African Political Expression

There was much wisdom, tolerance and understanding displayed in the important debate which took place this week in the Kenya Legislative Council on the formation of an African political party. It is a pity that such a debate should have taken place at all, for the fact is that the Government has been very successful in its policy of encouraging the formation of a political party among all communities along the lines of the best interests of the country, its progress and prospects of the future. It was most encouraging.

There can be no doubt that the Kenya African National Congress is a party of the people and that its cause is the cause of the African people. It is a pity that such a debate should have taken place at all, for the fact is that the Government has been very successful in its policy of encouraging the formation of a political party among all communities along the lines of the best interests of the country, its progress and prospects of the future. It was most encouraging.

It is natural that there should be a feeling of uneasiness that the objective cannot be achieved without the aid of the Government. WAKEFIELD LUBRICATION

The Lubricator at the right keeps independent of an outside Air Supply. It is generally intended for use in the field, where removal of mud from a working wheel would mean loss of operating efficiency. Its highly efficient hand-operated pump gives a lubricating pressure of 10 to 2,000 psi per square inch.

BLACK WATCH NOW IN RIPT CAMPS

AND THE Fusiliers SET OFF FOR HOME

Bagpipers skirl at Nairobi Station

Nairobi Station

ADVICE OF DEPUTY C-in-C.

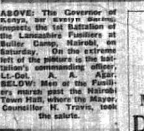

A weekend re-shuffle of troops, carefully planned to maintain the strength of the Colony's security forces, Kenya has received word from the 1st Battalion of the London Fusiliers, and in their stead wounded the 1st Battalion of the Black Watch, who have come direct from Korea.

As troops who have fought against the Mau Mau terrorists since the first day of the Emergency in October brought a troupe of Mombasa—following an all-night rail journey from Nairobi—the newcomers were disembarked into lorries at Nairobi Station and moving to recently vacated camps in the Rift Valley Province.

The special train from the Coast brought the Scots to Nairobi yesterday afternoon. Transport was awaiting them in the Station Square. Their arrival was watched by a large crowd, mainly Africans, many of whom had come to see the departure of the Fusiliers the previous evening.

Temporary the 2nd (Queen's) African Rifles, who are serving in the East African Mounted Rifles, are also serving in Mombasa yesterday.

When the troops returned to Nairobi, the 1st Battalion of the Black Watch, who were serving in Korea, were being replaced by the 1st Battalion of the Queen's African Rifles, who are serving in the East African Mounted Rifles.

Housing plans for Kenya Africans

MINISTER ANSWERS QUESTION

DETAILS of African housing programmes by both the Government and local authorities in Kenya were given by Mr. Oliver Lyttelton, the Colonial Secretary, in a written reply to a question asked in the House of Commons by Mr. S. L. White.

In addition to 650 quarters completed in 1952, he said, the Government planned to build 2,310 quarters at a cost of £900,000 to house all the African employees throughout the Colony and the funds were available, they were estimated to be finished by 1956.

Nairobi City Council also had a £250,000 programme for 1953-1954, to provide houses for 10,000 persons and serviced plots, for employers and owners holding. Houses will be built for renting to 13,000 tenants and also been started for accommodation for 6,500. Employees will be sent to rent houses for a further 2,800 people and the programme was started by the end of the year.

Mombasa

One hundred serviced plots will be available for tenants on one-off-hold housing and 900 more on a long-term basis. Standard houses to be built by the Government. The programme has also been set on foot by the Nairobi City Council.

First day of the Nairobi August meeting

PARTHENS WINS BIG EVENT

TURF was some keen and most interesting racing in Nairobi on Saturday afternoon, the first day of the August meeting. Honours were extremely well divided with Alexander, among the trainers, and Jeffrey Lister the only ones to score twice.

Three big races at the 1200 yard event. In the first, the 1200 Memorial Trophy (over 1200 yards) was won by Merry Breeze, a 12 year old mare, who was not surprising that her prices were very good for the most part.

Five good handicappers started for the Ash Khan Division (1200 Memorial) Trophy over 1200 yards for a stands start, and every very well.

Turf was somewhat in the lead, followed by Ben His and Daybreak in close succession.

Strong finish. At the distance, Lister brought up the rear, but he was not far behind.

Hunt for oil goes on in Alaska's Icy Bay

JUST about now, a small group of modified and hooded men will be getting their first glimpse of the world's most remote and barren land tract—the ice-encased, mountainous coastal belt fringing Alaska's Icy Bay.

Icy Bay is an immense area, but it is not believed that the hydrocarbon content of the Icy Bay area is as rich as the other areas of the Alaskan coast.

The reasons for this lie in the fact that the Icy Bay area is so remote that it is difficult to reach. The only way to reach the Icy Bay area is by air, and the cost of this is very high.

The Icy Bay area is a very rich area, and it is believed that it will be one of the most important oil fields in the world.

PLAN FOR FRESH WATER FROM SEA

Need for cheap electrical energy

A PROCESS for getting fresh water from the sea—-it may turn some of the world's desert coastal strip into a cornucopia of food and fibre, according to the British Commonwealth Scientific Office in its first annual review of the world's resources.

The review, which was published in London, describes a process of desalination, with which it is not possible to produce large quantities of drinkable water from sea water—-a process which is comparable with water at mountain level.

Very little information has been released on the process but it is believed that it will be a cheap electrical energy in conjunction with the technique to separate the salt water into two streams, one of sea water, about one-third of the original volume, containing a fresh-water stream suitable for drinking, agricultural and industrial use.

Anglo-Chinese trade reports shrink with mission's return

By G. H. GREEN
Only £35,000,000 passed by Board of Trade

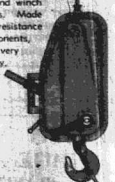

The massive reports of £200,000,000 worth of trade between China and the United Kingdom in 1950, which were to be reduced to £150,000,000 each way to result from the recent trade mission's findings, are being questioned by the Board of Trade. When the members' reports are published, it is expected that the volume of business had been reduced to £150,000,000 each way.

This Week's Mainly-For-Women Page describes

A VISIT TO A MODERN KENYA
POULTRY FARM

By Angela Rowe

MANY women living on farms, or even in a house with a small acreage of land around it, have realised the advantages of the deep litter system of keeping poultry, both as a labour-saving and an economical proposition.

This system, first started in America, is becoming increasingly popular, not only in Kenya, but all over the world. It was discovered, quite by accident, during the time of shortage of labor, when one left unattended for long periods, and further experiments revealed, surprisingly enough, that it was, in fact, one of the most hygienic ways of keeping poultry.

Simple outlay

MIS is PRIMARILY, one tiered or deeper tables, but one can use

SPEAKING OF poultry, here is a receipt for Curried Eggs.

INGREDIENTS:
1½ hard-boiled eggs
1 egg
2 small onions
1 pint chicken stock or mixed chicken soup.
2 teaspoons

METHOD: Cut the eggs and onion into small pieces and cook them gently in butter for five minutes. Use the top of a double boiler over direct heat. Stir in the curry powder and flour, and when they are blended add the chicken stock or mixed soup, and the pint of milk. Bring to the boil, stirring constantly, then add salt, pepper, lemon juice, and a few whole raisins if required.

Put the pan over boiling water, and let the sauce cook for 15-20 minutes. Then pour the curried egg and add them to the sauce. The curried egg is best kept sealed in the fridge. This time it should be heated in the fridge.

The curried egg should be served on a platter surrounded by rice, and eaten with chicken. An assortment of condiments can also be served with it, such as ground peanuts, ground tomatoes, mixed-salad, olives, minced crisp bacon, and French fried onions, though any food of these would be suitable.

The European assistant on the farm checks production.

These birds are in the general profit, but is preferred which include village birds. This, of course, is essential for the health of the flock, and is conducive to high egg production.

In order to guard against this and other parasites, a diet based consisting of sand

Best results

As far as the breed of poultry is concerned, one finds that the best results of deep litter by raising a heavy breed with a light skin, such as a Rhode Island Red, with a Brown Leghorn.

Mrs. Dennis, who first kept chickens as a hobby, started her chicken farm about three and a half years ago. Since then, she has been to England and Denmark, where she spent a great deal of time in selecting the type of chickens that would do well, and would be best suited to the climate of Kenya. Her final choice was, with a farm in Throby, Hampshire, where she was playing all the chickens, but she recently only one died. The minimum number of eggs laid in one year, which she has laid in the recent five, was of her chickens 87 eggs on 97 hens.

The foundation is quite suitable in a location, and the method used for the litter, which is usually split up to about six inches, and of either wood shavings, sawdust, straw, ground maize-cobs, or dry grass. Though the first two are generally preferred. Once the micro-organisms begin to work, the material that was originally chosen (disintegrating) the droppings become dry and so a part mixture in the result. Parasiticide in Kenya, we have a dry climate, so there is not much fear of the litter becoming wet and mouldy. Ammonia fumes in a well-aerated litter are highly toxic.

A great advantage of this deep litter system over others is that it is a very simple and economical way of keeping poultry. It is also a very hygienic way of keeping poultry, and it is a very economical way of keeping poultry.

With the introduction of the deep litter system, the number of chickens that can be kept on a small acreage of land has increased. This is because the deep litter system is a very economical way of keeping poultry, and it is a very hygienic way of keeping poultry.

RUSSIA AGREES TO 'BIG FOUR' MEETING —thinks Red China should take part WEST RECEPTION COOL

RUSSIA yesterday agreed to a "Big Four" Foreign Ministers' conference—with reservations. In Notes to the British, United States and French Embassies in Moscow she said she was willing to consent on Germany, but added that a discussion on measures for easing international tension should also be on the agenda—a fifth Communist China taking part.

The Western Powers, in their invitation last month to Russia to join in a Big Four conference, suggested the agenda would be limited to conditions for a German election and final agreement on a German State treaty—although they did not specifically exclude other subjects. The invitation sent after the Washington talks, suggested the conference should be in late September.

In the Western capitals it is considered that the Russian Note has been regarded as a delay to the possibility of the conference being held for some time to come. There is scepticism at the moment why the Soviet leaders are so preoccupied at the moment with the internal situation that they are not anxious for an early meeting with the West except on the very widest basis.

The Russian reply said her attitude on Austria had been made clear last week in Moscow. She said she would accept an abbreviated Austrian State Treaty. The diplomatic draft was imposed by the Western Powers after three years' deadlock on the original 1945-46 proposals.

The Russian reply said she would accept an abbreviated Austrian State Treaty. The diplomatic draft was imposed by the Western Powers after three years' deadlock on the original 1945-46 proposals.

'Favourable'

The Russian reply made no comment on the suggested timing of the conference beyond saying that with the conclusion of a German armistice favourable conditions had been created for referring a handling of outstanding international relations.

Responsibility for initiating the conference was placed above all, "as could be seen from the Soviet Union Charter" with five Powers: the Soviet Union and the Chinese People's Republic.

In the view of the above proposals the Russian reply said she was in favour of a conference of Foreign Ministers to discuss international relations, including Germany, and the settlement of outstanding international relations.

'A danger'

"Measures are being taken for the militarisation of Western Europe," the Russian reply said. "The danger cannot fail to be realised by the West, and particularly the neighbouring countries."

"Despite the considerations mentioned above," the Soviet Government attaches great importance to a joint conference of the German people and the German Government to make it possible to continue through the problems of Germany, and to settle the outstanding international relations of the German people and the German Government.

The men were given food, drinks and letters from home which were read with tears in their eyes. Within an hour of the arrival of the first trainload, the sick and wounded were being taken by helicopters to the Allied hospital in Seoul.

The Communist announced they will return to Allied camps during the next few days, starting on August 10. They are being taken to the United States, France, Great Britain, and the Soviet Union.

The U.S. Secretary of State announced that the United States Government has agreed to accept the terms of the Korean armistice. The armistice would end the Korean war and allow for the reunification of Korea.

The French Foreign Minister said that the French Government would accept the terms of the Korean armistice. He said that the French Government would accept the terms of the Korean armistice.

The effect of constant Press propaganda on the minds of the people of Gibraltar is becoming increasingly apparent. The younger generation, especially those who were born in Gibraltar, are less likely to be influenced by the propaganda of the British Government.

AUSTRALIA WILL BE THE RICHEST COUNTRY SAYS ATOM PROFESSOR

The Canadian-born scientist, Professor Henry Meisel, is going round Australia telling the people that their country can become the richest and most powerful in the world. He says Australia holds the key to world leadership in her two big uranium fields in the Northern Territory and in South Australia.

He predicts that Australia will become the richest of the United States of the Southern continent in the atomic future.

As a result of his lecture, the Government has decided to send a party to the uranium fields in the Northern Territory and in South Australia to see the possibilities of mining them.

Professor Meisel hopes to see close co-operation with the United States in the development of the uranium fields. He says the Government will be interested in the uranium fields in the Northern Territory and in South Australia.

Private firms can become members of his atomic energy commission and share in the profits of the uranium fields. He says the Government will be interested in the uranium fields in the Northern Territory and in South Australia.

Professor Meisel already has a lot of friends in Australia. He says the Government will be interested in the uranium fields in the Northern Territory and in South Australia.

REVIVAL OF DIPLOMACY
When Mr. Anthony
Foreign Secretary again in October 1951, first time in his first speech in Parliament, was asked by the Opposition to state whether it was fact that there was almost no contact between the British and the Soviet Union since the war.

Suddenly the picture has changed completely. The British and the Soviet Union are now in contact and the relations between them are being improved to what extent Russian policies in the Far East are being improved, there is no doubt that there will be a considerable revival of Russian diplomatic activity in the Far East.

In the struggle of Great Britain and the United States to contain Communism,
two major diplomatic fronts are opening up. One is in the Far East, and the other is in the Middle East.
The Far East is the struggle of the United States and Great Britain against the Soviet Union and China. The Middle East is the struggle of the United States and Great Britain against the Soviet Union and the Arab States.

The British Government has been successful in obtaining a large number of American troops to be stationed in the Far East. This is a significant step towards the revival of British diplomacy in the Far East. It shows that the British Government is determined to stand firm against Communism
in the Far East.

Workers still do not want new devices

The workers in the East African Standard printing plant have expressed their opposition to the new devices introduced by the management. The workers are still in a state of dissatisfaction with the new machines and the way they are being used. They feel that the new devices are not only inefficient but also dangerous to their health and safety. The management, however, insists that the new devices are necessary for the plant to remain competitive in the market. The workers' union has been active in organizing protests and strikes to demand the removal of the new devices. The management has responded by offering various incentives and benefits to the workers, but these have not been sufficient to win their support. The situation remains tense, and it is expected that further negotiations will be held in the near future to resolve the dispute.

News from Britain

By VAUGHAN JONES

AT 11 o'clock on the 30th of July, the House of Commons passed the Bill for the abolition of the death penalty in Great Britain. The Bill was introduced by Mr. Asquith, and it is expected that it will become law in the near future. This is a significant step towards the reform of the criminal justice system in the United Kingdom. The abolition of the death penalty has been a long-standing demand of the public, and it is seen as a sign of a more humane and civilized society. The government has also announced plans to introduce other reforms, including the abolition of the flogging of convicts and the introduction of a new system of capital punishment. These reforms are part of a broader effort to modernize the legal system and to ensure that the rights of all citizens are protected. The public has generally welcomed these proposals, and it is hoped that they will be implemented as soon as possible.

Talmoral Castle not for sale

StORIES that Talmoral Castle, near Edinburgh, was to be sold as a Royal residence, have been dispelled by the Duke of Devonshire. The Duke has stated that the castle is not for sale and that it will remain in the hands of the Duke's family. This is a relief for those who have been concerned about the future of the castle. Talmoral Castle is a fine example of Scottish architecture and has a long and distinguished history. It is a popular tourist attraction and a source of pride for the local community. The Duke's decision to keep the castle in the family is seen as a victory for the preservation of a significant historical and cultural heritage.

TEACHERS' strike

TEACHERS' strike in many parts of the country. The strike is being called by the National Education Association, and it is expected to last for several weeks. The teachers are protesting against the government's proposed changes to the education system. They are concerned that these changes will result in a loss of standards and a decline in the quality of education. The government has responded by offering to negotiate with the teachers' union, but the strike has already begun. This is a major disruption to the education system, and it is hoped that a peaceful resolution can be reached as soon as possible. The public is being urged to show understanding and patience during this difficult time.

Now, in the show

Now, in the show, the government is expected to announce a new policy on the economy. This policy is expected to focus on reducing inflation and stimulating economic growth. The government has been facing significant challenges in this regard, and it is hoped that these measures will be effective. The public is being encouraged to stay informed and to support the government's efforts. It is also expected that the government will continue to work closely with the private sector to achieve its goals. The overall outlook for the economy is cautiously optimistic, and it is expected that the government's policies will lead to a more stable and prosperous future.

Tour preparations

The Queen and Duke of Edinburgh will depart for their annual holiday in Scotland. The Queen is expected to arrive in Scotland on the 15th of August, and she will spend several weeks there. The Duke of Edinburgh is also expected to accompany her. This is a long-standing tradition, and it is expected that the Queen and the Duke will enjoy their holiday in Scotland. African teachers urged to foster Scout movement

A DRIVE to sell Scout uniforms should be continued in all African schools. The Scout Association has urged African teachers to encourage their pupils to join the Scout movement. The Scout movement is a worldwide organization that provides a range of activities and opportunities for young people. It is seen as a valuable way of helping young people to develop their skills and to become responsible citizens. The Scout Association has been successful in recruiting many young people in Africa, and it is hoped that this success will be continued. African teachers are being urged to play a key role in this process. It is also expected that the Scout movement will continue to grow in Africa in the years ahead.

PUBLIC TO SERVE ON NEW VALUATION COURT

No councillors appointed

NAKURU MUNICIPAL COUNCILLORS have voted against a proposal that the public should be appointed to sit on the town's Valuation Court. The councillors are concerned that the public would not have the necessary expertise to make fair valuations. The Valuation Court is responsible for determining the value of property in the town, and it is a key part of the town's financial system. The public's appointment to the court is seen as a potential threat to the town's financial stability. The councillors are expected to continue to oppose the proposal.

Constable jailed

A constable has been sentenced to prison for a period of two years for a conviction on a charge of receiving stolen goods. The constable was caught in the act of receiving stolen goods, and he was found guilty by the court. This is a serious offence, and the constable's actions have caused significant damage to the community. The court has expressed its disappointment in the constable's behavior and has sentenced him to prison as a punishment. It is hoped that this will serve as a deterrent to other constables who might be tempted to engage in such behavior. The police are being urged to continue to work hard to maintain law and order in the community.

FASHIONED IN LONDON
By Dorothy Barkley

NEW SWEATERS FOR EVENING WEAR

TALKING OF FOOD

I SHOULD think the British evening dress has now got into its stride and is being worn in London and in the provinces. It is a beautiful thing, and it is a pity that it is not worn more often. It is a dress that is both smart and comfortable, and it is a dress that is suitable for all occasions.

Late Nights The Curse Of The Age

I'VE all at last had my eye drawn to the fact that the late-night habit is a curse of the age. It is a habit that is both harmful and unbecoming, and it is a habit that is being worn by more and more people.

CHOCOLATE KISSES

THIS recipe for Chocolate Kisses is as follows: Ingredients: 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 cup butter, 1/4 cup cocoa powder, 1/4 cup milk, 1/4 cup nuts. Directions: Melt the sugar and butter together, then add the cocoa powder and milk. Stir until smooth, then add the nuts and shape into kisses.

Don't worry

BUT the agent for the most common cause of worry is the worry of the morning. It is a worry that is both common and avoidable, and it is a worry that can be avoided by following a few simple rules.

WHITER TEETH in 14 days with Macleans

MAKE THIS 14-DAY TEST

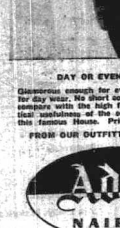

Get Macleans a trial for yourself - be quite fair about your teeth. Thoroughly morning and night for a couple of days. Then, after your teeth are clean, brush with Macleans on the smooth, creamy paste removes the dingy coating from your teeth and brings out their natural whiteness. Wash with water. You will have your teeth whiter and brighter in 14 days. Macleans is a gentle and effective tooth powder - it is a tooth powder that is both safe and effective.

BRENNER

ONE short dinner in the middle of the day is a habit that is both harmful and unbecoming, and it is a habit that is being worn by more and more people. It is a habit that is both harmful and unbecoming, and it is a habit that is being worn by more and more people.

DAY OR EVENING SACKET

Guaranteed enough for evening, practical enough for day wear. No short coat made to be worn by the company with the high fashion styling and practical usefulness of the several styles in this famous Hosiery. Price from 10s. to 12s. 6d.

It's Worth While Making Your Own Bread

MAKING one's own bread is worth while because it is both economical and healthy. It is a habit that is both economical and healthy, and it is a habit that is being worn by more and more people.

There Are Too Many Girls

YOU might as well face it, girls, says a top girl in London, as you're husband-hunting, stay away from Britain's British tourist.

Mixing

NEXT it was time to start mixing the yeast into the dough. It is a habit that is both economical and healthy, and it is a habit that is being worn by more and more people.

On to the stove

BY the morning the dough had risen to the top of the bowl and was ready for a final kneading. It is a habit that is both economical and healthy, and it is a habit that is being worn by more and more people.

Let the night bring BEAUTY

Mercolux wax is a product that is both economical and healthy. It is a habit that is both economical and healthy, and it is a habit that is being worn by more and more people.

Mercolux wax is a product that is both economical and healthy. It is a habit that is both economical and healthy, and it is a habit that is being worn by more and more people.

Great Celebrations in 'Viyella'

This year, on mother's birthday, there was a Covington ceremony—a crowning with daisies—and altogether, was held with a kin. Dress for the occasion was 'Viyella'. Here you see how 'Viyella' is for all ages, for all seasons. It is lightweight, perfect for the wide circular dress maker is wearing. It keeps children who run in and out of doors safe from chills. It wears (for ever, people say) and it washes wonderfully. 'Viyella' is made entirely by William Hillier & Co. Limited (also the makers of 'Civella'). Both may be recognised by the guarantee against shrinking and by the Tamsay and Night trade mark.

Schools In Scandinavia

Scandinavia's well-ordered society, where the war has had little and fewer "war scars" to use the phrase of a former Swedish Finance Minister, has created a stable and healthy foundation for the new generation, education is a matter of the broadest public interest.

Modern methods are still in the making and schools are not so generally understood. The leading Swedish newspaper, with the complete results of a survey of the educational situation, points out that the best results are obtained in the home and awarded high prizes.

It is not, as is often supposed, that the children of the wealthy are better educated than those of the poor. The results of the survey show that the children of the poor are better educated than those of the wealthy.

THROUGH MY HAT

No report from Reuter that the issue is to be raised in the House of Commons. But I've little doubt there will be representations in the circles following what I believe will be a heavy blow against the principles of the party.

'Cured' for ever

After a long, costly, and often fruitless search for relief, they are "cured" for ever of their rheumatism and other ailments by the use of the "Cure" for ever. This is due to the fact that the children of the poor are better educated than those of the wealthy.

Aching muscles?

The other day I had a conference... Coffee Conference which lays down the policy of the coffee industry in the Colony.

It wasn't a big affair this conference... The agenda in fact was very simple.

First move BECAUSE that was what I thought... I thought that the coffee industry in the Colony should be organized.

It will be easier to find your way... The happy situation which has been created in the industrial area of the city.

It shall not be successful... They have decided that the coffee industry should be organized.

They are hurt BEYOND measure... The industry is not entirely unharmed.

What the government... like in appreciation of their appreciation.

The planters do not blame the roasters... The roasters' fault was that they were not consulted.

There was the victims... There was the victims who were not consulted.

An insult IN the Central and South American countries... where coffee is the economic mainstay.

THE THING'S THEY SAY... being quotations from B.C.C. talks

Postal service SHOULD the postal authorities... to me the difficulties of introducing and extending a delivery system.

Before the street and main... the street and main roads are being widened.

At one club I met a young... who had some suggestions for the improvement of the postal service.
