EARTHQUAKE IN N. AFRICA: 1,000 DEAD

Tremor shatters Algerian town

HUNDREDS LOSE HOMES AS DAMS CRUMBLE

At least 1,000 people are reported to have been killed in a 12-second earthquake which shattered the Algerian town of Oranville yesterday, and blasted open two dams across the Fouda River. Waters from the river flooded out over surrounding farms as the Oranville dam and smaller dams crumbled under the shock.

The Oranville dam is the biggest in North Africa. Information from the reaped town flashed back to Algiers by Army radio signalers told of the almost complete destruction of the middle town. Two hotels, where at least 500 are known to have died, the hospital and the railway station dissolved into a mass of rubble and twisted steel girders.

All available aircraft throughout Algeria have been mobilised for an emergency effort to assist in the rescue work. Among the first to be flown to the scene of the disaster were five airsons, who have set up a field hospital of 400 beds in the Oranville area.

The pilot of a French plane returned with some of the injured to Algiers and Oranville "looked like a city after a heavy shelling at night." He said 40 people were believed to be buried under the ruins of the Beaudouin Hotel, near the centre of the town. All hospitals in the Algiers and Oranville areas were full.

FLOODS FLATTEN MANY VILLAGES

Two hundred people were killed in the Oranville area, the death toll which included some 100 in the Oranville area. According to semi-official reports, at least 100 villages have been flattened in the Oranville area.

The Oranville area was reported to have lost three-quarters of its crops. It is estimated that 400,000 acres of the harvest there this year were ruined. It is believed that the Oranville area has been flattened in the Oranville area.

The nearby village of Vethou was completely flattened and other villages nearby were destroyed. The Oranville area was reported to have lost three-quarters of its crops.

Cabinet drops talks proposal

INCONVENIENT TO U.S. AND WEST GERMANY

THE Cabinet has dropped its plan for a five-power conference in London next week to discuss how West Germany should be treated now that the European Treaty is dead.

Sir Winston Churchill and his Ministers decided this at a three-hour meeting after hearing that the timing would be inconvenient to the United States, United States Secretary of State, and Dr. Konrad Adenauer, West German Chancellor.

It was hoped that such a meeting would be held in the month of September on the subject with the participation of the United States, Canada and France.

44 OLD BROAD STREET - LONDON

JAPAN HAS A 'SHEFFIELD,' BUT WITH A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE

FROM THE NEWSPAPER "THE SHEFFIELD" IN THE TERRITORY OF EAST AFRICA, saying that while life in the Territory was at times as grim, which economy is becoming more and more important and increasingly high, there often irritatingly high, there rarely a dull moment. During the past few days the truth of this notion has been amply demonstrated in London the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Territory of East Africa.

Last month the Government of Southern Rhodesia was informed that the British Government had decided to grant a loan of £10 million to the Territory of East Africa. This loan was to be used for the purpose of financing the development of the Territory of East Africa. The loan was to be repaid over a period of 10 years.

But the Southern Rhodesian Government was not satisfied with the terms of the loan. It felt that the loan was too small and that the interest rate was too high. It also felt that the loan was not to be used for the purpose of financing the development of the Territory of East Africa.

Northern Rhodesian Commentary

It is generally assumed that the South African Government is in a state of panic. This is not necessarily true. The South African Government is in a state of calm. It is simply waiting for the right moment to make its move.

On the African political front, the Government of the Territory of East Africa is in a state of calm. It is simply waiting for the right moment to make its move. The Government is not in a state of panic.

There was an unpleasantness in the recent past between the Government of the Territory of East Africa and the Government of Southern Rhodesia. This was due to a misunderstanding of the intentions of the Government of the Territory of East Africa.

Cattle disease on

It has been announced that the Government has decided to continue the scheme of providing transport for the goods and livestock of the caretaker to and from the farm.

The history of East Africa began with the building of the railways and harbours, and the country developed as the railway system, the harbours, the mines, the plantations, the towns, the villages, and the cities. The country has grown and prospered because of the railway system, the harbours, the mines, the plantations, the towns, the villages, and the cities.

Powerful berths and comfortable buses of the East African Railways & Harbours now provide passenger and freight services over 1,800 miles of roadways in Tanganyika and Uganda. During 1933, these vehicles travelled 3,843,493 miles carrying over 200,000 passengers and nearly 72,000 tons of parcels, baggage, mail, goods and livestock. The figures for future years should be still more impressive. The road that is constantly being reinforced by magnificent new vehicles to provide for this expansion.

As the great growth of the maintenance problem. Good maintenance is vital. It is the key to reliable passenger and freight services over roads that are all but impossible at certain times of the year. To ensure that vehicles are kept in tip-top condition, all the Administration's gangs are being enlarged and modernized. The road service forms an important part of the East African transport system. They will continue to be improved and expanded to serve the growing needs of the three Territories.

AXLE COMPENSATION CASE IN PREPARATION

It will be at least two or three months before the East African Railways and Harbours Administration has completed the case on which it will press for compensation against the suppliers of 420 wrong-stock axles which were later pronounced by the A.R.H. to be faulty for service.

An Administration spokesman said, yesterday, that the cost of replacing the axles was estimated at about £150,000. The amount of compensation to be claimed would be in the region of this figure.

If the claim was rejected, it would be necessary to sue the suppliers in the High Court, which would mean a lengthy and costly legal process.

It will be the Administration's contention that the suppliers which have been concerned during the past five years have been careless in the quality of their work. It is alleged that the manufacturer's process was defective.

3,900 replaced
Almost 4,000 of the suspect axles were replaced by those of the correct specification. It is estimated that the replacement will be complete by the end of the month.

It is pointed out that the possibility of future interruptions of traffic is a serious matter. The Administration is determined to ensure that such a recurrence does not occur.

The Administration is also concerned with the safety of the public. It is determined to ensure that the railway system is safe and reliable.

Encouraging trend in coffee market

GAINS RECORDED IN NEW YORK

The New York coffee market appears to be hardening with yesterday's report that 'future' sales recorded gains of nearly a point a pound. The improvement is reported to reflect reaction to the statement by the Board of Agriculture that there will be no change either in the country's foreign exchange or coffee output.

World consumption of coffee is estimated to have increased during the past few months. This is due to a combination of factors, including a decline in the coffee output of other countries and an increase in the demand for coffee in the United States.

The Board of Agriculture has announced that it will be holding a series of public hearings on the coffee market. This is part of its ongoing efforts to monitor and regulate the coffee trade.

INDIA SEEKING 'EXPLICIT VIEW' ON GOA

Portugal told 'our position clear'

INDIA has asked Portugal to give an 'explicit statement' whether she stands in favour of the appointment of a neutral arbitrator to settle the dispute which it has with the Portuguese Government in New Delhi. Mr. Yashwantrao Chavan, Minister of External Affairs, said that India's position was clear and that she would not have any possibility of withdrawing from the dispute. Asian photographer 'SABOTAGE' OF REGULATIONS

THAKORHAI MANGALDAS PATEL, aged 25, was sentenced to five years' hard labour at an Emergency Assize court in Nairobi yesterday for forging a pass for the History of Employment Card. In passing sentence, Mr. Justice de Lanning told Patel: "For the sake of a few shillings you were sabotaging regulations for controlling the Kikuyu."

Patel was acquitted on two further charges of harboring and conspiring with a terrorist. Mr. D. R. P. O'Brien (prosecuting) said the document Patel forged was essential and had a great deal of legislation to satisfy some bureaucratic contract.

"The facts which have established that you were a conspirator in this case make a false entry into the document which you were to deceive officers whose duty it was to inspect such documents," Mr. O'Brien stated.

GOLDEN GRAIN - BUT IT HAS ITS PROBLEMS

By David L. Newberg

overcast for much as the farmer is accustomed to growing it just for the East Zone as land as anyone ever is concerned. Transvaal, and Uganda, have produced enough for themselves — but Uganda has a surplus of her own.

Is this year Kenya will increase at a fast rate, at the same time, the price of grain is at a low level. The Government of Kenya is making plans to increase its production of grain for the next few years. The main surplus problem is a major headache for Kenya's Government and farmers over money but, no matter what policy is decided upon, there can be no doubt that the world will use more of it than it will produce.

Why are there no more buyers to store more of the surplus market? It is expensive to hold storage and it would be unprofitable to have large stocks. The new crop starts before the new crop starts.

sitting in the situation in the areas will have to be moved and stored in the same way as the new grain.

If the prices are raised, the total crop of 2,000,000 bushels will be sold for about $1,000,000. The total crop starts before the new crop starts.

During the 10 years of operation, the Kenyan Government, which is a member of the Trusteeship for Africa under the United Nations, has been the largest source of organization and credit.

For example, the Nairobi corn board has 1,500 bushels every month. It has been the largest source of organization and credit.

which will stack up 30-40 bushels of full grade maize for the 100,000 head of cattle on the tracks. The other is a crop of sorghum, which can be used for human consumption.

"MACHINERY of this kind is a necessary part of the operation. The Government of Kenya" took 143 of the plant's 200 tractors, and a large amount of cow power, but had to be used to keep the plant running.

But every trouble has its compensation—and there more than half the African staff had plant-locks have maintained that maize yields have dropped to almost nothing.

POINTS FROM THE NEW COLLECTIONS

IN the autumn collections there was a general move away on the part of all designers from excessively fitted clothes. The figure was still moulded with the previous line, continuing to vary in the top of the bodice, but no longer accentuated, however, was given to the waistline quite freely. The introduction of a forward movement on the hips. This occurred in every variety of day clothes, and several dresses continued to avoid dresses continued to avoid the introduction of back sweeping skirts, which had been generally accepted. In late-day frocks, which had been generally accepted, the skirt drew attention to the shoulders.

The bouffant evening gown in a lovely shade of blue is a creation of Victor Steiner. The skirt panels of tulle offset the delicate lace and give the gown an air of lightness. The happy combination of these is exemplified in the tulle and lace of rayon and silk from Birkin and Below.

Below: Dippy Morton has designed a day dress in West Cumberland silk. Mills Ltd's blue/grey day-evening frock is of 62 per cent rayon and 38 per cent wool. The skirt waister bodice line gives a casual indoor look, with the open rayon collar and wing-coated sleeves—elegant. The double belt pleated panels in the skirt carry flares from the hip, and a contrast of self-tie is used for the leather belt and buttons.

was very much used, and the most of all in the Collection were the three and variety which were by the designers in modelling.

TOO SHORT WAISTLINE? SHORT WAIST is the most common measurement defect women make. The waistline is always very prominent, and the neck rather than the side of the bodice is the focus of attention. A good contrast of color and fabric is also a help in this case. Avoid loose contrast in the waist (see skirt and blouse) and do never wear wide or shiny belts, hanging though they may look on other people.

The Inside Story—by VAUXHALL

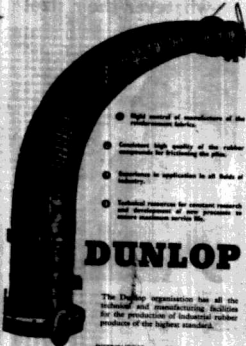

View of the Velox showing specimen interior and well designed instrument panel

Vauxhall design never stands still. Designers and development engineers seek constantly to improve the quality and performance of Vauxhall cars. Example of this policy of progressive improvement is the re-orchestrating ball steering mechanism now fitted to both Velox and Wyvern models. The altogether exceptional ease of this new steering is immediately apparent when parking. Because the steering gear operates so sweetly and easily, the front wheels turn so rapidly and effortlessly from one lock to the other. Lady drivers comment that a Vauxhall is very simple to park. Steering becomes progressively lighter as the wheels approach the full-lock position. With turning circles of only 34 feet, the Velox and Wyvern can be manoeuvred with ease and precision in confined streets and parking places.

DECONTROL OF MEAT AND VEGETABLES

Increase in prices not expected

HOUSEWIVES ASSURED OF GOOD SUPPLIES

The decontrol of meat and vegetables in Kenya, announced on Tuesday, gives the Colony's housewives a chance to lower their bills—if they are prepared to buy selectively.

Traders are emphatic that food will not rise, except those that fly slightly. The president of Nairobi's Grocers' Association, Mr. Z. Malik, said: "We cannot afford to let prices rise—our wholesale costs are still fixed by the West Commission and prices are, if anything, too high now."

Price controls have been lifted also from such imported fruit and fishing netting hardware, rubber, vehicles, hard fibre products from East Products (E.A.), Ltd., retreating fabric and expanded metal hardware, agricultural plant and implements: weighing machines; iron bars; steel plates; different types of wire; and hardware for make Africans.

Eight items are still controlled. They are: cement, charcoal, wood fuel, wheat flour, maize, posho, fibre and sugar. It is hoped to free these items by the end of the year when the Mombasa and Malindi factories increase supplies. Charcoal and wood fuel remain controlled because of the shortage of timber in the main trading centres.

This is the seasonal start of the meat and posho, a matter which has caused much trouble. The Meat Commission has reduced the price of meat to 10/- per lb. The Kenya Meat Commission has agreed to supply the balance of the meat supply for the year.

MOVE IN LINE WITH POLY

The latest speed position, which has led to constant complaints from African staff members, has been taken up by the Government. The Government has agreed to supply the balance of the meat supply for the year.

CAREFUL BUYING FOR AIR DRALS

The government expects a shortage of goods which should show prices during the next few months. The Government has agreed to supply the balance of the meat supply for the year.

48.4 m.p.h. average

The Government of Kenya has completed negotiations with the Colonial Development Corporation for a loan of £2,000,000 for African housing.

The loan, which has to be repaid in 10 years, will be made available to the Government of Kenya for the purpose of providing housing for African staff members.

The houses approved under this scheme are to be built in the Central Highlands, where the Government is planning to build a large scheme of permanent facilities and land.

A grueling but triumphant race against time, two Nairobi drivers in a year-old Morris Minor also have clipped 4 hours 13 minutes off the Cape Town-Nairobi record set up last month by a Volkswagen.

When they stopped their car in Nairobi at 12 minutes past four on Monday morning—72 hours and 42 minutes after leaving Cape Town—Mr. John Mwangi and Mr. J. H. Mwangi had become the first men to complete the round trip in less than seven days.

Only last week, an earlier team of two drivers had returned from the same trip in 10 days. The Kenya Transport Corporation, which is sponsoring the race, says the car was damaged a shock at 48.4 m.p.h. average.

The achievements had led the British car maker, reliability of the car, and the fact that the car was built in Kenya.

HIGH PRICE OF MAIZE CRITICISED

Explanation at Tanga

"Monsoon" crop harvested. Tanga. Grain and the current high price of maize have been discussed by the Tanga Chamber of Commerce. It was felt that the difference between 20/- a bag, which was the current price in the former and 4/- a bag which was the current price in the latter, was due to the fact that the maize in the former was milled and marketed through the mill, while the maize in the latter was able to sell the maize in a very short time.

Farmers' safeguard. Mr. L. M. Maitre, the general secretary of the Tanganyika Farmers' Union, said that the fact that his association had been in receipt of a letter from the Government to the effect that it had had a certain quantity of maize in its possession for the purpose of the Government's policy of stabilisation of prices, was a matter of concern to the farmers. He said that the Government should be asked to consider the possibility of allowing the farmers to sell their maize at a price of 20/- a bag, which was the current price in the former, and to sell their maize at a price of 4/- a bag, which was the current price in the latter.

Reply not final. Mr. Maitre said that the authorities in Dar es Salaam had not yet given a final reply to the association and that their reply was not final. He said that the association was still in receipt of a letter from the Government to the effect that it had had a certain quantity of maize in its possession for the purpose of the Government's policy of stabilisation of prices, and that the association was still in receipt of a letter from the Government to the effect that it had had a certain quantity of maize in its possession for the purpose of the Government's policy of stabilisation of prices.

NORWAY TO EAST AFRICA —BY CANOE

THREE in a spirit of adventure to all of us that urges us to go out and see the world; to visit new places; meet new people and see new sights.

Our home is Larvik, Norway, and our August 1935 started to plan our adventure. We would travel on water. Our boat would not be a huge machine of metal, wood and iron, but a simple canoe 16 feet long and three feet wide.

Small keel
FINALLY, on November 8, 1935, the canoe was standing there—sturdy and frankly painted with shining letters "VIKING NORWAY". One would not have believed it was the very same canoe that was a year before that out from the water almost a total wreck.

The Viking is equipped with a motor for gear, and a motor for steering, and a third set for writing material and food.

We made a deck that could be raised and lowered without difficulty in keeping out the sea.

A small keel which was over to interweave was fitted to protect the hull from being struck by ice.

Many people found their way to the port to see our departure—interested but sceptical about our trip.

All else being well we set off accompanied for a short distance by a boat and a motor launch.

Family and friends accompanied us for some distance. The boat was left at the pier and the motor launch was left at the pier.

We pulled across the Oslo fjord at Farden light and headed for the "Viking". A detachment of the coast guard was compelled to accompany us in the direction of the light.

The sea was heavy and the Viking danced over the waves. Gradually we did not touch the beach at all.

We stayed there for two days and the weather was very bad. The motor launch was left at the pier and the motor launch was left at the pier.

We crossed the Baltic to Falmur in Germany, traveling through the Baltic to the coast of Holland, Belgium and France to Marseilles.

From Marseilles we followed the French and Italian coast to Genoa in Italy. We crossed the Mediterranean in all directions to Tripoli in Libya and then we took a ferry across the sea to Sicily.

We worked for one month. When we reached Catania we went up the hill to Agrigento. There we stayed for three months waiting to build a power station.

We pulled 270 miles of the most interesting part of the voyage in the Uganda from the Congo to the Victoria Nile to Mombasa.

Our voyage lasted one and a half years and we paddled about 1200 miles.

Almost every day we faced our particular adventures.

Hit stern
At Lathen on the 25th November 1935 we had a very bad accident. A German ship had almost struck us and we had to turn back.

At the end of the voyage we had a very bad accident. A German ship had almost struck us and we had to turn back.

Boader Torgun and O. Ekanger Olsen, two Norwegian boys, tell the story in their own words of a canoe trip from Larvik to Mombasa. The journey was through many difficulties and more hazards. Once their tiny craft overturned and they had to swim away from the thrashing propeller of a motor launch; a paddle stroke disturbed a well-nourished crocodile and it ran into the stern of the canoe; and, of course, bugs had to be avoided.

When a large motor launch finally the canoe surged forward to the light house, we were held in the wake without any control. We were obliged to pull in and placed with the motor launch in getting a free run.

Just as that moment was left the canal and entered into the first river. The current was too swift and the canoe too small to take the light house entrance.

We were obliged to pull in and placed with the motor launch in getting a free run.

Headed of the river straight leads the Viking back to the sea. We managed to swim the 200 yards to the shore in two hours with our own strength.

In about seven months time we had crossed the sea to the Nile which was to be one of the most exciting periods of our trip. Our first attempt on the Nile was in the month of May.

Wadi Halfa. We sailed on the Nile and the Nile was very high. We had to cross the Nile on an old sloop of the Nile and the Nile was very high.

Crocodile scare
On the first day of our trip a crocodile was seen in the Nile. It was a large crocodile and it was very dangerous.

In the attempt to make a small area of water in the Nile we were very successful. We had to cross the Nile on an old sloop of the Nile and the Nile was very high.

The day before we reached Wadi Halfa we had a very small accident with the motor launch. We were very lucky.

With the motor launch we made a small area of water in the Nile. We were very successful.

HUNTING WITH THE CONGO PYGMIES

Of the whole, one month in the Belgian Congo was the most interesting part of my trip, and of this I wish to tell you. I was with the pygmies when they capture and train their dogs. They were the real highlights.

I was with the pygmies when they entered the Congo in the month of June and drove for 1,500 miles up the Congo River. I met the real Congo. I met the real Congo. I met the real Congo.

Colonel F. SPENCER, continuing the story of his trek through Africa with his family, follows the road to the Belgian Congo. There he met the pygmies, and he describes in detail their life and their hunting methods.

One morning I went out to hunt with the pygmies. They were very interested in my gun, and I showed them how to use it. They were very interested in my gun, and I showed them how to use it.

Round Fire

We noticed that although the pygmies and the Congo pygmies were very different from the Congo pygmies, they were very different from the Congo pygmies.

Kolynos cleans many areas clean. The rich film penetrates into every corner - fighting the bacteria that keeps away and ill-health. Yes, Kolynos cleans thoroughly, to keep your teeth good-looking and sparkling white.

... and the whole family agree

For this shows that's nothing more attractive than a bright smile - and even so in one bite when both are Kolynos white. The children don't have to be asked to brush their teeth with Kolynos - that's how its loved. And it gives their young teeth a good start.

"And it's so economical too," says Mother. "You don't need so much Kolynos - it's enough for a thorough cleaning."

Further investigation of the boat was conducted on their way. A large boat had been resting quietly all night but two hours from now it was ready to start. It was a daily operation on our trip. The biggest one that we ever saw certainly measured 18 feet in length.

It happened that one of the men in the boat had a map of the lake on his hand up to the stern of the boat. It had been drawn and colored and frightened him.

Thirty years in attendance. We came from 15 or 20 at a time looking on the surface of the water and swimming.

At the first station, we had a small boat with a man and a woman. The man was blacked. And something the blacked would be more of less sleeping when the hips would show when they sleep.

"The Master of Ballantrae," Robert Louis Stevenson's famous novel, has plenty of folk-lore scenes, but this is one of the scenes which has the most life in it. The film is shown at the Capitol Theatre next week.

FLYING SAUCERS—VISITORS FROM OUTER SPACE?

IT was about 7.40 p.m. the other night that I had fun in Florida in my observatory in Cambridge Road, Nairobi. Lately Mr Fletcher's reports have shown that the east there was a large light in the sky which had no relationship to anything astronomical. My own lights, as to the aircraft which had just landed at Eastleigh airport. The altitude of the object was about 1,000 ft. It was stationary when first seen by all four of us and it emitted a bright orange light, shortly afterwards the light brightened considerably to a yellowish colour. It rose slightly and then rose again, finally going through the clouds. With these observations, I can think there are two possibilities. One is that the object was a rocket experiment. The other is that it was a UFO. The latter is the more likely possibility because of the reports that have been given by the experienced observers. No all-American or British reports have been made which could be considered as having been admitted by the British Government and the American and the British Government have not been asked to investigate the case. The latter is the more likely possibility because of the reports that have been given by the experienced observers. No all-American or British reports have been made which could be considered as having been admitted by the British Government and the American and the British Government have not been asked to investigate the case.

Mr G. Dunbar Fraser looking through his telescope in the garden of his Nairobi home.

My observations on the night of the 21st of May were not very different from those of the other night. The object was seen at about 7.40 p.m. and it was stationary when first seen by all four of us and it emitted a bright orange light, shortly afterwards the light brightened considerably to a yellowish colour. It rose slightly and then rose again, finally going through the clouds. With these observations, I can think there are two possibilities. One is that the object was a rocket experiment. No all-American or British reports have been made which could be considered as having been admitted by the British Government and the American and the British Government have not been asked to investigate the case.

Scm friendly

THE great truth about these UFO sightings seems to be that they are friendly to the world. There is no evidence that any of the sightings were hostile. In fact, the reports have been given by people who are well-known and respected in their fields. This is a significant fact, as it suggests that the sightings are not just random events, but rather, they are being reported by people who are capable of providing reliable information.

Dr. S. A. Newk, Professor of Physics, New York University.

WHAT they say, Newk says, is that the sightings are friendly to the world. There is no evidence that any of the sightings were hostile. IMPORTING THE GENERAL ELECTRIC CO. LTD. OF ENGLAND

Many East African people have called in to this office to inquire about the sightings of "flying saucers" recently. Our special correspondent has contacted Mr. G. Dunbar Fletcher, an expert on the subject of flying saucers, who has given his observations here on what are officially known as "Unidentified Flying Objects."

Mombasa — and in beach resorts in several parts of the coast—concern has recently been expressed over reports that a high flying object... This would certainly not be the case in their homes, as the reports have been given by people who are well-known and respected in their fields.

From space

I HAVE noted it again that it is a great puzzle, but that it is a very real problem. The reports have been given by people who are well-known and respected in their fields. This is a significant fact, as it suggests that the sightings are not just random events, but rather, they are being reported by people who are capable of providing reliable information.

Balloons reported

IF one system used for most of the balloons reported in the sightings, it would be a great puzzle, but that it is a very real problem. The reports have been given by people who are well-known and respected in their fields. Governor praises Agricultural Bill

WARNING GIVEN ON THE RAISING OF FUNDS

The annual conference of the Kenya National Farmers Union in Nairobi yesterday for the Government's Agricultural Bill was proof of the Government's intention to assist European farmers by guaranteed prices, credits and guaranteed minimum returns.

"There can be no doubt," he said, "that the implementation of the policy as set out in this Bill is going to cost a great deal of money and will depend on the size of our Exchequer and our ability to raise development loans."

"But I must emphasise," the Governor went on, "that a large proportion of the development sponsored by Mr. Troop (in his report on Kenya's agriculture) and provided for in the Bill must come by the farmers' own individual efforts."

Mr. Evelyn commented on fluctuations in grain prices and spoke of measures in hand to relieve farmers of storage problems as the grain could be carried over from years of surplus crop. He said the establishment of a technical organization for improving farm water supplies was receiving urgent attention and he looked forward to a reduction in the heavy expenditure by East Africa.

The Government's Bill is not a result of more effective international action.

Mr. Troop, the retired president of the K.R.U. (whose members are in charge) said it was necessary to re-emphasize that the Government's intention was to assist the farmer in the period before the first year of the new Government.

IMPORTANCE OF A GOOD IRRIGATION POLICY

"Agriculture is the one industry which is the backbone of the Kenya economy and it is vitally important that we should have a policy which will enable the farmer to produce and sell his products profitably and to raise his standard of living."

Mr. Troop said that the Government's Bill would provide a market for the farmer's produce and would also provide the means for the farmer to obtain the funds necessary to develop his land and to improve his methods of cultivation.

The Importance of being SPARK PLUG CONSCIOUS

THE FUNCTION OF A SPARK PLUG. The basic function of a spark plug is to ignite the mixture in the combustion chamber of an engine by passing a spark across two electrodes of the spark plug to initiate combustion. Thus your engine begins to operate as your spark plug begins to work.

A MISFIRING ENGINE is commonly caused by the misfiring of fouled or dirty spark plugs. Fouling results from either carbon or fuel deposits on the insulator tip which often "short out" the plug.

WORN AND DIRTY SPARK PLUGS. Worn and dirty spark plugs will cost you money because the engine becomes unable to mix and ignite the fuel properly. The result is extra fuel is consumed. The misfiring engine puts extra fuel uneven running to almost every working part a missing engine will run rather than suffer through strain. It is expensive. If a plug is misfiring, unignited fuel causes the cylinder which it is operating and lubricating oil, thereby causing over-heating and excessive wear of the cylinder and piston rings. When a plug is worn to the extent that its gap is increased beyond system which causes the coil to produce greater voltages cause difficult starting which means unnecessary wear on the battery.

CLEAN SPARK PLUGS. It is most important that plugs should be removed, cleaned and the gaps reset to the recommended tolerance at intervals between 3,000 and 5,000 miles.

NOTE: Plug testers do not always give a definite indication of the condition or quality of a spark plug.

LIFE OF A SPARK PLUG. New plugs are designed to last for a long time. However, they can no longer be adjusted simply by cleaning the gap setting. Great care should be taken when cleaning, removing or replacing used or damaged plugs or shells.

WHEN IN DOUBT DO NOT HESITATE TO CONSULT AN EXPERT SUBJECT. K.R.T. Service Station will be pleased to assist you in determining whether the plug in your engine is satisfactory or not.

THE NEEDLE PLUNGES INTO KENYA'S CATTLE FIGHT

In many parts of the Kenya Highlands disease-carrying ticks, characteristic of savanna areas, have been using a new weapon to beat off the most formidable and damaging virus disease—foot-and-mouth disease.

The new weapon, a virus being used for the first time in the world against the disease, is the fact that the farmer or herdsman can draw on the resources of a great variety of virus strains in the fight to prevent disease in his stock. The virus strains are of different types and are available in the form of a vaccine which is often prepared in a laboratory which is an approved establishment by a Government department.

The use of vaccine against the foot-and-mouth disease is probably only the beginning of the fight.

A most important factor in the situation is that several types of virus cause foot-and-mouth disease in Kenya. In fact, one of these viruses is the "O" type, which is believed to be the most common in the country and the vaccine against it is the most effective in the prevention of the disease.

For some time ago, the Government has been using the virus in the form of a vaccine against the disease. This vaccine is prepared in a laboratory which is an approved establishment by a Government department.

NEW PEPSI-COLA PLANT GOES INTO PRODUCTION

NAIROBI OUTPUT DOUBLED

GLOOMY forecasts in 1949 that Kenya would never adopt the American Cola habit will now be finally confounded by the opening of a Africa's most popular soft drink.

In 1949, a private company of six equal members was formed to secure the franchise for manufacturing Pepsi-Cola and in February 1951, a bottling plant was opened to produce 2,500 bottles an hour. Demands for this low-priced, hygienically produced and wholesome thirst-quenisher soon stripped anticipation and year showed an increase of 100 per cent.

In the third year, every device for stepping up the pit — including round-the-clock production — was brought into play, enabling the third year to advance by as much as 10 per cent. In the meantime, the "Paper" brand had partly turned to start the demand for a light, clean, soda water, and "Everest" was made for a carefully guarded recipe of the Pepsi-Cola Company, New York, brought to an end, and all attempts to turn out more and more "Pepsi" with each new experiment.

The demand for Pepsi-Cola spread like wild fire and the Mombasa plant, opened in 1953, was soon doing its best to supply depots in Mombasa, Tanga and Zanzibar, while Nairobi aimed at satisfying Nakuru and Nanyuki. This Nairobi plant, which was soon straining resources to the limit and plans were ahead for a new 1,000-bottle-an-hour plant in Nairobi, as well as a new 1,000-bottle-an-hour plant for Eldoret. Nairobi is now completed and goes into production today and the new plant is well under way.

Honey is new Kamba industry

By James Boninger

MAUNDU KIMONGO, honey business and retired policeman, entered the semi-desert station at Uson, administrative centre of the Malindi District of the Mau Mau Forest. He handed over a small drum full of honey, received his money and brought a blanket. Then he left the shop, the bees he had brought with him still buzzing round his head.

He is one of many Kamba honey businessmen who have come to the area since the African has from the usual, wooden crates to the hand of the white man. A new honey industry has been proclaimed in the area.

In the semi-desert area of Uson, Kimongo sets his honey.

Kept for beer

"BEFORE we had the honey, honey was kept for beer drinking and for medicinal purposes," said one of the traders in the district, Maundu Kimongo, who is now in charge of the honey business in the area.

The honey was used to bring the local honey to a proper standard and only 1,000 lb of honey of the best local Kamba consistently.

The Kenya Veterinary Department, heavily interested in the wax and resin industry of the Kamba, is always helping the honey business. In fact, one of its members, Mr. J. W. J. Smith, recently visited at Uson in the north-eastern part of the Mau Mau Forest, and saw the work of a local Kamba, Maundu Kimongo, who is now in charge of the honey business in the area.

Population keen

THE vast population of Malindi is very keen on the new industry which has sprung up. Every day the honey business brings them their small amounts of money which they use to buy goods.

The honey is produced by the bees which are kept in the hives. The honey is then used to produce a variety of goods, including honey wine and honey beer.

After the honey has been extracted, the beeswax is collected in this way.

No subsidy

THE factory runs without a subsidy from the Government. The co-operative shop, which is responsible for the honey business, has been set up to sell the honey to the public.

The co-operative also buys directly from the honey business. The honey is then used to produce a variety of goods, including honey wine and honey beer.

W. G. Bay, of the Kenya Veterinary Department, was seen at the house belonging to Maundu Kimongo.

You can CONTROL your tillage with a CATERPILLAR TOOL BAR

Both arms are attached to the track roller frame, making the tool bar an integral part of the tractor. Implements can be lifted high when traveling from field to field or when avoiding obstacles.

A forward push on the lever forces tillage implements into the ground; a pull on the lever brings them out. The tool bar has four positions, raise, lower, hold and "float". In the "float" position, tools keep their own depth by suction.

Attaching, removing and spacing of implements is easily accomplished by one man. Sufficient mounting bolts provide for varied spacings of implements.

Control your tillage; utilize more of your valuable land with a Caterpillar Tool Bar. Ask us for complete information.

SOLES AND HEELS FOR EVERY TYPE OF SHOE

Leasley Clay writes on

FOR the first time the title of British wartime champion has been won by a woman—Miss Virginia Lloyd of London, who won the 1000-mile wartime ferry-pilot and exhibitionist.

Ever since Amy Johnson first the world's weary a quarter of a century ago as the first woman to fly solo to Australia, women have been popping up a record of achievement. They seem to have a special gift for aviation, and during the war they showed their ability to fly over the world without the glare of publicity.

But now, with the war over, women are taking to the air as never before. They are flying for pleasure, for business, for the thrill of it, and for the excitement of the air itself. They are flying for the thrill of it, and for the excitement of the air itself.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

By George Dunbar

THE dry was heard above the ring of rickety rattles and dry-leaves. It was the cry which announced the flight of one of the world's largest gold nuggets.

In the last days of the war, the gold market was a very busy one. It was a market where the price of gold was high, and where the demand for gold was great. It was a market where the price of gold was high, and where the demand for gold was great.

Handed down

THE great tradition of the early generations has been handed down to the present day. It is a tradition of hard work, of honesty, and of a sense of duty. It is a tradition that has made the British people what they are today.

The Real Kenya

LAND DEVELOPMENT IS ONE of the major problems facing the Government in Kenya during the first six months of the year. It is the real Kenya and it should be the basis of the highest possible standard.

In a report of evidence that has not fallen of achievement against reality, and it translates an unlimited faith in the future of the Colony into agricultural reform, soil conservation, irrigation schemes and progressive farming methods which are designed to establish Kenya's economy on stable foundations.

The first sentence of the report sets out the high purpose in these words: "Despite the continuation of the Emergency, the Land Development Department during the period under review here is justification for the grant of £3,000,000 by the H.M. Government in 1954."

The general aim to which is made by the author, based on the study of work undertaken in Kenya, is to give the Kenya public a picture of the work done and to show that it is possible that they were not aware of the work done.

The report states that the work done in Kenya during the period under review here is justification for the grant of £3,000,000 by the H.M. Government in 1954.

THESE are a group of artists who are working on a commission. They are working on a commission.
