

2015/2016 First year students were being taken through orientation by CAE management team.

This is one way in which the new students are being incorporated into the university family. It was a day they interacted by both the academic members of staff, administrative staff and the student union officials.