THE COLD WAR GOES ON

Agreement through strength must be the guiding principle of the West

By ANTHONY DORSET

THE cold war goes on. It is not a new thing, it is a thing that has been going on since the end of the Second World War.

LIKE Mr. Churchill's appeal a month ago for "parity at the summit," these papers tellers are bound to attract a great deal of popular support.

Mr. Acheson, the American Secretary of State, and Mr. Molotov, the Soviet Foreign Minister, have just met in Geneva.

Previous experience with Russia has shown that the only way to get on with the Russians is to give them what they want.

It is believed that a request by the United States for the right to use the Panama Canal for military purposes will be refused.

THE UNION'S OBLIGATIONS TO SOUTH-WEST AFRICA

Haque decision will concern other States

SOUTH AFRICA, India and the United Nations are among those who have submitted written statements to the International Court of Justice in the Hague on South Africa's obligations towards South West Africa.

March 20 was the final date for the submission of written statements.

The court advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice in South Africa's favour of the former (published last week) will also be the subject of a written statement of the United States of America.

Strong protest

The report followed a lengthy discussion of the United Nations conference presided by the Rev. Michael Scott.

South Africa withdrew from the conference on the day that the General Assembly's session after its adjournment might agree to a committee's decision to hear Mr. Haque.

It is believed that a request by the United States for the right to use the Panama Canal for military purposes will be refused.

It is understood that the court has received and accepted a statement from the International League for the Rights of Man.

The written statement of the South African Government on the case was presented to the International Court of Justice on the 15th of March.

It is believed that a request by the United States for the right to use the Panama Canal for military purposes will be refused.

Belgium affected

The Belgian will affect certain parts of the region which has been held that by regarding the United Nations Charter it did not automatically accept an obligation to sign the Brussels Treaty.

It is understood that the court has received and accepted a statement from the International League for the Rights of Man.

SITES have been selected between the Inhambane and Manica districts of Portuguese East Africa by the Mozambique Oil Company for preliminary drilling for oil.

ALTHOUGH the report of oil discoveries in Mozambique has caused some difficulties in London, the Minister of Foreign Affairs has said that it would be foolish for the British Government to be too concerned.

THE British Government believes that the world price of rubber will continue to rise, and the Minister of Economic Development has said that the Government will do its utmost to help the rubber industry.

U.S. oil imports The Department of Commerce has announced that it will continue to restrict the quantity of oil imported from the United States.

In this article G. L. IN MAHER questions the still-prevalent practice of burning off the stubbles in the Kenya Highlands.

A burning question: The stubble problem in Kenya

NOT all the blue haze which obscures the distant views during the dry season in many districts of Kenya is due to grass fires. Substantial amounts of smoke are still contributed by burning stubbles on the lower lands and by scorching pyres of organic matter.

Organic matter disappears quickly enough in all countries during cultivation and the cereal stubbles which remain after harvest. However, a costly source of replacement of organic material is lost when the current systems of largely fire-crop farming are used.

Kenya needs a more advanced system of agriculture. The farmer cannot afford to burn his stubbles and waste his organic material. It is worth some thought as to how the stubble can be used. Some of the straw is burnt over the fields where they have been sown. The rest of the straw is used for bedding or for other purposes. It is possible to use the straw for other purposes. Why Ireland Favoured the Socialist Cause

The Irish people have a long and proud history of resistance to foreign domination. This resistance has been based on a deep sense of national identity and a desire for self-determination. The socialist cause has found a fertile ground in Ireland because of the people's long experience of social injustice and their desire for a more equitable society.

Wanted—A Royal Commission to investigate the Covenant

"STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT

CHIEF in the debate on the King's Speech last night in the House of Commons by the Member for Perth and K. Forster, one of the Gougeon-Duncan (Cons.)

With a Government of State, he said, there was a claim to start with that they have thought out the road the Socialist back-benchers by declaring it to be in danger of being thoroughly constitutional means and to be the more robust means which might follow if the thing was not done right.

If it is not done right, as they should be, I think that the result will be that the Government will find it necessary to do something which we should have done long ago.

They have spoken of the significance of the Scottish Covenant with its million signatures already deposited, but he said that the strong plea for what had been asked for and directed to the King's Commission, a Royal Commission to look into the facts and figures.

South of the Border the impression was that the Government had put in the Treasury more than she put in, and that the Government was believed that the received fact was that the contribution.

It was an on-going task that we are black on the face of it. "Why can't we have the facts and figures?" he asked.

Over the House of Lords, the Government is taking up by Lord Perth, who is a member of the Government and paid for by a Royal Commission to look into the facts and figures of the whole question.

Such an inquiry would do nothing but help any Government in power. It would point the way to the best method of the management of Scotland's affairs.

Meanwhile the new Secretary of State, Mr. Herbert Morrison, is bringing in a bill which would give the Government the right to take over the management of the Scottish Covenants.

He has no real promise nothing to do with the Covenants. He has no real promise nothing to do with the Covenants.

HAVE YOU?

how many TEETH HAVE YOU?

Doctors T. Tom... they're easy to lose. But how many teeth? If you have a full set, you're 36-46 in each jaw. And remember, your health is often affected by these teeth—indeed, everyone you speak to notices their appearance.
