WESTERN POWERS FAVOUR RETURN OF TRIESTE TO ITALY

Political move against Communist advance?

ITALIANS in Rome and Trieste have spent the weekend rejoicing at the announcement that Britain, the United States and France favour giving Trieste back to Italy—an announcement which is interpreted as a triumph for the great Italian Government on the part of the Italian general election, and a blow to the aspirations of Italian Communists.

The announcement that Western powers favour the return of Trieste to Italy is a significant move against Communist advance. It is a political move which is considered a possibility for discussion of the Trieste situation.

A further factor was caused in United Nations circles by the Soviet withdrawal of support for the Palestine Partition Plan and suggestion for temporary trusteeship. Jews are disappointed and surprised that the alternative to the Partition Plan, as announced by American President Truman, is reported to have been approved by the decision and it is believed that the official statement that the surrender of the mandate will not be effected, will mean that America has merely accepted the policy of the situation.

A special session of the Security Assembly is considered a possibility for discussion of the Trieste situation.

This is favoured by the United States and Britain, who are anxious to see the Trieste situation resolved. In announcing the change of policy, the United States and Britain are anxious to see the Trieste situation resolved.

It is suggested that while consideration of the Trieste situation is being considered, the Security Council should suspend its work.

HORSE RACING

Mare wins 'National': first time since 1902

An all-time record crowd for Aintree, in the region of half-a-million, saw one of the only two races in the race, Mr. James Poston's 50-100, 90-50, 'National' Cottage, win the 1948 Grand National by a margin of 10 lengths.

It was the first time for 46 years that a mare has won the race, the last to do so being the Irish-bred Shannon Lass (carrying 10) in 1902.

Since the race was first run, in 1837, only twelve mares have won the greatest of all horse races.

The perfect weather, cool and falling at the finish, under a bright sun, with the crowd coming down as the next day, helped to strain into Aintree from nearby towns. Special trains arriving from London were heavily overloaded and the race itself was unaccompanied around the course itself.

The approach to the start was exceptional, as it was the first time since 1902 that the starting line was so full of spectators. The starting line was the best in the history of the race, with the crowd of spectators, many of whom were from the south of England, and the race was the best in the history of the race.

Three more prospects

Both Gormanston and Bearmaster were down at the fourteenth and fifteenth fences, but the latter was up again at the sixteenth and finished second. The other two were down at the sixteenth and finished third and fourth.

The race was the best in the history of the race, with the crowd of spectators, many of whom were from the south of England, and the race was the best in the history of the race.

First of the Dandies was still in the lead and did more with it, and after half a mile was in the lead again, with Zahir second in front. The race was the best in the history of the race, with the crowd of spectators, many of whom were from the south of England, and the race was the best in the history of the race.

Favourite falls

There was much disappointment when the favourite, Lord Bessborough, fell at the first fence, but he was up again at the second and finished second. The race was the best in the history of the race, with the crowd of spectators, many of whom were from the south of England, and the race was the best in the history of the race.

Chancellor took the lead at the first fence, but was down at the second and finished second. The race was the best in the history of the race, with the crowd of spectators, many of whom were from the south of England, and the race was the best in the history of the race.

ENGLISH & SCOTS LEAGUE LEADERS BOTH HUMBLLED

(Nairobi and "Standard" London correspondents)

THE biggest surprise of Saturday's football was the defeat of Arsenal—only their second at Highbury—by Chelsea, and the home defeat of the Scottish "A" leaders, Rangers, by the Glasgow Celtic.

The match was a surprise, as Arsenal had been the top of the table for most of the season.

The M.C.C. got off to an excellent start in their last Colonial match of the West Indies tour the return fixture with Jamaica which began at Kingston on Saturday.

A Bad Principle

Important issues in public policy are being raised by the East Africa because public opinion is so easily aroused by unchallenged press reports and that it is not possible to have all who are concerned or interested in the subject of the Congo. The Kenya Legislative Council has passed a resolution which is a step towards the legislation of quite considerable powers to the Governor of the Colony and the freedom of its press. The resolution is a commendable one in the light of the public interest when the proposal to hand the European Hospital Authority with £100,000 of debt was made without a division, and was not discussed. Only one Elected Member, who has protested by force, protested again.
