PALESTINE REGARDED FROM TWO POINTS OF VIEW

Position Altered Since Time Of Balfour Declaration

ARAB FEARS OF DOMINATION

The Minister added that if a solution were to be found to the problem it would be necessary to know if from the Arab as well as the Jewish point of view. Unless the Arab fear was removed we would have to face a suspicious and hostile people.

London, November 25. The Palestine debate in the House of Commons was opened, yesterday, by Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, the Colonial Secretary. He said that he had not only to put ourselves in the shoes of the Jews but also in the shoes of the Arabs, to both of whom we were owing obligations.

He considered the problem that had arisen since the Balfour Declaration and then said that the Arab position had not been anticipated. British had made no provision for the Jews who were entering Palestine from the east, an immense number of them.

He stated, too, that Palestine was not able to support such very large numbers and that the Jewish problem was one that could not be solved by Palestine alone but which would be tackled by all the nations of the world.

Some Jews were entering Palestine from the east, an immense number of them, and the Government was considering a further increase.

EMPIRE UNITY

What Crisis Revealed

London, Nov. 25. In a speech yesterday, the Home Secretary said that he had come to realize fully and unambiguously the extent of the British Commonwealth. While there were points of difference between the various parts of the Empire, it had reached the stage of a world-wide unity.

He said that he had come to realize that the British Commonwealth was not a mere collection of islands and islands but a united and solid body. During the crisis, the British Commonwealth had shown that it had shaken the world. The British Commonwealth had shown that it had stood together. WITCHCRAFT
MURDER

STRONG ACTION AGAINST FRENCH STRIKERS Mobilised And Put Under Military Law

Mobilisation and military discipline for railway workers is one of the French Government's measures to meet the strike situation, which showed little change yesterday. The mobilisation method was partially effective when tried on a mine in the north of France, strikers being threatened with trial by a military court for refusal to obey orders after they had been conscripted and ordered back to work. Many of them returned.

The plan has not been changed for a 24-hour general strike on Wednesday as a protest against the decree laws, but in a broadcast on Saturday night, the Minister of Finance, M. Paul Reynaud, declared that the new laws left intact the three main points of social legislation—the 40-hour week (which was merely made more flexible), the labour contract, and the paid holiday.

The Socialist party is demanding the resignation of the Government, while the parties of the Right assert that the Government are engineered by Communists who are trying to start a civil war.

Paris, Nov. 27.—The French Government will start a 24-hour general strike on Wednesday in the country, in protest against the legislation which has arisen as a result of the widespread railway strike. This would mean that the workers would be brought under military control and would be subject to a charge of rebellion if they refused to work.

There was a two-hour conference in the Prime Minister's office yesterday and it is understood that other measures to ensure order and the maintenance of public services were decided upon.

This morning, the strike situation was hardly any better, but it is expected to worsen this and is 24 hours ago.

Eighty-five thousand metal workers are on strike in the north-western part of the country, but some as the result of a general strike. The Government will try to bring military courts for striking workers.

14-Hour General Strike

The Government's firm action to bring demonstrations and street meetings for the week-end, all meetings being forbidden, unless they were held inside halls, caused many demonstrations to be called off.

The 24-hour general strike has been fixed for Wednesday of next week. The Federation of Trades Unions has expected to call workers to avoid incidents and says that the strike will last only for 24 hours and that strict discipline must be kept. Demonstrations or strikes are to be arranged for that day.

Employers in metal works in the North France have dismissed their workers numbering in all about 20,000 men. The unemployed will now decide which men will be rehired.

Finance Minister's Appeal

M. Reynaud, the Finance Minister and author of the decree law, in a broadcast statement last night, declared that it was not true to say that the 40-hour week was being abolished. It was merely made more flexible. The age limit of the decree was, in making the schedule of industry go round.

The 40-hour week was a result of the 40-hour week, and the 40-hour week was a result of the 40-hour week, and the 40-hour week was a result of the 40-hour week.

M. Reynaud went on to say that the Government had not made any mistake. It was not true, for the Government had not made any mistake. It was not true, for the Government had not made any mistake.

M. Daladier is vigorously attacked by the Socialist Party, which says that the Government is trying to start a civil war.

On the Right Wing the Republican group is calling the Government a group of reactionaries. M. Daladier is calling the Government a group of reactionaries.

Reputed Object of France in Paris Conversations

The Anglo-French conversations continue to provoke comment in many countries. French newspapers are of the opinion that the French Government is making a British pledge for larger military assistance on the Continent in the event of war.

The French Foreign Minister, broadcasting to America, stressed the fact that the conversations, in which perfect harmony has been shown, prepared the way for co-operation between the two countries in every part of the world where their interests coincided.

November 27.—The French press yesterday reported that the Anglo-French talks to provide a larger contingent of troops in the event of war, especially now that France has been deprived of the help of British troops, but it is stated that the conversations are of a confidential nature and have not been published in the press.

POLAND TURNS BACK TO RUSSIA

Warsaw, Nov. 27.—Agreement has been reached between Poland and Soviet Russia and the new accord is expected to improve relations between the two countries. There have been no communications between M. Litwinski and the Polish Government.

According to the Official News Agency in Moscow, relations will be based on existing practice, including the 1922 which is extended to 1940. Both Governments are to promote the expansion of trade to a large extent.

The agreement with Warsaw is thought to be the result of recent tensions between Poland and Germany, as Germany is opposed to the entry of Poland as an independent member with Hungary and there have been talks to reach agreement on the question of the Polish Jews from Germany. It is also thought that propaganda in Japan of an independent Subbiah (Hacker).

Deadly American Blizzard

80 LIVES LOST IN SNOW, GALE AND FLOODS

New York, Nov. 27.—A blizzard which hit rugged large parts of Canada and the United States appears to have caused at least 80 deaths. Thirty people were killed in New York State alone and others were killed in other parts of the country.

BRITISH MINISTER'S SPEECH ON COLONIES

"Return Unthinkable Under Present Conditions"

There were references to the Colonial question in France, Britain and Germany during the week-end. The Colonial Secretary, the Marquis of Dufferin and Ava, described an unthinkable return of any of her former colonies to Germany under conditions likely to produce in Africa those which prevailed at present in Europe.

A German speaker in Vienna argued on Saturday that the return of her colonies to Germany was the only hope for coloured workers. South Africa's 'low wages to Native workers' were responsible for Europe's economic troubles.

The Marquis of Dufferin and Ava, the Under Secretary for the Colonies, said that the return of any of her former colonies to Germany under conditions likely to produce in Africa those which prevailed at present in Europe.

Memel Assault Alleged

Brussels, November 27.—The German Navy Agency has announced that it has received information that the French Government is planning to assault Memel.

To the Editor, "E. A. Standard."
The Editor, "E. A. Standard," is a "Common Sense" and "Matter of Fact" in your correspondence columns is deserving reading.
If the position is really as bad as these apparently well-informed correspondents state, the editor of them left to why Germany does not at once demand, and get, all the colonies she wants? It would appear that neither England nor France is in a position to offer any effective opposition.
I can only think that most East Africans would appreciate a little inside information.

November 24, 1936.

To the Editor, "E. A. Standard."
It is interesting to learn that the Government is considering giving financial support to the Government Fund of the Imperial Government. Evidently the Imperial Government is not interested in the African Higher Education at all.
Mr. Philip Mitchell has also emphasized the great need for African men and women to develop the country presently available in all spheres.
You, Sir, I submit that it is high time that the Imperial Government realized that there is a great need for educational facilities that would enable the European young men and women and here to develop in Kenya and Tanganyika in all spheres of life, and that there should be a Government Colony to qualify for any of the Imperial Government.
The Institute, it should be noted, is necessary for the Red Cross to take from the British Government to train the Imperial Government should seriously consider endorsing a College in Kenya in the first case, to provide education of a University.

Ruiru River: Effect Of Nairobi Works

The Ruiru River, which flows into the Nairobi River, has been found to be polluted by the effluent from the Nairobi Municipal Council's sewage treatment works. The pollution is caused by the discharge of raw sewage into the river, which is then carried to the Nairobi River. The pollution is a serious problem, as it causes the death of many fish and other aquatic life. The Nairobi Municipal Council has been asked to take steps to prevent this pollution.

Rabies From East Africa

Rabies is a dangerous disease which is spreading from East Africa to other parts of the world. It is caused by a virus which is carried by animals, such as dogs and cats. The disease is fatal to humans and other animals. It is important to take steps to prevent the spread of rabies, such as vaccinating animals and avoiding contact with wild animals.

DEFENCE OF PANAMA CANAL

Washington, Nov. 28. The United States Secretary for War announced in his annual report that the Panama Canal zone that all locks and dams should be made impregnable and should be able to stand up to a possible attack. Defense works should be carried out that there could be no possibility of sabotage or any other possible attack on the Canal and the area of protection should be greatly increased.

He says that military outposts, especially those in the Canal zone, are at present weakly held.

Plans are being worked out for the American Air Force by training 100,000 men in the Canal zone. A Congress would have to approve the plan, which it could become effective.

COLONIES "BATTLE" NOT YET WON

Reminder Of Some Of The Difficulties Ahead

It is a common assumption that the Imperial standpoint with regard to the campaign against any return to Germany of her mandated colonies.

We still have Hitler and his supporters asserting that they stand by the return of all the former German colonies. We have the slightly nebulous view of Mr. Frow to Berlin and the suggestion that he is inclined to propose to Germany that she should look to the small nations for lands in Africa, such as Belgium and Portugal.

We have a great deal of wobbling in this country and if the British voters elect a man who would mean that Mr. Verden Hertz has managed to get support for something very like the Labour candidate which recommends the handing over of all Africa to the British.

An immediate agreement in Berlin on the terms of the former German colonies. A fresh offer to Germany to discuss any proposals or demands without the betrayal of small nations or great interests.

The "New Leader" which is the organ of the National Union, writes in the News Letter, which is the organ of the African International Federation.

It is not as if we have been surprised to find that the British Government has been unable to find a way out of the situation.

CANBERRA - A CITY OF ENCHANTMENT

TO BE THE FUTURE HOME OF THE DUKES AND DUCHESS OF KENT

"A city of enchantment," exclaimed one writer who had spent a Spring in Canberra watching across after another light upon the peak of the White Mountains, the sixty thousand flowering ferns, pine and alpine trees, brush and a host of blossoms and shrubs that flourish in the air with fragrance.

It is to be hoped that the Duke of Kent will see Australia's Federal City before his October flight has quite faded. The new Government and his wife, the Duchess of Kent, will then really enjoy the home of the Duke of Kent.

With the gift of her two young children, the development of Canberra is being carried on the hills given her with the gift of the Duke of Kent. The Duke of Kent will see Australia's Federal City before his October flight has quite faded.

Every public building, whether in rubber and tinplate in the city, is surrounded by gardens and plantations. In the hill tops of Parliament House, the Government House, the High Court, the State Library, the State Theatre, the State Opera House, the State Museum, the State Art Gallery, the State Library, the State Theatre, the State Opera House, the State Museum, the State Art Gallery.

Two small public schools, both of which are being built on the hills, are being built on the hills. The Duke of Kent will see Australia's Federal City before his October flight has quite faded.

The Coming S. A. Rugby Tour

A meeting of all members of the Nakuru Athletic Club took place on Saturday, December 19, at 7.30 p.m. at the Christmas Dinner.

The agenda in the evening was read and Vice Captain, a Committee and a Chairman to be elected. A policy for the coming year was adopted. It was decided to send a team of 15 players to South Africa for the tour of the year.

The Rugby Union has been asked to select one of the representative matches to the Western Districts. It is also hoped that a fixture will be made for a match between the South African and a combined Western District team. This would be played on a white ground, and would be used for the selection of the team. Entertaining the guests, and a guarantee against financial loss would be given.

A great effort will be made to obtain sufficient players to play in these matches, in which case the African team will Nakuru, to stage a game, one for each team.

It is no doubt that the Nakuru team has been selected to play in the match against the Western Districts. It is also hoped that a fixture will be made for a match between the South African and a combined Western District team. This would be played on a white ground, and would be used for the selection of the team.

Bishop Of Mombasa On Congregation's Duty

The installation and induction of the new Chaplain to the Nakuru District, the Reverend Mr. Smart, was performed at the Nakuru Church on Thursday afternoon, December 21, 1939. The Rev. R. Jones, Bishop of Mombasa, presided at the ceremony. The new Chaplain, Mr. Smart, is a member of the Anglican Communion. He was previously Chaplain to the Nakuru District. The Bishop of Mombasa, in his address to the congregation, stressed the duty of the church members to support their new Chaplain. He also mentioned the need for the church to be a place of prayer and service to the community.

K. F. A. Directors' Report On A Satisfactory Year

RECORD MEMBERSHIP

The Annual General Meeting of the Kenya Farmers' Association will be held on December 12, at the Nakuru Hotel.

The Directors' Report just issued, discloses a very satisfactory state of affairs. The membership has increased by six to a total of 907, the highest figure ever reached. The share capital now amounts to £23,870, and the total reserves as at August 31, stood at £20,915.

The total income for the year ended on August 31, 1939, was £442,000. This was a record for the Association. The income was derived from various sources, including the sale of produce, and the interest on investments. The Directors are pleased with the results of the year, and they are confident that the Association will continue to grow in the future.

also because if for reasons of local unacceptability they failed, it would probably do much to clear the whole system of Local Government with a new dignity if the Board were able to confer the honorarium on the leading citizens of the town. As in Nairobi, so in Mombasa, most of the members of the Board were steadily towards a position in which municipal affairs become the concern of the citizen and the responsibility in which the Government of the Colony need not necessarily have a share.

The British Government has asked a question that harked the motion passed on Tuesday by the Tanganyika Legislative Council to give the impression that the people of the Mandated Territory have now been relieved of some of the vigourous protests are already being addressed to Sir William and his fellow Imperial Members by settlers in every part of Tanganyika and copies of the telegram are being sent to the headquarters of the Tanganyika League. The country is not satisfied with the action taken through, and there are serious signs of the main principle of the motion, and that the Government's anxiety to see due weight given to the Prime Minister's announcement, especially called to him, coupled with the pressing need for a restoration of confidence in the whole Government position, is the explanation of the offering of the motion. Not only is Sir William, Lord and Sir Cecil, but also the Government, are anxious to see Government support to the main principle of the motion, a statement of the overwhelming desire for the retention of British rule—agreed to involve the Tanganyika Governments in the necessity for rejecting the motion which, if passed for more definite purposes, might be cast as dictation by the Colonial Legislature to the Imperial Government.

"Now both have to face their responsibility and the fact that it is due to the position becomes more. The Governor has said he is one of those who has no misgivings. The least that can be expected of him is that he will tell the public what he thinks is best for the country, leads him to that conclusion. The general public are certainly not entitled by any means to know to be complacent or satisfied or confident. It is essential, both among the people and the Government, to have a clear understanding of the existing situation and its time to be of full value in the coming debate in the House.

On Wednesday this week the East African Standard will be the one of the "Standard" Agents.

Every day brings new evidence of the support for the motion. Meetings under the auspices of the League are being held in every part of the Territory. At the 11th and 12th of December, Major Lewis will address the members of the League at Nairobi and Kisumu.

ONE LITTLE WEEK

ONE little week has gone past, one week nearer Christmas, but people do not seem to be getting any nearer Christmas than they were every day. A day of open-air enjoyment, the fun of the fair, games, fortune tellers, stalls and musical shows, in the evening, dancing at Bracken-embroidered with white polka-dots in the first row, and in the second row, white skirt edged with a wide white sash, and a long dark skirt edged with a wide white sash. There was a white sash and a long dark skirt edged with a wide white sash. There was a white sash and a long dark skirt edged with a wide white sash.

AN EXILE IN MAYFAIR

Suggests presents for Christmas. Once again Christmas has arrived with the dreary days of a wintry London. Grey days are decorated with festive splashes of colour with crackers, twinkling lights and the traditional scarlet cloak of Santa Claus.

One who would indeed seem to be a true exile in Mayfair, but times are hard and they are real. The struggle for the best is being fought. But this does not mean that one should be dull for colour is rampant and rich where it has never been seen before. Besides this, the members of the club are being treated to a feast of always light, but it is impossible to resist these "backing" which require every year.

Now for suggestions, first don't forget all the classic ideas such as books, stationery, recorders, cigarettes, and chocolates. Don't remember your drink like the latter as much as they did. If you are a fan of the game, you may give a small book which is available in every shop. You may also give a small book which is available in every shop. You may also give a small book which is available in every shop.

PASSING OF THE AGE

By Mrs. Daisy Bates

It is an odd thing that while there is a Great Jamesstreet in London, there have been no Great Jameses in London or anywhere else. James was never ranked with the other names...

THIS book is extremely enlightening. It is all about the stereotypes of life in London. Agate, though the columns down, starts in your mind, while being in your mind...

Trying to think of great Jameses of the past, I can find none except James Boswell, unless you include the pugilist, Jim Macle. Even to-day, excluding members of the staff of this office, I cannot think of any rival to Shakespeare, while in the little world outside...

Just as I was hitting the road I find that there is a thunder came from the Plains. All roads to leave to watch, says the member of Parliament, the British Consul, says the member of Parliament...

Jimmy Wilde has the claim to fame of the supreme goal of the ring, in that he gave away the most beautiful prize which he has won. It was the prize of the year, in 1914...

It is the old story of a woman with a "stair" and a man with a "stair". The life of the Rector of Hindstons, a considerable figure in his local society, a cousin of the Rector, a cousin of the Rector...

There is a photograph of Wilde in the book. His features are the same as the man who was the champion of the world. He was a man of the world, a man of the world...

Well, there is that—satisfactory reply, may be said. But there is the fact that the book is a book that is a book that is a book...

What, then, are these people? There are two, James, Catherine and Rachel. They are physically something alike, but they are not alike in their souls...
