

The School of Engineering today received first years for the academic year 2014/2015. Upon registration, a weeklong orientation programme will follow in the School and the College of Architecture and Engineering and the University at large, to enable the students to acquaint themselves with the entire University.

The entire school of engineering fraternity wishes them a successful stay in the university.