"ETHIOPIA TO STRUGGLE TO THE LAST MAN"

Speech by the Emperor

MILLION FATALISTIC MEN READY TO MARCH AGAINST INVADERS

The dispute between Italy and Abyssinia has reached a stage where the outbreak of war appears to be imminent. Following the recent military preparations by Italy, the Empseur of Ethiopia has announced that his territory will be defended against any invasion.

During the course of a speech to the Abyssinian Parliament, the Emperor said that should a peaceful solution not be found at the last mousent, then Ethlopia would struggle to the last man to resist invasion. He asserted that Italy has lusted for the country for 40 years.

- East Africans may with profit study the following summary of a speech delivered by His Excellency the Governor of Seychelles to his Legislative Council on the financial and economic position.
- 'e should cense to think,'' he said in one striking phrase,
 '' in terms of the 'Depression' or 'Economic Crisis,' but rather regard the present as possibly a return towards the normal after a boom period.'
- In another part of the speech he emphasised the need for "self-help and hard work and perhaps less self-pity and the overpowering need to adapt ourselves to altered and hardee circumstances which may have come to stay, with a spell of quite limited prosperity in front of us for some parts of some." for some years to come."
- His Excellency announced a steady return to a sounder working financial position, the establishment of a Land Bank, a great improvement in the recovery of loans made to planters, several achiences of development including agricultural scholarships for Seychelles youth and further economies in Civil Service salaries.
