GERMAN UNEMPLOYMENT

Problem of markets is key to keeping country's loyalty to the West

BY ANTHONY DORSET
DURING the last three months, the West German economy has taken a sudden turn for the worse. From January to September last year, Federal Germany had an average monthly balance of seven million dollars in its favour in its trade with the Marshall countries.

Last autumn, however, Dr. Erhard, the German Minister of Economics and a passionate believer in free enterprise policies, removed all restrictions from about 95 per cent of Germany's foreign trade. Germany's exports to her twenty-five neighbours for the first time in December, their favourable balance had become a deficit of 50 million dollars and their total fall from 190 million dollars in the autumn of 1948 to 100 million dollars in February. The unemployment figure rose to 2,000,000 people out of work.

Both American and British officials are convinced that the Government is to talk for their handling of the situation, but, as it was then, would have a trade deficit of 600 million dollars and that in 1951 there would still be 1,800,000 unemployed.

Dr. Erhard maintained that planning was wrong in itself and that there were a number of special circumstances to account for Germany's unfortunate experience. Unemployment had been aggravated by the presence of 1,500,000 refugees from the Russian zone, and the Iron Curtain was closing.

THEIR is however a deeper threat which tends to be forgotten. It is that Western Germany, as at present constituted, must inevitably come into sharp competition with the great countries of Western Europe. It is in buying the raw materials it needs and in selling the manufactured products which are its principal source of income.

Jewish tribute to British aid for refugees

"I AM pleased to hear of the contribution that members of the Jewish community have made to purchasing aid for progress in Northern Rhodesia and I would like to feel that the fundamental motives behind their generosity were derived, not from materialism, but from the faith which they hold."

The statement was made by the Chief Rabbi, Dr. Isaac Eliahu, at the meeting of the British Committee of the Jewish Community in London, which was held on Monday night at the London Club. The Rabbi, who is also the spiritual head of the Jewish community in London, said that he was pleased to hear that the Jewish community in Northern Rhodesia had made a contribution of £10,000 to the purchase of aid for the progress in Northern Rhodesia.

Purpose of visit
Dr. Brode said the purpose of his visit was to bring the Jewish community the various sections of the community in London, which was held on Monday night at the London Club.

Appreciation
When I had, as in Northern Rhodesia, the Jewish community, which was held on Monday night at the London Club.

AMERICANS KEEP AN EYE ON BRITISH PARLIAMENT

MANY United States newspapers continue to display a lively interest in the result of the British general election and its consequences—how far of them indicate the direction in which the British Government will move.

ROYAL VISITORS

The Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester arrived in Nairobi on Friday on the day of three weeks. The official purpose of their visit for the last time to Kenya by the Highnesses His Majesty King George the Sixth, who arrived in Nairobi arranged for his brother to make public presentation of the Charter to His Majesty Governor and Councilors later this month. Kenya extends its warm wishes to the Highnesses a warm welcome and the good wishes of all its people for a happy and successful trip. They are good friends of the Colony and they are sure that their friendship is cherished with affection. This is not their first visit. Both have been to Kenya on several occasions and during the year His Royal Highnesses represented His Majesty the King on an extended tour of the East African territories.

The Duke and Duchess are also members of the Imperial War Programme of official engagements, the Duke has the distinction of being the only member of the Colonial Empire. In expressing their pleasure in meeting the Highnesses, the people of the Colony will be conveying through their friends and acquaintances to the King who ever enquires for them and in no case will not perform these historic acts.

FRESH AIR IN PARLIAMENT

LOOKING AT the packed conditions on the sides of the new House of Commons reflects that nobody can say, truthfully, as was written in the M.P.'s in 1946: "We are the only ones now." Tanganyika

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
The article in your issue of March 11th concerning the proposed constitution for Tanganyika is very interesting and I have read it with much interest. It is a pity that the article is so long and that it does not get to the heart of the matter. I should like to see a shorter and more concise article on this subject. I am sure that the people of Tanganyika would be very interested in such an article.

Bible thought
The Bible is a book of wisdom and guidance. It contains the teachings of Jesus Christ and the prophets of the Old Testament. It is a book that should be read by all people, regardless of their race or religion. The Bible is a book that has inspired millions of people and has changed the course of human history.

RAITH AGAIN HOLD RANGERS TO DRAW

Fresh hope for Liverpool supporters

TWO Scottish Cup fourth round replays took place on Wednesday, one resulting in a decision but the other requiring a third meeting, even after extra time.

In Division 1 of the English league Liverpool played their supporters by drawing at Old Trafford and keeping hope alive, however faint, of achieving the Cup and league "double". For their Scottish rivals, Queen of the South had to make the long journey from Glasgow to Aberdeen, and beat that team by two goals to one in a tough game where the decision was always in doubt.

Local prospects

Prospects for the Nairobi football season, to open later than usual this year, appear to be brighter than in previous years, the possibility of a representative amateur team from Kenya being formed, and the possibility of a representative amateur team from Kenya being formed, and the possibility of a representative amateur team from Kenya being formed.

Great memories

The Raith-Rangers clash brought to mind memories of the great League Cup semi-final of 1944 at Three Pines when the same side just drew through, but when extra time was played, Raith were victorious.

A trial game

At least one trial game will be played before the Nairobi team is formed.

Few of us in our active years are able to enjoy the benefits of the greatest tonic ever prescribed—a spell of complete and perfect freedom from worry. Our country, our home, our family, our business, our health, our future, our life, our very existence, are all dependent upon the success of our employers. The age of retirement, however, does mean the ending of all responsibility to some extent—though to what extent entirely in the hands of the individual. WORLD PRICE OF MAIZE MAY FALL

It should not be surprising, said the 100 Bites, of the United States Industry Council Board, maintaining the well-remembered prediction that the price of maize in Africa will fall below the South African price. The present price was approximately 100 shillings a ton. It is expected that this would have been the case in the past few years. BRITISH FARMERS TAKE UP SPALTRY AGAIN

THE ancient sport of spaltry in Britain more than it has been for over a century. What three and four centuries ago was the delight of kings, the pursuit of gentlemen and the relaxation of peasants, now completely dead out although the advent of shooting parties, the hunt and the death-bed. It was kept up in spite of increasing difficulties by a tiny circle of enthusiasts who reached the peak of their success in the person of Leo Hawking Club in the middle of the last century.

An outstanding example of French modernistic Gothic architecture, comparable to Rheims cathedral, the church of St. Nicholas is the most notable of the 23th century edifice built within the boundaries of the wall-city of Famagusta. Now used as a museum for the Maltese population, the building is an abiding memorial to the culture and prosperity of Cyprus during the rule of the Lusignan dynasty. A subsequent occupation by the Venetians and the Ottomans resulted in the fortunes of the island to a few eels, but from the end of the sixteenth century Cyprus began to recover some of her ancient splendor as a nation of Mohammedans. Today the port of Famagusta handles much of the island's trade, though Cyprus, which also handles the precious stones and silks of former centuries. Full and complete information from our branches in Cyprus on industrial conditions and commercial trends in the island is readily obtainable on request.

Husband and wife make an ideal film team

There are few people in East Africa who did not pay an interest in the recent filming of King Solomon's Mines by the King-Goldwyn-Mayer Company.

From the interest aroused by the employment of many well known stars and the success of the film, the use of Kenya and Tanganyika as settings for many of the sequences was naturally not so much connected with the filming, are not in fact... they are Armand and Michèle Dima. Out of his wide knowledge of filming in this country, Armand Dima is the only African to have been invited to film during their more than 18 months in East Africa.

Now living Kenya so much, they have decided to bring their families here and have bought some land and built a superb building. By the time they come back from one of their excursions, their new home should be taking shape.

The Dima's-Michèle always accompanies her husband on his photographic forays... she has a wonderful way with camera lenses and knows the photographic things that have never been photographed before.

What is she like, then, this glamorous woman who so cheerily turns the camera on her husband's 'Mines'?

She is a French girl and was living the designer game, she made hats and the points.

But she also has a serious side which few people know. She is interested in and knowledgeable about entomology, zoology and ornithology.

Her picture shows Michèle Dima seated at a small restaurant table... she was inspired by the girls of the United States in Africa.

Her picture shows Michèle Dima seated at a small restaurant table... she was inspired by the girls of the United States in Africa.

Aspiration as the future of East Africa as a coming film industry... she is the director and one of the company have divorced and flown back to America.

'GENASPRIN' is the aspirin women buy... Women, especially have long known that Genasprin is a safe and effective aspirin.

STYLE 'WAR' IS ON

Old 'pencil' line versus new short evening styles

WILL THE EXTREMISTS WIN?

ELSA M. SANDERS, in her London letter, predicts fashion modifications for English tastes, and talks of the clothes worn at Covent Garden.

FASHION writers over here are still staggering from the shocks they received at the Paris dress shows. Some of them gaily try to describe the dismay under a cover of flowery words.

Another comment ironically, 'How silly morticians are the dusting children poets that drift around the glimmering roads abroad like a faint sign.'

Adapted Another view. This tendency of swings back to the unsexed 'twenties is most disconcerting, do the designers really want to change us to the twenties?

At the ballet What a wonderful psychologist the man of what she does not know about the feminine mind. It is not worth knowing and he certainly makes it so.

Cleanings of feminine apparel to interest all women

Fashions in each case during the past few years have revolved on the all time issue of getting the most out of one's wardrobe.

Probably the dress-woman's greatest ally is the clothes ironing machine. It is the friend who saves her from the tedium of ironing.

Special help in making full-time ironing is a feature of some of the latest ironing machines. They have a special ironing board that fits right into the machine.

Proof-positive has been kept to date as well as in popularity during the past few years. It is the friend who saves her from the tedium of ironing.

TEDDER FIRST FOR NEW POST IN U.S.A.

Leads U.K. Services Mission

UNRIVALED QUALIFICATIONS FOR GREAT TASK, SAYS SHINWELL

A NEW post of permanent chairman of Britain's Joint Services Mission to Washington has been created by the British Government and Lord Tedder is to be its first holder. War-time Bomber and Fighter Commander Tedder relinquished the post of Chief of the Air Staff at the end of last year.

Announcing the appointment during the House of Commons debate today, War Minister Mr. Ernest Bevin said that Tedder had been selected to make clear "the high importance of the British Government attaches to our representation in Washington."

It is to take up his new post next month. Tedder has the necessary qualifications for the standing post of the North Atlantic military committee, which involves co-operation with his French and American colleagues. Mr. Shinwell said that the mission which he is to head has continued since the early years of the war in its liaison agency with the other powers on matters of joint interest.

Besides the three other British Joint Services Mission chiefs in the United States, Tedder is to be the only one to hold a permanent post. The other three are representatives of the Royal Air Force, the Royal Navy and the Royal Canadian Air Force. The mission is to coordinate military operations and to advise the American Government on matters of joint interest.
