Condominium housing is a name given to the form of housing tenure where each resident household owns their individual unit, but equally shares ownership and responsibility for the communal areas and facilities of the building, such as hallways, heating systems, and elevators. There is no individual ownership over plots of land. All of the land on a condominium site is owned by all homeowners. Source: UN-HABITAT 2010
POWER BALANCE

KIBERA
- Government – land
- Financial – government/KENSUP
- Rents to be paid by individual families

BOLE
- Government – land
- Financial – government/GTZ
- Rents – individual families
- Ownership – government made arrangements with banks
OBSTACLES IN THE NEW SITE OF SOWETO EAST-LANGATA

- Lack of political goodwill – no honesty in selection of tenants – registration through Ministry of Planning
- Gender imbalance – only men with tenant details allowed to register
- High rents
- Relocation to Old Soweto East after the area is redeveloped
- Sharing of 3 bedroom flat with three families
- No business opportunities within compound
- Communal space dirty as managed by Ministry of Housing

SUCCESS OF CONDOMINIUMS

- Political goodwill
- Gender balance
- Lottery system
- Fair rents
- Ownership through facilitation of loans
- Studio, 1, 2 and 3 bedroom houses
- Family renting/ownership
- Business opportunities in compound
- Communal space clean as managed by owners/tenants
