A Month Has Gone

During the early stages of the debate on the Kenya Budget a month ago, a motion was made on behalf of the Government that the Colony that was intended to be a self-governing territory was to be a self-governing territory at the same time. The Attorney General told the House that whether or not the Commissioner of Finance was satisfied with the financial position for 1944, and he warned the country that, if it failed to pass and the Colony was to be a self-governing territory at the same time, it would have to pay for the Government's expenses. The Government was not prepared to accept the view that it was the responsibility of the Government to pay for the Government's expenses. The Government was not prepared to accept the view that it was the responsibility of the Government to pay for the Government's expenses.

"Pre-Fabs" Catch On

Acting Governor Sees Specimen of Local Authorities Keenly Interested

CAN prefabrication solve Kenya's housing shortage problem? This question has been in the air since the Acting Governor, Sir Philip Mitchell, visited the pre-fabricated houses in London last week. He was accompanied by a party of local authorities, including the Nairobi Municipal Council and the Nairobi City Council. The Acting Governor was impressed by the quality and speed of the prefabricated houses, and he is expected to recommend their use in Kenya.

"WHAT NEXT IN JAPAN?"

Must Re-center World Trade, Says Rotary Speaker

What next in Japan? This was the question asked by the speaker of the Rotary Club in Nairobi during a recent meeting. The speaker, Mr. J. H. M. Jones, pointed out that Japan's economic position was a matter of great concern to the world. He said that Japan's economy was based on a system of trade that was not in line with the principles of free trade. He called for a re-centering of world trade, and for a system of trade that would be based on the principles of free trade and mutual benefit.

Crises of the Budget

The Standing Finance Committee of the Kenya Legislative Council has been a witness since the end of the war to the examination of the Budget. The Budget, an expected list of strategic changes can be made by the Government, but at the principle on which the Budget is framed can be altered. It is the province of the Council to advise the Government on the merits of the Budget, but it is the duty of the Government to accept or reject the Budget. The Standing Finance Committee has been formed by the Government and set to work to examine the Budget in detail.

EVERYBODY'S BATTLE

Sir Alfred Vincent, leader of the European Elected Members has asked Government the following question:—
WHEREAS H. E. Sir Henry Moore on the 6th August 1944 with reference to the War Taxation (Income Tax) Bill and the War Taxation (Consumption Tax) Bill, etc. and the Petition of Consumption Tax, stated:—
"One common feature of all these Bills is the last clause which provides that following the end of hostilities, the end of December next following the end of hostilities. This clause has been inserted because of a purely emergency character, which will come to an end as soon as possible after the war has terminated."

WHEREAS the last clause referred to in H.E.'s assurance reads "This Ordinance shall continue in force until the 31st day of December next following the end of hostilities, the end of December next following the end of hostilities, emergency legislation following the end of hostilities, that expression was carefully chosen by Government so that there could be no ambiguity. After the former great war the expression end of the war has become an interpretation."

- (1) Did H. E. Sir Philip Mitchell's broadcast on August 6th, 1944 constitute the "proclamation" referred to in the last clause of these Ordinances?
- (2) If the answer is in the negative, did His Excellency's failure to issue the proclamation required by these Ordinances arise from inadvertence?
- (3) If the answer to (2) is in the negative, will His Excellency make the related proclamation retrospective so as to implement the solemn assurance of His Excellency's predecessor upon which assurance the monies in question were granted by Legislative Council?

Principle Of Group Hospital Upheld By One Vote

Clash Of Views Over Separate European Site

MEMBERS of the Hospital Committee have voted to uphold the principle of a group hospital. The vote was 11 to 10. The Chairman of the committee, Mr. C. J. P. (Crisp) said that the committee had been formed to study the question of a hospital for the Africans in the area. He said that the committee had held several meetings and had received many suggestions. He said that the committee had decided to uphold the principle of a group hospital, but that it had also decided to consider the possibility of a separate European site.

400 MILLION SHEEP

COOPERS' DIP is undeniably pre-eminent in every sheep country in the world.

Since the introduction of Coopers Sheep Dipping Powder in 1924, it has become universally known and has long been recognised by flock owners as the perfect sheep dip.

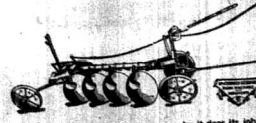

Other sheep dips have been offered to farmers from time to time but after fair trial they lead to equal Coopers.

Make sure of success in your sheep dipping by the world's favourite Dip—COOPERS DIPPING POWDER.

The annual sales throughout the world today are sufficient to dip over 400,000,000 sheep, which is a conclusive proof of its supreme merit.
