BRITAIN'S SOCIALISTS ARE JUBILANT

Successes in municipal elections

Socialists are claiming that they have dealt a heavy blow to the morale of the 31 million Churchill's Conservatives by their series of victories in local elections throughout England and Wales. Though spectacular, Labour's success is not as big as in the last year's elections when the Socialists wrested control from Conservatives in 68 councils and made a net gain of some 1,200 seats out of about 34,000 contested.

'This would be alternative'

THE Premier, Mr. Winston Churchill, has answered the question of what would be the only alternative to the present Government, would be one of "two warring Labour Parties" which would cover the same ground as the Conservative Party.

These difficult days are not the time for divided leadership," he said in a message sent Mr. David Clark, chief of the Labour Party's Executive Committee in London.

Mr. Winston, on referring to the split between the Labour Party and the Left Wing led group of Mr. Bevan, said:

Luncheon gin and Minister's wife dies

A gin of luncheon has killed Mrs. Alice Hepburn, American heiress with Mr. Harry Hopkins, Minister of State for Colonial Affairs. Later on the same day she took a dose of cholera which proved fatal.

Warning

Labour now has majority in the great cities of Manchester, Glasgow, Birmingham, Leeds and Liverpool.

Labour cities have recently elected Labour Councils. The Glasgow Council, moreover, has elected a Labour Mayor.

Mr. E. H. Bevin, Minister for Labour, has warned that the Government will not be able to carry out its programme if it loses the support of the Labour Party.

An allowance of 8% per day is payable when on a station in a province.

The duties of the post include the control of trade by means of licences, burning, etc. The suspension of trade licences for a number of days is also possible.

Applications should be addressed to the Chief Secretary, Entebbe, on June 18th.

EAST AFRICA'S STAMP FOR THE CORONATION

The Postmaster-General announced that a special coronation stamp will be on sale at all post offices in East Africa on Coronation Day, June 2. The stamp, which will be available until the end of 1953, is as long as it is wide. The existing 20-cent stamp will continue to be sold.

First Day covers are being printed and will be on sale at all post offices soon. Applications for these covers should be sent to the Postmaster-General.

As an additional service to the public, the official list of names of the first day covers will be prepared and published by the Postmaster-General.

Details should be sent by registered post to the Postmaster-General, Nairobi, as soon as possible. Lists received after May 23 will be dealt with as quickly as possible.

AUSTRALIA IS GETTING 'BACK TO THE LAND'

New territory being opened

MORE power, more irrigation water, more farms, more settlers, more food will stem from the second stage of Australia's vast Sydney Mountains scheme in the peaks of her Southern Alps. Contractors of North America, Britain and Europe will be invited to share in the newly opened territory.

The National Development Commission has decided to set up a new body to investigate the possibilities of opening up the Sydney Mountains area.

Water that has driven the power turbines will be used for irrigation. Some 2,000 acres will be irrigated and a total of £5,000,000 worth of foodstuffs.

Water that has driven the power turbines will be used for irrigation. Some 2,000 acres will be irrigated and a total of £5,000,000 worth of foodstuffs.

Almost every product is listed as surplus on local demand and this part of the scheme will give more meat and rice to eat.

Before the best of our produce can be put to use, it is necessary to increase the size of the world's largest surplus.

While Spenser was in Australia, he was accompanied by Mr. Harold G. Partridge, Minister of Agriculture, and Mr. J. G. Partridge, Minister of Agriculture.

Mr. Partridge, Minister of Agriculture, said that the Government was determined to increase the production of foodstuffs in Australia.

WE ARE STILL REBELS SAYS AFRIKANER

'Unnatural allegiance to Crown'

A MASS meeting of Afrikaners on Queen Victoria Day (June 2) was held in Grahamstown, Cape Province, to protest against the Government's policy of 'unnatural allegiance to the Crown'.

The meeting was held in the presence of Mr. J. A. Smith, former Assistant Commandant of the Cape Province, who was the main speaker.

Mr. Smith said that the Government's policy of 'unnatural allegiance to the Crown' was a betrayal of the Afrikaner people.

He said that the Government's policy was a betrayal of the Afrikaner people and that they would continue to be loyal to their own people.

Special cable to the "East African Standard" Company statements from several of the industrial giants gave stock markets plenty to think about this week.

Anglo-Franco CIP Company announced growth prospects before charging U.K. tax of just over £1,000,000, a more than £3,000,000 on the previous year's figure.

Shares slip Most of the recent trend of falling profits was repeated in the Company statement, which showed a fall in the value of the 12,000,000 shares of the company improved on this announcement.

UK trade deficit worsens

BRITAIN'S trade deficit worsened further in April, Mr. Peter Thorneycroft, President of the Board of Trade, has disclosed.

Speaking in the Industrial Conference on 10th March, he said provisional figures for the first quarter of this year of £225,000,000.

Japan may send trade mission to East Africa

GOVERNMENT and business circles in Japan are discussing the plan for dispatching a trade mission to East Africa and Singapore.

In spite of an announcement made early in April that the British Government would re-consider the Colonial Government's certain limited requests.

Not surprising Implications of these various reports will take some time to filter so it is not surprising that the industrial share market has remained depressed.

Policy for car-makers suggested

A SUGGESTION that a European motor car manufacturer should concentrate on building three types of passenger vehicle for export to Europe, was made by the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe. Such a move, it was said, would make it possible to produce a standard motor industry, and to streamline the Commission's steel industry. The idea, submitted by the United Nations, is that the steel industry should be organized into a single body, which would be responsible for the production of steel for the motor industry. The Commission's steel industry is a result of the steel industry's policy for car-makers suggested.

Problem of gold price and the dollar gap

'FINANCIAL TIMES' OPINION

THE Financial Times has said in a leader that a policy of "trade not aid" is not enough. In order to make convertibility work, says the newspaper, there must be some additional supply of dollars, whether by U.S. capital or a regular flow of U.S. capital. The article was discussing the theory that a higher price for gold would go to the dollar price towards closing the dollar gap. The newspaper analyzed a report of the "Finance of International Payments" prepared by the International Monetary Fund when it was serving temporarily as an adviser to the Research Department of the I.M.F. "This conclusion is that the world's dollar shortage is a deep-seated economic phenomenon and must unlikely to be solved by an adjustment in trade policy," the Financial Times said.

STERLING AREA'S POSITION

A PRIL was an excellent month for the sterling area, gold transactions, and the dollar gap. In April the surplus with the sterling area was $12,000,000—the best monthly surplus since 1949. The surplus had been reduced in March when Britain had to pay for a delivery of American goods amounting last October. At Britain's surplus with the sterling area was $11,000,000. This month the surplus was $12,000,000. In April the surplus with the sterling area was $12,000,000. In April the surplus with the sterling area was $12,000,000.

COCKELL IS NEW BRITISH HEAVY CHAMPION

Shocks in Harringay title bouts

'Standard' Correspondent

DON COCKELL, former Battersea blacksmith became the new British and Empire heavyweight champion clearly visible on his muscular and tanned face. He outpointed the title holder, Welshman Johnny Williams, to cause the biggest shock in British heavyweight boxing circles since Jack Gardner took the crown from Bruce Woodcock.

Not only was the result a surprise, so was Cockell's champion—the manner of it. It was said that his only hope was to catch Williams with unexpected luck, for the Welshman's speed would rule out any hope of posessing Don outpointing him.

But, despite two-frank thick lips and boxing technique that is exactly how Cockell did it. Always carrying the fight to his opponent he won nearly every round.

former championship champion for his gameness in continuing to attack, when both his eyes were practically closed, Williams has largely himself to blame for defeat.

Defending his title, he took the "defence" too literally and allowed Cockell to dictate the pace.

After a lively start, in which Cockell went for a quick knockout, Williams seemed to be waiting for him to tire. But Don kept on and it was not until the thirteenth round that the champion showed the last signs of stopping him.

Then, when Cockell, fighting with a solid left hook, Williams decided to attack and Cockell went straight to press home his temporary advantage.

At the end of the fight, although dazed and half-blind, Cockell fought him off.

Will Coronation year provide Drobny's Wimbledon?

By Peter Dutton

It seems to me that every year since the war we have heard it said: "This is the last chance for Drobny to win the men's title at Wimbledon." And now the same thing is being repeated.

KEY WORDS TO END MAU MAU TROUBLE

Colonial Secretary says: Conquer and convince

With a shrewd "win and smiling broadly," Mr. Oliver Lyttelton, Secretary of State for the Colonies, stepped from a Dakota aircraft of the East African Airways Corporation at Nairobi West Airport yesterday afternoon to be greeted by the Governor, Sir Evelyn Baring. He told the Governor he was feeling "fit and looking forward to his visit."

After leaving London Airport, reports Baring, Mr. Lyttelton had said that the key words for solving the Mau Mau problem were "conquer and convince." He said: "We must conquer the armed rebellion and we must convince by words and not only by words that there is a prosperous future for men of all races—African, Asian and British—in the Kenya of the future."

Call for plan to bridge dollar gap

"I am going out to Kenya because nothing in this country can replace personal reconnaissance. Many of these things cannot be handled by people 7,000 miles away but must be tackled by people on the spot," he declared.

His Majesty's Government will help, and will.

Doing so during the Coast service from London, Mr. Lyttelton's arrival in Nairobi was nearly four hours behind schedule.

Lord Bruce, a former Prime Minister of Australia, called yesterday for the establishment of a special committee to plan the development of Kenya's wealth resources and help to bridge the dollar-shortage gap.

Lord Bruce, chairman of the Kenya Corporation for Industrial Finance in London that day, said that the country's present position was a "crisis of opportunity."

He said that the Government should set up a special committee to plan the development of Kenya's wealth resources and help to bridge the dollar-shortage gap.

Latent resources

"I do not find the answer to the problem of the dollar shortage in the fact that we are running out of such a critical material as tin," he said.

He said that the Government should set up a special committee to plan the development of Kenya's wealth resources and help to bridge the dollar-shortage gap.

DEATH AT 76 OF LORD CROMER

Lord Cromer, the half-brother of the late Lord Curzon, died at his home in London on Wednesday.

75 Hindu pilgrims feared drowned

Seventy-five Hindu pilgrims, mostly women and children, are feared to have drowned when their boat capsized on the Ganges. The boat was wrecked near the city of Allahabad.

Jet crashes in town

A Dutch Thunderjet plane, en route to N.A.T.O., which had been in the custody of the Royal Air Force, crashed in a field near the town of Bitterton in two pieces and killed two people. Eye-witnesses said the jet was in trouble when it plummeted to earth in a huge flaming arc.

Another £1,000,000 sought to meet Emergency

MEMBER WARNS OF INQUIRY

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY, Mr. Oliver Lyttelton, on his arrival by air at Nairobi West yesterday, prepared to meet for Government business with the Governor of Kenya.

Another £1,000,000 is sought to meet the Emergency. A member of the Kenya Legislative Council has warned of an inquiry into the Government's financial position.

Mr. Lyttelton, on his arrival by air at Nairobi West yesterday, prepared to meet for Government business with the Governor of Kenya.

U.S. Senator wants British apology

SENATOR JOSEPH McCARTHY, the Republican Communist-hunter, declared yesterday that the British should apologize for the former Prime Minister, Mr. Attlee, on the American invasion of the Suez Canal.

Third instalment

The third instalment of the £1,000,000 loan to Kenya has been received by the Government.

Camp wanted

The Member said the number of people detained in the Mau Mau camps was 1,000. He said that the Government should set up a special committee to plan the development of Kenya's wealth resources and help to bridge the dollar-shortage gap.

OBE award to KAR COLONEL

Lieutenant Colonel John O. Crowder, Commander of the King's African Rifles, has been awarded the O.B.E. for his services in the Mau Mau rebellion.

The Queen's Coronation guests from abroad

Representatives from 70 foreign countries will be invited to the Queen's Coronation in London.

CIVIL SERVICE LEAVE STOPPED

Embargo on men to make more available for call-up

THE Government has deferred overseas leave for all Civil Service for a period of six months, starting from June 1. A Government circular announcing this yesterday explained that the action had been taken because the number of men who could be made available for call-up for full-time duties with the Kenya Regiment was severely limited by departmental requirements for the maintenance of essential services.

EGYPTIANS ACCUSE BRITISH TROOPS

High quality pigs

High quality pigs in Kenya is a steadily high, and in the main Large White breed, but, although there are a certain number with the Jersey and Large Black sows which are crossed with the Jersey sows. The production of either sows or pork is very high quality.

Fattening system

A feature of the throughout part of the district, during the past few years, has been the increase in the number of animals from the mixed farming areas. This is due to the fact that the mixed farming system is being carried out increasingly by rural farmers throughout the district.

Born virives

The virives of the Born have under all conditions up to a number of 1,500 feet in the highlands and in the lowlands and in the coastal areas. The virives are commonly brought in from the highlands and in the lowlands and in the coastal areas.

Few large flocks

The sheep population in the Highlands is very unevenly distributed, and has been steadily stable over recent years. There are a few large flocks confined to the higher altitudes, and a comparatively large number of small flocks of 100 to 200 sheep distributed throughout.

THE TROUP REPORT—ON BEEF, PIGS, SHEEP AND FARM MACHINERY

Proposals to multiply herds of Highlands cattle

MEASURES proposed by Mr. L. G. Troop to increase the present estimated cattle population of 500,000 by 250 per cent are given in following extracts (others appeared in last Friday's issue) from his report on Highlands agriculture.

The whole set of breeds of blood, in the introduction of blood, without any mixing of particular strains, is the main factor in the success of the programme. For example, using the famous 'Friesian' breed, the farmer can introduce two top crosses of the European breed and then to back cross to the Born bull, but the rest of the introduction of the exotic blood will depend entirely on individual circumstances of the farm.

As the question of most for export comes more into the picture, it will be worth noting that higher prices for lighter weight, well finished and younger bulls, weighing from 650 lb. to 800 lb. in carcass weight, have been obtained recently. The case of crosses with dual purpose breeds is also worth noting.

The Born, or native cattle, are most suitable to those who are engaged in beef production. They are less susceptible to the whole range of bacterial diseases, and they are more resistant to the whole range of bacterial diseases, and they are more resistant to the whole range of bacterial diseases.

There is no doubt that, at the present time, there are few large flocks confined to the higher altitudes, and a comparatively large number of small flocks of 100 to 200 sheep distributed throughout.

Chapel, funds for which have been raised by another organization in Britain, is also being built in London... The Commonwealth memorial will actually bring the total of the war's cost to £20,000,000... Wren quarrelled with the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's before he had finished his design... It was the Dean and Chapter were bound by tradition and wanted the cathedral divided in two by a "screen", an enclosure for the monks who worshipped in the choir from the nave... When found a cathedral was to be divided up in this way, the architect in his altar and canopy and over-enclosed the design.

The details leading to the ascent of the snow-capped South Cot are difficult and obscure. However, the approach to the summit always proved a success, as the 1930 expedition was situated above 20,000 ft.

By SIR PERCY WYN-HARRIS

Today has been fixed by the British Everest expedition led by Colonel Hunt for the final assault on the 29,002-foot-high pinnacle. Sir Percy was a member of the 1933 and 1936 expeditions and reached a height of 28,000 feet. Since 1949 he has been Governor of Gambia prior to which he was Governor of Native Commissioner, having served many years in the Colony's Administration.

On the new southern route, the gully can be climbed steeply although steeply. The old route was the danger of avalanches on the snow-capped South Cot.

On the new southern route, the gully can be climbed steeply although steeply. The old route was the danger of avalanches on the snow-capped South Cot.

While the climbing difficulties and hazards of the two routes are different, perhaps, concerning the first it is difficult to say whether one can climb the last 1,000 ft. even if aided by ropes.

At Camp VI There was also an afternoon in 1932 when Jack Lawrence, who was in the party, was killed by a small bear while on his way to the top of the mountain.

buildings. The National Theatre, which has already been an integral part of the life of Nairobi, is the first of these to be projected to be completed and would not have been built but for the grant which was made from the Council in 1925.

It is true that Wager and his colleagues have no part in the Council's programme in East Africa. With its small staff the Council has concentrated on the leaders or potential leaders.

Personal contact The work of the Council is carried out by personal contact and the use of a series of clinics and books are presented to the public.

THE ROLE OF THE CROWN IN BRITAIN

THE most gifted of novelists, English women make one of her characters that she found the reading of history very tedious because it was all war and men, and very little about women. We might all have some sympathy with that point of view if we were to read the history of the Middle Ages as it is written by the historians who have been employed by the Crown in those days.
