A Useful Shaking Up

The general impression throughout Kenya, expressed and exemplified by the lively reception of the meeting held at Nairobi, is that the country has undergone a very useful process. It is a process, as a consequence, that we cannot expect an irresponsible Government, directed by remote control, to be able to carry out the necessary reforms. It is the Government's responsibility to see that the country is not allowed to stagnate. It is the Government's duty to see that the country is not allowed to stagnate. Senkatuka Says "False Evidence" Induced By Large Reward

Early Judgment

JUDGMENT is possible today in the appeal of the Bishops' order which was set aside by the High Court at Kampala some weeks ago. The appeal was brought by the Rev. Fr. Joseph M. Martin, Father Superior of the Holy Spirit, appealing to the High Court against the order of the Bishop of the Northern Diocese of the Uganda Catholic Church.

The Bishop's order was set aside by the High Court because it was found that the evidence was false and that the reward was large.

The appeal was heard by the High Court on January 1st. The court was presided over by the Chief Justice, Mr. J. G. M. Phillips. The court found that the evidence was false and that the reward was large. The court set aside the Bishop's order and allowed the appeal.

MEET RETRIBUTION

"Tell me, Stephen, why have you put a red ribbon round your neck? What's so wicked about that?"

"Just a souvenir, Alan. Don't want to talk to people. It's the right of the West. Must not be alone."

"But I don't understand. You of all people—most sociable man who ever broke a collar-bone."

"Listen, Alan. Last night I attended a party. Big party—follows in the City. Do you follow me?"

"With regret. Haven't these city waltzers heard about Rose? Lime Juice, or haven't you?"

"Both of us. But, just as at Balaklava, someone had 'Handed us. I know I feel like the last day of Pompeii.'"

"How very terrible. Never mind, Stephen. Follow me about like Mary's limb and just this once I'll undertake to open the gates."

Chamber's Representations On Woman Power Rules And Passage Priorities

Commerce Wants Former Repealed And Latter Expedited

THE repeal of woman power regulations, the Kenya Budget for 1942, and the question of passage priorities for civilians were among subjects discussed by the Nairobi Chamber of Commerce at its meeting on Tuesday.

Referring to the question of the repeal of the various power regulations, the retiring Chairman, Mr. Don Small, said that the Management Committee had approached the Chief Secretary regarding the date of repeal, and that as yet no date had been decided upon. A meeting of all interested parties was to be held soon, and a representative of the Chamber would be invited to be present.

Mr. George Young, whilst it is the Chamber's desire to have the regulations repealed, it is not its duty to take up Mr. Small and say that the Chamber would like to see the repeal of the regulations. Mr. Young, the Chairman, said that the only country in Africa where the woman power regulations were in force was Kenya. The Government was anxious for the repeal of the regulations, and was making every effort to expedite the repeal. Mr. Young said that the Chamber would be glad to see the regulations repealed, and would support any measure which would expedite the repeal.

Kenya Budget 1942

Speaking on the Kenya Budget for 1942, Mr. Don Small said that the Budget was a very good one, and that it was a relief to see that the Government was making every effort to improve the position of the country. LITERATURE FOR THE AFRICAN

Mrs. Elspeth Huxley Reviews Problems In Broadcast Speech

Mrs. Elspeth Huxley who has been touring Africa examining the problems of literature for the African broadcast recently broadcast with this story which she said illustrated several trends of African education.

Some time ago I went into a small farm school where a teacher was instructing a lot of little Kikuyu boys in English which still strikes me as one of the most cryptic I have ever seen.

This incident struck me in the way of the school and the teacher who was so anxious to teach the children to read and write in English.

What Are Your Needs?

This brings me to the point of my own visit to East Africa, which I am sure you are all aware of as I was here last year.

THE KENYA NAYV To the Editor, "E.A. Standard" I have been in the district twenty years ago and have seen the country change very much since then. I was surprised by the way the country has changed since the cattle on a small island in the Indian Ocean. I have seen the country from the sea and from water making thousands of miles of coast. The country, however, the well which I visited in the past was not so good as it is now. I have been in the area I mentioned many places and I find that the roads, some of which are now concrete, have been built in the last few years. I have seen the Government to encourage the African to live better and to bring the country to a higher standard of living. I have seen the Government to encourage the African to live better and to bring the country to a higher standard of living. I have seen the Government to encourage the African to live better and to bring the country to a higher standard of living.

TO THE EDITOR, "E.A. STANDARD" Sir—It might be profitable to regard the "Taxpayers' Protection League" that is now in England in the light of the law of 1943. In addition to what has been said, I think it is worth noting that the League is not a new organization, but has been in existence since 1914. It is a very old organization and has a long history. THE PROBLEM OF AFRICA

East Africa, as well as the Union, is in the debt of Mr. Gordon, who has been appointed High Commissioner in London. The British Government has been unwilling to accept the responsibility of the African continent, and the High Commissioner's appointment is a clear indication of the Government's intention to maintain its position in Africa.

It is an extraordinary example of the British Empire that the African continent, which has been the theatre of so much of the British Empire's activities, should now be the theatre of so much of its difficulties. The British Government has been unwilling to accept the responsibility of the African continent, and the High Commissioner's appointment is a clear indication of the Government's intention to maintain its position in Africa.

Frying with "KIMBO"

Just Cooks, especially the native cooks, know little about frying. That is why food is considered tasteless. Butry gives a definite answer but it is not only for the natives. You will find KIMBO useful for frying. KIMBO will stand up to the high temperatures needed for frying and leaves no fumes, fumes or unpleasant odours. It does not detract from the actual taste of the food.

There are two methods of frying, shallow and deep.

On the first, you use a small piece of brass into the form of a 'U'. This prevents the food from sticking to the pan.

Include "KIMBO" in your next Food Parcel for Britain

"KIMBO" is made under modern hygienic factory conditions by E.A. Industrial Management Board (Nairobi), Nairobi.

Foot and Mouth Disease

An outbreak of foot and mouth disease has been confirmed in the district of Nairobi. The disease is caused by a virus and is highly contagious. It is characterized by blisters on the mouth and feet. The disease is most common in cattle and pigs. It is important to take precautions to prevent the spread of the disease. The Government has issued instructions to farmers to isolate affected animals and to report any cases to the authorities. TOWN V. COUNTRY

The President of the Nairobi Chamber of Commerce, Mr. A. J. Den Small, speaking at the meeting of the Executive last week, demanded an otherwise unaccountable expression of personal opinion on the constitutional question by the members of the Executive. He said that though defective in detail, the proposals presented in the form of a memorandum, if approved without the consent of the Executive, would be a serious personal affront to the members of the Executive. He said that the proposals were not a personal affront to the members of the Executive, but a personal affront to the Executive as a whole.
