£61,500 voted for schools in North Nyanza District for 1951
 "Standard" Correspondent
 DRAFT estimates for the July meeting of the District Education Board of £61,500 were considerably in excess of the current year's figures. The progressive increase year by year is accounted for partly by the fact that there are more highly trained teachers in the Primary Schools than in the past and partly by annual increments for teaching staff.

GRASSLANDS CAN BE KENYA'S GREATEST ASSET

Successful Farmers' Day on Showgrounds

LAST Friday's Farmers' Day organized by the Kenya Agricultural Show Society at the Showgrounds, Nairobi, was remarkable both for the number of farmers who attended and for the numerous debates on the production of grass.

The Society must have been deeply interested in the talk which was given by Mr. L. S. Scholfield, the Director of Agriculture, who stressed the importance of grassland research which has recently found the Kenya Agricultural Department after years of work in countries as far afield as Queensland and Germany.

Mr. Ernest Gilbert (Director of Agriculture) and Mr. D. C. Roberts (Director of Veterinary Services) were there and took part in several of the sessions which showed the farmers' deep interest in grassland production.

Combination
The correct combination of grass and legume species for each region and soil conditions is a matter which is still under investigation.

It is significant that the effect of the combination of grass and legume species is not only to increase the yield of the grass but also to improve the quality of the grass.

Here in the Kenya Agricultural Department, the main objective of grassland research is to produce a grass which is both productive and of high nutritive value.

Fertility
As an illustration of the effect of the combination of grass and legume species on soil fertility, the results of the experiment conducted by the Kenya Agricultural Department are shown below.

The results of the experiment show that the combination of grass and legume species has a significant effect on the yield and quality of the grass, and also on the fertility of the soil.

THE SISAL INDUSTRY'S FIELD DAY

INTERESTING views on the sisal industry in East Africa were expressed on Tuesday at the Field Day held at the High Level Sisal Station.

The Director of Agriculture, Mr. L. S. Scholfield, presided over the proceedings which were held in the afternoon.

Mr. Scholfield stressed the importance of the sisal industry in East Africa and the need for further research and development.

RAISING COTTON PRODUCTION
The Government is taking steps to increase cotton production in East Africa.

The Director of Agriculture, Mr. L. S. Scholfield, has announced that the Government is providing subsidies for cotton growers.

The subsidies will be used to purchase fertilizers and other inputs for cotton production.

Coffee Planters demand rebate on plantations petrol

Even though we may not get the rebate, at least we are entitled to an answer to our request, declared Mr. P. V. (George Sabaki) at the annual Coffee Conference, proposing the following resolution which was passed unanimously.

Mealybug Mr. G. Sabaki (Kisumu) proposed the following resolution which was passed unanimously. The Coffee Conference requests the Director of Agriculture to arrange for a rebate to be made in Uganda for further purposes of re-planting gardens at the earliest possible date, even if this involves the temporary suspension of all additional subsidies.

Mr. W. H. Harwood said that one of the main reasons for the failure of the rubber industry in the East African Colonies was that if the Road Authority had not been established, the industry would have been able to compete with the industry in the West Indies.
