

Verrucous carcinoma of the vulva: report of two cases managed at Kenyatta National Hospital, and literature review.

Abstract:

Two patients with histologically proven verrucous carcinoma of the vulva are presented. One patient was treated by simple vulvectomy because of inoperable growth, and the other was successfully managed by radical vulvectomy.