On a pig's back

THE best time to read this comment on the Uganda (East African) Factory plan is just before breakfast. Having polished off your bacon and eggs this holiday morning, how do you feel about the prospect of having to pay more for the chops, sausages and bacon crisps you eat?

Of course, the price of the bacon which has to be your year's supply is a very great deal to the ordinary man. The factory intends to start off by losing three dollars. Previously, the Government would not touch the bacon. It was sold at 4/90 per lb. The Government has now decided to sell the bacon at 2/90. Three shillings is not a great deal to the Government, but it is a great deal to the ordinary man. The Government is now selling the bacon at 2/90. This is a very big saving to the Government, but it is a very big saving to the ordinary man. The Government is now selling the bacon at 2/90. This is a very big saving to the Government, but it is a very big saving to the ordinary man.

There will be another distributor to buy the meat quality for the factory. The factory will be selling the meat quality for the factory. The factory will be selling the meat quality for the factory. The factory will be selling the meat quality for the factory. The factory will be selling the meat quality for the factory.

$15,000 a year from the factory shop

THE magnitude of the crisis in the pig industry was realized when the Uganda and P.I. Industries Board reconstituted its greater committee. The committee was reconstituted to deal with the crisis in the pig industry. The committee was reconstituted to deal with the crisis in the pig industry. The committee was reconstituted to deal with the crisis in the pig industry. The committee was reconstituted to deal with the crisis in the pig industry.

Dulles—America's most traveled leader

THE STATESMAN SHURRED BY HATRED OF COMMUNISM

An obituary of the 33rd U.S. Secretary of State

JOHN FOSTER DULLES traveled through the world more than any other American statesman before or since. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

Eminent lawyer
He will particularly be remembered for his work in settling the Japanese claims in 1949 as Special Counsel to the President and for his role in the creation of the United Nations.

Basic goal
His basic goal was to contain the spread of Communism. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

Offended French
Mr. Dulles, who several months before had given a speech in Paris, was offended by the French. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

Advised Wilson
During the First World War, he advised President Wilson. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

Back in the States
He returned to the United States in 1931. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

What the French
The French were offended by his speech. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

President Eisenhower and Mr. Dulles

Trusted by President through all squalls

That of an isolation was... The Statesman Shurred by Hatred of Communism. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

Fair on...

He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country. He was the only American statesman to have visited every continent and every country.

INSECTS UPSETTING BALANCE

GROUP'S OF NATURE EFFORTS WELCOME IN U.K.

Grave concern over possible results

SCIENTISTS, naturalists and, more recently, farmers have expressed grave concern over the possible effects of the insects on the life zone, on habitats.

Correspondence taken place between Kenya naturalists and farmers, and there is growing fear among them that some of the more highly toxic substances coming into use as insecticides may, by seriously upsetting the balance of nature, operate in time for graver purposes than the pests they were originally intended to destroy.

In many cases the pests which have survived by themselves harmless or even beneficial, have been destroyed by the use of insecticides, which have been destroyed by the use of insecticides, which have been destroyed by the use of insecticides.

One theory put forward was that the birds normally using these routes had been wiped out while on their winter migration in Southern Africa, either by being poisoned by insecticides or by the insects on which they had been feeding had been destroyed.

Sharp words exchanged at spontaneous Geneva session

SELWYN LOYD WARNS RUSSIA

Soviet plan would lead to disaster

SPEAKING during the most spontaneous session of the four Geneva Ministers held since the Geneva conference began a fortnight earlier, Mr. Selwyn Lloyd, the British Foreign Secretary, warned Moscow about the effects of her suggested German peace treaty.

In a number of sharp verbal exchanges, that contrasted sharply with the set-speeches pattern of earlier sessions, America and Russia also clashed over Soviet charges of West German militarism.

The Foreign Ministers—all of whom were flying to Washington after yesterday's session to attend the funeral of Mr. Dulles—began their meeting on Monday by expressing condolences over his death. Then the gloves came off and the stranding began again.

Private session announced

Diplomatic observers in Geneva were expecting, however, that some progress may be made by the Foreign Ministers when they return from Washington on Friday. It was announced yesterday that they will hold their first private session then.

That arrangement was made after a 40-minute private talk between Mr. Selwyn Lloyd and Mr. Gromyko, the Soviet Foreign Minister.

Mr. Selwyn Lloyd, delivering his warning on Monday, said that a dictated peace for Germany, such as another disaster for Europe of the kind which has been seen during this century.

Gromyko at funeral

Mr. GROMYKO, minister of foreign affairs of the Soviet Union, left Geneva on Monday night, to attend the funeral of the late President Dwight D. Eisenhower in Washington for the funeral.

Mr. Gromyko's departure was announced at a hurriedly convened press conference in Geneva on Monday night, which was attended by a number of journalists.

Mr. Gromyko left Geneva for London yesterday morning to attend the funeral of the late President Dwight D. Eisenhower in Washington for the funeral.

ATTEMPT TO CONFUSE

Mr. Herter the United States Secretary of State, during the past fortnight, has attempted to depict the Russian Government as the aggressor in the Suez Canal War. These charges were laid, he said, in order to confuse the public mind.

Mr. Herter's statements were in direct contradiction of the Federal Republic notices of the other side.

MISSION WORKER IN INQUIRY TEAM

CANON T. F. C. BEWES, a former missionary in Kenya, has been chosen as the third member of the commission which is to inquire into the activities of the four remaining Emergency detention camps in Kenya.

The two members are the Director of Prisons Administration in Britain, Mr. R. D. Paine, and the former Governor of Sierra Leone, Sir George Beresford-Stooke.

Canon Bewes, who was a missionary in Kenya between 1929 and 1948, is well known among Kikuyu and speak Kikuyu fluently. He is returning from the post of Africa Secretary of the Church Mission Society.

COVERNOR TO SEE

Decision on cuts in licence revenue

NAIROBI CITY COUNCIL is to be heard by the Governor, the Evening Star says, "at the earliest possible moment" on the proposed cuts in licence revenue. The Council is to be heard by the Governor in April by the Minister for Local Government, Mr. Havelock.

It is estimated that the cuts will mean a loss to the City Council of about £100,000 a year. The committee made its recommendation after considering a letter from the Association of Municipalities, East Africa.

The Governor is expected to be asked to show the reasons for the cuts and to suggest ways of making up the deficit. The Governor is expected to be asked to show the reasons for the cuts and to suggest ways of making up the deficit.

East African Standard

The broad picture

SINCE the morning news has been so full of the East African High Commission and the services and organizations which are proposed under its jurisdiction, it has been the subject of periodic analysis by interested writers who for reasons which are not difficult to understand have tended to concentrate their attention on the particular facts and turn their backs on the broad picture of mutual benefits.

The first point comes from the fact that the High Commission has been set up in the name of the British Government. It is not the Government of Kenya which is the subject of the High Commission's attention. It is the Government of Kenya which is the subject of the High Commission's attention. Meeting supports members' refusal to join group

A PUBLIC MEETING held on Friday evening attracted a mass of people at Nairobi General Post Office to Kenya before the meeting was held.

The resolution, which was proposed by a member of the audience, required that a General Meeting be held before the conference or that the conference be delayed until after the 1954 election. It was carried without dissent.

The meeting also passed a resolution supporting the action taken by the Kenya Elected Members of Legislative Council who have not signed the policy statement issued by the Kenya Group. This second resolution, which was also carried without dissent, stated that this meeting supports the four Members in their policy of free partnership as opposed to integration.

INTEREST BY OTHER RACES

The meeting, which was called by the Proprietary Local Government Party, was addressed by Mr. B. Roberts, Group Capt. R. B. Benge and Mr. A. T. Cullwick, the chairman of the party. Answering questions Group Capt. Briggs said he and his three colleagues had been approached by the African Elected Members in Legislative Council. Interested in their policy of free partnership as opposed to integration.

Mr. Roberts said he thought that the expression in the Kenya Group policy statement that they had jeopardized their position in the past was a mistake. He thought it was a mistake to sign the document. He said that the African Elected Members who did not sign the document were not in the group with him.

The group was not interested in delay being suggested by the African Elected Members and encouraged the British Government to give way to the African Elected Members.

Group Capt. Briggs said that the group was not interested in delay being suggested by the African Elected Members and encouraged the British Government to give way to the African Elected Members.

Financial contribution

Mr. Cullwick thought the problem was in which way to deal with the differences between the two groups. He said that the group was not interested in delay being suggested by the African Elected Members and encouraged the British Government to give way to the African Elected Members.

Minister's letter deplores disturbances

But proposals rejected

Uganda's request for proposed Constitutional talks to be held in London has been rejected today in a letter from the Minister of the Colonies, Lord Perth, to the Kabaka. Lord Perth endorses the original suggestion of the Colonial Secretary, Mr. Lennox-Boyd, that proposed discussions should be held in Uganda, and says that present disturbed conditions in Uganda are not conducive to them.

It is also announced that the Governor of Uganda, Sir Kenneth Crawford, has written to the Kabaka, Mr. Kintu, pointing out that the Kabaka's proposal on the subject of the Legislative Council has been considered and asking him either to make arrangements for the indirect election of five Uganda Members, or to instruct the Protectorate Government to arrange their direct

Local consultation needed

Lord Perth says: "I have been unable to offer Her Majesty the proposed discussions should be held in London. Her Majesty has accepted this advice."

Lord Perth also said that the British Government will be participating in its central councils, required thought and consultation.

Lord Perth had said that previous talks of the kind proposed in London had come to nothing. Any action which might have been taken from the earlier series of Constitutional discussions in London would have been abandoned. Lord Perth has also decided that Uganda should be invited to participate in the Legislative Council, but had decided instead to embark on a proposed series of discussions in an attempt to prove that such a proposal was justified.

The Minister expressed his disappointment that neither in the Kabaka's letter nor in the accompanying letter was there any comment on or reference to the final proposals of the Colonial Secretary's letter of reference in which he had said he would expect the Kabaka Government to be invited to participate in Constitutional discussions, to result in a new Ugandan representative in the Legislative Council, and to be invited to participate in the discussions which we both desire to be conducted.

Marry—and live longer

MARRIED people live longer than single, and widows and orphans are becoming less of a burden on the State, according to statistics published in New York.

The United States Department of Finance 1958 said that the average life expectancy for men at birth was 70.7 years and for women 74.7 years. The average life expectancy for men at birth was 70.7 years and for women 74.7 years.

'UNFORTUNATE SITUATION'

The letter ends: "I also believe that the present disturbed conditions in Uganda, the deplored trade boycott, and the increase in the price of foodstuffs, are not conducive to the holding of such discussions, and I trust that the Kabaka Government will therefore continue to co-operate with the Protectorate Government, and bring about the present unfortunate situation in Uganda."

Members of the Uganda Legislative Council have expressed strong objections to suggestions that the Government should grant a 10 per cent increase in the rate of 45,000,000 shillings to be paid to the 40,000 people who were affected by the drought.

DENOUNGING OF VIOLENCE

The Hon. the Minister of the Colonies, Lord Perth, has written to the Kabaka, Mr. Kintu, pointing out that the Kabaka's proposal on the subject of the Legislative Council has been considered and asking him either to make arrangements for the indirect election of five Uganda Members, or to instruct the Protectorate Government to arrange their direct

Designed to beat Budget

By BARTORIA
 Boots and shoes were affected by increased Customs duty in the Budget—no imported shoes will please our pockets a little longer.

However, our firm has made a well-known name and put on the market the best range of men's shoes designed and made entirely in Kenya.

Selected local hides, tanned at Nairobi, have been combined with heavy suspension soles, with a modest dress welt that is supposed to give protection and dry feet even in a tropical tropical atmosphere.

The price should certainly encourage anyone to buy—distillates—these shoes cost 25/- a pair.

These names have been given in the three styles mentioned in the case, and all are in deep black-on-dark leather.

WASHING UP IN THE CLOUDS

By JUNE SIMON
 WASHING UP, whether it is at the kitchen sink or several thousand feet up in the air, is still—washing up. Filling in forms, whether they be for passengers or as requisitions for boxes of liquor, is still—filling in forms.

Yet there is a lot to be said for the job which is done up in the air. The action that an air hostess performs is not so obvious for me at the front of the ship when I have to be in the second row which I watched in my progress at an airport.

Seven girls from the captain's crew at the time. All of them had given up their previous jobs in search of glamour and adventure. They told me:

CROCKERY LOAD

One from Holland had been a nurse. Another from Belgium had been looking after children in Britain—so that she could learn English and become an air hostess. An American girl had been a stewardess on a liner.

Another girl had been a music student, another had worked in a textile organization as a designer. The seventh was a former radio-guest.

No way to identify culpable individuals

ALLEGED 'ADEQUATE' charges not warranted

INSUFFICIENT evidence is available to warrant the framing of any criminal charges on the Harrier incident on May 2, the Temporary Minister for Legal Affairs, Mr. D. W. Conway, G.C., says in a written reply, issued yesterday, to a question asked by Sir Charles Markham (Ukamba).

The answer adds that the Attorney-General was satisfied that the death of the 11 Mau Mau detainees was caused by the use of force, the greater part of which was illegal.

Much evidence given at the inquest was disregarded and the evidence which was taken into account, particularly in regard to identification, was not sufficient to justify any charges.

'Shocking occurrence'

The limited amount of independent evidence was inconclusive and afforded no means of identifying individuals. "While public interest clearly requires that any person or persons who can be proved to have been criminally implicated in such a shocking and tragic occurrence should be brought to justice, it requires no less that, before any criminal charge is laid, there is available sufficient evidence which, if believed, would justify such a charge."

Cause of hunger strike

The Minister for African Affairs, Mr. Johnston, stated that in so far as the detainees at Hola were concerned, he was satisfied that they had renounced Mau Mau, and their detention was purely for the purpose of their return to their home districts for rehabilitation. He stated that the Government was not prepared to accept them, they could not be released until they had been rehabilitated. He stated that the Government was not prepared to accept them, they could not be released until they had been rehabilitated.

Inquest proceedings carefully studied

The written reply read: Following the conclusion of the inquest, the Attorney-General, with his advisers, gave careful consideration to the evidence. Whether or not the available evidence warranted preferment of criminal charges against any person or persons.

All statements given at the inquest were obtained by the Criminal Investigation Department, in full and through investigation, with such assistance as was available at the inquest, in the absence of sufficient independent evidence is available to sustain any criminal proceedings.

UNRELIABILITY OF EVIDENCE

It was concluded, however, that the evidence was insufficient to warrant the framing of any criminal charges in respect of any individual. The evidence was insufficient to warrant the framing of any criminal charges in respect of any individual.

'Treason charges'

The Solicitor-General, Mr. M. J. O'Connell, said that a total of 11 charges were preferred against the detainees. He said that the charges were treason, murder, and other offenses.

ROYAL WEDDING PLANS

The charge in plan, which was previously provided for a single day, will now be held over two days. The Royal Wedding will be held over two days.

Selwyn Lloyd to go' report amazes London

A REPORT that Mr. Selwyn Lloyd was likely to be replaced as British Foreign Secretary was the subject of widespread speculation yesterday in London and other Western capitals.

The report, by the London correspondent of The Times, suggested that Mr. Lloyd would be moved to a post carrying less strain. It added that the transfer would probably still serve months.

London political correspondents and other Western capitals, however, were sceptical and in general did not believe the report.

The Prime Minister's office, however, has a habit of making such reports, and it is not surprising that the report should have been made.

It is understood that Mr. Lloyd has been offered a post in the Home Office, but he has declined the offer.

Hollerith plus Powers-Samas plus equals I.C.T.

On January 20, International Computers and Tabulators (I.C.T. for short) became Britain's largest manufacturer and distributor of data-processing machinery.

In this Company, Hollerith has been strengthened by its association with Powers-Samas—and Powers-Samas similarly strengthened by its association with Hollerith. These two Companies established the punched-card industry in the data-processing field.

What advantages can I.C.T. fairly claim? Among others:

- The ability to make available a wider range of punched-card computing equipment.
- A pooling of the wide variety of experience—50 years for Hollerith, 40 years for Powers-Samas—in mechanizing statistical and accounting procedures and in contributing to scientific management at home and overseas.
- The more effective deployment of research and development resources.
- On the formation of I.C.T. The British Tabulating Machine Company, Limited and Powers-Samas Accounting Machines Limited pay tribute to the very large number of users of their equipment in Government, Local Authority, Industry and Commerce, at home and overseas, with whose support the Goodwill, and assures both present and prospective users that it will be at their disposal as in the past and strengthened in the future.

I.C.T. IN EAST AFRICA

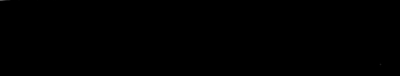

The Hollerith and Powers-Samas interests in East Africa will now be merged in the new East African Company, Hollerith (East Africa) Ltd. and Powers-Samas (Proprietary) Ltd. now form one company—International Computers and Tabulators (East Africa) Ltd. (I.C.T. for short).

PARKLANDS TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Newcomers do well

THIS Parklands lawn tennis tournament is one of the best similar in Kenya and enjoyed especially well in the year with, more specifically, a good entry for the three level events in addition to the plentiful support for the tournament. An unusual, much of the success of the tournament was attributable to the work of honorary officials.

Of the newcomers, six players from the Kenya Lawn Tennis Club, including one from the Kenya Lawn Tennis Club, were particularly successful. The winners of the singles were: Men's—J. M. (Kenya) and Women's—J. M. (Kenya).

In the mixed doubles the Kenyan pair, J. M. and J. M., were the winners. The doubles winners were: Men's—J. M. and J. M., Women's—J. M. and J. M. The consolation winners were: Men's—J. M. and J. M., Women's—J. M. and J. M.

Turn your typist into twins - give her a FACIT

And's these three when you wish your secretary had a twin sister in the office? Another gift of her efficiency and accuracy which would help you down this extra mile of mixed typing assignments?

Most likely your secretary has no twin, but the FACIT 71 typewriter does have a twin who writes as fast as you do. Not only does its "mechanical memory" store your standard letter and invoice work, it also readily takes care of in-between, ever-changing assignments.

Call for a demo today for more information.

SPIRITED REPLY TO THE INDIANS

England 'reject' in form

PETER LORIAN, one of the world's best cricketers, has made a spirited reply to the Indians' 'rejection' of his team in the first Test match at Trent Bridge, Nottingham, on Saturday. The 34-year-old Kent cricketer, who has played 111 matches for his county, said he was "glad to have been rejected" and that he would "try to do better" in the second Test match.

Deadly bowling spell
The 11 wickets for 63, including the first five, were the result of a deadly bowling spell by the English bowlers. The Indian batsmen were out for 112 runs in the first innings, and the English bowlers were praised for their "brilliant" performance.

Fastest half-century
McCool and the opener, Graham Atherton, were the fastest to reach 50 runs. McCool, with a series of powerful strokes, reached the landmark in just 17 minutes.

Around the counties
A roundup of cricket news from various counties, including reports on matches in Lancashire, Yorkshire, and Kent.

Scoreboard

MULTIGRADE'S RIGHT . . . because it's the new all-temperature engine oil

RIGHT for your engine—this free-flowing oil instantly protects your engine during the vital warm-up period.

RIGHT for your battery—Multigrade's reduced oil drag means quicker, easier starting, less drain on your battery.

RIGHT for your pocket—actual tests prove that Multigrade gives better petrol consumption — up to 15 per cent more on everyday stop-start driving.

ARE YOU A REGULAR CHANGER? Every time you change the engine oil your car gets a new lease of life. Engine-damaging dirt, dust and moisture are dislodged right away with the old oil. Cracking dust and extreme heat are the worst enemies of an efficient motor. Yet these are the very conditions that you're likely to find in East Africa. Only regular oil changes are the answer. That's why most East African car owners recommend a complete oil change around every 1,000 miles.

NOW U.S. ROYAL SUPER GRIP MASTER INCREASES LUG LIFE BY 51% for an EXTRA

Job-tested U.S. Royal Super Grip Master tread type gives greater traction in the field where it counts. They're double-braced from back with extra rubber, stopping 'lay-back' and 'step-over' increasing life by as much as 51%.

More tread grip the ground — treaded pattern cut deeper, more tread cut over only — a tread core is padded for extra riding — changing mud is pushed clean, automatically — and new high-tensile cords are laid together by special rubber to take the most severe impacts.
