KEWA F.A. STILL

Sudan silent on Africa Cup tie

THE KEWA F.A. STILL DOES NOT KNOW OF SUDAN'S PROPOSAL TO WITHDRAW FROM THE AFRICA CUP TIE. OFFICIALS TRY TO GET THROUGH TO THE SUDANESE REPRESENTS YESTERDAY BUT IN CAIRO THEY ANSWERED THE TELEPHONE.

The assistant secretary of the Kenya F.A. and the publicity officer, Mr. H. Mitchell, were busy for 15 minutes. The call had been booked for 10 minutes earlier for 3 p.m. yesterday. At the Post Office in Nairobi said that no one in Khartoum had answered it.

Mr. Mitchell wants to change the date of the match because it is to be played in Aden on March 7 and Uganda in Kampala on March 12. Playing Sudan in between would mean a second trip and a considerable financial strain.

PREPARING FOR THE CHALLENGE

KENYA TEAM AT THE NETS

Kenya's players to meet West Africans, the English A county cricket championship, got down to serious training at 8 this week.

West Africans have said that they do not intend to treat lightly their match with Kenya of Nairobi Club, on February 13, 14 and 15, and the Kenya team are making sure that they will give good opposition.

DISAPPOINTMENT

Mr. Smith said: "The call would have been made earlier if it had not been for the fact that the telephone line in Khartoum was down on Thursday. The Government would not have allowed it to be used."

Mr. Mitchell said that he would be glad to see the Sudanese representative team in Aden. He would be glad to see the Sudanese representative team in Aden. He would be glad to see the Sudanese representative team in Aden.

National basketball championships in June or July

THE first national basketball championships to be held in Kenya will take place this year, probably in June or July. Nairobi will be the venue and the Ministry of Education has tentatively promised accommodation for all players and coaches.

LAKE CAPTURES 5-54

JIM LAKEK, the former England Test off-spinner, took five for 54 in 24 overs at Montego Bay yesterday when the visiting Cavaliers cricket team began a three-day match with Jamaica.

Jamaica were all out for 214 and the Cavaliers were 29 for 1 in the first hour. The Cavaliers were 29 for 1 in the first hour. The Cavaliers were 29 for 1 in the first hour.

Youngster's 127 against Pakistanis

AN 18-year-old, W. J. Mitchell, making his debut in first-class cricket scored a brilliant unbeaten 127 for Northern Districts on the second day of the match against the Pakistan touring team at Hamilton, New Zealand, yesterday.

M.C.C. North

A South African team of 12 cricketers will visit Kenya in the first week of the year. The team will be led by the captain, Mr. J. C. Laker, who is a former England Test cricketer.

12-HOUR RACING AT NAKURU THIS MONTH

LAST October the Nairobi Motor Club reintroduced 12-hour motor racing at Nakuru after a lapse of nearly eight years and the six-hour race was such a success that the Kenya Motor Management Association and the Shell Drivers' Club have now taken over the organization of this type of racing with the result that on Sunday, February 21, there will be a 12-hour event known as "The Shell Twelve Hour".

Up to now the organizers have been the Kenya Motor Club and the Shell Drivers' Club. The organizers have been the Kenya Motor Club and the Shell Drivers' Club. The organizers have been the Kenya Motor Club and the Shell Drivers' Club.

Kenya rugby clubs face new season with big problems

WITH the 1963 Kenya rugby season proper due to start in four weeks' time—although a number of friendly matches will be played before then—most of the clubs have been in full training for the past two weeks, trying to fill the vacant spots left by those players who have either left the country or have retired from the game.

Most of the clubs are having difficulty in finding new players to replace those who have left. The clubs are having difficulty in finding new players to replace those who have left.

Coffee quotas to be reduced

The Executive committee of the International Coffee Council decided in principle at its meeting that annual export quotas for coffee should be reduced by 10 per cent from 1954 to 1955. The decision, however, and the exact figures, will be decided by the Council at its meeting in London, commencing on February 15 and to be closed on the 20th.

S. STRIKES AGAIN AT N. VET

Washington order to 'Clear the decks'

... at strike was made yesterday by U.S. and South Vietnamese planes against military installations in North Vietnam, it was announced in Saigon.

Gen. Nguyen Khanh, armed forces chief, announced that 28 South Vietnamese planes supported by U.S. jet fighters, bombed Vinh Gianh, only a few miles north of the border dividing North and South Vietnam.

Hanoi Radio, retransmitted in Saigon, claimed the United States had made three air strikes against North Vietnam in which a total of five U.S. planes were killed and another ten damaged. It said many people were hurt in the bombings.

North Vietnam strongly protested to the International Control Commission in Saigon against Sunday's attacks. A brief preliminary meeting of the three-nation commission (India, Poland and Canada) was held in Poland's request, informed sources.

Evacuation of dependants ordered

The U.S. Mission spokesman in Saigon, Mr. Harry Zerkow, said the evacuation was announced by the acting (Vietnamese) Prime Minister and the U.S. Ambassador. It was made known that military action was taken today by Vietnamese and U.S. aircraft against other military installations in North Vietnam.

LETTER TO U.S. GIVES AMERICA'S REASONS

The United States has notified the Security Council of its retaliatory air action against North Vietnam.

DESIGN FOR THE NEW LIVING

Nairobi hotel's offer last word in

Plumbers complete the extension which for eight luxury suites to provide adequate, modern and an atmosphere of African unity. In the opinion of the design team, the new extension is a masterpiece of modern architecture.

The extension continues to have a modern and modern look to the three large living areas and five smaller ones, generally open on the fourth floor of the New Stanley Hotel.

LINE FOR UNUSUAL
Mrs. M. Daria Black, wife of the chairman of Black Hotels Ltd., Nairobi, has had her artistic knowledge of design put to work for the extension of the New Stanley Hotel. The number leading to the suite is easily seen from the road, and the extension covers the length of the corridor over a walk to the front of a wide-decked stairs, which will be seen from the main building.

Mrs. Daria Black is designing the decor of the suite's planned in the lounge of one of the larger suites. Behind her is a picture of a building by the well-known Henry Cole's design.

STRIKING CARPET
All the bedrooms have the same colored carpet, the most striking carpet in a lounge room one which is distinguished by the African patterned material used for curtains, counterpane, and dressing-room door curtain. White linens are used as well as in the living room. Walls of some of the upper floors are covered in "stone" look and these plastic coverings come in many shades of color. Covering the walls of the lounge are woodwork by Mr. Attila of Nairobi.

One of the reasons why the new accommodation of the New Stanley Hotel justified the name "luxury suite" — a specially designed living consisting of a television set, a refrigerator, desk cabinet and writing desk with telephone.

AFRICA TRADE BATTLE U.S. missiles in Vietnam threatened

Kenya's lead says Dr. Kiano

...of African countries to sever their trade with South Africa and Portugal, even if it means a loss to them, was made in a statement yesterday by the Kenya Minister for Commerce and Industry, Dr. J. G. Kiano.

Addressing the seventh session of the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa, Dr. Kiano said it was Kenya's sincere hope that her and Portugal would be emulated by all African countries as part of their contribution towards the emancipation of their fellows in these two States.

Kenya cut off trade with South Africa and Portugal some months back but she has not yet outstanding example being goods sold of which exports were cut by 40 per cent; but she continued to be her duty to act as a master of fundamental economics. The value of Kenya's trade with South Africa has increased since she cut off trade with African States except South Africa had expanded faster than her trade taken as a whole, though it was a small proportion of total trade.

Village development vital

Since 1960 Kenya's total overseas trade has expanded by 12 per cent and her trade with African countries, excluding South Africa, had risen by 35 per cent.

Dr. Kiano urged the Commission to pay attention to the development of village economy in Africa. Africa had beautiful cities but life in the countryside was not developed economically and this should be considered of paramount importance.

Competition in future much keener

KENYA and other developing countries will see a long period of competition for a position in the future in going to the still more developed countries which are the main competitors of the British Commonwealth. Kenya, South Africa, Canada, and the United States, in fact, where most of the world's sports are held.

It is here we can draw from all the natural human resources from all parts of the world that exist in the small Commonwealth. Africa's potential is enormous — its resources are still untapped and unutilized. If properly trained — meaning properly educated — scientific supervision — it can make a major contribution to the world's sports.

It is in the field of sports, where the Commonwealth is the most advanced, that the world's sports are held. The fact that sports have been held in the Commonwealth since the first time in the Commonwealth is a fact that is well known. Communist barracks hit in two strikes

More than 180 U.S. Navy jets and South Vietnamese planes made two strikes on military targets in Communist North Vietnam and three U.S. Navy jets were shot down, a U.S. military spokesman announced.

More than 180 U.S. Navy jet fighters based on three aircraft carriers steaming in the South China Sea, raided a military barracks area in Chanh Hoa, about 130 miles north of the 17th Parallel, dividing line between North and South Vietnam.

The spokesman said the second strike was made by 28 U.S. Air Force F-105 Super Sabres and F-4H Thunderbolts, with an equal number of South Vietnamese Skyhawks, on three barracks area at Chap Lu, near the 17th Parallel. They struck one and a half hours after the raid by the carrier aircraft.

Carrier planes shot down

Three of the U.S. Navy planes were shot down because they were forced to fly low by cloud. None of the Vietnamese or American planes in the second wave were downed, although six Vietnamese Skyhawks were damaged by anti-aircraft fire.

All the planes in the second wave were based at Ha Nam, an important airfield ringed by newly arrived Hawk ground-attack squadrons, about 75 miles north-west of Saigon.

The spokesman said Chan Hoa was an important of the air strikes, according to preliminary reports, were highly successful.

Students in U.S. Embassy in bomb protest

From University College, Dublin, the students outside the U.S. Embassy in Dublin by a group of young men of various nationalities, by U.S. planes on the ground of the Cape Prince of Wales.

The demonstrators—about 200—with placards attacking the U.S. and Mr. Tolson, marched from the College House, Nairobi, down Uthuru Highway, to the American Embassy in Wabesa Street, opposite City Hall, where they faced the Embassy and started to shout anti-American slogans.

They were led by the president of the Students' Union, Mr. O'Leary, who carried a placard, and shouted anti-American and anti-imperialist slogans. One student carried a placard with a picture of Mr. Tolson and another with a picture of the U.S. flag.

Some of the placards carried by the students read: "Confiscate the U.S. capital city," "Kick Americans out of Africa," "Yankies go home," "Vietnam, Cuba and East Africa," and "Don't poke the Yankee into our back."

A police party of six and several motor cycles kept a watch on the demonstrators as they marched, and saw the U.S. Ambassador. A police officer told Mr. O'Leary that only four people were arrested and that the Embassy and registered protest.

Mr. O'Leary at first refused to give a statement to the press, but later he said that the demonstrators were protesting against the U.S. support of the South African Government in the Congo.
