

Varsity musical group aims for the sky

The University Music Group which has a large following among students and staff is set for Stardom with the recording of two of its popular numbers, Wazazi and Mwafrika. The Group came to prominence last year when it entertained the Chancellor of the University of Nairobi, His Excellency President Daniel arap Moi. As a gesture of appreciation the Chancellor, offered to buy for them Musical Instruments.

Since last year, the Group has been receiving numerous requests both from within and outside the University to perform during important occasions. When the President visited the University recently to have tea with staff and students, the Group stole the show with their captivating songs.

Talking to Varsity Focus, Mr. Paul Mwongela the Chairman of the Group, said that their success owes much to the encouragement they have got from the office of the Vice-Chancellor. He said the success of the Group proves critics wrong that University Students are only interested in their academic welfare. The Group plans to stage a big show next term when all the students are back.

Meanwhile the Nairobi University Cultural Group has finally taken off, thanks to the efforts of Mr. Michael Musyoki, the Chairman. He thanked the University administration for assisting the Group acquire equipments which will make them culturally more authentic during traditional Performances.

Stars in the making: The University Musical Group in action.