

BOOKS DONATION

THE German Research Council yesterday donated 110 textbooks worth 50,000/- to the department of veterinary anatomy of Nairobi University as the basis of the new book-reading-scheme for the department.

It was the biggest books donation by the council to any university in Black Africa, the German Embassy Press and Cultural Attache, Dr. Lutz A. Bentin said.

The programme has been worked out by Prof. Wangari Maathai, head of the veterinary department, and will be spread to the entire university.

The donation was made by the Press and Cultural Attache at the West German Embassy in Nairobi, Dr. Lutz A. Bentin, to the acting dean of the faculty of veterinary medicine, Prof. Gerald Muga.

•Dr. Bentin is pictured handing over the textbooks to Prof. Muga at Chiromo yesterday. Looking on are lecturers and students.