

Varsity students for Dar festivities

By NATION Reporter

Twenty students from the University of Nairobi will accompany President Moi to Tanzania for the country's 23rd independence anniversary celebrations.

The good news was given to the students by President Moi when he stopped near the University Halls of residence yesterday morning, on his way to Kiambu.

Addressing the students President Moi said that he would take along 20 of them to his Tanzania visit between December 8 to 10th. The students applauded the announcement.

Tanzania celebrates its independence day on December 9th.

President Moi was cheered by large crowds of jubilant wananchi who had lined up nearly the entire road from State House Nairobi to Jomo Kenyatta stadium (formerly Kirigiti stadium) in Kiambu.

The President, escorted by the Nairobi PC, Mr Fred Waiganjo arrived at the stadium soon after midday, to rousing welcome by thousands of wananchi.

Impressed by the cordial welcome, President Moi went round the stadium greeting wananchi whose thunderous echoes of Nyayo were heard some kilometre from the stadium.

He was received by the Central PC Mr David Musila who also introduced the district's MPs to the President.

The President was pleased with the choirs. He joined the Kiambu Secondary Schools mass choir whose beat of "Moi tawala Kenya tawala" was a thrill to all.

Other groups which entertained the President included Bibirioni AIC choir, Kiambu Primary Schools Mass Choir and the Kilimambogo Teachers' College. The Gatundu Nyakinyua group were also given a chance to entertain the President.