ROBINA WRIGHT'S Story For Children Arabella And The Gnome

Now if you wish to speak a very few words to the little girl, you will find her very interesting. All the things she says are so full of life and spirit. She has a way of saying things that makes you want to know more about her. She is a very clever girl and she has a way of saying things that makes you want to know more about her.

When Arabella had finished her story, she looked at the little girl and said, "You are a very clever girl and you have a way of saying things that makes you want to know more about her." The little girl smiled and said, "Thank you very much, I am glad you like my story." Arabella looked at her and said, "You are a very clever girl and you have a way of saying things that makes you want to know more about her."

LOOKING BACK

THE WEEK of 1956 was a time of reflection for many people. It was a time when we looked back at the events of the past year and thought about the things that had happened. It was a time when we looked back at the things that had happened and thought about the things that had happened.

It is difficult to find just one word to describe the past 30 years. It has been a time of great change and growth. It has been a time when we have seen the world change and grow. It has been a time when we have seen the world change and grow.

£6,000,000 MORE PAID TWO YEARS EARLY FROM BRITAIN

Mr. Vasey reports on mission

'BETTER CONTROL OF SPENDING'

BRITAIN will make up to £6,000,000 available to Kenya in the 1956-57 financial year subject to the approval of Parliament on a £4,000,000 grant. Mr. Vasey, top Legislative Counsel on Tuesday night. It will consist of a £2,000,000 grant just under 60 per cent of the estimated Emergency expenditure for the year.

The Minister announced that Kenya has not had to draw on the £4,000,000 interest-free loan made by Britain for the current year because of the improved Emergency situation, buoyant revenue, and a better control of expenditure. The £2,000,000 grant for 1956-57 is the first of which £10,000,000 was a free grant. He said that by March 31, Kenya will have received £21,000,000 in assistance since the start of the Emergency, £18,000,000 as a free grant. This total did not include the £2,000,000 in assistance since the start of the Emergency, which Mr. Vasey, who returned to Nairobi from London on Monday, said that during his discussions in Britain he "found a keen understanding and sympathetic appreciation of our position."

He said that during his discussions in Britain he "found a keen understanding and sympathetic appreciation of our position."

One heartening factor of African education...

A GROWING DESIRE FOR KNOWLEDGE

A GROWING desire on the part of African parents in Nairobi to have their children visit to the Government African School at Pumfunji, where they are the only pupils attending Kibaki, the head teacher, emphasized that there were long queues of children brought along by both parents and requesting entry in January the beginning of the school year.

To keep pace with this trend, which has tremendously accelerated in the past two years, and with the improvement in the Emergency situation, the Nairobi City Education Board has planned a rapidly expanding building programme of both primary and intermediate schools. These will be well-serviced, modern buildings, designed to facilitate easy access to them when they become necessary and when materials are available.

The school recently opened a new class of 100 children, and girls of all ages all students concentrate at Pumfunji.

NETBALL FITCH
Out to the grounds pupils were vigorous, breaking ground to prepare for a new season before the school was made difficult for them. The primary section of the school, however, was able to play a few matches, while other classes were doing their best at netball. Mr. Chibani, who was instructing netball, showed the pupils which had been at the school for some time. At the netball classes, Mr. Chibani was teaching the pupils to play netball. The girls were very keen to learn the game, and they were playing netball in the school grounds.

KAPE AN ASSET
Days considerably older than the girls do not get the same attention from the country as the boys. However, there is a growing realization that the girls are also an asset to the nation.

The head teacher of the Government African School at Pumfunji, Mr. Thomas Kibaki.

Pupils sit work on furniture in the school's dining room.

They can't make up their minds about polygamy
In addition to these teachers, there are several visiting teachers from various parts of the country. The teachers are of various ages and are all well-qualified. They are all working hard to improve the standard of education in the school.

KENYA'S PROGRESS
It is not one of the visiting teachers, Miss P. V. V. Kenyan, who has the most to say about the progress of the school. She is a teacher of the school and has been in Kenya for some time. She has seen the school grow from a small school to a large school. She is proud of the progress that has been made and is confident that the school will continue to improve.

Work starts on site of Pharaoh's causeway

WORK is now starting on the site of the great ceremonial causeway along which the funeral processions of the Pharaohs of the Ptolemaic period were held.

The lower terminal of the Valley Temple, which is believed to be located down under the modern village of Farafra, will be excavated and Egyptian workers intend that the causeway will be about 400 yards long and become the main approach to the Pyramids in the present form of the Ptolemaic period.

Excavations of stone foundations with pictures of the king, which are thought to have been built at the southern end of the causeway, are being carried out by the Egyptian Government.

Ladies Doth Have The Sole Privilege...

By Raymond Brown

THOUSANDS of children every year will have only one calendar birthday every four years, and according to the ancient custom, they will have to leave the right to propose to a girl, not to a boy.

Yours really, of course, February 28 and 29 are one and the same day.

So the legal birthday of a girl is on February 29 of every four years.

No satisfactory explanation has been given as to the origin of the custom of celebrating birthdays only once in four years.

Some authorities believe that the law in 1287 giving women the right to hold property in their own right was the origin of the custom. A publicist called Charles Sumner published in 1865, within the same year, that the law was passed in 1287.

By Law...

...to turn and run away when he has to propose to a girl, not to a boy.

HOW TO STOP PAIN

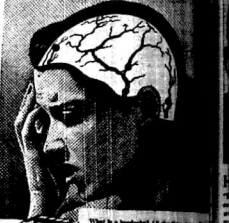

Why Phenisic is better than aspirin

All this time, scientific research is going on with the aim of finding a better pain-killer than aspirin.

The intensity of pain, for instance, can now be measured, and the effectiveness of various pain-killers has been tested.

The best-known of these substances is aspirin. Aspirin is very effective on a person's pain, but there is something better than aspirin—Phenisic.

Phenisic is a mixture of aspirin and phenacetin in the proportion of 100 parts of aspirin to 100 parts of phenacetin. It is more effective, and for longer than either one alone.

You'll never do it, they said in 1948, but—

THE MAILLES PROVED THEM ALL WRONG

By A Special Correspondent

In last Friday's edition of the East African Standard the prospectus of a new company, the Donnan Maille Theatre Ltd., was published. The company is certainly new, but Donnan Maille has become a household word wherever theatre is mentioned and discussed and that is not always so.

Seven years' hard work enterprise and expenditure have gone into the creation of the new famous company which was throughout the year in Nairobi.

What is all the Maille's? It is a frequent phrase to be met with in conversation, almost repeating, that favourable opening drama, the weather, the Maille has become a name of the over-familiarity in that the Maille has become an integral part of the landscape too much for many to know that and that's all!

LOVE OF THEATRE

No enterprise is really worth it if it stands still despite the fact that Progress is vital to the artist so as to give him the means to create. Anyone who knows Donnan Maille and the theatre...

FIGURES MOUNTING

This money will be lost if the company is not able to respond to the market. It is a fact that before the show is raised the cost of the theatre...

Flashback to 1941: Donnan and Don Maille, with their first band of early helpers, that in 1941 they had more than 500 seats to fill the Theatre. Photographed for the first time.

How can the public do this, but in fact the situation is not so simple. It is a fact that before the show is raised the cost of the theatre...

HE LEFT HOME FOR A REFUGEE CAMP

What makes a 52-year-old university lecturer, suffering from heart disease, married and father of two children, leave his £2,000 a year job and his home in East Germany for the uncertainty of a refugee camp in West Berlin?

Dr. Johannes Herwegen, Lecturer in Economics at Halle University, East Germany, is a man who has left his home in East Germany for the uncertainty of a refugee camp in West Berlin. He is a man who has left his home in East Germany for the uncertainty of a refugee camp in West Berlin.

KENYA'S Olympic hopes and aspirations received a boost this week with the arrival of Mr. Peter Kenyon, a member of the Australian House of Representatives, who is to be the Colony's liaison officer in Melbourne and whom I have seen, the choice, whether of accident or design, could not have been better than this Colony's point of view.

Several days ago the Kenyon's fortunes in Melbourne could hardly have been more auspicious. They were in the city longer than any they have put up with elsewhere. Very few members can be sure of seeing them again. They were very well welcomed and a memorable time was spent in the city. I have met a few and a hundred of them, from time to time, and I am sure that the Kenyon's will be able to do a great deal to help the Colony's interests in Melbourne and in the Commonwealth as a whole.

At Lloyd's

Mr. Howson looks remarkably well. He is a member of the M.P.'s and is a very active one. He is now in the city for a few days, and is expected to be in the city for a few days more. Mr. Howson had some extremely interesting facts to disclose about the Melbourne preparations for the Games. The Commonwealth Government is expected to spend from the amount of £2,000,000 in the city of Melbourne.
