Debate on Government's speech: 'Historic day' for Territory

TANGANYIKA PLAN ACCEPTED

Co-operation pledged by Opposition

Opposition

Opposition in Tanganyika Legislative Council is to accept the Constitutional Framework Bill which the Government has introduced to give effect to the Government's speech.

This was announced by Mr. D. B. Mwakima (Northern Province) yesterday, during the debate on the Government's speech.

He added: "Let us hope we can achieve a unanimous spirit of good will and co-operation to show the world that Tanganyika is a uniting country."

Confidence in Government

The mission that the speaker should convey to the Government the thanks of the Council for his speech was received by the Deputy Speaker, Chief M. M. Mwakima, who said that the people of Tanganyika had accepted the Government's speech with confidence.

He said: "It is a historic day, indeed, and we are proud to accept the Government's plan for the future of Tanganyika."

Since the beginning of the

IRON AGE

Since the beginning of the Iron Age, when the value of the metal was first discovered, the consumption of scrap has been of paramount importance. The primitive methods of mining by our forefathers encouraged the preservation of waste.

Today scrap, whether ferrous or non-ferrous, is of vital importance, commanding a good market price.

If you have any scrap for disposal please contact us for the best prices.

If you require new steel, cast or reconditioned machinery or construction plant and tools we can quote you very competitive prices.

Estimates of pig production

ESTIMATES of pig production in the U.S. for 1950 are expected to be the highest in the history of the industry. The increase is due to a combination of factors, including improved breeding techniques, better feed, and more efficient raising practices.

The industry has seen significant progress in the past few years, and these estimates reflect that progress. It is expected that total pig production will reach a new peak in 1950.

This increase in production is good for the industry and for the consumers. It means that there will be a greater supply of meat and other pig products, which will help to stabilize prices and ensure that there is enough food for everyone.

Mr. Stonehouse too busy to visit the Kinanogop

THE following is a copy of the letter sent to Mr. J. Stonehouse, the M.P. for Westmorland, Yorkshire, Kenya.

You will recall that on [Date] you were appointed to the office of Member of Parliament for Westmorland, Yorkshire, Kenya. You are also aware that you are also a member of the Executive Council of Kenya.

It is a pleasure to welcome you to your new office and to wish you every success in your work. We hope that you will find the work of the Executive Council and the Parliament to be both interesting and challenging.

We are sure that your presence in the Executive Council and the Parliament will be a great asset to Kenya. We look forward to working with you in the future.

—The Kinanogop people are the descendants of the ancient British who came to the island in the 5th century. They have a rich and unique culture and a long history of resistance to foreign rule.

The Kinanogop people have suffered a great deal of hardship and discrimination at the hands of the British. They have been forced to live in a state of poverty and to work the land for the benefit of the British. They have also been denied their basic rights and freedoms.

It is time that the British government recognized the wrongs that it has done to the Kinanogop people. It is time that it took steps to redress their grievances and to give them the same rights and freedoms that are enjoyed by the other peoples of Kenya.

We urge the British government to take these steps immediately. We believe that this is the only way to achieve lasting peace and stability in Kenya.

WEEK-END BARD MET. MEN FLY SOCKETS INTO CLOUDS AND THE RAINS CAME

By John Dumas

Met. experts who carried out a simulated simulation of rainfall-laden clouds, have issued a warning that clouds that blow in can be induced to rain sooner and more heavily than they would if clouds which would not produce rain naturally can be made to do so with artificial means.

The Director of the East African Meteorological Department, Mr. C. M. Taylor, said that the experiment was conducted at 2300 feet at a time when there was a strong wind and very low clouds were seen that were supposed to have blown in from the town by rain a distance of 70 miles. Clouds of this nature are known as Tule Winds. Department meteorologists were to experiment with the effect of rain.

New job for Wally the Toad

By MARI FRISSELL

CHIRPY chirped loudly as he leaped from the water. He was a toad, but he was a happy toad. He had found a new job for himself. He was going to be a messenger. He would carry messages to the other toads in the pond. He would be a very important toad.

Swampy Belle

She had a little sister named Belle. Belle was a very beautiful toad. She had a lot of friends. She was very popular. She was the queen of the pond.

Under buttecap

"What?" said Chirpy. "Under buttecap?" "Yes," said Belle. "That's where the other toads go to hide. It's a very secret place. No one knows about it."

Under buttecap

"I'll go with you," said Chirpy. "I want to see this secret place. I want to know what it's like. I want to see the other toads. I want to be like them."

It has a fascinating flavor—called it!

With a zest of color, too—try it!

Yes, it's a good drink. I certainly will!

More than 100 years ago, the famous Italian chemist, Felice Fontana, discovered the secret of the aromatic essence of Cinzano. It was a long and arduous task, but he succeeded in isolating a substance which, when mixed with water, creates a beverage of unique and delicious flavor. This is the secret of Cinzano's success.

DO YOU KNOW YOUR VERMOUTH?

The most famous Vermouth wine is undoubtedly the one that has been made in Cinzano since 1772. It is a drink of unique and delicious flavor, and it is the only one of its kind in the world.

Cognition overdue for cheeses England

THE GENERAL OPINION of the public in this country is that the time has come when the English should begin to appreciate the value of the cheeses of France and Italy. The fact that the English are still largely ignorant of the existence of these cheeses is a matter of regret. The cheeses of France and Italy are not only delicious but also very nutritious. They are also very easy to digest and are therefore suitable for all ages. The English should begin to appreciate the value of these cheeses and to include them in their diet.

Manks' recipe

Many countries have their own special recipes for making cheese. In the case of the Manks, the recipe is very simple. It involves the use of a special type of milk which is rich in cream. This milk is then allowed to curdle and is then pressed into a wheel. The wheel is then aged for a period of time before it is ready to eat. The result is a cheese which is both delicious and nutritious.

LONDON CALLING... WISDOM FROM SHAKESPEARE TO BACON

By DAVID HUGH JONES

WISDOM, hitherto well-kept in the folds of the English holiday period, is revealed on the steps of Hyde Park. This news comes from the Publicity Committee of the British Trade Association of the country's big shops. "The parade of the 16th century means and the 16th century," it says, "will feature a display of costumes through the streets of the most modern districts from London to London."

On the 16th of London: Today's parade is being organized by the Publicity Committee of the British Trade Association of the country's big shops. "The parade of the 16th century means and the 16th century," it says, "will feature a display of costumes through the streets of the most modern districts from London to London."

The Royal Society of Arts... Winding river rich in English history

Winding river rich in English history

REVERBERATIONS of the great river... winding river rich in English history... The river winds through the heart of the country, its banks lined with ancient castles and stately homes. The water reflects the sky and the surrounding landscape, creating a scene of timeless beauty. The river has been a vital part of England's history, serving as a major waterway for trade and transport. Its banks are dotted with villages and towns, each with its own unique character and heritage. The river's winding course has shaped the landscape and the lives of the people who live along its banks. It is a true gem of the English countryside, a place where history and nature are in perfect harmony.

Mountain stream

It flows in the heart of the mountains... Mountain stream... The stream flows through a lush, green valley, its water clear and sparkling. The surrounding mountains are covered in dense forests, and the air is fresh and invigorating. The stream is a source of life and vitality, providing water for the plants and animals that call it home. It is a beautiful sight, a true gem of the mountain landscape. The stream's gentle flow is a constant reminder of the power of nature and the beauty of the natural world. It is a place where time seems to stand still, a place where the worries of the world are forgotten. The mountain stream is a true treasure, a place where the heart can find peace and solace.

Faithful city

Below this the river banks... Faithful city... The city is built on a hillside, its buildings made of stone and brick. The river flows through the heart of the city, its banks lined with trees and flowers. The city is a place of history and tradition, a place where the past is still alive. The river is a vital part of the city's life, providing water for the people and the animals that live there. The city is a true gem of the English countryside, a place where history and nature are in perfect harmony. The river is a true treasure, a place where the heart can find peace and solace.

Treasuries woo the tourists

EUROPEAN countries... Treasuries woo the tourists... The European countries are competing for the attention of tourists from all over the world. They are offering a variety of attractions, from ancient ruins to modern cities. The tourists are flocking to these countries, drawn by the beauty of the landscape and the richness of the culture. The European countries are working hard to make sure that their tourists have a memorable experience. They are offering a variety of services, from guided tours to comfortable accommodations. The tourists are enjoying the beauty of the European countries and the richness of the culture. They are returning home with memories and treasures that will last a lifetime.

DEFICIT COVERED

The deficit covered... DEFICIT COVERED... The deficit has been covered by the government. The government has taken various measures to reduce the deficit, including cutting spending and increasing revenue. The deficit has been a major concern for the government, but it has now been successfully covered. The government is pleased with the results and is confident that it will continue to take measures to reduce the deficit in the future. PLAYER WHO LED THE SOCCER REVOLUTION

By ERIC NICHOLLS

THE referee awarded a penalty. But as the inside-half stood waiting to take the kick the crowd roared with excitement. It was not the ordinary penalty. It was the first of the world ever to be taken on the penalty spot. This was the goal of the 1882 Olympic Games, and the first ever to be taken on the penalty spot. The kick was a weak one. The save was easy and the man who had scored his kick fell as though the whole world was staring at him. The save was perfect and the keeper's chest rose as the ball came down to the ground. He was ready to kick it back into play, but the referee's whistle cut him short. The man who had scored his kick fell as though the whole world was staring at him. FEATURING SPORT

With this thought in mind, the English player had been told to play the ball to the goal. He did this with the simplicity of a child, and the result was a goal. Chased tram-cars to increase his speed

There was a great deal of excitement in the streets of London when the tram-cars were chased by a group of young men. The chase was a great success, and the young men were praised for their courage and speed. The tram-cars were chased by a group of young men. An even better LAND-ROVER

Go anywhere... does anything... more comfort... and takes a one-ton payload!

The new Long Land-Rover, powered by a 21-horse engine, is bigger, faster, more powerful. And there's a new Regular Land-Rover too. Both have smoother, sturdier line bodies, deeper seating, improved suspension. Both are available with petrol or diesel engines and in a choice of body styles. Both are built by engineers with 100 years' experience of wheel drive, open-roofed vehicles.

Now a side front door: These are a great feature of Land-Rovers, making easy access to your car. They are a great feature of Land-Rovers, making easy access to your car. They are a great feature of Land-Rovers, making easy access to your car.

Foreign Ministers' meeting proposed for May 11 at Geneva

SUMMIT PLAN PUT TO MOSCOW

West insists on progress by stages

The United States, Britain and France have proposed to the Soviet Union that an East-West summit conference should start in Geneva on May 11, to prepare the way for talks this summer.

The proposals were contained in three Notes, the first of which is the most important, which is to be sent to the Russian Foreign Ministry in Moscow yesterday by the respective Ambassadors. The second Note is in reply to a Soviet Note of March 2, and the third is a proposal for a summit conference of Foreign Ministers.

The proposals were made by the West when it was agreed on by the British and French Ministers in their talks last week. The British Note suggested that the summit conference should discuss relations between the two super-powers, and that the Foreign Ministers conference should be held in Geneva in May 11, to prepare the way for talks this summer.

A FARMER ON PIG PRODUCTION

M. J. CHAMBERLAIN's letter regarding the pig industry in the United States is one of the best I have read in many years. It is a well-written, logical, and practical analysis of the current situation and offers many valuable suggestions for improvement.

During the past few years, the pig industry has been in a state of transition. The demand for pork has increased, but the supply has not kept pace. This is due to a number of factors, including a decline in the number of pig farms, a shift in the composition of the pig herd, and a general increase in the cost of production.

One of the most serious problems facing the pig farmer today is the shortage of piglets. This is caused by a number of factors, including a decline in the number of sows, a shift in the composition of the pig herd, and a general increase in the cost of production.

There is no doubt that the pig industry is in a state of transition. The demand for pork has increased, but the supply has not kept pace. This is due to a number of factors, including a decline in the number of pig farms, a shift in the composition of the pig herd, and a general increase in the cost of production.

Partnership

With some exceptions, a partnership is a legal relationship between two or more persons who have agreed to contribute money, property, or services to a common enterprise. The partnership is a legal entity, and each partner is liable for the debts of the partnership.

There are several advantages to a partnership. First, it allows two or more persons to pool their resources and expertise. Second, it allows each partner to contribute to the partnership in a way that suits their own abilities and interests. Third, it allows each partner to share in the profits of the partnership.

However, there are also several disadvantages to a partnership. First, each partner is liable for the debts of the partnership. Second, the partnership is subject to the whims of its partners. Third, the partnership is subject to the whims of its partners.

Ancient Egypt: Little contemporary evidence

In your issue of May 7, you were able to serve up with a wealth of that lovely perennial—"It's a cutie in the Pharaohs."

There is no doubt that the ancient Egyptians were a highly advanced civilization. They were able to build great pyramids and other monumental structures. They were also able to develop a complex system of writing and a sophisticated system of government.

However, there is little contemporary evidence of the ancient Egyptians. This is because the ancient Egyptians did not have a written history. They did not have a written record of their own lives and times. They did not have a written record of their own lives and times.

Society of Kenya pleads for moderate front STATEMENT ON POLICY

KENYA needs the services of a moderate front within its Legislative Council.

Behind that front, representatives of all groups should try to find their own political organizations on parallel lines.

This is the conclusion reached by the members of the Society of Kenya after reviewing the situation in the country.

A statement issued by the society yesterday said that the front should be only a front through the press, a society for all these groups to give the government of responsibility and to provide a check on the government. It is not a front where all the groups are to be merged, but where they are to be united, as they are now, in a common front.

Conditions of survival

"At all times, the society will not place the onus of responsibility for Kenya on Government," it said. "Our only concern is that the Government should be a moderate one."

The society said that the Government should be a moderate one, not a radical one. It should be a moderate one, not a radical one. It should be a moderate one, not a radical one.

The society said that the Government should be a moderate one, not a radical one. It should be a moderate one, not a radical one. It should be a moderate one, not a radical one.

Reaction to mood

Mr. M. J. NIAZI, a prominent member of the society, said that the society's statement was a moderate one, not a radical one. It should be a moderate one, not a radical one. It should be a moderate one, not a radical one.

CINEMA-THE MAIN CAUSE OF FAILURE

Mr. M. J. NIAZI, a prominent member of the society, said that the cinema is the main cause of failure. It is a major factor in the decline of the country's economy and education. The cinema industry is a major source of revenue for the government, but it is also a major source of corruption and inefficiency.

Song partners tour abroad

IF the proportion of married couples among the choir visiting Malindi next month is any indication, it is a tradition that graduates of the Westminster Choir College marry each other and make a joint career in music.

They are following the example of the founders of the college, Dr. and Mrs. John Finley Williamson.

There are 100 married couples among the 24 Westminster Singers who will take part in a performance in the Gloucester Hall of the Royal Technical College on April 11.

Mr. J. B. Omer, a member of the Westminster Choir since 1917 and now one of the senior members of the Westminster Choir, married Mrs. Omer in 1921. They have three children and are now living in Malindi.

THEY'RE ON THEIR OWN THIS YEAR

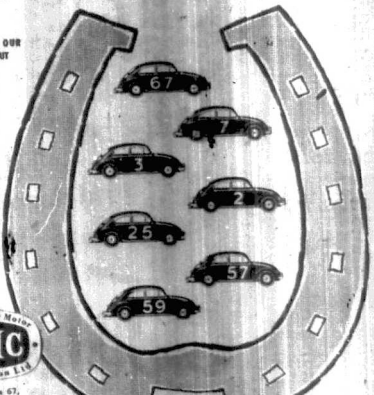

Many Volkswagens in 5 years of previous successes have been sponsored and given every possible assistance in Coronation efforts by the Cooper Motor Corporation Ltd. organisation. THIS YEAR, all Volkswagens are entirely unsupported by our company! We have every faith in every one of the seven completing the course successfully...

Seven lone Volkswagens in the 1959 Coronation Safari

WITHOUT AID FROM ANY OF OUR WORKSHOPS THROUGHOUT THE COURSE. ANY SERVICE POINTS. OUR SUPPLYING ANY OF THE CARS OR SPARE PARTS FREE OR AT A REDUCED PRICE. ANY FINANCIAL OR PHYSICAL ASSISTANCE. So, GOOD LUCK to Volkswagens number Numbers 2, 3, 7, 25, 57, 59, 67!

Volkswagens Numbers 67, 7 and 25 have the only UNSPONSORED aid and prizes entry lists in the Safari.

Publicity point

It had almost to be said that the Cooper Motor Corporation Ltd. organisation was not a publicity point. It was a publicity point. It was a publicity point. It was a publicity point.

Personal judgment

It is not that this was the Cooper Motor Corporation Ltd. organisation. It was a publicity point. It was a publicity point. It was a publicity point.

CAR CLINIC

WATER PUMP
 The water pump is one of the most important parts of the car. It is responsible for circulating the coolant through the engine and radiator. If it fails, the engine will overheat and be damaged. Symptoms of a bad water pump include coolant leaks, a whining noise, and a rising temperature gauge.

VALVE ADJUSTING
 The valves in an engine control the flow of air and fuel into the cylinders and the escape of exhaust gases. They must be properly adjusted to ensure efficient combustion. Signs of bad valve adjustment include a rough idle, loss of power, and increased fuel consumption.

WHEEL ALIGNMENT
 Proper wheel alignment is essential for safe driving and tire longevity. It ensures that the tires make contact with the road surface evenly. Misalignment can cause uneven tire wear, a pull to one side, and a steering wheel that is off-center.

EASTER TOMS IN EQUITY

The Easter Tom is a small, round, red egg, often found in the Easter Bunny's nest. It is a symbol of new life and rebirth. In the world of equity, the Easter Tom is a metaphor for a small investment that can grow into a large fortune. Just as the Easter Tom is a small seed that can become a large tree, a small investment can become a large asset over time.

Skill required
 The skill required to invest in equity is the ability to identify promising opportunities and to manage risk. This involves research, analysis, and a long-term perspective. It is not a get-rich-quick scheme, but a disciplined approach to building wealth over time.

What is required
 To succeed in equity investing, one needs a solid understanding of the market and the companies being invested in. This includes staying up-to-date on news, financial reports, and market trends. It also requires a strong character and the ability to withstand market fluctuations.

Do You Know?
 The Easter Tom is a symbol of new life and rebirth. In the world of equity, it represents a small investment that can grow into a large fortune. Just as the Easter Tom is a small seed that can become a large tree, a small investment can become a large asset over time.

Unknown Haydn scores found

by HENDERSON GALL

HUNGARIAN musicologists, delving through the musical archives of the Secretary General of the National Library in Budapest, have found a number of operatic arias and scenes belonging to the Hungarian composer, Haydn, which have been buried since his death in 1809.

They have been written by an American, Mr. H. C. Robbins Landon, who tells from New York. He said that he had discovered the scores while he was in Budapest, where he was working for the National Library. He had been looking for the scores of Haydn, which he had found in the archives of the National Library. MONTMARTRE ARTISTS MAY GO DOWN THE HILL

There is a growing concern among artists in Montmartre, Paris, that their neighborhood is being gentrified and that their way of life is being lost. Many artists are leaving the area, and the character of the neighborhood is changing. This has led to a movement to preserve the area's artistic heritage and to support local artists.

IMPOSSIBLE FOR BOOKMAKER Ready for boat race

TO WIN THIS EASTER EVENT

By W. A. CLARKE
BELIEVE it or not — the Easter Monday race was a 30 year anniversary of which it was inevitable for bookmakers to take notice. Not a single bookie can get details of the first three terms in existence of the event supported by the Press. The first bookie this anniversary is that of the most successful boat in the history of the event.

In those days, Easter Monday always was the greatest number of meetings of the season, 30 or more, large and small, being held up and down the country. This fact first came to the notice of a small group of friends who met together in a London chop-house in 1906.

A Diesel specialist is a rarity
Specialists anyway are rarities. Often when they wouldn't be specialists, it is the general and correct contention that the fuel injection equipment of the diesel engine is more complex to maintain than is the petrol system of the normal engine.
By virtue of the fact that our diesel specialists have served their apprenticeship and they have intricate tool machinery available in our workshops, they are able to put their fingers on faults or improvements to the running of your diesel engine. You can save money by taking advantage of our CGAN service, because it's quicker to diagnose and correct a fault.

ROME PREPARATIONS FOR THE XVII OLYMPIAD

Excellent progress

I HAD the good fortune to look to be a member of a small party of English athletes representing Italy at the Olympic Games, who were given a preview of the preparations for the XVII Olympiad, in the city of Rome. We were met by the Italian Olympic Committee, and were taken to the stadium, where we were shown the progress of the work. It was found that the stadium was well advanced, and that the work was being done in a most satisfactory manner. The Italian Olympic Committee is to be congratulated on the excellent progress it has made in the preparations for the XVII Olympiad.

The secret
SECRET of Italy's splendid progress in a major sport, according to the report of Sir E. L. D. Jones, the British Olympic Committee representative in Rome, is that the Italian Olympic Committee is to be congratulated on the excellent progress it has made in the preparations for the XVII Olympiad.

COMMENTARY
by Charles Disney

AS it will be recalled, the Olympic Games are held every four years, and the XVII Olympiad is to be held in Rome, Italy, in 1934. Decision made with regret

MR. BHUNDEL RESIGNS AS LEADER OF NEW GROUP IN COUNCIL

MR. MICHAEL BHUNDEL yesterday tendered his resignation as Kenya Minister for Agriculture to the Governor, Sir Evelyn Baring, and asked him to be their leader on the Unofficial side of Legislative Council.

Mr. Bhunzel announced his resignation when the Council resumed in the afternoon. He added that the Governor had requested him to continue in office for a few weeks to complete hand-over arrangements. He would gladly do this.

The policy in which the group would stand and which would be presented both to the House and to the public outside would be that announced in the statement already issued by the group.

No disagreement with policy

"I have felt in my duty to fall in with the wishes of the group of Elected Members and have done so in England. The Governor to accept my resignation from the Government," Mr. Bhunzel said. "My action implies no disagreement with the policy of the Secretary of State or any other matter as regards either constitutional or other matters."

Mr. Bhunzel went on to say that he felt Mr. Baring would wish to be the first to hear of his decision. He had made it with deep regret, not only because he had been so much for the last few years of Kenya had been accomplished by his colleagues, but also because the work planned in agriculture at a most difficult time for the Government of the country would not now be carried out by himself.

He would have the Minister of Agriculture and Development from both sides of the House, and he would be glad to undertake the new work.

TRIBUTE TO WORK

As Leader of the House he did not expect to have had his resignation accepted so soon. He had already said that there had been no disagreement between himself and his colleagues.

"I have always found Mr. Baring a very helpful colleague," he said in the local interests of Kenya. "I shall miss his advice and his help as much as I shall miss his presence in the House."

Mr. Bhunzel said that he was sure that the Government would be glad to have him back in the House as a member of the Opposition.

PROMISE OF SUPPORT

Mr. Alfred Dene (Western Districts Area) said that although he was not one of the signatories to the policy statement, he would not be reduced if it was not carried out. He said he would be glad to do so as a member of the Opposition.

Mr. Alfred Vincent (Corporate Members) for Commerce and Industries, and Mr. J. H. G. (Corporate Members) for Agriculture, also said they would support the policy statement.

Mr. Vincent said that he was glad to see the work in which he was engaged was not being abandoned, and that he would be glad to do so as a member of the Opposition.

GREATEST SACRIFICE

Mr. H. H. (Corporate Members) said that he was glad to see the work in which he was engaged was not being abandoned, and that he would be glad to do so as a member of the Opposition.

GOVERNMENT IGNORES THE MAN

A P.L.S.A. (Public Law Society of Africa) has urged the Government to consider the needs of the man in the street. The society, which is a non-profit-making organization, has issued a report on the subject of the 'man in the street' and has urged the Government to take steps to improve the living conditions of the people.

The report, which is the result of a survey conducted in various parts of the country, has found that the living conditions of the people are generally poor. It has urged the Government to take steps to improve the living conditions of the people, such as the provision of housing, water, and electricity.

The society has also urged the Government to take steps to improve the education of the people. It has urged the Government to provide more schools and to improve the quality of the education provided.

SUBSIDY ABOLITION A 'MEAN' MEASURE

CRITICISM of the Government's proposal to abolish the subsidy on the importation of certain goods has been expressed by several Members of Parliament. The proposal, which is part of the Government's budget, has been described as a 'mean' measure.

The proposal is to abolish the subsidy on the importation of certain goods, such as sugar and wheat. This will result in an increase in the price of these goods, which will be passed on to the consumer.

The critics of the proposal have argued that it is a 'mean' measure because it will increase the cost of living for the people. They have also argued that it will be particularly difficult for the poor to afford the increased prices.

FUNDS NEEDED FOR LONDON VISIT

THE ALFONSO BASTIENI MEMORIAL ORGANIZATION has issued a public appeal for funds to enable it to send a delegation to London. The organization, which is a non-profit-making organization, has been set up to commemorate the late Alfonso Bastieni.

The organization has issued a public appeal for funds to enable it to send a delegation to London. The delegation will consist of several members of the organization and will be led by the organization's president.

The organization has also issued a public appeal for funds to enable it to cover the expenses of the delegation. It has urged the public to contribute towards the fund.

ADVANCED MOTORISTS TAKE TO THE ROAD IN KENYA

An Institute of Advanced Motorists was formed in Kenya on Wednesday. In this article COLIN GIBSON describes the aims and objects of the organization and the danger points for its members. His fully illustrated feature also reports on a typical advanced motorist's test — one which the driver failed.

"Two hours of sheer concentration and grim determination" is how a Nairobi motorist described the driving test of the Kenya Institute of Advanced Motorists after he had taken it — and failed.

It can be taken by any person holding a driving licence for a 24 or 26-wheeler. But although an applicant may have a license and the money ready, it is no guarantee that he will pass it far from the fact.

For, as one of the examiners puts it, "The Institute's test is not meant to reveal whether a driver knows the road laws or not, but if he can apply them intelligently and efficiently."

The aims and rules of the Kenya Institute was formed in 1955 as a non-political club of enthusiasts of Advanced Motorists which was formed in 1955 as a non-political club of enthusiasts of road traffic.

It is based on that introduced by a former Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police Force, Lord Tranchard, before he opened the Metropolitan Police Driving School in 1925 in an attempt to reduce the number of accidents.

On a road and makes any other test. The test is supervised by a Special Instructor in the Institute's motor cars. The test is divided into three parts: a 30-minute road test, a 30-minute test of road control and a 30-minute test of road control.

After driving on the road and observing the car from the rear of the test, the Special Instructor will then examine the driver on his ability to handle the car in the most efficient manner possible. This requires a high standard of safety, practical care and careful observation to those who are taking the test. The test is divided into three parts: a 30-minute road test, a 30-minute test of road control and a 30-minute test of road control.

CORONATION SAFARI

Seventh rally — toughest, fastest and best

12 who drove to victory

By CHARLES DISNEY

EAST AFRICA'S seventh Coronation Safari is over and, in the pages which follow, the triumphs and disasters befalling the cars and their crews are dealt with in detail.

Enjoying a judicious mixture of wet and dry weather, the Safari—sponsored by the East African Standard—has been the toughest, fastest and the best of the series.

The spirit of sportsmanship that has been exemplified and the solution of every rally pattern has been achieved to obtain a familiar pattern since emerged: Germany first, Britain, Mercedes-Benz opposed to Ford, the most costly success; British made to complete 100 when the Safari.

The year, too, the British entered in the event, one of the most successful in the history of the Safari.

The year, too, the British entered in the event, one of the most successful in the history of the Safari.

GOOD SPIRIT

In the meantime, any number of the spirit that falls to give tribute to the "South African boys" would be daily.

From Nairobi headquarters to the most remote part in the rugged landscape of rain and mud, the cars and their crews are passing up a desolate road to reach the goal.

It is not only the fact that the cars are passing up a desolate road to reach the goal, but also the fact that the cars are passing up a desolate road to reach the goal.

It is not only the fact that the cars are passing up a desolate road to reach the goal, but also the fact that the cars are passing up a desolate road to reach the goal.

- Coronation Safari
5 years' winners

For the last five consecutive years, the Round-Australia Trial has been won by Volkswagens. Although they cover 10,000 miles, they are not the longest of the last six years, the East African Coronation Safari has been won by Volkswagens — a three thousand mile, three-day event.

The former is the largest and toughest annual event in the study of the Southern Hemisphere and the latter is a grueling run.

We in East Africa are apt to believe that roads in other continents could not possibly be as bad or worse than those of our own country; in fact, that there are physically no bad or reliability trial conditions than our own Coronation Safari.

Anyone who has followed the history of the Volkswagen Beetle knows how securely it has taken the world's motorizing, and it is in many ways the most secure. They, they have accompanied the Beetle on the most rugged of the world's roads in the East Africa, and more.

No one could ask for better proof of the inherent suitability of the Volkswagen to touring on any type of road. Add its low price (1700 in Australia), its economy of running (100 miles), including depreciation, registration, and maintenance, for one year, petrol, oil, and tire costs, the low cost of spare parts, the network of service stations in East Africa, and factory-trained mechanics, and there is no motor-car buy today in the Volkswagen.

500 HARD-WORKING VOLUNTEERS MADE THIS MAP POSSIBLE

NEARLY 500 volunteers made this year's Coronation Safari possible. About 150 worked in the Nairobi headquarters control and the rest were scattered around the 3,000-mile route.

Seven months of organizing went into the coordination of these efforts, and at the end drove to a close one of the major efforts, teaching a class of relief and aid. Everything was in place.

Considerable time before the rally was due to start, control officers radio operators and mechanics were setting up their equipment at the various points along the route.

By Thursday evening the radio operators were reporting the Nairobi and giving reports before the start of the safari and made up their charts from radio reports which gave them the time to and out of each country, but only received these reports in the afternoon.

At about 10 o'clock in the afternoon, the radio operators from the various points, sent in their reports to the headquarters—the information room.

During the day, the radio operators had the information room turned out nearly 10,000 information reports.

The route of all the information was sent to the headquarters and the radio operators. Thousands of amateur radio operators, worked in shifts to keep the information flowing into the headquarters. They were in touch with other stations on the route, members of the Kenya Regiment and the police and prison network.

Dozens of Boy Scouts worked along the headquarters, helping to set up the radio equipment. In addition, the Boy Scouts, which had a first aid room in the night, dealt with a number of cases, including two drivers.

Now that the 1959 Safari is over, the Royal East African Automobile Association, which receives the credit, is looking forward to next year in a few days' time it will call the first preparation for the 1960 Coronation Safari.

This map shows the 3,000-mile route followed in this year's Safari. The route, which was decided several months before the event by a working party led by Mr. T. E. Calverley, comprised three new sections, all of which involved an expedition—Lusitaniya to Niangara on the south, the trip to Malindi on the coast, and the diversion to Kigundi on the road from Nairobi to Embu.

There were 54 controls compared with 36 last year and all of them were time controls.

COUNCIL STARTS SAFETY BELT DRIVE

By HARRY HAYWOOD

The Council of Nairobi Drivers and Motorists has started a drive to encourage motorists to wear their seat belts. The drive will be carried out by the Council's Safety Belt Drive Committee, which was set up last month.

The Council's Secretary, Mr. J. H. Wright, said that the Council had received many reports of accidents involving motorists who were not wearing their seat belts. He said that the Council was determined to do something to reduce the number of such accidents.

The Council's Safety Belt Drive Committee will be carrying out a series of campaigns to encourage motorists to wear their seat belts. These campaigns will include the distribution of leaflets, the display of posters, and the holding of lectures.

STARTLING REPORT

Mr. J. H. Wright, Secretary of the Council of Nairobi Drivers and Motorists, has issued a startling report on the state of road traffic in Nairobi. He said that the number of accidents involving motorists who were not wearing their seat belts had increased sharply in recent months.

Mr. Wright said that the Council had received many reports of accidents involving motorists who were not wearing their seat belts. He said that the Council was determined to do something to reduce the number of such accidents.

Volunteers who helped in the information campaign were held the subject and Press advised early on the subject's progress.

TRIALS THE 'HAM' MUST FACE

LAST year it was said that the public opinion was "battered like a military campaign".

The trials had not had the usual publicity which would have been expected. It might have been a surprise to some that the trials were held in a remote area of the country.

The entry list was not particularly large. It was expected to be small. It was not. It was a surprise to some that the trials were held in a remote area of the country.

They really entered a spirit when they saw the trials.

Rallies assist firms to improve current cars

BEFORE the Safari started on Friday weekend the Ford competition manager, Mr. J. G. Gardner, was asked exactly why it is that manufacturers take such an interest in rallies. This was his reply: "Firstly, because the commercial aspect—a motor car is an important industrial asset—provides advertising and, if the valuable publicity is exploited properly, it can mean a lot more sales. Secondly, there is the other side of the picture: we expect to have a great deal more to benefit customer. It is not to be denied that the rally is a valuable source of information for our engineering department and quality control. It is also a good way of testing the car under conditions which are not possible in the laboratory. The motor car is a complex piece of machinery and it is not possible to test it in the laboratory. It is only by driving it that we can be sure of its reliability. It is only by driving it that we can be sure of its reliability. It is only by driving it that we can be sure of its reliability.

Mr. E. W. Wheeler, in charge of the safari, is accompanied by Mr. G. Dunham, who arranged "outside" transport.

Congratulations to all the Safari drivers who completed the grueling course of this, the Seventh Coronation Safari. The Austin Gipsy did not compete in this event, but at a recent test covered the equivalent of 20,000 miles over the roughest terrain (not roads) imaginable, proved the "Gipsy" to be 100% reliable over some of the worst country East Africa can offer. A mechanical checker following this amazing test revealed that everything from top to bottom was still in excellent condition and he only had to check the engine. One of East Africa's largest fleet owners recently returned to the Gipsy and maintained costs for an Austin Gipsy covering extensive thousands of hard daily miles throughout East Africa and the total maintenance expenditure for this mileage amounted to the astonishingly low figure of only Shs. 110. Proof enough that the Gipsy, coupled with its proved reliability and toughness, makes it the ideal vehicle for East Africa.

13 DRIVERS CAME FROM OVERSEAS

PROOF of the international popularity was held in the 13th Annual Safari, was the great turnout of drivers in this year's event.

There had some been as many visiting drivers as big part before, but so many officials here from foreign countries for the drivers. 12 were from the British Commonwealth, including the Republic of South Africa, which was represented by U.S. members.

It was his first Continental Safari.

RONALD HARRISON aged 30, from London, England, was the first driver to start the Safari. He had driven a Mercedes-Benz for 10 years and had won the Africa Rally several times.

PADRY NORTON, now 22, from London, was the first driver to start the Safari. He had driven a Mercedes-Benz for 10 years and had won the Africa Rally several times.

PETER JOFF was the first driver to start the Safari. He had driven a Mercedes-Benz for 10 years and had won the Africa Rally several times.

Enchanting memories of a childhood in early Kenya

By A. HUMPHRIES

The first chapter of Joseph Humphrey's new book, "Childhood in Early Kenya," is a nostalgic and evocative account of his early years in the East African colony. The author, who has since become a prominent figure in the literary world, looks back on his childhood with a sense of wonder and appreciation. He describes the unique blend of African and European cultures that shaped his early experiences, from the vast, open landscapes to the vibrant traditions of the local people. The book is a beautiful tribute to a formative period in his life, capturing the essence of a childhood spent in a land of great beauty and opportunity.

Mount Kenia, the highest mountain in Kenya, seen from the village of Ngara, the author's home in the mountains in a sketch. This study is taken from "Childhood in Early Kenya" by A. Humphrey. The book is published by the publisher and is available in paperback and hardcover editions.

JOYS AND TRIBULATION IN UNDISTURBED SEAS

A FEW weeks ago I have appeared in these columns with an attractive photograph of my wife and myself. The majority of my readers would have been surprised to see me in a position of such joy and contentment. It is a pleasure to recall that my wife and I have spent a considerable amount of time in the East African region, where we have experienced both the joys and tribulations of life in a remote and beautiful area. Our adventures have been filled with discovery and challenge, and we have formed deep connections with the people and the land. The book "Childhood in Early Kenya" is a testament to the power of nature and the human spirit in such environments.

UNDER THE EAST

The East African region is a vast and diverse area, encompassing a wide range of cultures, languages, and landscapes. The book "Childhood in Early Kenya" provides a detailed and personal account of life in this region during its early years. The author's observations and experiences offer a unique perspective on the social and political conditions of the time. The book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history and development of East Africa.

REVIEW

The book "Childhood in Early Kenya" is a well-written and engaging work that offers a compelling narrative of the author's early years. The author's use of vivid language and detailed descriptions brings the reader into the heart of the experience. The book is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand the complexities of life in a developing region. The author's insights and reflections are both thought-provoking and inspiring.

New easy-to-read map of East Africa

The new map of East Africa is a comprehensive and easy-to-use guide to the region. It provides a clear and detailed overview of the geographical features, major cities, and transportation routes of the area. The map is designed to be accessible to a wide range of users, from students and researchers to travelers and business professionals. The map is a valuable tool for anyone who needs to understand the layout and characteristics of East Africa.

In 1923 the Blue Star liner left the harbor. It was the last of its kind. The ship was a marvel of engineering and speed, and it had a long and successful career. The ship's sinking was a tragedy, and it led to the development of modern shipbuilding techniques. The ship's story is a testament to the power of human ingenuity and the challenges of maritime travel.

SKITTLING OUT OF TROUBLE ABROAD

By MICHAEL ROE

IT IS NEWS THAT Lord T. B. Clark's millions, by converting several London companies into American ones, are getting a severe lesson in skittling. Clark's affairs resemble those of an accident that I had hoped to report. It was in 1917 and I had been in London for some time. LECTION PLEAS FOR MEMBERS' STATEMENT

Four oppose policy plan

A STATEMENT was made yesterday by four elected members of the policy discussion group who were present at a meeting held at the Government Secretariat on Wednesday.

The speakers were Mr. J. H. Maxwell (Tampin), Mr. K. S. Braganza (Kuala Lumpur), Mr. A. G. J. Rajah (Kuala Lumpur) and Mr. S. J. Perera (Kuala Lumpur).

It is an indication of the policy statement to be made by the Government in the coming year, and to the effect that the Government is committed to the policy of a free market economy.

Mr. Maxwell said that he was in favour of the policy of a free market economy, but he was not in favour of the policy of a free market economy in the case of the rubber industry.

Mr. Braganza said that he was in favour of the policy of a free market economy, but he was not in favour of the policy of a free market economy in the case of the rubber industry.
