

Visit by global GSK team exploring possibilities of collaboration with the school of pharmacy in areas of research , student and staff development through exchange programmes and scholarships. A number of collaboration works were identified, and also the possibility of growing the collaboration into a college based collaboration was explored.