BACK TO LEAGUE 'TREADMILL'

Liverpool unlikely to be halted today

AFTER the initial hot shock of the first game, the excitement last weekend, the sides then regathered to return to the heart-breaking grind of league football. It is not that all of these encounters, that at Nottingham hold the greatest potential quota of drama.

Based on their first season after a long absence, the sides are not expected to show any great improvement, but a good number of them are five points to the good.

Forest have home ground advantage for what is a worth, but the visitors' supporters and a draw would mean a point.

In Division I the most attractive fixture is that between Liverpool and Portsmouth. Arsenal and Wolves are also in the running. United and Newcastle United, with the Preston-Spurs game, would be about as interesting.

In wildness

Armed only to win at home, for Wolves are without a victory since October 8, their eight weeks' absence in the wilderness which does not equate to one at Highgate today are surely a more realistic than are the odds against them. United should take at least a point.

Tottenham Hotspur seem capable of a point but do not seem likely to take it from Preston. Spurs are the other London club, Charlton and Fulham, are also in the running. With Charlton possibly getting points from Birmingham, a side who are not looking any brighter.

Tottenham, by virtue of their status, have been treated to a large amount of attention. Division II has been somewhat neglected, but Newcastle, who are about as good as any, are usually managed by Charlton. Arsenal are about as good as any, but their season should return from West Ham probably today, and certainly one point, if not two.

Doubtful

But Sheffield Wednesday, next in the table, do not look likely to get any points. Barnsley might be better. Sheffield United have been coming in and out of fashion, should await the Bradford-Division II fixture. Brighton, who have been mentioned, need in the first, Birmingham's return to competition, have varying fates.

YEAR'S FULL-TIME TRAINING,
SUGGESTS EUROPEAN LEADER

European youths in Kenya from the age of 17 should be required to undergo a year of training for 12 months in a unit which could be called the Second Battalion until the age of 21. The idea of the training would have the option either of joining the First Battalion of the Regiment as a volunteer or going on the active service. The form of conscription was suggested by the leader of the Kenya Youth League, Major G. Keyser, in a speech on the evening of the 3rd evening of the 11th day.

At a meeting of the Kenya Youth League, held on the evening of the 3rd evening of the 11th day, Mr. Keyser was proposing the idea of conscription. He said that the view he was expressing was not a personal one.

NO PREFERRED WEST'S PLAN

Soviet peace proposal rejected

'UNANIMOUS EXPRESSION OF OPINION AGAINST MOSCOW'

RUSSIAN proposals for a five-power peace pact, which sought to enjoin the United States and Britain for preparation of the Soviet pact, were decisively rejected by the General Assembly of the United Nations which voted against the Soviet plan and was followed by the overwhelming vote of 78 to vote the Anglo-American resolution in the 'Essentials of Peace'.

In a series of 14 votes on the clauses of the Anglo-American resolution, the Soviet pact was consistently in a minority of five. The United Nations correspondent calls the result a 'unanimous expression of world opinion voiced against the Russian proposal'.

The text of the Anglo-American resolution entitled 'Essentials of Peace' was as follows:

The General Assembly declares that the Charter of the United Nations was not intended as a basis for the preparation of international treaties, and that it is urgently necessary for all members to act in accordance with this principle on the spirit of co-operation which the United Nations has embodied.

It calls upon every nation to abstain from threatening or using force contrary to the Charter.

NAZI RUMOUR WAS FALSE

But it brought the world new drugs

Human rights and freedom from fear and oppression are the basic principles of the Charter of the United Nations. It is the duty of all States to secure these principles for all peoples in any State, and to co-operate in their maintenance.

Slight swing can end Labour's rule

AUSTRALIA Socialist-ruled for the last eight years, goes to the polls on Saturday. Some 4,700,000 voters get a new House of Representatives and a new Government. The number of seats in the House of Representatives is being increased from 75 to 82. Each State elects seven, while 18 Senators are not due to retire this year. There are 465 Representatives.

BOTH CLUTCH AT VICTORY

Hard fight for South Bradford seat

Both the Labour and Conservative parties are expected to win the South Bradford seat in the next general election. The seat is a hard fought one and has attracted the resources of both Socialists and Conservatives for the last three years.

56 'safe' seats

A 'safe' seat is one in which a party has a large margin of votes. The Labour Party has 56 such seats in the House of Commons.

KENYA KONGONIS SHARE HONOURS

Exciting finish to matches at Nanyuki

KENYA KONGONIS shared honours at their up-country visit at the weekend, losing by one wicket to Nanyuki in an exciting finish in the closing minutes, and beating Nanyuki by six wickets on Sunday.

They had at Nanyuki, the Kongonists compiled the very respectable total of 290 runs to have lost for the loss of five wickets while Nanyuki had only 115 runs. They were awarded a six and ten runs. This left Nanyuki 118 runs to get to win, but the local side succeeded in finding for the loss of three wickets and with five minutes to go.

When the last man went in, with eight minutes to go, Nanyuki were 42 runs short. Nanyuki had a brilliant victory and they were known of course, as usual, for their defence.

K. S. Bhatnagar led Davine only 11 runs in his century. A. W. Meyer and Ken George, however, who were in at 100 and 105 respectively, both scored big hundreds. George, who bore his right arm, scored very nice matches with great skill throughout the week and the day. Davine for the home side dominated the week and finished with 57/2 for 122 runs in the first innings and 60-2, 6-4, 8-3, 7-1, 5-1, 1-3 in the second. Kongonis hit off for the loss of four wickets for 232 runs. K. S. Bhatnagar scored 50 not out, and K. S. Bhatnagar was the best batsman.

BRITAIN DISLIKES UNO DECISIONS

Colonial powers may confer

REPORTING OF POLITICAL PROGRESS WILL BE RESISTED

UNO congress over the United Nations General Assembly's decision that colonial powers should submit political information to UNO on the dependent territories, is likely to lead to consultations with other colonial Governments.

France, Belgium and Holland offered particularly strong opposition to the Assembly's resolution expressing the desire that the British view as to the Assembly has been expressed in a Foreign Office spokesman pointed out in London that the United Kingdom has the right to supervise only the administration of mandated territories in the UNO.

The decision to keep in being a special committee to review the situation relating to the administration of the colonies will be resisted by the British Government, he stated.

Why vote against?

Spoken by the Labour Party, the British Government has been asked to vote against the resolution. The British Government has been asked to vote against the resolution. The British Government has been asked to vote against the resolution.

TORY OF MACKINNON RD.

Cut out of bus in under two years

Problems which faced East Africa Command in the initiation of the Mackinnon Road project and the manner in which it was carried out were described by the Chief Engineer, yesterday evening, when he gave a paper on the subject to the East African Association.

The first problem he noted was that of construction work over areas at the time of the first phase of the amount of work was estimated to be about 100,000 tons of material. The second phase of the work was estimated to be about 200,000 tons of material. The third phase of the work was estimated to be about 300,000 tons of material.

Steady build-up

The steady build-up of the East African Association's membership has been reported by the Secretary-General, who stated that the number of members had increased from 100 in 1950 to 1,000 in 1955.

IDEA WAS TO FILL MAINS FROM SEA

Dar es Salaam water appeals fail

NOW is the grip of a water shortage that is probably far worse than Nairobi has ever experienced. Dar es Salaam is taking steps to conserve what supplies are available.

Stronger measures are to be enforced. The possibility of desalination of sea water is being investigated. The Government is also considering the possibility of importing water from the Indian Ocean.

Penalties fixed

Possible penalties for those who disregard the rules include a fine and imprisonment. The Government has also announced that it will take action against those who are found to be in breach of the regulations.

Some New Powers

One of the Bill's clauses gives the Waterworks Department the right to prohibit the use of water for any specific purpose. The Bill also gives the Government the power to regulate the use of water for industrial and domestic purposes.

U.S.A. will vote against the Jerusalem plan

M.L.C.s VAILLANTRY TO CUT BUDGET

Making an 'Aunt Sally' of the Secretariat

ATTEMPTS by Unofficial Members to whittle down the Secretariat were proved unavailing yesterday when Kenne Legislative Council refused to appoint a committee of enquiry to consider the draft estimates of expenditure for 1956. A cut of £2,000 was suggested by one Member, but specific amendments to delete the vote for the Director of Establishments (£12,820) and for the 23 Assistant Clerks (£7,815) in the Establishments Division, were not accepted.

POWERFUL OXFORD HELD TO A ONE-TRY VICTORY

Light Blue pack Twickenham's heroes

SNAPPING up a loose ball in the early minutes of the game following a defensive blunder, Barry Venn the Oxford second-row forward plunged over the Cambridge line for the only score of the match in the inter-University Rugby match at Twickenham.

An all-time record crowd of some 50,000 saw the 56th match of the series.

The score through the rest of the first half was something of a surprise.

Three tries were scored by the Oxford forwards. The Cambridge forwards were unable to score.

Deserved to win

There was no doubt that the Kenya team deserved to win the match. They played a very strong game. The Kenya team deserved to win.

British judge calls for revision of law on killing

Lord Justice Denning has urged the British Government to create a new category of capital offence to be called 'surgical killing' and not to include the death sentence. He said that the death sentence should be reserved for the most heinous crimes. He said that the death sentence should be reserved for the most heinous crimes.

KENYA 'COULD HAVE CHAIN OF ROADSIDE AIRSTRIPS'

P.W.D. says it is a question of finance
MR. F. K. CAMPBELL, managing director of Messrs. Campbell Bros. and Vandervel Ltd., the Nairobi aircraft firm, has received a reply from the Director of the Public Works Department of Kenya to his suggestion that airstrips might be constructed alongside roads in the Colony, suitable for the use of light aircraft.

It will be remembered that when the P.W.D. plan to establish maintenance units every 100 miles for the upkeep of main roads was published, Mr. Campbell suggested that airstrips of 500 yards by 30 yards, suitable for light aircraft, could also be

Methylated spirits sold as a drink

An increase in the number of cases of Asiatic typhoid, a typhoid epidemic in Nairobi and the prevalence of drunks from methylated spirits were stressed when an Asian Jaeger, a Kenyan, was arrested in Nairobi for selling intoxicating liquor without a licence.

Acting Inspector A. C. Patrick had given a notice to the seller, Mr. A. J. K. Njoroge, who had been found selling methylated spirits in the Pumani district. The police said that the seller had been found selling methylated spirits in the Pumani district. The police said that the seller had been found selling methylated spirits in the Pumani district.

KENYA GOLD PRODUCTION DROPS TO A NEW LOW

Under 2,000 ounces recovered in September

Kenya's gold production again showed a sharp decline in the month of gold. Only about 1,870 unfined ounces were recovered from the 3,740 tons of ore...

The mineral production for the month was:

Education

The Education Department has issued a circular regarding the appointment of teachers to various schools in the Transvaal province.

Provinces on language basis sought

Twenty-five members of the Bombay Provincial Legislature, including the Minister of Agriculture, Mr. M. P. Path, have requested the Government to consider the possibility of forming a new province on a linguistic basis.

'Direct action' plea

The province of the name United Karnataka has been formed in the Indian States, and the Government is expected to announce the formation of this new province.

LEAGUE KING-PINS TAKE A TUMBLE

Huddersfield ends the victory run

WINTER'S grip held away over Saturday's football, but unexpected underdog conditions produced a total of surprise results. Only two championships in the English and Scottish major league matches were expected to be asked. Today's third round fixtures and by results their performance.

Settlers' early golf lead

The 12th annual Official Settlers' golf match at Nairobi yesterday. The Settlers took a well-expected lead of one match in the morning tournament.

The only surprise result was the defeat of Adams and Goodall, the Settlers pair from Nairobi, by Neil and Lawrence.

Other matches were much to everyone's surprise. The Settlers held a 2-1 lead in the morning tournament. Adams and Goodall were defeated by Neil and Lawrence.

COMMAND BOXING AT EASTLEIGH

Best bouts came toward the end of the sports event.

The boxing at Friday's E.A. Eastleigh, was like Gaul divided into three parts, the first, the best, and the indifferent.

But after a few minutes of the "humanoid" had been expected, the only surprise was the fact that the heavy man drama of the night was the fight between the two contenders.

FINAL TRIAL SHOWS UP PLENTY OF TALENT

Pack provides the big-match problem.

After Saturday's final rugby trial at the African Stadium, A. Nairobi, the East African selectors will have little difficulty choosing the backs to play against the University of Cape Town touring team which arrives in Nairobi tomorrow.

The forwards, however, are a different proposition.

Three games were played and players were swapped to get the possible combinations of backs and forwards.
