

Other activities to promote oral health awareness during March 2014 included a community oral health camp in Kisii.

Over 600 patients in Kisii received screening for oral diseases in a medical/dental camp held on March 29th.

Four dental students from the School, one registrar in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Dr. Silas and a dental practitioner from Kisii level I hospital Dr. Mounce participated in this event.