EAST AFRICAN NEWS IN TABLOID

IT WAS stated this week by a reliable source that the Government of Kenya had made up its mind to negotiate the Central African scheme for the Congo on lines almost exactly similar to those employed in Southern Rhodesia. The fact that private enterprises and companies, particularly Government-owned, had been invited to the scheme in the Congo and the Kenya Central African has been a source of some interest locally. SCHEME FOR UPPER TANA REJECTED

Experts' report dashed hopes BUT ALTERNATIVES REMAIN TO BE INVESTIGATED

Standard Agricultural Correspondent

THERE is possibly no stretch of Kenya which has for so long been so perennially and so effectively barren, the report of the Government's plan and report on the Tana River basin has shown at least the extent of a colossal task. The Tana River basin, which covers an area of 400,000 square miles, is one of the largest in the world. It is a source of some interest locally. Mr. Rhodesia's attitude towards the Congo has been a source of some interest locally.
