Insurance Bill is passed in Zanzibar

NOT GAMBLING, MUSLIMS TOLD

ZANZIBAR LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, has passed a Bill making it compulsory for vehicle owners to insure against third party risks. Last November an attempt at similar legislation was withdrawn after strong objections were raised by two Muslim members, who protested that insurance was a form of gambling and therefore contrary to the Islamic Law.

"Re-introducing the measure, the House Commission, Mr. R. H. Pakenham, said that while, according to the Koran prohibition of gambling, the Government would not view that third party insurance as a form of gambling.

"On the contrary, it holds the view that it is a desirable measure to insure against third party risks in a country with the safety of the road users."

He pointed out that 140 vehicle licences were issued in the Protectorate last year—more than 1951—and 178 road accidents occurred.

He said that a man insured his life in an accident and a savings fund may have been which possibly would have been the source of the driver's livelihood.

"It means to me that an insurance is a desirable measure for the safety of the road user and the protection of the innocent third party."

He said that the principle of third party insurance, on the contrary, is that a cash payment will be made to the injured party and not to the injured third party.

Such conditions do not apply to gambling in the accepted sense of the word.

"Moreover, I am convinced that insurance of both life and property is a desirable measure already in a considerable number of Muslim countries."

"Third party insurance is a desirable measure in Zanzibar because it is a measure which would be a source of income for the injured party and not a source of income for the insured party."

He said that the Bill would be introduced in the Legislative Council in the near future.

"The Bill was unanimously approved by the Council and the House Commission."

Do not apply

That the principle of third party insurance, on the contrary, is that a cash payment will be made to the injured party and not to the injured third party.

Such conditions do not apply to gambling in the accepted sense of the word.

"Moreover, I am convinced that insurance of both life and property is a desirable measure already in a considerable number of Muslim countries."

"Third party insurance is a desirable measure in Zanzibar because it is a measure which would be a source of income for the injured party and not a source of income for the insured party."

He said that the Bill would be introduced in the Legislative Council in the near future.

"The Bill was unanimously approved by the Council and the House Commission."

Common-sense

Shahid Ali Mubani, a fellow Arab Official Member, said he did not feel his views were being taken into account. He said that he had written a letter to the Government but it had not been received.

"I am convinced that insurance of both life and property is a desirable measure already in a considerable number of Muslim countries."

"Third party insurance is a desirable measure in Zanzibar because it is a measure which would be a source of income for the injured party and not a source of income for the insured party."

LANCASHIRE TEXTILE SALES TO EAST AFRICA

HINT OF FALLING INTEREST RATES

The Bank of England has announced that it will reduce the bank rate from 6 to 5 per cent on September 1st.

The announcement is expected to lead to a rise in the price of government securities and a fall in the price of stocks.

One drawback

Overseas holders of sterling securities are likely to be disappointed if the rate of interest falls, as they will receive a lower return on their investments.

However, the fall in interest rates is expected to lead to a rise in the price of stocks, which may offset the loss of interest.

Overseas Mails

The following table shows the dates of the departure of the main overseas mail services from London.

Service	Day	Time
Imperial Airways	Monday	10.30 a.m.
Imperial Airways	Wednesday	10.30 a.m.
Imperial Airways	Friday	10.30 a.m.
Imperial Airways	Sunday	10.30 a.m.
Imperial Airways	Tuesday	10.30 a.m.
Imperial Airways	Thursday	10.30 a.m.
Imperial Airways	Saturday	10.30 a.m.

More activity

There has been more activity in the London stock market since the beginning of the month. The main reason for this is the fall in interest rates, which has led to a rise in the price of stocks.

The main reason for this is the fall in interest rates, which has led to a rise in the price of stocks.

Hongkong protest over trade pact

An unofficial trade pact was concluded between a group of British businessmen and the National Industrial and Export Corporation, worth £1,500,000, which is a large part of the value originally placed on the British surplus.

This resolution was made public from Peking from one of the British sources.

Businessmen in Hongkong, British as well as Chinese, opposing the arrangement which they say would be a direct blow to Hongkong.

Talks aimed at sugar price agreement

A conference in London this week is working out a new international commodity Nations Sugar Conference on the international market for best sugar cane and the resulting instability in international commodity markets.

The conference was called by the Secretary-General of the United Nations and is being organized under UN auspices.

The grounds for the conference was done by the International Sugar Council. When set up in 1927 to internationalize the sugar market for sugar discussion.

Red China and East Germany barred

UNSUCCESSFUL attempts were made by the Soviet Union and Poland to secure the admission of Communist China and East Germany respectively to the United Nations sugar conference.

The United Nations sugar conference was held in London, July 14, 1953.

Propaganda

"Any news which breaks Hongkong's rice market is breaking British morale, whose force has been in existence for the past 200 years."

It is pointed out that such news is propaganda for the Chinese side of the political struggle, but its political effect will be directly threatened.

Concerned

The United Nations is directly concerned in the London conference because it is interested in the international commodity agreements. The interim committee of the United Nations is working out a plan to help international commodity agreements.

Test case

There is a test case which will decide the responsibility of the United Nations for the sugar market. The test case is the sugar market.

HIGHER CROWNS FOR NEW HATS

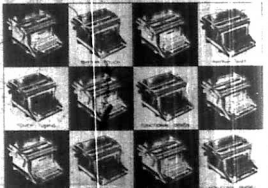

By Victoria Chappelle
THERE is a demand for more height in the hats now being designed for autumn. Many of the houses which are members of the Associated Millinery Designers of London and were autumn collection was a quest to increase height. Recently, report that combinations of materials and color will be used to accent height in the models. Colors will be vivid, and a good deal of tape and fine shaggy felt with dress fabrics such as velvet, jersey and cloth are the materials to be used.

WHEN A WOMAN NEEDS A WIG

WHEN a British woman needs a wig, it is seldom made from her own hair. It is rather from hair bought on the Continent of Europe. Top left, a pleated mill jersey hat in black and white by Edward Mervin of London. It is crowned with a silk bow and has a tiny pleated crown. Above, shimmering steel blades make up the unusual trimming of the hat model which is by Haraldis of London. Right, white linen straw is used for the model of a "Berliner" by Berstedt. It is trimmed with white tulle with very blue spots.

This collector has resulted in a hat which resembles more than anything else the only Dorothea, contrary, actually, it is really attractive! Fashioners are usually aware of the fact that a hat is a hat, but they are not aware of the fact that a hat is a hat, but they are not aware of the fact that a hat is a hat.

Lace and sequins

It is probably inevitable that, for this particular year, many of the new hats should bear some resemblance to the hats of the previous year. It is probably inevitable that, for this particular year, many of the new hats should bear some resemblance to the hats of the previous year.

Schlesinger group buys half share in Commonwealth film organisation

THE South African Schlesinger Organisation has acquired the United African 50 per cent interest in the Arthur Rank Odson Cinema Holdings Ltd, which controls a £20,000,000 cinema organisation in the British Isles and elsewhere in the Commonwealth. The price paid for the United African's holding has not been disclosed, but some British newspapers have estimated the acquisition of £1,000,000.

Coming at a time when Hollywood is looking for new markets in Africa, the acquisition of the art and welcome sign of the Schlesinger's interest in the future of the cinema in Africa. The fact that it is a British concern has not been overlooked by the Commonwealth film producers who have also given assistance in many cases.

Plan to halt spread of unemployment

BRITAIN, under a new plan to prevent the spread of unemployment as a result of the Economic and Social Council meeting in Geneva, among the first steps will be to study national and international movements on the economic situation caused by the increase in unemployment.

The committee will study methods of increasing production in areas where there are high unemployment rates, and maintain high levels of employment within the framework of external and internal economic equilibrium and of liberalization of trade.

GERMAN DEBTS PROGRESS

THE Bunders (West German Upper House) will discuss the London Group agreement tomorrow and is expected to approve it. The chairman of the West German delegation to the London debt conference, Dr. Franz Bode, said.

The Federal President, Herr Heuss, will sign the agreement tomorrow after its approval by the Bunders. Herr Heuss is believed to have approved the agreement in principle, and it is expected to be signed by the Bunders and the Federal President tomorrow.

LORD SALISBURY'S SUEZ BRIEF
 In London it is believed that Lord Salisbury carried instructions from the Prime Minister to take Mr. Dulles to task in Washington for the revised terms which the American Government proposed to Egypt.

Three new terms are expected to be included in the revised proposals on which the United States and Britain have agreed to work.

Russians are still wondering
 MALENKOV and his remaining friends have done nothing to clear up the mystery of Beria's downfall.

It is not clear whether the Russian Government is prepared to accept the terms of the new proposal.

The Russian Government has not yet decided whether to accept the terms of the new proposal.

Vast rail system to aid beef-raising

AUSTRALIAN SCHEME

CONSTRUCTION of a extensive rail network across the beef desert areas of Australia, with a view to expanding beef production in the north, is being considered by the Commonwealth Government. The main line in the proposed scheme would run from North Walshby through the cattle country of Queensland and the Northern Territory to Brisbane, south of Darwin.

Another line would run from the Wyndham area in Western Australia to Perth. The project would also include a direct line from Perth to Darwin.

In Queensland, the Australian Government is planning to construct a line from North Walshby to Brisbane, the 400-mile line of the Northern Territory Government to Darwin, and the 1,000-mile line from Perth to Darwin.

The construction of the rail network is being considered by the Commonwealth Government.

It is proposed that transport in the desert areas of Australia be improved by the construction of a rail network.

At present cattle in the inland have to be driven to the coast, a process which is often slow and involving a period of up to 12 weeks.

The report which reached the Government yesterday said that the Government was considering the construction of a rail network in the inland.

Sherpas take on a new glamour

Stout-hearted

THROUGH the feats of Tensing Norkey, who climbed to the summit of Mount Everest with Sir Edmund Hillary, the Sherpas are passing into a new and woolly life of glamour and fortune. More than 10,000 feet above the barometer level of India.

Though not yet fully known, it has been seen a Sherpa and those who have been seen to climb him more often than not as a barbarian, the component of Everest has clothed him in the garb of a mountaineer.

Foreign mountaineers have looked for long, but the only person to penetrate the great heights of these mountains was Dr. Kellas in 1922, who was the first Himalayan climber to use them as a route and they then they have been organized into an elite corps of the Patagonian of the Himalayan Club. Mountaineers of these have lost their lives in various Himalayan expeditions.

Sherpas can, however, in the way to be known as Sherpas in the Alps. They are perfect pure and stout-hearted.

One member of Colonel John Hunt's triumphant Everest expedition, the mountaineer who was the first to reach the summit of the world's highest peak, was a Sherpa.

Though their daily life on the mountain is a life of hardship, they are perfect pure and stout-hearted.

Where we lead—prosperity follows

Driving a path through thick bush is one of the tasks now being tackled by the Railways in Western Uganda.
Here a new 210-mile line is being laid through difficult country from Kampala to Keteke in the foothills of the Rwenzori Mountains.
The building of this new extension involves considerable feats of engineering, for in the path of the line lie wide swamps, many miles of thick bush and scrub, and the steep escarpment down to Lake George. All materials for bridges and culverts, as well as for the line itself, have only one means of transport: along the length of line already laid.
When completed, the extension will serve the Kileleshwa copper mines and open up many thousands of square miles of rich agricultural lands.

CONSUL GIVES A MALK ON TIES WITH BRITAIN

Film of Queen at Casa de Portugal
The Coronation film, Elizabeth & Queen, was shown at the Casa de Portugal, Nairobi, by the Portuguese Consul in Nairobi, who gave a complimentary lecture on the ties between his country and Great Britain. He said the cultural session at the Casa de Portugal, dedicated to the Coronation, was a reaffirmation of the ties between the two countries.

It may appear strange that the Casa de Portugal should make one of its cultural sessions to the Coronation, he said. The fact, however, can be explained: Portugal and Portugal have had most ancient allies in the world since the year 1147. The ties between the two countries were further strengthened when in 1482 one of the greatest Portuguese navigators, Vasco da Gama, discovered the sea route to India. Talks may cut shipping delay

Shipments which it is hoped will not suffer delay in British East Africa are being cleared by the Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika Administrations. The delay in shipping is being caused by the fact that the shipping companies are not yet in a position to handle the large quantities of goods which are being imported into East Africa.

Innovations in ships bringing US grain

MAIZE being imported from America to East Africa for the first time, is arriving at Tanga in ships which are bringing innovations in the carriage of grain.

It is loaded in New Orleans and the Chief ports and is being shipped to East Africa in ships belonging to the American Overseas Steamship Company. The ships are fitted with the latest cargo-handling devices enabling them to have two gangs of labour working at the same time.

Hatch covers

Large cargoes of all kinds are carried and the latest arrival, the 'Pierre L. D.' carried a cargo of maize. The hatch covers are made of a strong material and are maintained at a temperature of 100 degrees Fahrenheit. CHIEFDOM DISPUTE TO GO BACK TO BEGINNING

'Not enough evidence' decision
FOR more than a month, the five distinguished judges who form the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council have sat in Downing Street listening to complicated legal arguments in an effort to decide who is the royal chieftain of the Nandi in Southern Nigeria. The royal chieftain is distinguished from all other chiefs in the Nandi tribe by the possession of a purple gill crown and a silver staff.

Harvards Over The Aberdares

TODAY'S picture page is a salute to the four Harvards of the Royal Air Force which constitute the air striking force in the battle against Mau Mau. On the back page Stephen Mitchell tells the story of the mounting air offensive which the crews of these four aircraft are carrying out against the hide-outs and strongholds of the crooked gangs set deep in the heart of the Aberdares' forest lands.

Clinical Tests Prove Gum Troubles Reduced Twice As Fast!

Actual clinical tests with 500 patients show that Chlorophyll Toothpaste can reduce gingivitis, the cause of bad breath, in six weeks more than any other toothpaste. This is because Chlorophyll Toothpaste is a natural germicide. It kills the bacteria that cause gum trouble and bad breath. It also cleans the teeth and whitens the gums.

WHY NOT TRY COLGATE CHLOROPHYLL TOOTH PASTE TODAY?

Write your name and the name of a neighborhood grocery store to which you wish to purchase Chlorophyll Toothpaste on this leaflet to Colgate Dental Creams, 120 Broadway, New York, N.Y.

When you receive your Chlorophyll Toothpaste, please send this leaflet to Colgate Dental Creams, 120 Broadway, New York, N.Y., so that we may know how many copies of this leaflet are needed in your neighborhood.

ELLY S. CARRELL suggests some Variations On The Potato Theme

THE slight extra trouble that these recipes call for will be more than justified by the results. They provide a welcome change from the more conventional ways of serving potatoes.

For a main course: T is substantial main course. Cut some french-fry potatoes into quarters or, if preferred, into thin slices. Fry some minced meat in fat until fairly cooked. Fry some pieces of meat from leftover of the joint to be used, with oil frying quite separately.

Remove from the pan and put the potatoes well sizzling. Fry in vegetable oil until the meat between two layers of potatoes. Fry in vegetable oil until the meat between two layers of potatoes.

INGRAM SHAVING CREAM

There are so many reasons...

... why you should choose an Ingram. Things like adjustable brush, quiet, easy operation and an attractive appearance are all points which your Secretary will approve, while you will learn they appreciate its neat type-face (it is available with either "Pica" or "Elite") and the business-like appearance it will give to your letters. Allow us to demonstrate this fine machine to you.

COLOUR TELEVISION WITHIN TEN YEARS?

THE British Broadcasting Corporation holds out the prospect of colour television some time within the next decade.

First essential

The first essential is a large number of television sets...

It is estimated that 10 per cent of the population of Great Britain and Northern Ireland...

At the moment, TV is on the air for five hours a day, though this period is extended when there are important news items.

Large-scale projects include the introduction of an ultra-high frequency service. The second part of the plan is to make television a commercial service...

It is estimated that 10 per cent of the population of Great Britain and Northern Ireland...

By 1963 there will probably be 10 million sets in use in the U.K. The BBC's natural success in the number of sets sold will not be sufficient to finance the whole plan.

Some success in the cost of licences is therefore inevitable. But the BBC hopes that, provided it is not too high, it will not be too high to be borne by the public.

With the increased number of attacks, the Harvard anti-strafed... The Harvard anti-strafed...
