Tsaldaris "Satisfied"

MR. DEMOSTRIS TSALDARIS, Greek Premier, today expressed "satisfaction" at the Democratic victory. Government circles today said they viewed their defeat of the Communist Party as a great improvement in Greece's situation. Tsaldaris, in a speech at the meeting in Athens, said he was not at all concerned at the Communist victory. He said he was satisfied with the result of the election and that he would continue to work for the welfare of the Greek people.

UNO Mission Alleges Aid To Guerrillas

YUGOSLAVIA and to a lesser degree, Albania and Bulgaria, have supported guerrilla warfare in Greece according to an 800-page report approved by the majority of the members of the United Nations Human Rights Commission, which was published here today. Soviet and Polish members of the Commission rejected all the charges against the Slav nations but the delegate of Australia, Belgium, Brazil, China, Colombia, Costa Rica and Britain, after five weeks of investigation and the questioning of hundreds of witnesses, reached the following conclusions: "Yugoslavia established at Hellenes, near the Greek border, a training camp where Greeks were given political and military training and subsequently sent back to take part in guerrilla warfare."

BRITAIN GIVES THE FARMER HIS DUE NOW Basic Industry That Dare Not Be Neglected Again

ONE of the signs of the many changes which have taken place in Britain in the last few years is the revolution in the dairy industry. For nearly twenty years, however, the dairy farmer has been a neglected industry. It paid low wages, many government aids and subsidies, and was regarded by the Government as a business which should only be kept alive by a subsidy.

The War Years Many things have happened in the dairy industry since the war. The Government has taken a keen interest in the industry, and has made a number of changes in the way it is run. The dairy farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

Feed Problem Farmers are growing a number of crops which are used for feed. The Government has taken a keen interest in the feed problem, and has made a number of changes in the way it is run. The farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

The 'Catch' Materials for the first time in the history of the dairy industry, the Government has taken a keen interest in the 'catch' problem. The farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

No 5-Day Week The real test of a Government's policy is the way it deals with the 5-day week. The Government has taken a keen interest in this problem, and has made a number of changes in the way it is run. The farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

Bumper Tobacco The Government has taken a keen interest in the bumper tobacco problem. The farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

Everybody's Worry The Government has taken a keen interest in the everybody's worry problem. The farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

Development Plan and of the Government's policy in the Mombasa area. The Government has taken a keen interest in this problem, and has made a number of changes in the way it is run. The farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

MAGS INN MITTO ANDEI The Government has taken a keen interest in the Mags Inn Mitto Andei problem. The farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

GAME YOUNG CONDUCTED PASTOR TO SEE HIS GAME The Government has taken a keen interest in the game young problem. The farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

IDEAL HALFWAY HALT HARBOUR MOMBASA ROAD The Government has taken a keen interest in the ideal halfway halt problem. The farmer has been given a number of new powers, and has been able to improve his position in many ways.

South African Plan To Train Natives As Chemists

Plans are being worked out for chemists in South Africa, especially in predominantly African areas, to be trained in agriculture. The idea was put forward by the Institute of Race Relations and is the first of its kind in South Africa.

Chemists in Johannesburg have been approached by the Institute and the Witwatersrand Technical College has indicated its willingness to provide a course for training Africans as its sufficient enrollment.

If the venture is successful, Johannesburg is expected to become one of the centers of the Institute of Race Relations, for a while the chemists in Johannesburg will be trained in agriculture. IT'S A THIN TIME FOR THE DEBUTANTE

The London "Scasin" is Alastair

THE MODERN debutante who since 1938 has been having a "thin time" is now expected to have little prospect of improvement with the return of the London "Scasin".
 Formerly May, June and July brought considerable fun and gaiety to the social but these days have been almost entirely devoid of interest.

Failure of Anglo-French Communiqué States All Invited

London, July 3. JOINT communiqué issued by the British Foreign Secretary and the French Foreign Minister this afternoon says that the British and French Governments have reached the following decisions in order to give further effect to the suggestion made by Mr. Marshall in his speech at Harvard University on June 5 that Europe should take the initiative in the work of reconstruction...

Failure of Anglo-French Communiqué States All Invited

Paris, July 3. LITTLE time was lost in pushing forward Anglo-French plans to produce a Western European economic recovery plan, after Mr. Molotov's statement in Paris, in last night's final conference of the Big Three Foreign Ministers that he could not agree to Anglo-French proposals. Mr. Trygve Lie, the Norwegian mediator, called on M. Georges Bidault at nine o'clock this morning and had a two-hour talk with him. His early call and his anxiety to return to London as early as possible were with the intention of making a statement to the House of Commons on the Paris talks. Later, the two issued a joint communiqué.

"Lion Killing An Insult To Lions"
THE JUDGE CALLS IT "BUTCHERY"

I HAVE not yet seen any lion which is not really a magnificent beast. It is a pity that the lion is being killed for its skin. The judge has called this practice "butchery" and it is a disgrace to the lion.
