Most crucial festival picture of the season when Cardiff City's middle-left, Emma, brings through the air in a perfectly balanced position to be served his team's first goal against Tottenham. Emma scored again during the match, which ended Cardiff as their are both Division I players, but he second goal was scored in more ordinary fashion.

TURE STATISTICS FOR SEASON JUST PAST

A good season for the football club and horses seems to be likely for 1966.

Mr. Michael Brer and Mr. P. D. Lockett both had the best records under rules, each winning the only race in which he rode.

Mr. D. Cullen did well, winning two and taking three places in six rides.

Principal statistics for the season (last-competes are given below). They have been compiled with care but their complete accuracy cannot be guaranteed.

M.C.C. FACE BIG TASK IN GYANA Batsmen watch suspect action of Stayers

Opposition from Italy at Le Mans

BRITISH cars will meet strong opposition from the Italian Ferraris in the 12-hour endurance race to be held in Central France on June 23 and 24. Among the 33 cars in the field are several entries, 11 of which include five Ferraris.

Though Auto Martin, who took the first two places in the 1954 event, does not enter, works team there will be represented by three Jaguar's and three Lotus's who will be strongly represented by the Ferraris.

Other British entries include Cooper, Triumph Austin Healey, A.C. Bristol, MG and Lotus. Plans are to have a grandstand at the start of the race and the American team entered four Cooper-Chevrolet Cooper's.

CHIEF interest in the match at Georgetown, British Guiana, when the M.C.C. entered the third day of the four-day match facing a big task at 31 for no wicket in the reply to British Guiana's first-innings total of 375 for six. In the seven overs he has bowled so far, about one ball in each over appeared to be sent down with a bent elbow as if to make the ball 'die' in it.

Colin Cochrane and Fred Buller were so busy watching for it they were unable to make their strokes with certainty.

The ball of Stayers' first over looked so suspicious that it was supposed that it was a 'die' shot out of the shirt of the bowler, but in fact it was a normal ball.

A similar 'die' ball was bowled in the M.C.C.'s second over. The M.C.C. batsmen who were watching British Guiana's play were amused by the bowler's action.

Committee's proposals for integrated education

TANGANYIKA SCHOOLS BLUEPRINT

Entry to rest on language qualification

Standard Correspondent Dar es Salaam.
ANY child in Tanganyika should be eligible for admission to any school in the Territory provided his knowledge of the language of instruction was such that he would be able to maintain his place in the school.

This is stated in a blueprint for the future development of education in Tanganyika, which has been accepted generally by the Government. It was prepared by a committee of three women and ten men, representing all sections of the public.

The report, in a note printed inside the cover of the Government's Integrated Educational System, observes that there are a number of unresolved matters arising from the committee's recommendations, not the least being that of finance, and has therefore set up a working party to examine the issues which will enable the Government to make proposals.

Finishing touches are put to a new portrait of the Queen by Miss Lydia de Burgh, of Teachers Co. Dept. The work has been commissioned by the Northern Ireland Government and will hang in Parliament House, Belfast.

New city to replace ruins of Agadir

MOROCCO'S earthquake-shattered port of Agadir is to be rebuilt on the site for a beautiful new city. It was announced last week.

The reconstructed city will bear the name 'New Agadir' according to official sources in Rabat.

The announcement of reconstruction came just before the new town was laid out. The plan, which was approved by the Government, includes a new port, a new airport, and a new city center. The old city of Agadir was destroyed by an earthquake in 1959.

Round the world

NO MESSAGES: The Government of the Eastern Congo is missing messages from the United States and other countries. The Government is unable to receive messages from the United States and other countries because of a breakdown in the communication system.

GRACE: An American woman, Grace, who was traveling around the world, has been arrested in London. She is accused of carrying a large amount of money with her.

WARNING: A warning has been issued by the Government of the Eastern Congo. It is a warning to the people of the Eastern Congo to be on their guard against the activities of the Government.

PLAN FOR KENYA CLAIMED MORE REALISTIC
MR. R. S. Alexander, Member for Nairobi on the Tanganyika education proposals, said today that it was difficult to see how many of the proposals would be put into effect. He said that the proposals were more realistic than those of the Government.

Entrance by examination
The proposals would then be set out in a Government Paper to be introduced into Legislative Council as soon as practicable.

The report recommends that ultimately the length of primary education should be eight years, and that admission to all secondary schools should be by competitive examination. Some proposals would be implemented gradually over a period, but at the committee's opinion it was desirable that a firm date should be laid down for the introduction of the new system. The date suggested is January 1, 1961.

Wide powers for President

UNITY IN AFRICA AIM OF GHANA CONSTITUTION

THE Prime Minister of Ghana, Dr. Nkrumah, said in a broadcast that the keynote of the country's proposed Constitution, published yesterday, was 'one man, one vote, and the unity of Africa, namely the political union of the African countries.'

Dr. Nkrumah was giving the main features of the draft Constitution, which runs Ghana into the powers. He said that a President would have wide powers, and that the Government would be responsible to the people.

U.S. BLAMED FOR ARMS EXPLOSION

THE Prime Minister of Cuba, Dr. Castro, has implied that American officials had plotted the sabotage of a Fifth mission ship in Havana harbor on Friday.

Dr. Castro said that the ship, the Granma, was sabotaged by American agents. He said that the sabotage was part of a plot to overthrow the Government of Cuba.

Bonn political overture to E. Germany

A SINKINGMAN OF THE RAINING Christian Democratic Party's Parliamentary group said in Bonn yesterday that West Germany should consider building diplomatic relations with Guinea.

The speaker said that Guinea was a friendly country and that it would be in the interests of West Germany to establish relations with it.

Locust invasion predicted

The worst locust plague since 1951 is expected to sweep over East Africa, it was predicted today.

The prediction was made by a team of experts who are studying the locust problem in East Africa. They said that the locusts could cause a major famine in the region.

FLIGHTS TO BE POOLED
INTERNATIONAL airlines of Britain, Australia and India are to be pooled under an agreement which will be signed today.

The pooling of flights will allow for more efficient use of aircraft and will reduce costs for passengers.

Two aspects

Before welcoming it, the Government should consider two aspects of the proposal.

The first aspect is the cost of the proposal. The second aspect is the impact of the proposal on the economy.

Other means

A committee of the Government is studying other means of raising revenue.

The committee is looking at various options, including increasing taxes and reducing government spending.

Unfriendly act

Work Germany has always done for the African continent is being undermined by the unfriendly act of the German Government.

The speaker said that the German Government's actions were a betrayal of the trust that had been placed in it.

Minister says conscience is clear

POLICY SPEECH AT U.K. CONFERENCE EXPLAINED

Kenya Minister for Works, Mr. Nathoo, was applauded yesterday that his comments were a reflection of what had done at the London conference.

He said that at a meeting of the standing committee of the Kenya Muslim League which he went to London, it had been decided to support the common roll.

It had been agreed that if the Africans opposed retention of racial seats in the final agreement the Muslims agree, provided there was safeguards about the representation of minorities on the committee.

NOT 'AT LOGGERHEADS'
Mr. Nathoo shared a platform with Mr. Zafred Deem (West Africa). Mr. Zafred Deem was asked whether he agreed with the views expressed by Mr. Nathoo or whether he was surprised by them.

Mr. Nathoo said he went to London with a directive given to all the Muslim delegates by the Muslim organization. Dr. Hassan said Mr. Zafred Deem did not know him and his speech. It never appeared that the three Muslim delegates were at loggerheads.

He was asked whether he had any comments on the speech. He said he would have to go to the press to give an account of Kenya having a Muslim League and a Muslim Council.

Mr. Nathoo said he was surprised that the Africans should be so much against the common roll. He said that the Africans were not standing in the way of the common roll but were trying to get it to be a common roll for all.

PRISON FOR RECEIVING COFFEE
A MAN who received a £100 worth of stolen coffee was sentenced to 30 months imprisonment at the Nairobi District Court.

Charles Kozakawa, who is a 37-year-old man, was charged with receiving stolen goods. He was found guilty and sentenced to 30 months imprisonment.

Arrest before owner knew of theft
A USHER tried to arrest a thief before the owner knew of the theft. The thief was caught in the act of stealing a watch from a woman's hand.

BLOODSTAINS ON TRACK
Sabotage may have been the cause of the bloodstains on the railway tracks. The tracks were found to be contaminated with blood.

TRANSPORT LEGED
Nairobi District Court. A man was charged with transporting stolen goods. He was found guilty and sentenced to 18 months imprisonment.

'The Diary of Anne Frank' staged
The play 'The Diary of Anne Frank' is being staged in Nairobi. The play is a powerful story of a young girl's life during the Holocaust.

The weather
The weather in Nairobi is expected to be sunny and warm today. The temperature is expected to rise to 25 degrees Celsius.

U.K. urged to accept Chief Minister plan
The United Kingdom is urged to accept the Chief Minister's plan for the common roll. The plan is seen as a fair and equitable solution to the racial seating issue.

Rift protest
A rift protest was held in Nairobi. The protesters were demanding the resignation of the Chief Minister. The protest was peaceful and ended without incident.

Standard Diary
The Standard Diary is a popular publication in Kenya. It provides a daily record of events and news. The diary is well-received by the public.

River saves man from leopard
A man was saved from a leopard by a river. The leopard was attacking the man when he was near the river. The man jumped into the river and was rescued by a boat.

higher quality of the primary schools than those of the secondary school in industry.

Although English was already being introduced in the primary schools, it was not the primary school that was the main concern of the Government. The Government was concerned with the quality of the primary schools.

Nevertheless, the report stated that the Government should not be too hasty in introducing English in the primary schools. The Government should first ensure that the primary schools are of a high quality.

Moroccan Government issues provisional casualty list

3,000 UO EAGERS DEAD IN AGADIR

Official puts death total at 12,000

THIRTY THOUSAND foreigners were among the 12,000 people killed in the earthquake which shattered Agadir, according to provisional figures issued by an official of the Moroccan Government.

The majority of the foreign casualties were French and other nationalities on the list were British, American, Danish, Belgian, Dutch, German, Spanish, Italian and Norwegian.

The official said that another small earth tremor struck the Moroccan port late on Sunday, the third in a series. It was followed soon after by a water spout about two miles out at sea and ships had to change course to avoid it.

FLOATING ICE HOLDS UP POLAR RESCUE

A UNITED STATES ice-breaker yesterday reached the British-Chartered ship Krista Dan, trapped in Antarctic ice for 15 days.

But the vessel, carrying Sir Vyvan Fuchs and 30 other British scientific technicians, was unable to follow the ice-breaker out of the icefield because of heavy floes ice in the channel.

The icebreaker is attempting to clear a path for the Krista Dan to the ice field. Sir Vyvan is a special dispatch from the Royal Danish Government from the icebreaker to use nuclear-powered icebreaker.

The icebreaker is the M/S. The icebreaker is the M/S. The icebreaker is the M/S.

King tours ruins

King Mohammed visited the centre of the earthquake on Sunday after he and his party had been publicly fanned with distinctive powder. This procedure was repeated when the royal party left the ruins.

The King was accompanied by members of his court, members of the Moroccan Government, and foreign dignitaries. At various times he was seen to touch the ruins of the city in places scattered so thickly with wreckage that it resembled fields covered with snow.

After leaving the city, King Mohammed talked with judges, doctors, school teachers and children at the villages which have been set up in open country around and outside Moroccan troops, including British, French, American, Italian and Italian messengers from the ruins.

Wireless appeal for the blind

MAY I express sincere thanks to the many kind people who have written in and out of uniform, who gave their support during our Christmas 'New Year' appeal.

The two organisations which will benefit are the Kenya Society for the Blind and the British Wireless for the Blind.

This last appeal resulted in a sum of money of £2,000 and we are extremely grateful. We are extremely grateful to you for your generous contribution. It is the only way we can still maintain our work, and we are sure that you will be glad to hear that it is still going on. We are sure that you will be glad to hear that it is still going on.

J. Stonehouse (Labour) proposed a motion to call for the Government to give assistance to the people of Africa. Mr. Manning responded to the proposal and said that the Government would meet the needs of the people of Africa. He said that the Government would meet the needs of the people of Africa.

Honour their pledges. The Government should be held to their word. They should be held to their word. They should be held to their word. They should be held to their word.

SUBURBS, NOT SPRAWL

With all these winds of change raising the dust in Africa, it is not incredible that anybody can say 'I wanted to live on a half-acre plot I could go and live in Streatham'.

Mr. P. R. Martin said at a meeting of Nairobi Urban District Council, when some of the members criticised plans for developing four suburbs as neighbourhood units, comprising shops, banks, post offices, schools, health centres, recreation facilities, where possible, to give employment, decentralise the population, and to give a better environment in the suburban areas.

There are some people living in Kenya who have to go to just one time in their lives to see a doctor, and then they return to their homes, where they are surrounded by the chaos of the great big open spaces and evidently to live in Africa, the way the Martin side people think, there is not enough breathing room on any one section of a house. Breathing up areas such as Karen and Langata are one way of giving a more dignified and better environment.

Snobbery and the lebanism scribble

There is more snobbery than there is in the economic scheme set forward by Sir Harold Woodcock, who stated that whether there would be snobbery on the receipt of 100 people perhaps there would be snobbery. He stated that the suburbs Mr. Woodcock is talking of will have to be built if development had been going on right in the first place. He said that the suburbs Mr. Woodcock is talking of will have to be built if development had been going on right in the first place. ## Lord Perth questioned on Kenya Members' attitude

TO THINK OF NEXT STEP

Constitution must have time to work

The British Government would want to know that Kenya's new Constitution was worked before going on to the next stage in the Colony's development, the Minister of State for Colonial Affairs, Lord Perth, told the House of Lords.

The conference in London did not consider how long the new Constitution should last, but any suggestion that the Government would certainly reject pulled down as soon as it had been erected.

Lord Perth was replying to Lord Salisbury, who had asked whether the Government was aware that Mr. T. J. Mboya had said it was a "dream" that the Lancaster African Members' attitude would be to last four or five years, and went to that effect in his speech.

WESTERN delegates met again in Paris yesterday to continue their intensive two-day effort to unify their policy for the East-West disarmament conference opening in Geneva next Tuesday.

An expert drafting committee appointed yesterday was expected to complete its work before the heads of delegations put forward their final plans yesterday.

Complete secrecy was observed by the British, American, French, Italian and Canadian delegates after the first day's meetings, but it was reported that some progress had been made.

French Foreign Ministry spokesman said there were no developments yesterday in the French and American points of view, except perhaps on housing.

The other countries agree in basic accord with the U.S. and French positions.

Two found alive in Agadir

TWO Moroccan men were found alive in the ruins of a 14-story hotel which was destroyed in the earthquake which struck Agadir in the Moroccan sector which was the most badly damaged area.

Rescue workers stepped up their efforts to dig out the bodies of those who were buried under the rubble.

Agadir had been a thriving port since the 1930s. It was destroyed by a 6.5 magnitude earthquake which struck the city on September 29, 1959.

Kenya may go to polls this year

Proposals 'fall short'

CHANGES MUST KEEP UP WITH PEOPLE'S HOPES

GOVERNMENT PLEDGE TO RECONSIDER TIMING

Kenya may have elections this year if an examination to be conducted by the Government proves it is possible to hold them earlier than at present proposed.

This was announced by the Chief Secretary, Sir Charles Hartwell, at the end of the Legislative Council's debate on the Wild Report. He recalled that several Members had said that 1961 was too late for the first general elections to be held this year and that they would like to see the Government move to hold them earlier.

After African Representative Members of the Council had walked out in protest at the rejection of the Wild Report, the Government motion to "note" the report was passed.

MOST PROPOSALS ACCEPTED

The Chief Secretary said a record of the debate would be drawn to the Colonial Secretary and his attention would be drawn to the views expressed by Members on both sides of the House. The Government had accepted most of the proposals put forward by the Wild committee's recommendations.

Referring to Members' pleas for universal adult suffrage, Sir Charles said the British Government would be asked to consider that a further extension of the franchise. It was sure that the views which have been expressed will be fully taken into account by the British Government.

Members explain walk-out

AFRICAN REPRESENTATIVE MEMBERS

Time will tell

Time will tell whether the Government's proposals for universal adult suffrage are acceptable to the African Representative Members of the Council. The Government has announced that it will be holding a referendum on the proposals in the near future.

New clinic

A new clinic has been opened in Nairobi. The clinic is being run by the Nairobi Health Department and is aimed at providing medical services to the people of Nairobi. The clinic will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. every day.

Group to thank for moderate influence in U.K.

When Kenya's Minister for Agriculture, Mr. J. M. Njoroge, visited London last week, he was met by a group of people who had formed a "Kenya for the Queen" group. The group is a voluntary organization which aims to raise funds for the Queen's Jubilee in Kenya.

The Minister and the group discussed the group's plans for the Jubilee and the Minister expressed his appreciation for the group's efforts. He said that the group's work was very important and that he was sure that the group would be successful in raising funds for the Jubilee.

CADET IN POLICE JAILED FOR THEFT

QUALITY FIRST IN CIVIL SERVICE

U.K. talks on more local recruitment

The problem of staffing Civil Services in Africa with increasing numbers of local recruits, while ensuring that there is no falling-off in quality, has been considered at an eight-day conference in London.

Delegates from more than 12 British territories in Africa were generally agreed that in places such as Kenya, where there were many communities the best destination of a local officer was in his own territory. It was also agreed that changes in educational policy might be needed in a number of territories. Rather than available resources being spread too thin, they should be concentrated to produce high calibre public servants and administrators who would be able to take over some of the burdens now being borne by expatriates from the U.K.'s 'great legacy'.

Many of the administrators attending the conference attended a crash programme to refresh the secondary technical institutes and university colleges in order to produce a cadre of qualified, responsible administrative staff. This meant closing down the programmes for non-qualified students. The aim of the conference, which was private, was to help the territories in Africa to plan for the future. At the closing session the Minister of State for Colonial Affairs, Lord Perth, said the British Government was committed to transfer power to Africa as long as it was in the best interests of the people. Kenya was represented at the conference by the Minister of Education, Mr. M. Makoye, the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, Mr. A. H. Malcolm, and the Director of Establishment, Mr. T. M. Skinner.

Full extent of damage on island now known

A study by an expert sugar grower in Mauritius may prove the most detailed to date. It has been found that the damage to the island's sugar industry was far greater than was previously thought. The study, which is being carried out by the Mauritius Sugar Industry Research Council, has revealed that the damage to the island's sugar industry was far greater than was previously thought. The study, which is being carried out by the Mauritius Sugar Industry Research Council, has revealed that the damage to the island's sugar industry was far greater than was previously thought.

SUBSIDIES TO FARMERS CUT

Britain's farmers will receive a cut in subsidies from next year, according to a report by the Government. The report says that the Government will reduce subsidies to farmers by 10 per cent from next year. This is part of a plan to reduce government expenditure and to encourage farmers to become more self-sufficient.

STABILITY OF LAND VALUES SOUGHT

The British Government is to be asked to inaugurate at once a scheme backed by considerable finance to stabilise land values in the Highlands. The request is contained in a resolution passed unanimously by a conference of members of the House of Commons on March 10. The resolution was proposed by the Conservative Member for West Lothian, Mr. George Young.

Full meeting

The House of Commons will meet on Monday, March 13, at 2 o'clock. The agenda includes a debate on the Highlands. The House will also discuss the Civil Service Commission's report on local recruitment.

School's future

When the acting Chief Secretary, Mr. J. Griffiths, visited the school in Warrick, North Devon, he was told that the school was in a state of disrepair. He has promised to look into the matter and to ensure that the school is in a state of good repair.

In demand

Where steps were taken to increase the number of local recruits, the Government has also taken steps to increase the number of local recruits. This is part of a plan to reduce government expenditure and to encourage local industry.

More Agadir survivors

More Agadir survivors have been identified. The Red Cross has announced that it has found the remains of several more people who were killed in the earthquake. This brings the total number of victims to over 10,000.

India will take over shipyard

The Indian Government has announced that it will take over the shipyard at Cochin. This is part of a plan to develop the shipbuilding industry in India and to reduce dependence on foreign ships.

It would be rash to assume that Britain would never again in a different context become involved in operations comparable with those in a military sense. That the opinion of Field Marshal Lord Harding, Governor of Kenya, who has written in his memoirs a history of operations in the Congo, is a warning of the dangers of a military sense. He has written in his memoirs a history of operations in the Congo, which was a warning of the dangers of a military sense.

Tanganyika will stay in Commonwealth

The wedding was a grand affair and was attended by thousands of guests. The Duke and Duchess were both in excellent health and were the center of attention.

Trinder's advice

Mr. Trinder, the Minister of Education, has given advice to teachers on how to improve the quality of education. He has said that teachers should focus on the individual needs of their students and should provide a high quality of education. This is part of a plan to improve the quality of education in the country.

Canadian support

The Canadian Government has announced that it will provide support for the development of the shipbuilding industry in India. This is part of a plan to reduce dependence on foreign ships and to develop the shipbuilding industry in India.

U.K. MIGHT FIGHT IN FUTURE 'LOCAL WARS'

It would be rash to assume that Britain would never again in a different context become involved in operations comparable with those in a military sense. That the opinion of Field Marshal Lord Harding, Governor of Kenya, who has written in his memoirs a history of operations in the Congo, is a warning of the dangers of a military sense.

'Abolish horror'

Britain must take steps to abolish the death penalty, according to a report from the Home Office. The report says that the death penalty is a barbaric and inhumane punishment and should be abolished. This is part of a plan to improve the human rights situation in the country.

NYASALAND EMERGENCY ON TOUR AGENDA

DERING his visit to Nyasaland this month, the Prime Minister will discuss the whole question of emergency powers with the Governor. This is part of a plan to improve the emergency powers situation in the country.

NON-PARTY APPROACH TO THE CAUSE OF MINORITIES

FREEDOM BOUGHT BY DUTY

MAJ I express my appreciation for the work of the British Members of the House of Commons who have laboured for us at the London Conference for Kenya. Their independence for Kenya, which was the main purpose of the London Conference, was not achieved without the sacrifice of many of our countrymen. It is a tribute to the courage and determination of those who have laboured for us at the London Conference that they have been able to bring about the independence of Kenya.

The action of Sir Ferdinand Carron-Benstock in first resigning his high office for the cause of minorities, and secondly in offering his services to the cockles of all our hearts, has been widely appreciated. There can be nobody who does not understand that Sir Ferdinand's resignation was not a mere gesture of sympathy which he has made in order to get a free press and to be able to do his duty. He has done this because he has seen the need for a non-party approach to the cause of minorities. He has seen that the only way in which we can achieve the independence of Kenya is by a non-party approach to the cause of minorities. He has seen that the only way in which we can achieve the independence of Kenya is by a non-party approach to the cause of minorities. He has seen that the only way in which we can achieve the independence of Kenya is by a non-party approach to the cause of minorities.

BETTER WAYS OF LIVING

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Thika vote of confidence not true indication

REGARDING THE headline 'Thika vote of confidence not true indication' published in the Standard of the 21st March, I feel that anybody who reads the Thika report will be misled into believing that the vote of confidence was a true indication of the feeling of the people of Thika. The vote was a mere gesture of sympathy which was made in order to get a free press and to be able to do his duty.

Better ways of living than in suburbia

THERE is nothing incredible in the remarks made by Mr. R. Martin at a meeting of the Nairobi Urban District Council. Many people in Kenya and elsewhere own houses on freeways out at Karen, Langata, or anywhere else. They are not in the suburbs. They are in the city. They are in the heart of the city. They are in the heart of the city.

Many people with children like like to keep their cars in the suburbs. They like to have the suburbs with its windows and spacious rooms. They like to have the suburbs with its windows and spacious rooms. They like to have the suburbs with its windows and spacious rooms.

Mr. W. P. H. Brown, Thika, writes: "The voting which should have been taken by the people of Thika was a mere gesture of sympathy which was made in order to get a free press and to be able to do his duty. The vote was a mere gesture of sympathy which was made in order to get a free press and to be able to do his duty."

The Church and 'status quo'

In an article published in the Standard of the 21st March, I feel that anybody who reads the article will be misled into believing that the church is in a state of confusion. The church is in a state of confusion. The church is in a state of confusion.

Minister counts cost of Buganda trade ban

'Standard' Correspondent, Kampala. The cost of the non-African trade ban in Buganda was analysed by the Minister of Commerce and Industry, Sir Amar Martin, in Kampala.

He told the annual meeting of the Uganda Chamber of Commerce and Industry that the ban was a cloud which still loomed ominously over the field of commerce and political advancement.

He had a most striking effect on trade, leading to severe effects on individual traders and firms and considerable loss of revenue by the Government.

It has brought about a grave deterioration in the confidence of overseas investors in the stability of Uganda and in the ability of its people.

The Chamber's meeting president, Mr. J. M. Payne, had said that some well-known industrial concern had received severe warnings and the report... 'It has brought about a grave deterioration in the confidence of overseas investors in the stability of Uganda and in the ability of its people.'

Not keeping pace The Minister said that the past year had been confused and fraught with difficulties, but that the difficulties were common to all countries in the world to a certain extent.

Assurance given to civil servants NO FORCED RETIREMENT FOR EXPATRIATES

CIVIL servants in Uganda have been told that pensionable expatriate officers are not to be forced to retire in order to make way for Africans, the Chief Secretary, Sir Charles Verjee, said in the Legislative Council in reply to Mr. R. K. S. Verjee (Representative) on a Press conference.

He said that during the Press conference Sir Verjee said the Government had recently issued a circular assuring expatriate civil servants that they would not be replaced by Africans.

NO INSULT IN WILD DEBATE In a personal statement to the Uganda Legislative Council, the Chief Secretary, Sir Charles Verjee, said that he was being discourteous and insulting in refusing to reply to the Representative Members' amendment in the Wild Report earlier this week.

After quoting part of a statement issued by the African Representative Members after they had walked out of the Council on Tuesday, Sir Charles said he would like to make it clear that he was not discourteous and insulting in refusing to reply to the Representative Members' amendment in the Wild Report earlier this week.

Increase in use of water

NAIROBI'S water department is anxiously awaiting the start of the rainy season, mainly because of the large amount of water being used in growing suburban areas.

But the Works Manager, Mr. S. Wilson, who is chairman of the Water Committee, said that the amount of water used in growing suburban areas would be less than in the past.

He said that during the Press conference Sir Verjee said the Government had recently issued a circular assuring expatriate civil servants that they would not be replaced by Africans.

THE NEW Ford Falcon

It's wonderful what a new Ford Falcon can do to the gallon. It zips over hills and the very worst of roads, and doesn't carry for a new gallon until it's carried over 30 miles. The Falcon's new 90-h.p. six-cylinder engine gives you performance with real economy, even with the whole family and all their luggage aboard.

The beautiful Falcon makes sense in many other ways too. Plenty of room for six, large 23 cu. ft. foot. Easy parking plus the ride and feel of the much larger, heavier car. See and test-drive the Falcon.

Tourist trade entering new phase

CALL ON HOTELS MAY CHANGE

It seems to me that East Africa, which has made a most significant success of the development of its tourist trade in the last 11 years, is entering a new phase in the development of the industry, which has its attendant problems.

Those who in fact, may have a wider say than the African Governments were concerned with, in the preserving and developing of the industry, are the members of the E. A. Tourist Travel Association, Mr. H. L. Adams, vice-president, and the members of the E. A. Hotel-keepers Association, formed from the speech on the subject of the industry.

There was a slight change in the fact that I have already said there was a slight indication that the industry was to be the best of its kind in the world.

There are a few additional points which are being considered by the industry for the year 1939-40. The demand for hotels will be at a high level, and the industry will be in a position to meet the demand for hotels and holiday attractions. The demand for hotels will be at a high level, and the industry will be in a position to meet the demand for hotels and holiday attractions.

More tourists
We are seeking to increase the number of tourists in the East African region, and we are making every effort to do so. We are making every effort to do so.

Mauritius aid
The Mauritius aid is a very valuable asset to the East African region, and we are making every effort to do so. We are making every effort to do so.

THIRD SWIMMING TITLE FOR K. DONOGHUE

KARL DONOGHUE recorded his third freestyle victory in the 1956 Kenya amateur swimming championships when he took the 200 metres final at the Salisbury Pool. He is thus well on the way to repeating his phenomenal success of 1956, on which occasion he won all four freestyle finals in addition to setting a new Kenya record for the 100 metres, with a time of 66.6 sec.

He has not quite emulated the performance of Graham Muir three returned to Sweden, who not only won the same four events but set records in each.

Real previous best

Muir's Donoghue's winning time this year for the 1500, 400 and 200 metres were below Kenya records; they were also respective faster than his previous best, and that without being seriously out-of-breath.

It seems most likely that he will break his own 100 metres record on Sunday.

His time of 2 min 36.5 sec in the 500 metres was 1.5 sec faster than the previous record set by the same swimmer.

Notable feature of the men's 200 metres final was the performance of Adam Lyle of St. Mary's, who finished a close second to Donoghue after a race in front of H. Venninger, Premier of Waco, who was third.

Donoghue has retained the 100 metres title in the junior 14-16 section. Venninger has broken greatly from recent times to set Donoghue's H.P.P.

Was ordered to rest

Miss C. Donoghue, last year's winner of the women's 200 metres, had been ordered to rest by her doctor after the 500 metres final and took no part again during the championships.

She had, however, won the 100 metres title in 1955.

Miss D. Browne (Kenya High School) was a 1952 champion in every winner of the women's 200 metres in the W. Union Trophy.

WORLD LEADERS WARNING TO FARMERS

No future for them in Kenya, Minister says

Ministers with undeveloped or under-developed farms were warned on Saturday that their future in Kenya was non-existent. The Government in the Colony could allow this sort of thing to continue.

The warning came from the Minister for Western Kenya when he opened the Agriculture, Mr. McKenzie, when he opened the Western Kenya Show at Eldoret, and he added: "There is only one answer for these farmers. Instead of letting their land stand idle for years, bring all their land into production. The Minister also asked those who feared the cultural future and who might be considering leaving Kenya not to make matters hard for those who were determined to stay."

'Don't make it difficult'

He asked that they should go in a manner which would not make it difficult for those of us who are determined to continue farming here, to continue to make our homes here and who are prepared to accept the challenge of the future."

Mr. McKenzie, who left Nairobi on Saturday night by air for London, recalled that he was going there to set up a Land Use Settlement and Development Board which would operate the £3,000,000 Government guarantee. "It is advising that the British here that this amount is insufficient, although it may be enough for the first years, and I am hoping that it will be increased from various sources."

POLICE WITH DOGS HUNT NIGRI MURDER GANG

An intensive police hunt, with tracker dogs and armed General Service Units, was on wide areas of the Nyirri district yesterday in a search for the gang which Friday slashed to death three members of an Asian team in the Airfield Road, Nyirri.

Police patrols stopped and questioned motorists and pedestrians in the area and scoured nearby farms. A senior police official said that the chance of finding the gang was slim.

When the police were unable to find the gang, they decided to use tracker dogs. The dogs were used to search for the gang in the area. The dogs were used to search for the gang in the area.

Western arms plan wins Nato approval

The 15 nations of Nato have approved the Western three-stage plan for nuclear disarmament covering both conventional and nuclear weapons — under international control.

A spokesman said the Atlantic Pact's permanent Council, which considered the proposals for 24 hours in Paris at the weekend, were in complete agreement with and have given their active support to the plan.

President's pledge

President Eisenhower said on Saturday that the United States was prepared to consider any possible arrangement in this week's talks to find a way towards general disarmament.

POLICY OF INSURANCE FOR CHANGE-OVER IN KENYA'S FARMING

His gesture in resigning the office of Speaker, Dr. Ferdinand had pronounced the more disastrous aspects of the Macleod constitution. It is greatly to be hoped that he should thus have set his integrity on a new basis.

It will be recalled that the late Sir Robert B. Macleod, who was the author of a younger man's name, had been elected Speaker of the Legislative Council in 1952. He was a man of high standing and had been a member of the Government for many years. His resignation was a significant event in the history of the Government.

There has been much talk of late about the advantages of a change-over in the farming industry. It is a subject that has been discussed in many quarters. The Government has been studying the matter for some time and has been holding discussions with the various farming organizations.

Plans for neighbourhood units long overdue

THE County Planning Officer, Mr. Mold, in his congratulatory note on the ideas and the able presentation of his plans for Kibera and Kasarani is, naturally, quite long over-

These who oppose and criticize the plan are, in my opinion, doing a disservice to the people of Nairobi. It is a pity that the plan has not been more widely known and that it is not being more actively supported.

'ANNE FRANK': THE CRITIC REPLIES

I AM grateful to Mr. Levin for his comments on my review of the Diary of Anne Frank. Like him, I thought the Nairobi Players' production a masterpiece. I am glad to hear that it has been so well received.

Lancaster House in Retrospect - 4 A GREAT ADVANCE FOR KENYA AFRICANS

RONALD NGALA, LEADER OF THE AFRICAN ELECTED MEMBERS AT THE KENYA CONSTITUTIONAL TALKS IN LONDON, TELLS OF HIS SERIES IN WHICH THE VARIOUS GROUPS HAVE EXPRESSED THEIR VIEWS ON THE OUTCOME

MEMORIES of the Lancaster House talks are still very fresh and vivid in the mind of Mr. Ronald Ngala... He said that the African elected members were very keen to see that the African viewpoint was embodied in the memorandum known as the 'Stand of the A.E. Members'...

This memorandum was published in all the papers in Kenya some weeks before we left for London... It was also discussed in the members' conference at Lancaster and its contents approved by the conference. In brief the memorandum pressed for...

As a result of the conference the following proposals have been accepted... The declaration that foreign capital will still have a role to play in Kenya's development...

Mr. R. G. Ngala... The declaration that foreign capital will still have a role to play in Kenya's development... This declaration has always been a cornerstone of the policy of the Government...

Later on a number of suggestions were made... Mr. Ngala was asked to give a summary of the proposals... He said that the proposals were in line with the objectives of the Government...

QUINNS BEGIN SEASON WELL

HARLEQUINS won the first match of their 1960 season when, at home, they beat Kenya Police by 13 points (three goals and a penalty goal) to nine (two goals and two penalty goals) after trailing by two points at half-time. Both sides can take credit from this game for while Police were beaten they lacked a regular hooker and Quinn played means about almost throughout.

It is likely a second game will be taken in hospital with Quinn being a regular hooker and Quinn played means about almost throughout.

Police potential

Police had made "old stages" as it is known and is called in their book.

But outside they show they have considerable potential even without Lundy, who was playing cricket against Uganda Police.

Quinn has found a strong running centre in Richard Capurrun who has been playing for John Worthington to fly half for the Kenyan Police.

Dominant all round

Right on half-back Quinn reduced their effort to a single point when Capurrun made a break and Quinn scored.

BREWERIES WIN WITH LATE GOAL

A. BRIDGEMAN staged a tremendous revival in their Amberley Cup quarter-final against the interval, scoring and winning goal in the closing minute of the game.

The minutes before half-time were in command of the first half, Philip Lavel giving them a lead and when he followed a shot that Nguni, the Kenyan hooker, failed to hold and a late goal was scored.

Revitalized team

Breweries began the second half by dominating the first half, and Williams keeping them out for a time.

Good curtain-raiser

In a curtain-raiser, progressive game and sport, Rugby Harlequins (A.) overcame the Kenyan Police.

Sides for final
