

The Deputy Vice – Chancellor Student Affairs Prof. Isaac Mbeche, the Dean School of Business Dr. Josiah Aduda and School Of Business website champions during a courtesy visit at the School over the weekend (3rd January 2015). It has been business unusual at the largest school in the College in ensuring that the school presence is felt through back links, rich files, research and publications in order to boost the University and schools ranking.