the Government of this country, with proof that Income Tax has been paid in the United Kingdom, and shall nevertheless pay a second time at the rates appointed here and recover as best they can the amount of this second imposition; although the notes on the Ordinance admit the principle that the same item of income shall not pay Income Tax twice over.

The notes also state that in most cases the "adjustment" (i.e. the recovery of money not warrantably extorted) will take place entirely in the United Kingdom. In some cases, however, a proportion of this second payment will have to be recovered from the Government of Kenya. This means that the unfortunate taxpayer will probably have to employ a lawyer in one country, engage his books and be at considerable expense in order to recover a sum which in fact was never really liable to be paid.

Many also, who have already paid to the full upon the whole or upon part of their incomes, in the United Kingdom and are not really liable to be charged again in this country during the present session.

Children Who Work

Of the large number of Bills introduced by Kenya Legislative Council on Thursday, only one was referred to select committee, at the request of the European Members. This was the measure for the employment of Women, Young Persons and Children's Employment, 1935. According to the Attorney General, the measure is a result of the recommendations of the International Labour Conference, which the Kenya Government, in common with other parts of the Empire, is bound to implement, with the important proviso that it is to be applied to local conditions, which advantages had been taken into account. The measure is a modification of the International Labour Conference's Convention of 1919, which is the basis of the Bill. It is a measure which is to be applied to children under the age of 15 years, young persons between 15 and 18 years, and women. Colonial Secretary Warns Elected Members.

"TRAVELLING A DANGEROUS ROAD."

An Appeal for Caution.

DEFENCE OF GOVERNMENT'S ACTION OVER INCOME TAX.

The debate on the Income Tax Bill which was continued in Legislative Council yesterday, was noteworthy for a speech by the Colonial Secretary, in defence of the Government's policy in introducing the measure.

Dealing with the Bill from the economic aspect, he said that if the farmers of Kenya really considered the measure purely on the question of the equity of the tax they would be the first to ask Government to impose it.

He added that the opposition to this form of taxation was chiefly psychological and based on a number of factors which had no direct bearing on the merits of the present Bill.

No one, said the Colonial Secretary, regretted more than Government the bitterness with which the present campaign of opposition to income tax was being waged, and he paid a tribute to the moderating influence of Lord Francis Scott, but he pointed out that Government was not entirely to be blamed for the present situation.

He appealed for caution and unity in the consideration of the Bill and warned Elected Members that possible effects of their uncoordinated attitude which was one of danger to the whole Colony.

THIS WEEK'S HINT: Colonel M. J. C. Denny the well known amateur telegrapher, writes:- "I have received 15-5000; 35 in a.m. I have been for some time in the office at 8.15 on the 28th after nearly 8 years' work and taking from 8.15 to 9.15 on 24 hours."

Inspector Denny of a long experience has decided upon a course of very strict professional police discipline. They are not designed for the purpose of facilitating either a prosecution or an acquittal but are intended to arrive at the truth, to discover the facts, to prevent the commission of further offences, and to secure the apprehension of the guilty.

I have so far consistently used the word "police officer" in this country, where the native officers are dubbed with the name of "police officers" and are not infrequently called "officers" in conversation. A great deal of what I now say applies to the "police officers" and any opinion expressed is referred to them.

Turning to certain evidence, it would be very unwise to attach any weight to the statements given in evidence in this case, which have been made out for the purpose of securing a conviction. It is a statement made by the accused in evidence in this case, which has been made out for the purpose of securing a conviction.
