1935 FORD V-8 TRUCKS

With these modern trucks, combining power with high speed and nimbleness in traffic, you will make faster time and more trips. The V-8 engine uses no more fuel than a four. New directed-flow crankcase ventilation reduces oil dilution. Exhaust valve inserts increase mileage between valve grindings. Heavy duty, copper-lead connecting rod bearings keep their shape, resist burning out and prolong engine life. Dual carburettor and dual intake manifold give more miles per gallon. New load distribution means better braking and more uniform tire and brake wear.

ALLEGED MILITARY PACT GIVING ITALY A FREE HAND

The British Government has been heavily criticised by all sections in the House of Commons for the suggestion to transfer territory and native people to Italy and Abysenia as a contribution to the maintenance of peace.

hers rang through the House when a Conservative Member asked that Government should consider seri-ously the disquetting effect such proposals would have on native peoples throughout the Empire.

While Britain is taking soundings in Paris and while there are rumours that France will virtually give Italy a free hand, Ras Tafari has made a spectacular appeal to America on the United States Independence Day to come to the aid of Ethiopia.

In reply to questions the Secretary of State for the Colonies declared that British Somaliland was not British terri-tery but a Protectorate and that the natives of Somali-land were technically regarded as aliens.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL ON FEAR THAT INDIAN TRADERS WILL BE SOUEEZED OUT

Only two Members voted against the second reading of the Native Marketing Bill in Legislative Council on Tues-day. They were Mr. J. B. Pandya who opposes the measure on the ground that it is anti-Indian and Mr. F. A. Bemister (Mombasa) who believes it is anti-native.

As a protest against the measure four of the Indian members walked out of the Chamber early in the debate.

The Attorney-General replied at length to the criticisms of the Bill and of Government's attitude in connection with it, after which the measure was referred to a Select Committee.

Memorable and history making matches were witnessed at Wimbledon on Friday and Saturday in the men's an women's singles. Both games were watched by crowds which filled Wimbledon to capacity.

Never in the history of Wimbledon has there been such final of the women's singles as that between Mrs. Wills Moody and Miss Helen Jacobs, both Americans. The latter twice stood at match point to achieve her life ambition—a Wimbledon title—but failed.
