

The 12th Internal Quality Audit of the School of Education commenced today Wednesday 26th March 2014. The schedule outlined the various units to be audited and the scope will be on Faculty Management, Teaching and Teaching facilities among other vital components.

The audit has an objective of ascertaining continued adherence to the ISO 9001:2008 Standard, University of Nairobi Quality Management System(QMS) and its effectiveness with a view to improving the system.

The audit team will be headed by Mr Hesbon O. Odongo who will be working with Ms Anne Muia,also an auditor.

The Dean, School of Education, Professor Samson Gunga welcomed the auditors to the School as they began their task by auditing the Dean's office. The team then moved to the Department of Educational Administration and Planning.