What is Scotch Whisky?

"Scotch" doesn't mean any whisky. It means whisky distilled in Scotland in the centuries-old traditional way. It is the only way to produce the character and delicacy of favour for which real "Scotch" is esteemed everywhere. You have it at its best in "Johnnie Walker". Unhappily, there is less of it to be had nowadays, than you are likely to want, so if at last you don't succeed in getting it—try again.

DAIRY RESEARCH AND THE PLACE OF HORMONES

By Trevor Williams

EVERY dairy farmer is familiar with the fact that the quality of the milk from his herd improves as soon as they go out to grass in the spring but it is only recently that the scientist has sought the underlying reasons for this improvement. They are however very well worth careful study in view of the great value of milk as a well-balanced food.

Micro-bacteria of milk is indeed water. But great food value lies in the old tests consisting of protein, fat which forms cream, and sugar. During the winter months milk becomes more watery than in summer.

It is generally held that it is through the amount of fat in the milk that the explanation might lie. The explanation might well be sound, monotonous and slow, but food appears as the main factor. But experiments have shown that the milk is more likely at the National Institute for Research in Dairying at Shinfield, Reading, where it was found that after a certain period of lactation the amount of fat in the milk was not affected by the amount of food given.

and some experiments with goats have shown a big increase in the milk yield when fed with the fat of the milk from a cow which was in milk.

It is important to note that the hormone which is used in these experiments is not the same as the hormone which is used in the treatment of diabetes. The hormone which is used in these experiments is called "prolactin" and it is produced by the pituitary gland of the brain.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HOME WITH LITTLE COST Boxes make useful furniture

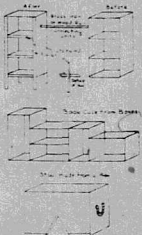

By N.M.C.

I AM writing this article in the hope that it may be of use to others like ourselves who have a very small house for a short period, and who do not want to spend a lot of money furnishing.

Having found a very tiny bundle of small achievements these days, we set about cleaning it up, distempering it and painting all the woodwork cheerful green.

Metamorphosis

After a few days' work, the general appearance of the house had changed. The kitchen and dining room were ready and waiting for us to do it all in the evening as possible, we set about the job of making the boxes useful furniture.

against the wall. This does not do any damage, with an aluminium-painted Indian spread over it, neatly pinned at the corners to square it off and hide the legs. Out of the corner of material, I made a bed for two persons, which I put up in the spare room. The bed was made of the same material as the boxes. The bed was kept, then used and in use, and was made of the same material. The bed was made of the same material as the boxes.

Many boxes... I had the boxes made of a material which was very strong and durable. I had the boxes made of a material which was very strong and durable. I had the boxes made of a material which was very strong and durable.

WEDDINGS

WEDDINGS... The wedding was held at the church. The bride and groom were accompanied by their families. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith. The reception was held at the home of the bride.

Interpreting Music I

PERFECT INTERPRETATION—CAN IT BE ACHIEVED?

THE realm of interpretation in music, and especially the realm of conducting is still very young, when as we think of the names of Mahler and Wagner who appeared about the same time as the leading conductors of their epoch, were indeed, the first conductor-interpreters. They founded a new school.

KENYA FARMERS ADVISED TO STICK TO DAIRYING

Standard Agricultural Correspondent
BACK IN Kenya for a few weeks after a lengthy absence is Mr. Geoffrey Hunter, the general manager of Dalgety's. Since he was last here Mr. Hunter has not only seen the agricultural landscape picture on a big map, he has visited Australia and New Zealand—and his impression of the Kenya economic picture is that although these are prosperous times, with the influx of both capital and population, the overall production picture may not be so promising.

Farmer better off as an example. Mr. Hunter drew attention to the fact that although production has surpassed the immediate surplus this year.

As a result of a migration explained Mr. Hunter, the Government is being driven to the conclusion that State intervention is necessary. The Government has to be seen to be doing something to help the farmer.

Good prospect

Mr. Hunter said that the Government is being driven to the conclusion that State intervention is necessary. The Government has to be seen to be doing something to help the farmer. An efficient cream separator means more cream — and extra "shillings" — if this cream is a sweets, clean, high-grade product. Only a separator that skims close cleans, washes and is sturdy built can give the farmer that extra bit of product. A new McCormick-Dove separator does all this, but surpasses all requirements in these particulars.

Whole milk touches only smooth stainless steel — no rough surfaces to provide footholds for bacteria or stocking matter. The precision perfect bowl remains in balance under constant use to "close-skin" those extra ounces of butterfat.

Musical Interpretation—II ARTISTS MUST NOT SUBMIT TO SOCIETY'S WHIMS

THE need for a great and glowing need for music today. Music is no longer a mere pastime but a deep and vital part of our life. It is the fire which warms the soul and the light which guides the way. It is the music of our time, the music of our age, the music of our people.

By Serge Koussevitzky

It is the music of our time, the music of our age, the music of our people. It is the music that speaks to the soul and that gives us a sense of purpose and direction. It is the music that we need today more than ever before. It is the music that will help us to overcome our difficulties and to build a better world for ourselves and for our children.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR LICENCES TIGHTENING CONTROL OF KENYA FORESTS

A BILL which aims at tightening control over Kenya forests was passed in the House of Representatives on January 22. The bill is the Forests (Amendment) Bill, 1947.

At the moment it was difficult to see the effect of the bill. The Government had, however, arranged for expert officers to survey the forests and to report on the end of 1948 or the beginning of 1949. It is expected that the bill will be able to tighten control over the grant of licences up to 10 years and possibly even longer. The bill also provides for the appointment of a Forest Officer in each district.

Scottish Chronicle

THE first week of the year has passed with it a sad and gloomy one for the country. The weather has been very bad and the people are feeling very depressed.

10-year licences

The bill provides for the grant of 10-year licences for the use of forests. This will allow the Government to control the use of the forests more effectively.

The bill also provides for the appointment of a Forest Officer in each district. This will allow the Government to control the use of the forests more effectively.
