

Know Your Garden Flower

Range students during taxonomy practicals on types flowers and their structure. This is exercise which involves identification of tree and weed species with descriptive features, collection and description in the taxonomy laboratory. Under supervision of their technologist, they familiarized themselves on flower aspects such as determinate and indeterminate flower inflorescence, complete and incomplete flowers, unisexual and bisexual flowers. The samples collected from Upper Kabete, University of Nairobi.