

Members of the Department of Distance Studies during the last international literacy day celebrations that took place in Meru Technical Training Institute. The Director of Adult Education Mr. Kinara with the Ministry of Education. Permanent Secretary of Education visiting the UoN stand during the event marking the international literacy day.

