LIVERPOOL'S FIRST DEFEAT AT HOME

Manchester secures championship lead

MANCHESTER UNITED, robbed of the coveted 'double' by being determined to win the league championship, after being runners-up for three consecutive seasons. They gained a points margin by a resounding defeat of Aston Villa, while Liverpool sustained the season's first home defeat on Wednesday.

United, thus have a two points clear leadership over Liverpool, who were one of the two Cup finalists—all four were in action—so far before the start of the season.

Birmingham, who did not go away from home to win, and who were runners-up in the previous season, secured the spoils of estimation a little earlier than they expected, by a 1-0 victory over Liverpool at a home ground, the prospect of Manchester City and Birmingham City City the glorifier by comparison.

It was Liverpool's first win since December 11, 1955.

Charles Aldrich, captain of the home side, was injured by the beating of manager Jimmy Hogg on the head during the game, and he was home again in four months.

Day of penalties

Blackpool gained revenge for their Cup defeat by Liverpool and the Manchester championship hopes were settled by a 2-0 victory over Arsenal at Anfield. Liverpool played on Wednesday, but they were not in the game but Blackpool's great day was a day of penalties at Villa Park for strong Manchester United seven clear winners. Villa were scored four, three of these from the penalty spot, it was the day's most astounding victory.

Derry County conceded Liverpool a goal, but they were able to beat them against the form book, by beating the team, by a handsome margin.

Goal-less draw at Wrexham

IN their international football match at Wrexham on Wednesday, the Irish drew 0-0 with the Welsh.

The match was a very hard-fought one, with both sides creating several chances. However, neither team was able to score.

The Irish captain, Willie Johnston, was the only player to be booked during the match. He was shown a yellow card for a foul on the Welsh forward, Iwan Davies.

The match was held at Wrexham, which is a town in North Wales. It is one of the largest towns in the country.

PARIS CACHET IN NEW YORK

ESA M. SANDERS writing from London, reports on the Flapper Look now in vogue in the U.S.A.

WEAVE all this fun and fancy about the London and Paris dress shows, women seem to know?

The answer is that styles shown at the London and Paris shows are being translated for the year - and the next - by the American fashion designers and throughout all the major centres of the world.

The designer themselves are looking for original lines, and the American designers are looking for the American girl's figure. The result is that the American girl is getting a new look.

Paris is also together with Hollywood seems it is in a short-sleeved, light, short skirt, full blouse and during time, jacket made with white piping, in her correct appearance on Broadway. The star is "You Like It" which obviously has been designed for the modern woman.

New American look for slowness in the U.S.A. has been designed to enable the dress to be worn in the U.S.A.

Brighter weaves - A British textile designer has been working on the new weaves. The result is that the American girl is getting a new look.

The weaver is offering soft, bluish green, blue, and orange. The result is that the American girl is getting a new look.

Paris touch - In the recent New York Spring Show, the influence of Paris was very strong. The designer themselves are looking for original lines, and the American designers are looking for the American girl's figure.

Short coats - The short coat of a Paris designer that has caught on in the U.S.A. is a short, light-colored coat with a high collar and a belt.

A SPT BULK DRESS is an absolute MUST for your DIVIDED WEEK ENGAGEMENTS. A D.B.L. LTD. are now making a SPECIAL DISPLAY of just the type of garment suitable for this UNIQUE OCCASION.

Especially for you, on perhaps you may wish to choose one from our EXCELLENT RANGE IN STOCK.

KNITTING BAG NOTION

MAY FOWLER tells you how to use up the remnants left over from the ties you made into a skirt last week.

WITH odds and ends of ties left over from the skirt, you can complete many articles of patchwork can be made, such as a cushion, bag, etc. You can also use the remnants in many other ways.

Remember the remnants can be left in strips, cut into squares, or cut into small pieces. They can be used in many ways.

LOVE, HAPPINESS AND MARRIAGE

by ANDRE MAUROIS

Seven rules of a man who is now giving 'lessons in love' in the Paris radio.

"It is easier," said Byron, "to die than to live with her." Certainly the problem of marriage is a knotty one. It is a question of turning a fleeting desire into a life-long one.

To marry is a very serious matter. It is a question of turning a fleeting desire into a life-long one. It is a question of turning a fleeting desire into a life-long one.

WHAT MAKES ELEPHANTS PURR?

This week, one of the wardens of Kenya's National Parks, gives his view on the 'Stomach Rumbles' of African Elephants.

Correspondent from Nairobi writes a letter to the East African Standard, a fortnight ago, in which he says that the stomach rumbles of the elephant are a mystery. He says that the rumbles are a form of communication between the animals and that they are a sign of the elephant's contentment. He says that the rumbles are a form of communication between the animals and that they are a sign of the elephant's contentment.

Elephant, although thin-skinned, are sensitive to heat.

Through his explanation to the stomach rumbles 'is the vast host' variety of sounds apart from their trumpeting and rumbling. They also make several noises on the ground with the aid of their trunk. Some of these noises I have heard once make a low rumble, almost like the crack of a whip. It is struck out with the trunk, and it is said to be a warning signal. A method found is often heard when they are about to charge. It is a low rumble with their forehead, which is used as a warning signal to the other elephants. It is a low rumble with their forehead, which is used as a warning signal to the other elephants.

Proof enough
On another occasion I watched two elephants on a hillside. They were both facing each other and one of them had its trunk raised. It was a clear sign of a fight. The elephants were both facing each other and one of them had its trunk raised. It was a clear sign of a fight.

EASTERN EUROPE UNDER REVIEW

By Robert R. Lyman, Editor of the New York Times, and Walter D. Dill, Editor of the New York Times.

THE momentous conference at Yalta in 1945 has probably aroused more criticism than any other diplomatic event during the second world war, and as a result, the late President Roosevelt's reputation as a world statesman has suffered considerably in some quarters. But it is easy to be wise after the fact. Five years after the event, there has been a considerable amount of re-examination of the situation as it was then. The Yalta conference took place in the latter part of 1945, when the Yalta meeting took place.

Longer season for 1950 Shakespearean Festival

FOLLOWING the outstanding success of the 1949 Shakespeare Festival at the Memorial Theatre, Stratford-upon-Avon, comes the announcement that this year's season will be of a longer duration than any previously presented there. The Festival opened yesterday and is expected to continue until at least the end of September.

NAKURU, MAKES BLANKETS FOR THE ROYAL TRAIN

"Sensational" Sharp Blowers... NAKURU will be the first to visit to Kenya of the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester, for Nairobi industries, the Blanket and Knitwear Manufacturers, are supplying specially made Blankets to equip the Royal Train.

Mr. John W. Rigby and Mr. W. Warburton (chief manager of the firm) told me that the blankets are essentially the same in quality and structure as the ordinary blankets which are being developed for big-league European trade by Nairobi industries.

"They are made entirely in Kenya and entirely under the supervision of labour with European supervision, and Mr. Warburton said that these blankets are first-class examples of technical skill and quality in the textile industries of Kenya."

"We had an exceptional request for them," adds Mr. Rigby, "and very little effort was made to produce the blanket to meet the need of use for the royal train."

Mist - blue
Dyes were specially blended to give the blankets a distinctive feature - a blue tinge which is the distinguishing feature of the finest quality of wool and are luxury blankets especially designed for use in the tropics where heat radiation would be a definite factor.

A light weight milled finish has been given to the blankets, and the European technical staff, who were in charge of the work, are confident that the blankets are of the highest quality in the world.

Finance and commerce EAST AND SOUTH AFRICA TRADE DEVELOPMENT

EXPORTS TO SOUTH AFRICA
IMPORTS FROM SOUTH AFRICA
The East African territories have since 1934, turned an adverse trade balance with the Union of South Africa into a favourable one.

By 1945 the balance on the Union's favour was £75,000. More than half the increase in 1945 was due to the fact that the figure was £1,725,000 worth in 1945, the last year of which figures are available.
In 1946, the last year of which figures are available, exports to South Africa were worth £2,500,000 worth of goods and imports £1,275,000 worth.

THE most striking feature in trade between East and South Africa was more strongly stressed when it is noted that in 1945 the value of African territories sent only £467,700 worth of goods to the Union and did not until 1944 that the figure rose to £2 million value.
South Africa takes practically all agricultural products, including rice, coffee, wheat, premium and ordinary cotton, sisal, rubber, oilseed, apricots, pineapples, processed foods, and other products.

THE population of light eyes on the South African continent has increased the biggest problem for the South African manufacturer has ever had to face.

Actual figures from British Columbia reported in the monthly report of the British Columbia Licensing Department for February-Alpha 1241 at 44 other British Crown Dependencies.

IRISH COURT TOLD ABOUT NAIROBI DOLLAR CREDIT

A CREDIT note for £5,000 dollars sent to him by his brother from Nairobi was alleged to have said in a statement, when it was produced in evidence in the hearing of evidence in currency charges against Abraham and his 25-year-old wife, Malika M. Abraham, whose address is given as Stokes Road, Clontarf, Dublin.

It was said that Abraham had written his brother he would return the £5,000 note. The witness, who was asked to produce the note, said it was a credit note for £5,000 dollars, which was sent to him by his brother from Nairobi. The witness, who was asked to produce the note, said it was a credit note for £5,000 dollars, which was sent to him by his brother from Nairobi.

Airport search
Con. Crowley, an officer of the special inquiry branch, Customs and Excise, gave the court an account of a search made on the accused at Dublin airport.

Dublin account
An official of the special inquiry branch of the Bank of Ireland, Mr. C. J. Hincham, said that the account there in April last year, £200,000 was made between Abraham and his brother.

Her husband's
Con. Kelly said that the special inquiry branch, Customs and Excise, said that he ordered Mrs. Kelly to return the £5,000 note.

SCOTS OBSERVE ANCIENT RELIGIOUS CEREMONY

'Blessing of the builders' at St. Andrew's

An ancient religious ceremony was observed in St. Andrew's Church of Scotland on Sunday afternoon. The church was crowded and many people were unable to obtain admission. The service opened with a procession led by the Minister, the Rev. David Stewart, followed by the Session Clerk, the choir and an architect's square. Mr. E. Bullen, Wavick (workman), who carried a shield.

The implements were used by Mr. Bullen together with the opened Bible of the Commission Table during the service.

The theme of the service was "Blessing of the Builders". The service was held in the afternoon in the church and the first service was held in the morning.

The sermon

In the course of the special service for the occasion, Mr. Stewart preached from the first of four chapters of the Book of Job. He stressed the fact that Job had a builder and a carpenter who were here and there in the world. He said that Job had a builder and a carpenter who were here and there in the world. He said that Job had a builder and a carpenter who were here and there in the world.
