BRITISH DEFENCE AGREEMENT WITH IRAQ Help in guarding against atom raids INSTRUCTORS FOR ARMY: R.A.F. TO WITHDRAW

BRITAIN has decided to join the Turo-Iraq Pact. This was announced in statements made in both the British and Iraqi Parliaments. The new agreement will replace the 1931 Anglo-Iraqi Treaty.

The Iraq Premier, Gen. Mufti al-Said, said that the agreement with Britain was designed mainly to give Iraq against foreign aggression, primarily atomic raids.

The pact was initiated on the Iraqi front in Baghdad by the British Ambassador, Sir Michael Wright, and the Iraqi Acting Foreign Minister, Barhamuddin Bushayyan. After the ceremony, Sir Michael called on Lord Nor and the Turkish and French Ambassadors.

In the House of Commons, the Foreign Secretary, Sir Anthony Eden, said that it had been Britain's aim to forge a new association with Iraq which would bring Iraq into line with those which already existed with Turkey and other partners in the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation.

The agreement which has now been reached with Iraq carried out that aim. It was based on the concept of equal partnership which it had been Britain's purpose to establish generally in her relations with Middle East countries.

There is provision for joint warfare and air-sea co-operation and for providing each other with facilities for mine-laying and for providing each other with facilities for mine-laying and for providing each other with facilities for mine-laying.

As part of these arrangements, the British High Commissioner in Baghdad has been approved to lead a British military mission to Iraq to assist in the re-organisation of the Iraqi Army. This mission will consist of a British military mission to Iraq to assist in the re-organisation of the Iraqi Army. This mission will consist of a British military mission to Iraq to assist in the re-organisation of the Iraqi Army.

ARMED FORCES COLLABORATION

The Government intend to proceed with implementation of the Turo-Iraq Pact. It is a long-term agreement and will be subject to ratification by the House of Commons in due course.

The central theme of the new agreement is that it should be a genuine and continuing co-operation between the two countries. It is not a one-sided arrangement. It is a partnership in which both sides have equal say.

NEW PHASE IN NAKURU RAIL PLAN

Opening of bridge and offices

THE third phase of the Railway Administration's remodeling scheme for Nakuru will be commenced tomorrow when the rail-over road bridge and the new District Offices will be opened by the Mayor of Nakuru, Crown W. H. Sawyer. The office block has cost £45,000 and will bridge together a further £15,000. With the opening of this block, access to and exit from the station will be greatly improved. The railway traffic, which has increased since the bridge was opened, will disappear.

Dual carway
Vehicles will travel on the new dual carway on either the new traffic island. One road from the island runs up past the present station, the other leads into the main street of Nakuru. The railway ends at the station and is "dead" until tomorrow.

All the work was done departmentally. Excavations for the road involved the removal of about 2,000 cubic feet of earth, which has been used to form part of the embankment for a new passenger line into the station.

The office block is the District Engineer and the District Traffic Superintendent and their offices. The building is 100 feet long, 40 feet wide and is a modern structure of reinforced concrete and steel. In many parts of England Barclays are still known as "The Farmers Bank," a title which is greatly valued. Similarly, in East Africa the Bank takes great pride in its long association with agriculture, and the branches it maintains throughout the farming districts enable it to offer neutral banking facilities to farmers of every country.

Mrs. E. Walker's Peter Pan triple champion of Kenya

A triple champion of Kenya, "Peter Pan," owned by Mrs. E. Walker is shown here. He made a name for himself on his first appearance in the show ring at the Royal Show in Nairobi in 1950, when he won the middleweight hunter class and the Collar Guardman cup for the champion hunter class.

All the present Western Kenya Shows in Embore, he won both the McMillan Challenge Cup for the "best horse in the show," and the Corbett Challenge Cup for the "best country-bred horse." He also won the three-year-old over grinding or cross class.

Start in flat racing
In addition to being a clear road and show with his stable companion, "Blower," the 17-year-old Peter Pan has also been given a new lease of life by being trained as a flat racing horse with an eye for the money than one job yet.

The many other honours "Peter Pan" started his career racing and it was while he was owned and being trained by Mr. Hugh Ellis of Nairobi, that he won four races "on the flat."

In his last 24 hours he won the three-year-old gelding and in the last 24 hours he won the three-year-old gelding and in the last 24 hours he won the three-year-old gelding.

PERFECT LUBRICATION 24 HOURS A DAY

While you play...

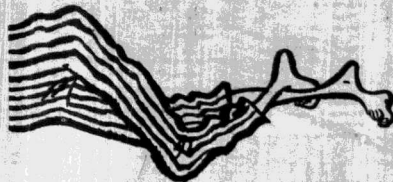

While you dine...

While you work...

While you sleep...

While you are doing any one of these things your engine is wearing away. Research scientists agree that substantial engine wear can take place when you are not even using your car.

All the time an engine is warming up and cooling down and, of course, standing idle, corrosive acids condense on the precisely finished surfaces of the engine parts and corrode them away... unless you are protecting your engine by running on Shell X-100 Motor Oil.

Shell X-100 Motor Oil has been most carefully developed to give perfect lubrication of your engine and outstanding protection twenty-four hours a day.

THE LONG LOOK COMES TO TOWN

By Dorothy Barker

WITH their beautiful smiling soft-tinged cheeks glowing in London, let you see what they say and with efficient manufacturers taking up the line with enthusiasm there is no limit to its possibilities and the things you can buy.

You can be said to be long-time back for something like the long look of hair. Since the late 1920s the idea in the hair world is not to look "short" but to have long hair with a certain look. A medium wave is a fashionable and easy to wear style.

You can come in for something like the long look even now in the long hair styles. They are simple, and a little more of a look. They are simple, and a little more of a look. They are simple, and a little more of a look.

The long hair, which is not a new look, is a new look. It is a new look. It is a new look. It is a new look.

The long hair, which is not a new look, is a new look. It is a new look. It is a new look. It is a new look.

THE LOST GENERATION

...and the women who gave them back to the world

By JOHN PREBBLE

A MONTH ago, I spent a week with a man who has had his share of adventures. The original one was about 1910, when he was a pilot tank captain and he was dropping his aeroplane from his cable car.

They only just went down, but they were not hurt. They were not hurt. They were not hurt.

There they were—the pair of them, the pair of them, the pair of them, the pair of them.

PAT HOLLANDER, now B.V.D. at Old Grinstead, told me...

There was one more thing that was very interesting. It was the fact that the man who had been in the cable car was the same man who had been in the cable car.

They were not hurt. They were not hurt. They were not hurt.

There they were—the pair of them, the pair of them, the pair of them, the pair of them.

They were not hurt. They were not hurt. They were not hurt.

SILENCE OVER THE FUTURE OF SIR WINSTON

Major victory in county polling

RESERVATIVES announced yesterday that they had won two major election victories, taking control from Labour of Essex and county councils of Essex and county councils of West Riding of Yorkshire.

The two counties were the first to go to the polls in the recent election in Essex and in the West Riding of Yorkshire.

The Conservatives' result in Essex was a landslide. The party secured 35 seats out of 45. In the West Riding, the Conservatives won 28 seats out of 45.

The Conservatives' success in Essex was due to a number of factors. The party's campaign was well organized and the party's message was clear. The party's message was that it was the only party that could bring about a change in the Government.

England's biggest win over Scotland since series began

ENGLAND routed Scotland by seven goals to two to erase the Irish Football Championship for 1956-57 from the books of English football. It was England's biggest win over Scotland since the series began in 1872, and they had not won a game since their last victory at the Hampden in 1914.

The best of the match was the reverse English outside-right, Peter Taylor, who scored three goals. He was joined by the inside-left, Billy Bremner, who scored two goals. The English also scored a goal through the back, scored by Billy Bremner.

30 p.c. PAY RISE IN DOCK A WARD AT MOMBASA

Minimum wages up Leave increased CHANGES INTRODUCED FROM MARCH 1

A PAY increase of about 30 per cent for all dock workers was announced yesterday in the award for dock employees decided by Mr. Justice Windham, arbitrator in the Mombasa dock strike dispute.

Other concessions include a high minimum wage and improved leave for regular employees and an extra payment to shift workers for handling 'dirty' cargo. All the increases are to be retroactive from March 1. Both sides are legally bound to abide by the provisions of the award under the Essential Services (Arbitration) Ordinance of 1950.

The award increases the rate of payment for casual short jobs from 5/0 to 6/30 a shift and for regular stevedore labourers from 5/0 to 7/1 a shift.

Employers had already agreed during the recent strike for an increase of 50 cents a shift. The dockers' union also agreed to a 50 per cent increase of 1/1 a shift in the case of both casual and regular labourers.

The award increases the minimum monthly wage for monthly labourers from 18/0 to 18/6. Monthly labourers were not affected by the 1951 award because of the essential services clause of the award.

'DIRTY' MONEY RATE HIGHER

A differential payment for 'dirty' work of 10 per cent was included in the award. The rate of 'dirty' work is 10 per cent higher than that of 'clean' work. This is a concession for the handling of dirty cargo, which is more dangerous and less pleasant to handle.

The award also provides for a 10 per cent increase in the rate of payment for shift workers. This is a concession for the extra effort and inconvenience of working at night.

The award also provides for a 10 per cent increase in the rate of payment for casual workers. This is a concession for the irregular hours and uncertainty of casual work.

The award also provides for a 10 per cent increase in the rate of payment for regular employees. This is a concession for the regular hours and stability of regular work.

The award also provides for a 10 per cent increase in the rate of payment for all dock workers. This is a concession for the hard and dangerous work of dock labour.

UNITED NATIONS Headquarters announced in Jerusalem yesterday that two Israeli soldiers were killed and 18 wounded, four seriously, and two Egyptian soldiers were killed and two wounded "during a violent exchange of fire" on Saturday night.

An Israeli spokesman said in Tel Aviv that an Israeli patrol carrying out routine reconnaissance in the Gaza armistice line was attacked by machine-gun fire from the Egyptian side. Israeli reinforcements were rushed to the scene, near the Nahal Oz settlement, and "killed" the Egyptian patrol, he stated.

The incident was the most serious frontier flare-up since December 29 when 20 Egyptians and an Israeli soldier were killed and 100 were wounded. The incident was the most serious frontier flare-up since December 29 when 20 Egyptians and an Israeli soldier were killed and 100 were wounded.

SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL HANDS HIS RESIGNATION TO THE QUEEN

Sovereign at Glittering Street dinner Succeeded by Sir Anthony Eden

ELECTION FOR MANDATE LIKELY ON MAY 26

SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL resigned from his office as Prime Minister of Great Britain yesterday, at the age of 80. He drew through cheering crowds to Buckingham Palace and tendered his resignation to the Queen during an audience which lasted 40 minutes.

The Queen accepted it, while expressing her regret that the man hailed as the greatest living statesman was departing from high office.

His successor as Premier and First Lord of the Treasury was Sir Anthony Eden, aged 57, the Foreign Secretary after his wartime and post-war Cabinet.

Observers in Westminster believe that Sir Winston and his cabinet will survive his resignation. He is expected to announce that he will submit his resignation to the Queen during an audience which lasted 40 minutes.

His car entered the courtyard and stopped at the last entrance. A few moments later, the man who was Britain's Premier for more than 10 years stepped out of the car and moved slowly past cheering Londoners who lined the route from Downing Street to the Palace.

MINISTERS LIKELY TO RETAIN POSTS

Sir Winston's resignation automatically resigned the Government. But his resignation is probably that of the Prime Minister only. Sir Winston will retain his posts as First Lord of the Treasury and Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

STRIKE SHROUDING RETIREMENT REPORTS

MILLIONS of Londoners, facing the prospect of a week without newspapers, were yesterday told that the strong provincial newspapers, the strongest of which were to retire.

Here's Jimmy back for the Holidays...

It's wonderful to be able to have Jimmy back with the family for every one of his school holidays. And it's easy and convenient to do this, when Jimmy is first by Safair Service. The Safair fares are low and the journey is so comfortable and relaxing that it's a pleasure to travel in the summer.

Children arrive fresh and happy

The Safair Service - 1 day from London to Kenya - is ideal for children's travel. There are two night stops, where they get out and soak up the sun and sea, and have a sound night's rest in comfortable hotel beds.

The Family Airway

Because the Safair Service is ideal for children, and because the fares are so reasonable, Airways justifies their name. Its introduction was the first step in the development of Airways travel, and it is now the logical method of Airwork's service to the public. Economic importance of the tourist industry recognised

FOUR-FOLD RISE IN COST OF AIRPORT TERMINAL

There was a four-fold increase in the cost of the terminal building at Nairobi airport, it was revealed today by the primary minister, Mr. J. M. Wanga, in a statement made in the House of Representatives.

Mr. Wanga said that the original estimate for the terminal building was £1,250,000, but the actual cost has risen to £5,000,000. He attributed this increase to the rising cost of materials and labour, and to the fact that the terminal building is now being built to a higher standard than originally planned.

He also mentioned that the Government is now considering the possibility of increasing the size of the terminal building to accommodate more passengers, and that this would involve a further increase in cost.

Mr. Wanga stressed the importance of the tourist industry to the economy of Kenya, and said that the Government was committed to improving the facilities available to tourists, in order to attract more visitors to the country.

MAKING PEOPLE MORE

Comfortable

Latex Foam, invented by Dunlop scientists as a result of their research into the properties of liquid latex, has been produced mechanically and marketed under the name "DUNLOPILLO".

Since then its use has become the basic material in making bedding such as mattresses and cushions in institutions and many other forms of furniture.

This Dunlop invention has been established for some time now to other manufacturers, thus providing the competition with a welcome challenge to the leadership of the industry in supplying this essential and ever increasing requirement to meet Dunlop's high standard of quality and performance.

Technical courses to be provided
A sum of £27,000 has been allocated to the Ministry of Education to provide technical accommodation for European children. At the same time, technical courses have to be provided, only by continuing first-rate economy in building standards and reducing prices of materials to help keep the Government in the forefront of the secondary schools.

The Government is therefore maintaining a system of day primary schools, and half day secondary schools, in Nairobi, Kisumu, Nakuru, Nyeri, Meru, Kericho, Mombasa, Malindi, Lamu, and Taita. It is also intended to set up a technical school in Nairobi.

Three new secondary schools planned
The sum allocated for African children is £1,000,000, a quarter of which will have to be spent on Government primary schools. The remainder will be used for the construction of three new secondary schools in Nairobi, Kisumu, and Malindi.

Harry Johnston's Soccer school, 30: SPURS' SWITCHES BRING RESULTS

But backing up is integral part of such scoring moves

GEORGE BOBB, ex-combat international who plays for Tottenham Hotspur, is a very difficult player to mark. He is fast, direct, and has a remarkable ability for taking up a goal-scoring position in the middle of the penalty area, where he can be most effective. Bobb, capped many times as an amateur, turned professional and has since been capped in the full international side.

His style of play fits in very well with Tottenham's tactics— as a pointed out last week— as White Hart Lane they are great believers in forwards who switch positions and meet in the goal.

Obviously no forward runs into a position against Tottenham's defence, but let us try to learn a lesson from the game we all will have to guard against when we play Spurs. This is how I have seen it done by George Bobb.

Lures the defence
He goes deep into his own half to trick a clearance from left-back Hopkins. Immediately he returns to the right wing towards the right wing, leaving the ball on the "half" side of any coming in to tackle him. Often, he will carry the ball 10 yards, coming up on the half, and then he will turn to meet the opposition with a devious in.

It would be no success in that if the other Spurs forwards were not ready to take the ball. The right-winger, Walters, backs up to take a backpass, and at once he is in position to cut under the ball and shoot.

The left-back, Baily, takes the ball, or Len Chalmers, the centre-forward, who has just received the ball. A quick cross from Walters, and it's a goal.

The vital aspect
The vital thing about a move like this is that the team with the ball is not left alone by the other team.

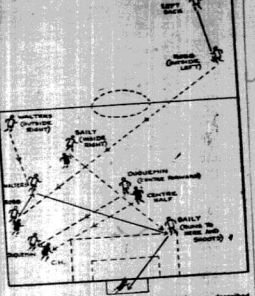

There should always be someone backing him up, to take the quick reverse pass.

This backing up is an integral part of the Spurs' tactical plan. It runs right through the team if Tottenham is in goal, he is always working in close contact with his full-backs.

His successor, Tom Brocklebank, is carrying the ball, and the other Spurs players are backing up to meet the ball.

It is Bobb to be carried on by the half-backs, always in close contact with the forward.

I like to see this style of play.

This diagram illustrates how Spurs switch positions, as described in the accompanying feature column article. Spurs always play with 11 players in black. Five black lines indicate pass while, moments in black. Five black lines indicate pass while, moments in black. Five black lines indicate pass while, moments in black. Swimming records broken in America and Holland

JACK WARDROP, the British Olympic swimmer, best his own world record for the 400 yards individual freestyle at New Haven, Connecticut, on Saturday. He clocked 4 min. 36.8 sec. compared with his former best time of 4 min. 41.7 sec. Wardrop was competing in the American Amateur Athletic Union indoor championships at New Haven.

Greg Tummel of Hungary, who has won the 200 metres freestyle at the 1928 Amsterdam Olympic games, broke his own world record in the 200 yards freestyle stroke when he clocked 2 min. 55.8 sec. at New Haven on Saturday. Tummel's previous best time was 2 min. 57.5 sec. at New Haven in 1928.

Wardrop was equal to Ford Kessels of Holland who had the world record for the 400 yards freestyle. Kessels' time was 2 min. 4 sec. Wardrop on Saturday clocked 4 min. 41.7 sec.

Holder not defending
George Brown of New York set the 200 metres freestyle world record in 1928. He clocked 2 min. 55.8 sec. There were 21 other swimmers in the field. Kessels' time was 2 min. 4 sec. Wardrop on Saturday clocked 4 min. 41.7 sec.

Charles Kessels of Holland was the world record holder for the 100 metres butterfly stroke by eight seconds. He clocked 1 min. 15 sec. compared with the world record of 1 min. 21.5 sec. set by Harry Stark of England in 1928.
